RUGBY

Local fans are waiting for the Intercollegiate to swing into action and to see the great Queen's team in action again. It is rather doubtful if the Tricolor will repeat this season with such players as Batstone, Leadley, Thomas and others lost to the team. However, Batstone may return and take a science course. Warren Snyder is playing his last season with the Blue and White. Ralph St. Germaine will return to McGill this season.

The Interprovincial appears to be in for a big season with the champion Ottawa Senators as strong as last season. The M. A. A. A. will be much stronger with Bud Thomas and Cap Fear playing under Montreal colors.

Argonauts expect to sign Harry Batstone, but will field a strong team. Tigers will miss Quing, but a strong team will represent the Yellow and Black in the Big Four.

The Kingston City Soccer League will soon swing under way. It is expected that eight teams will answer the call. Five are certain, but the other three are doubtful. "B" Company may enter a team but small crowds of last year may change the decision of the locals. However, "I" Capt. Babcock decides to enter a team he will have lots of experienced performers to pick from, besides some raw material. Freddy Carter, Bill McLaughlin, Tom Kirby, Steve Waitson, Harry Babcock, James MacGillvray, Jim Naphin, Ambrose Kilioran, Wallace Perry, Grant Paul, Cornelius Mills, Andrew Cavanaugh, Bill Judson, Harry Clancy, J. L. Murray and perhaps C. A. Shoemaker would be glad to play for the locals. The other teams will be R. C. H. A., R. M. C. Cadets, Kingston City, R. M. C. staff, Seeley's Bay, C. I. C. (whatever that is), and the P. W. O. R.

For some unknown reason the Mercantile League game on Monday night wasn't played as scheduled. Neither "B" Company nor 86 appeared. However, the games will soon be under way again in the Armouries, and some of the postponed games will be played as part of a double-header.

It might be a good idea for the Executive of the Leafs and the Inter-Church League to get together and install five or six more lights with reflectors, as the lighting is not sufficient to allow one to follow the course of a swiftly moving ball. Also sheets of Beaver Board or some other material should be placed over the windows in the north side and two windows back of 3rd base. This would greatly help to liven up the game as one can hardly see the ball against the dark windows. The lights could be used only on softball nights and operated by a special switch, and the Beaver Board could be placed between the screen and window to insure it against injury. Or, for that matter the window could be covered with white cloth or paper which could be attached to the screen.

Napanee is shortly to lose two more fine young athletes, when Jim and Bill Carr leave for Toronto. These two young men were prominent in every branch of sport at the N.C.I., and were very popular with teachers and pupils alike. Both played for the N.C.I. and St. Mary's Juniors in the Intermediate and Junior Town Leagues respectively, and both were heralded as coming stars. Their work will be missed at N.C.I. this year, but they will doubtless make a name for themselves at Upper Canada College.

SOFTBALL

Parkdale 17, Leafs 9.

On Monday evening, in the Coliseum, Toronto, Parkdales defeated the Leafs 17-9 in an exhibition game. The Leafs were unable to play Saturday because of rain, and on Monday they played Parkdales. For six innings the locals battled away against a strange team, in front of a strange crowd and on a strange diamond, and more than held their own against the strong Parkdale team. Then the strain became too great, and the girls fell down, and Parkdale piled up the score. The locals played a wonderful game all around till the 7th and 8th, Toronto fan remarked that they were every bit as good as the Parkdale outfit, and with favourable conditions would have beaten the Toronto team. However, great credit is due to the Leafs.

TRACK AND FIELD

Already the boys at the Collegiate are training for the Athletic Meet to be held in Kingston shortly. All are working hard and expect to figure largely in the doings at the Queen's stadium. The girls are in fine shape as is the track, and doubtless the local athletes will make a good showing. The Field Day at the Collegiate will be held much earlier this year so as to allow the boys to get ready for the Rugby season. Doubtless the Collegiate will carry on their annual game with Picton and Deseronto. So far the locals have the edge on the games as follows :—

With Picton, the N.C.I. have won 5 and lost 1; have scored 195 points, and have yielded but 18 points to their rivals.

With Deseronto, the N.C.I. have won 3 and lost 1. They have scored 44 points against the Yellow and Black, and have yielded 20 to the western High School team. These games have been going on for the past three years, and no doubt the locals are waiting anxiously for the time to come when they can try to down their rivals again.

COMMUNITY HALL OPENING

On Wednesday evening four hundred people sat down to a banquet in the new community hall at Enterprise, and after justice had been done to the abundant tasty eatables provided by the ladies, an excellent programme of music and addresses was carried out.

Dr. Morden, of Napanee, was Chairman.

F. C. Hart, of Toronto, who inspected the hall and approved of a Government grant towards the cost of building, stated that the hall was perfect in every detail.

W. Bert Roadhouse, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, in an inspiring address, formally opened the hall and dedicated it to the purposes for which it had been built.

Addresses were also given by W. D. Black, M.P.P., W. S. Herrington, and J. Laughland, who announced that courses in Agriculture for men and domestic science for women would be conducted in Enterprise during the month of February.

Other numbers on the programme greatly enjoyed, were readings by Mrs. Powell, and vocal solos by local talent—Mrs. Ray Covert, Mrs. E. R. Wilson, Miss Freda Wagar, and Mr. Geo. Giles; a duet by Elwood Fisher and Cecil Reid, and a vocal solo by Miss Marjory Gale, of Cobourg. The Orchestra, consisting of Messrs. Ballard, Powell and Wagar, and Miss Wagar, greatly added to the enjoyment of the evening.

The hall is a distinct credit to the people of Enterprise district, who realized its need and did such an excellent job in constructing the building.

The Napanee Branch of the Women's Institute held their September meeting on Second Tuesday of the month, in the Agricultural Class Room. An attendance of fifty were present at this first meeting of the season and showed keen interest in the business discussed. This Society hopes to live up to its motto in being a benefit to the community and wield influence for good.

The address of the afternoon was given by Mr. Shoemaker, B.S.A., of the Experimental staff, on "Growing and Planting of Bulbs". The subject was dealt with exhaustively, and proved both interesting and instructive. Mr. Shoemaker spoke of the selection of bulbs, method and time of planting, temperatures for different stages of growth, varieties of tuliips marked, etc., how to eradicate bulb disease, and gave so much other useful information. The thanks of the Society is due the speaker for his splendid talk.

Of special interest was Mrs. Wagar's paper on Current Events, as there had been no meeting during preceding two months. A splendid record of world happenings.

At the October meeting Miss Ethel Preston, of the Women's Fruit Branch, will give a lecture and demonstration.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

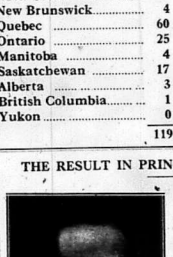
THE RESULT IN PRINCE EDWARD-LENNOX



The result in Prince Edward-Lennox was an overwhelming victory for John Hubbs and the Conservative party. The member-elect waged a clean and fair fight and increased his majority of a year ago by a couple of hundred votes. The victory is all the more creditable owing to the fact that he had such a popular and well known opponent as Mr. Horsey to fight against.

Mr. Hubbs spent the evening in Napanee and addressed the electors in the Armouries after the local returns were compiled and it was found that he was elected. Briefly he thanked his supportedS and the goodly number of Liberals who voted for him.

Following are the returns in Prince Edward-Lennox :

NEW TREATMENT FOR SMUTTY WHEAT

Ontario farmers have for years been taking heavy losses on account of growing smutty wheat. These losses in the aggregate each season will run well over one million dollars, and we have known individual farmers who have taken discounts of from 5 cents to 15 cents per bushel on from 500 bushels to 3000 bushels. If this loss were not easily preventable it would not be so bad, but the treatment given below is the latest information on this subject from the Ontario Agricultural College, and we pass it on to you in the hope that you will make use of it and save yourself the heavy discounts on Smutty Wheat.

Directions for Copper Carbonate Dust Treatment

The dust should be applied at the rate of two or three ounces per bushel of wheat. Place the grain to be treated in a barrel or churn, about a bushel at a time. Add the required amount of Copper Carbonate Dust and then revolve the barrel or churn until the dust is thoroughly mixed with the grain. After this treatment the grain may be bagged and sown at once. Machines are now on the market for applying dust rapidly to large quantities of seed.

Copper Carbonate may be secured from almost any Toronto dealer at 25c. per pound delivered, although in some places as high as $1.25 per pound is being charged.

WORK WORN PEOPLE

Find New Health by Improving Their Blood.

If you feel run down, it means that your blood is thin and watery, that your vitality is low. You do not sleep well and are tired when you rise in the morning. You find no pleasure in your meals and are listless and dispirited at your work. You have no energy to enjoy yourself.

Thousands of men are run down by anxieties of work. Thousands of women are broken down by their household toil, with tired limbs and aching backs, thousands of girls are pale, listless and without attraction. It all means the same thing—thin and watery blood, vitality run down, anaemia, poor appetite, palpitating heart, short breath.

Do not submit to this. Get new blood and with it new vitality. There is no difficulty in doing this. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up and enrich the blood, which brings with it new health and vitality. The man, woman or girl who takes Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is never run down. Their friends notice how energetic they are, what a fine appetite they have, and how much they enjoy life.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LENS

(For last week.)

The heavy rain on Saturday and Sunday was much needed. The latter part of the week the threshing machine whistle was heard once more but was held up some on account of the rain.—The school has re-opened, with Miss M. Gilmore, of Tamworth, as teacher. Several new pupils are in attendance.—A number from here attended the Toronto Exhibition. — Miss May Reid, nurse-in-training, is visiting her brothers, Messrs. Harper and Fred Reid; also renewing other acquaintances. — Mrs. S. Barrgar and daughter, Minnie, of Smiths Falls Sundayed with friends here. — Miss Helen Clark, of Hilton, returned home on Monday night, after spending some time with friends here and in Tamworth.—The Tamworth Continuation School pupils have resumed their studies again.—Mr. and Mrs. L. Campbell, Kingston, spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reid.—Arthur Reid, of Kingston, who visited friends here, also in Enterprise and Tamworth, has returned home.—Mrs. Robert Hudson of Napanee, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. L. and Mr. N. W. Reid. —Freda Fingland spent a very pleasant week with Mr. and Mrs. Ross McConnell, Sharp's Corners. — Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McLaren spent Labor Day in Kingston.—Mr. Archie Reid, Newburgh, is visiting his brothers, Messrs. John and N. Reid.—Mrs. A. Obleman and granddaughter, Miss Dolemida Winslen, spent Labour Day with friends in Yarker.

Many mothers can testify to the virtue of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, because they know from experience how useful it is.

Patient—"Does a fish diet strengthen the brain?"

Doctor—"Perhaps not; but going fishing seems to invigorate the imagination."

No need to suffer with corns, or to run the risk of paring them. Remove them surely and painlessly with Holloway's Corn Remover.

An Oil of Merit—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the healing qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

He—"I see they are publishing the statistics of all the women who have never married. Simply amazing figures."

She (rather bored)—"Yes, I expect that's the reason."

Ready-made Medicine. — You need no physician for ordinary ills when you have at hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. For coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchial troubles, it is invaluable; for scalds, burns, bruises, sprains it is unsurpassed; while for cuts, sores and the like it is an unquestionable healer. It needs no testimonial other than the use, and that will satisfy anyone as to its effectiveness.

The animals were discussing who won the war. The horse said, "I won the war, for I dragged the guns, the ammunition, and the transport."

"But," said the ox, "surely I won the war. But for me and my fully beef the war could never have been won."

"Nonsense," chimed in the ass; "I was at the War Office, and I won the war."

The Stage is Set for Robinson's Fall Fashion Revue

This unique and interesting event will be staged in the various departments of our store on Friday and Saturday, September 17th and 18th

Starting then and continuing through the following days, will be shown all that is newest in Coats, Dresses, Furs, Millinery, Silks, Woollens, Accessories and Home Furnishings for Fall and Winter.

This new Autumn Revue finds a rich background in the colorful beauty of the newly created fashions. Every phase of the Autumn mode will be set forth in authoritative costumes and artistic accessories. Especially stressing the smartest silhouettes from Paris—the clever reproductions of them as adopted by New York, as well as original creations from our own Canadian designers.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE NEW AUTUMN MODE

The very new Frocks, with their jabot draperies, pleatings, peplums and tiers.

Luxuriously lovely Street Coats, swathed in beautiful furs, richly lined and warmly inter-lined, introducing the artistic blouse-back and dolman sleeve silhouettes.

The new African Hats that pin their chic on higher crowns. Displaying any number of smaller Hats with creased crowns and rippling brims—all in velvet, felt and velour.

Elegant Furs, rich in lustrous beauty of the skins employed, splendid in becoming two-fur combinations, and all wonderfully enhanced by brilliant linings.

Triumphant materials, asserting Fashion's fondness for pile weaves for dressier Coats. Her ready approval of bold shadow plaids for street and sport garments. Her preference for velvets, moires, Crepes Satins, and Georgettes for afternoon dresses.

Accessories that are chic because they lend the final note of dash. Colors that are radiant in all the lovely hues of Autumn as seen in the flowers and in the forests. Featuring too, Black as the foremost of all authoritative Autumn colors.

Gloves, that go hand in hand with the Autumn mode, clever in one button and slip-on styles, whose colorings blend with shoes, hose, and hand-bag.

Welcome, we courteously welcome the buyers of this community to this revue of the new Autumn fashions. You'll be thrilled and interested in our gigantic collections. You'll be delighted with the opportunities presented for the purchasing of exclusive garments for your individual wardrobe.

SILLSVILLE

All roads lead to Sillsville on Monday next, where the annual School Fair will be held. The chil- dren have some very good exhibits, and no doubt Saturday will be well spent in the final preparations. The Ladies' Aid also are doing their best to make the day enjoyable, as they are serving refreshments, such as lunches, weiners, etc. This adds greatly to the day, as all the par- ents and children are on the grounds placing exhibits in the forenoon.—

Ralph Lasher, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lasher, met with a very painful and serious accident on Monday last. He had been em- ployed as one of the road gang and was at work near Enterprise. Having completed the work there, they were about to move the mach- inery to Napanee, and while coup- ling a tank wagon to the engine in some mysterious way the tongue of the wagon struck him in the chest, causing serious internal injuries. He was hurried to Kingston Gener- al Hospital at once, where he now lies in a very critical condition.

EXPECTANT MOTHERS

Read Mrs. Menard's Letter. Her Experience May Help

Chatham, Ontario.—"I want to tell you how much good your medicine has done me. Before my baby came I felt so weak and run- down that I could hardly do my work. My head ached continually and I was so dis- couraged that I could cry from morning till night. I had another baby to care for and a half old and it gave me a lot to do. So I thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as I had read so much about it in the little books. I found a difference right away as my head was relieved and my tired feelings gone. My sister had been doing my washing and she continued doing it, as she said it might set me back if I started to do it again. It sure did help me and I had taken just two bottles when my baby came. He is a fine big boy, now nearly five months old. I am taking your medicine again and I am able to do my work all by myself now. I always recommend the Vegetable Compound to women, and especially to expectant mothers, as I believe they need help at those times."— Mrs. Olive Menard, 54 Center St., Chatham, Ontario. C

NO MORE PILES

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this — an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to Pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. Wallace's Drug Store and druggists anywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATICS

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, swollen, twisted joints, and suffer intensely because your system is full of that dangerous poison that makes thousands helpless and kills thousands years before their time, then you need Rheuma, and need it now.

Start taking it to-day. Rheuma acts at once on kidneys, liver, stomach and blood, and you can sincerely exclaim: "Good riddance to bad rubbish."

Many people, the most skeptical of skeptics right in this city and in the country hereabouts, bless the day when Wallace's Drug Store and other druggists offered Rheuma to the afflicted at a small price and guaranteed money refunded if not satisfied. If you have rheumatism get a bottle of Rheuma to-day.

"Some people would kick anywhere but in a football game," snorted the restaurant proprietor in a Woolly West town. "I can't see what them epicures has got to complain about with this soup."

"They wouldn't have no grouch coming, sir," explained the waiter, tactfully, "if only the cook would admit it's soup. He says it's coffee."

Zam-Buk

ITS ROMANTIC STORY

A World Search for Rare Medicinal Herbs.

It is not commonly known that countries so far apart as China and Spain, Japan and England, and Tasmania and France have to be searched for the species of herbs used in the manufacture of that world-famed healing balm ZAM-BUK. These herbs are, many of them, rare and costly. They need to be gathered just at the right season when their juices and medicinal contents are at their very best.

Gathering medicinal herbs in Tasmania

Zam-buk is the true successor of the herbal healing balms of Ancient Rome; with this important advantage Zam-buk, in addition to its rare herbal composition, has twentieth-century medical knowledge and manufacturing skill, to bring it to a pitch of perfection, probably never equalled in the annals of healing.

The different medicinal qualities in Zam-buk are beautifully balanced. The healing side with the antiseptic; the soothing with the germicidal; it is penetrative yet not too stimulating, and has just the right lubricity for removing superficial swellings, sprains and pains.

Thus Zam-buk is a useful, reliable, and highly-concentrated, medicinal dressing always ready to instantly soothe pain; swiftly allay swelling and inflammation, expel deep-seated disease, and grow new healthy skin. Moreover, users of Zam-buk have perfect confidence which alone comes from the knowledge that it is a refined herbal preparation and not an artificial ointment composed of pore-clogging fats and crude drugs.

Zam-buk is invaluable in all itching, inflamed, and diseased conditions of the skin, while its swift antiseptic healing makes it the ideal first-aid dressing for burns, scalds, cuts, etc. It is also the soothing remedy for piles. 1/- dealers everywhere 50c the box : 3 for $1.25, or Zam-buk Co., Dupont St., Toronto.

Napanee Loses Another Athlete

On Wednesday Napanee lost one of its best hockey and baseball players, Jim Naphin is the one to leave now, and he has obtained a fine position in Belleville. Naphin came here two years ago, and was one of the most popular athletes in Napanee. He played hockey for the town team for a number of years, and was one of the best players in this district. He also was a valuable ball player and could play any position. Doubtless he will be out with the Belleville Intermediates, and should make the grade easily. In Naphin leaving town, Napanee loses one of the best athletes it ever had.

Bridal Shower.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Duane R. Hall entertained at Bridge in honor of one of the October brides, Miss Mildred Johnston. The guests were the intimate friends and relatives of the bride-elect, who received with her hostess, in a blue crepe with grey and a smart silver toque. The tea table was done in pale pink and white, with a bridal arch of everlastings and ferns, with a tiny bridal procession passing beneath it. A ship of fortune, loaded with lovely surprises, was presented to the guest of honor at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Hall was assisted at the tea hour by Miss Clara Johnston, who poured tea, and the Misses Mildred Brown and Betty Smith, who served dainty pink ices and cakes.

Harvest Thanksgiving Services.

The Harvest Thanksgiving Services held in the Parish of Bath, on Sunday, September 12th, were all well attended. The churches were all beautifully and appropriately decorated for the occasion. The Rev. W. Hylliard Smith, Chaplain of the Penitentiary, preached most impressive sermons at all three appointments. At St. John's, Bath, the Vested Choir rendered the service with marked precision and smoothness. The preacher warmly congratulated the Rector and congregation on their many marked achievements of the past year for which they should be thankful. The Rector, Rev. W. G. Swayne, and congregation of St. John's Church, Bath, have recently been the recipients of the gift of vestments for the choir, the benefactor being Mr. Nelson Booth, of New York.

Social Event.

A "Welcome Home" party was given on Thursday of last week at the home of Miss Mildred Brown, in honor of Miss Margaret Daly, who has just returned from abroad. The guest of honor wore a French blue embroidered crepe gown, with a felt hat to match. The guests played Bridge until five o'clock, when tea was served in a beautifully decorated dining room. Miss Grace Daly and Mrs. Duane R. Hall presided at the pretty tea table, which was arranged as an effective remainder of the countries from which Miss Daly has just returned. The four corners bore the shields of France, Italy, Belgium and England, with silk flags and streamers draped to the centre, where a bowl of lovely red, white and blue posies surrounded by lighted candles of red, white and blue, representing Canada and Home. When tea was served, a guest prize was presented to Miss Daly.

SOFTBALL

When it comes to grit, the girls can show the way to a good many boys, as was evidenced by a great show of pluck by one of the Leafs during the last two games. The girl in question is Margaret Douglas, who played two whole games with a broken finger. When the Kingston Treasures visited the Leafs a couple of weeks ago, Margaret had her finger broken, but never mentioned a thing about it, although it hurt her badly. She played the game in Toronto and then visited a Doctor and had it set. Not till Monday evening did she say anything about it. If that isn't grit, we'd like to have somebody show us a good sample of it.

To-morrow the N.C.I. boys' Track and Field Teams will visit the Queen's Stadium and try their luck against some of the best athletes in this district. Last year the Collegiate boys made a great showing, carrying off a great number of prizes. This year the locals ought to make an even greater showing as the new age limit gives the locals a greater chance. Mr. Murray is very confident of winning quite a few events, and so are the boys. A large delegation of fans will likely make the trip.

Deseronto are very enthusiastic over their Track team and expect to carry off the lion's share of the prizes at the District Athletic meet to be held in Kingston to-morrow. In Perry, Cole and MacVicker, they have three fine sprinters, and these three will doubtless be heard from during the meet at the Richardson stadium to-morrow.

The rugby players at the N.C.I. are very anxious to get going this year and try to pay back Deseronto and Picton for losses sustained last year. The Blue and Yellow expect to have a strong team this year. As usual most of the players graduated last summer, but a few huskies have entered this fall. Mr. Shoemaker and Mr. Murray can see nothing but four victories against the Deseronto and Picton squads; and hope to perhaps arrange a couple more games. It is too bad that neither Odessa or Newburgh play rugby as both have excellent material for teams and splendid grounds to play on.

The return of Fred Bentley started the hockey bugs buzzing, and already some are lining up mythical teams for this winter. Of course, there will be the Senior and Junior Town Leagues, with perhaps a Juvenile Church League. The town team will be considerably weaker, although it is reported that Billy Houle will return. It is rumoured that Jim Naphin is slated for Belleville Intermediates, and Tom Kirby for Kingston Intermediates, but both are still here. Harold and Gerald Johnston, Ray Loucks, Skitch, Ray Huffman and Fred Huffman, Tom MacGarry, Andrew Cavanaugh, Gerald Gleeson, Harry Babcock, C. A. Shoemaker and other graduates of the Town League may line up with the Seniors.

Fred Bentley, former well-known local athlete, is back in town on his holidays. Bentley speaks highly of Iroquois Falls, his new home, and is anxious to get back. He pitched for the Falls team in the Temiskaming League, but unfortunately his team was thrown out of the league, because of an ineligible player. He also played centre half for the Falls Soccer team. Bentley arrived in time last spring to have a workout on the ice and speaks highly of the Falls teams.

WEDDING BELLS.

Woods—Myers.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers, Bridge St., on Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Marjorie Conley, was united in marriage to Mr. Stephen Volney Woods, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Woods, of Roblin. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. W. R. Taston, Pastor of Trinity United Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and looked very charming in a gown of orchid georgette, and carried a bouquet of sweet heart roses and lily of the valley. After the wedding breakfast the bride and groom left by motor for New Haven and New York, the bride travelling in a smart ensemble costume of navy blue georgette and black satin coat with large picture hat. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Woods will reside at Roblin, and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Goodman—Goodrich.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mark's Church, Deseronto, on Wednesday, Sept. 15th, 1926, at 12.30, when Miss Daisy Goodman, of Deseronto, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert E. Goodrich, of Marmora, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elwin Radcliffe, B.C.L., Rector of St. Mark's, assisted by the surpliced choir. The church was most tastefully decorated by Mrs. Radcliffe and ladies of the Altar Guild. The bride was given away by her cousin, Mr. James Sercombe, of Toronto, Mrs. J. P. Smith, of Orillia, was matron of honour, and Mr. J. P. Smith, also of Orillia, assisted the bridegroom. The choir sang as a processional "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden", and Mrs. Fred Simmons, of Toronto, rendered "Because" in splendid voice, accompanied by the Organist, Mr. Eppes. The bride looked charming in a French poudre blue gown and hat to match. The groom looked very proud and delighted with his lovely bride as they paraded down the aisle of the church, led by the choir and Rector to the West door, to the strains of the exhilarating Wedding march. After the ceremony the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to Albany and New York City, the bride travelling in an ensemble of navy crepe romaine.

SOCCER FOOTBALL.

The meeting of the Kingston and District Association Football League in Kingston on Thursday night, was attended by a large delegation of enthusiasts. The officers were elected and other business transacted. The officers are :—

Hon. Pres.—Mayor T. B. Agrove, Kingston.

Hon. Vice Pres.—Gen. Elmsley, Brig. Gen. Ross, Col. C. F. Constantine, Col. Elkins, Gen. A. E. Ross, A. N. Steacy, W. R. Givens, W. Casey, W. Harty, H. Milne, H. Richardson, W. R. Davies.

Pres.—Capt. S. A. Lee.

Vice Pres.—I. C. Edwards.

Secty. Treas.—B. A. Mellon.

Two representatives from each team will form the Executive.

To-morrow afternoon the schedule will open, when R.M.C. Cadets meets R.M.C. P. T. Staff at R.M.C., and the R.C.A. and Davis Tannery will meet at the Cricket Field in Kingston.

"B" Company have entered a strong team in the League, as Napanee will at least be entered in one branch of sport.

A movement is on foot to form a Rugby Football League with Napanee, C. I., Deseronto H. S., Belleville H. S. and Picton C. I., forming a four-team loop. This League ought to be a success, so that teams play home and home games each fall anyhow, and a League would put more pep and interest in the games. A meeting will shortly be held in Deseronto.

The Boys' Athletic Association for 1926-7 at N.C.I. is as follows :—

Pres.—F. Ballard.

Vice Pres.—A. Wilson.

Secty.—D. Wright.

Treas.—R. Cowle.

Team Representatives — Lorne Wartman V., Claude Fraser IV., Ed. Way III.B., Leslie Merritt III.A., Durwood Conway II.B., Jack Grange II.A., G. MacGregor I.A.

Those fans who were continually knocking the Leafs all summer will have nothing to say when they learn that the supposed-to-be team in the Bay of Quinte League was snowed under an avalanche of hits and runs in Belleville on Wednesday, and were lucky to score their three runs as they earned but one marker. Toronto Nationals were the team to do the parading, and the Belleville H. S. certainly had to walk the plank. Miss Ellerby was complete master of the situation and was never in danger. The National defeated the Leafs 29-24 last spring and had to step to do it, but the Belleville squad was outclassed. The Leafs held the fast Toronto Parkdales in check for six innings, but the Belleville squad couldn't do anything against the Nationals who were a much weaker outfit than when they played here. Will those fans who did the knocking, if they are real sports, turn out and give the Leafs the support they need because they are the best softball team in this district, even though they have been defeated it. They will be in action to-night (Friday), in the Armouries, and will be a full strength, so let us turn out and give them the proper support and encouragement instead of always picking out faults.

OBITUARY

Stephen Hart

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 14th, 1926, Stephen Hart, aged 69 years, passed peacefully away at his home in Dorland. Deceased leaves to mourn his loss, three sisters, Misses Geraldine and Amanda Hart, and Mrs. Robert Cousins, and also one brother, Wilmot Hart, all of Dorland. The funeral was conducted at the home, on Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, by the Rev. Mr. Osborne officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery of the United Church of Adolphustown.

Hiram Keech.

A very prominent resident of this district passed away at his home, 288 Frontenac Street, Kingston, Friday night, in the person of Hiram Keech, aged 75 years. Deceased had been in poor health for some time past and on Friday he suffered a stroke, from which he never rallied.

The late Mr. Keech was very prominent in this section of the country. For some years he resided at Tamworth and was frequently interested in the affairs of Sheffield Township. He was at one time a Liberal candidate in Addington in the Federal House, but was defeated. He was also an ex-Warden of the Stoney Mountain Penitentiary, Manitoba. Mr. Keech was a member of the United Church. Deceased is survived by one son, Harold Keech, of Kingston, and by one daughter, Mrs. R. K. Dawson, of Winnipeg.

Mrs. Mullett.

A rare and beautiful Christian life came to a close on earth, when Mary Jane Mullett, widow of the late Sheppard Mullett, fell asleep in Jesus on Tuesday, August 24th, 1926, at her home, Morven, Ernestown Township. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Lake, and born 1874, most of her life was spent in and around the Township of Fredericksburgh and Ernestown. She joined the Methodist Church, now the United Church of Canada, very early in life, and proved herself to be a loyal member. In the year 1897 she was united in marriage to Mr. Sheppard Mullett, and their married life was of a very happy character until the year 1911, when Mr. Mullett was called quite suddenly by death to his Heavenly home. In this trying hour Mrs. Mullett found great comfort in her many friends, especially in the "I will not leave you comfortless". Her sorrow served only to bring her into still closer fellowship with her Lord. In her life she was an example to all, so humble, sincere, cheerful and willing to fulfil all righteousness, yet all her virtues were crowned with true Christian modesty. Her home was a haven of peace to all who came within its walls, and none would ever feel empty save that she was very easy to learn from her life that she in heart recognized her shortcomings to God, of body, mind and spirit. Regarding her relationship to her church it can truly be said of her always attending her years, for active interest and consecrated service she excelled.

Twenty-five years she has been an energetic member of the W. M. S. Also for some time a member of the Morven Ladies' Aid, always careful to attend and whenever possible to make some helpful contribution to the meetings. In the Sunday School she was a firm believer and maintained a lively interest in her class, and kept young in spirit, ever desiring to learn more and more of the Word of God. In addition to the above, she truly delighted in the opportunity for Christian fellowship afforded her in the class meeting.

Then again when her health and circumstance permitted, she was among the most regular attendant at the Senior Adult Bible Class prayer meetings, which in the early part of evenings in the various homes in the community.

Her attitude toward the worship of God each Sabbath was unique; she never allowed Sunday to become her own comfort or pleasure, to come before her duty to attend public worship. To her it was not duty, but a joyful necessity. Even on cold and blustery winter evenings she would be in her usual place, receiving inspiration to her pastor and fellow worshippers. Thus in her religion of duty she was the most real and blessed factor of life.

However, in July it became very evident that her physical strength was breaking down, and while everything was done that was possible to prolong her days, nevertheless, she fell asleep in Jesus and passed to her eternal reward on Tuesday, August 24th, 1926, at the age of 79 years, to be forever with the Lord. She leaves to mourn her loss her only daughter, Mrs. G. Clark, and son-in-law, George; and two brothers, Charles and Frank Lake.

WEDDING BELLS

Bell—Smithback.

Miss Helen Stockwell Bell, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. Fraser Bell, of Madison, Wisconsin, and Mr. John H. Smithback, son of Oscar E. Smithback, of Madison, were united in marriage at the Plymouth Congregational Church, on Saturday, Sept. 18th, by the father of the bride officiating.

A large congregation had gathered to witness the marriage, and at 3 o'clock the bride and groom, unattended, marched to the altar to the strains of Lorengrin's Wedding March, played on the pipe organ by Professor Arthur Vawter, choir director of the church.

After the impressive ceremony at the church the immediate relatives of the bride and groom gathered at the Manse, the bride's home, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served, after which midst showers of rice and old shoes, the happy couple left on the 5.30 train for Chicago, where they will spend their honeymoon.

(Show Day). Score 10-6 in favor of Tamworth. — Miss Milligan and Miss Bernice White left on Monday morning to attend Normal School at Toronto. — Leland Redden and Luther left on Monday to attend Normal School at Toronto. — Miss Eulalia Floyd left on Monday morning to attend Queen's University, Kingston.—Elias McKim is moving to town, and will occupy the property lately bought from the United Church.

The bride has been employed at the University General Hospital of Madison, as Secretary, for the past two years, and the groom is in the employ of the International Harvester Co., of Madison, Wis.

The many and costly wedding gifts marked the widespread popularity of the bride. The bride is a daughter of the late Minnie Hogeboom, a former Camden East girl, and an alumnae of Napanee Collegiate Institute. Rev. Mr. Bell is a former Camden boy and a graduate of Newburgh Academy and Joseph Hogeboom, of Amherst Island, are uncles of the bride.

ATHLETIC MEET IN KINGSTON

On Saturday, the District Athletic Meet was held in Kingston and brought many fine athletes to tight. All the schools of the district were represented, and the races were of a high class.

The Collegiate sent down a contingent of athletes and all made a fine showing. The Senior Public School Relay team had an easy job winning their race, but the Junior Collegiate team were not so fortunate. Jack Grange started off like a whirlwind and beat his man. Leslie Merritt then took the baton, and here Lady Jack interferred, and Merritt slipped and fell prone on the ground. However, he got up, but was too far behind to do any damage. Conway received the baton from Merritt and came in second.—Douglas Anderson received it from Conway, and after a great race was just beaten. It was a hard race for the N.C.I. to lose, especially as they had depended so much on it. That unfortunate accident to Merritt put the locals out, although they nearly snatched the race in the end. The only athlete to win was Freddy Ballard, who had a cinch in the Pole Vault, clearing the bar easily at 9 ft. 6 in. He could have done more, but his opponent could not equal his mark. Freddy gets his trip to Toronto out of it and deserves it. Douglas Anderson was the next best, with three seconds. He came second in the Junior Shot Put, Hundred Yards and the Running Broad Jump. Ted Breen secured 2nd place in the Senior High Jump, and Ralph Cowle did likewise in the Intermediate High Jump. Bill Vanduzen captured the Intermediate Pole Vault, but didn't equal last year's mark, so he doesn't get his trip to Toronto. Durwood Conway, after a hard run in the relay, came in 2nd in the Intermediate 220 yards, and Colborne Harrington scored a 2nd in the Junior 100 yards. This ends the tale of the hard run of the locals against apparently better athletes, and in all the Collegiate deserves great praise for its fine showing.

The boys who will try to win further laurels in the Provincial Championship meet in Toronto are :—

Public and Senior Boys.—Wm. Shannon, Marmora; Cecil Roy, Trenton; C. A. Lyca, Trenton; Napanee Boy.

Junior High School—Jack Webster, Deseronto; Earl Clark, Mc. Davidson, Glen Brocklyn, and Brockville Relay Team.

Intermediate High School—C. Cook Trenton; C. Galway, Belleville; C. Cole, Deserotn; F. Waugh, Kingston; A. McFee, Belleville; Brockville Relay.

Senior High School—H. Buck, Napanee; J. Drew, Kingston; F. Ballard, Napanee; M. Perry, Deseronto; F. Follwell, Belleville; R. Ross, Belleville; K.C.I. Relay.

GENEROUS GIFT OF ORGAN CHIMES TO TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

A delightful surprise awaited the congregation of Trinity United Church on Sunday last when they listened for the first time to a beautiful set of Organ Chimes.

The chimes were installed by Casavant Freres, St. Hyacinthe, Que., the most famous organ builders in the world, and were the gift of Mr. M. C. Bogart, the Clerk of the Session and the Recording Steward of the Church.

At both services, and at the recital following the evening service, Prof. Baird brought out the exquisite beauty of the chimes in such pieces as "The Angelus," "In Moonlight," "Christmas in Sicily," "Silent Night," and "The Bells of Aberdovey."

In fitting language, at the morning service, the pastor, Rev. W. R. Tanton, accepted the gift on behalf of the church, and voiced the gratitude and appreciation of the officials and the congregation.

At the Official Board meeting, which was held on Tuesday evening, the following resolution was unanimously passed by a standing vote :—

"That we, the Officials of Trinity United Church, do accept with heartfelt thanks, the splendid and generous gift of Organ Chimes recently installed in our church. Trinity appreciates the gift, not only because it will add a great deal to the beauty of the musical part of our worship, but because we know that back of the gift there is a great love for the Master's cause. We hope and pray that Mr. Bogart may long be spared to worship with us, and to listen to the message that the chimes will bring to all of us."

It was further unanimously decided by the Board to call the new set of Chimes "The Bogart Chimes".

TOWN COUNCIL

Council Chambers,
Napanee, Sept. 20th, 1926.

Council met in regular session on Monday evening, Mayor Ming presiding.

Members present—Reeve Boyes, and Councillors Roy, Dunbar, Simpson, Howitt and MacGregor.

In the absence of Mr. W. A. Grange, the office of Clerk was filled by Mr. M. P. Graham.

Councillor MacGregor reported that the pavement on East street had been completed and work was now proceeding on John street. He asked the Council as to the advisability of putting an asphalt top on the roadway on the bride crossing the river at the east end of the town, and on motion it was left in the hands of the Streets Committee to investigate, with power to act.

A petition was presented, practically fully signed, from the residents on Centre street, asking that a pavement be laid down on that street next year.

Mr. C. A. Wiseman was present in support of the above petition, and addressed the Council. He said the petition was signed by the bulk of the ratepayers on that street, and suggested that some of the preliminary work, such as sewers, etc., could be proceeded with this year and the construction work could then be finished early in 1927.

After considerable discussion it was thought advisable not to tear up that street at this season of the year, as the digging for sewers would leave the street in bad shape for winter.

The matter of the blockade of the street on Saturday nights at the corner of John and Dundas, was discussed, and on motion the Police Committee were instructed to make arrangements with the Salvation Army to hold their open air meeting on the south side of said intersection instead of on the north side, as at present.

Reeve Boyes called the attention of the Council to the condition of the road adjacent to Mr. F. B. Carscallen's property on Donald street, and on motion it was ordered that the above road be repaired one-half block south from Dundas street.

On motion the Streets Committee were asked to investigate the matter of draining Thomas street, between East and John streets.

Councillor Roy reported that he had received from Fire Chief Vanalstine a requisition for 250 feet of hose and some other minor supplies for the Fire Department, and on motion the matter of the purchase of the above supplies was referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee, with power to act.

On motion Constable Cook was granted two weeks' vacation.

Councillor Roy reported that the Parks Committee were getting things at Springside Park in good shape. Next year they would require a little money to erect a cook house, tables, etc., and Councillor MacGregor suggested a plan for raising the money during the winter months by way of entertainments.

The matter of making necessary repairs to the sludge well at the Disposal Works was left in the hands of the Town Property Committee, with power to act.

An account of $11.00 was received from Stanley Parks, the amount being due him for services on the Fire Brigade.

On motion the Council adjourned until Friday morning, Sept. 24th, at 9.30 o'clock.

When Young Girls Grow Pale and Thin

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Should Be Taken to Enrich the Blood

When girls grow weak, pale and thin, parents should not neglect these symptoms; to do so means danger. The girl in her teens cannot develop into robust womanhood without an abundant supply of rich, red blood in her veins. It is the lack of this that is the great trouble with nine girls out of ten. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have achieved world-wide fame for their remarkable blood-making properties. In these pills there is vigorous health, with glowing cheeks and sparkling eyes for every weak, pale girl. The value of the pills in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Winnifred Ruff, Barton Street West, Hamilton, Ont., who says :—"About two years ago my eldest girl got into very bad health. I took her to a doctor who advised having her tonsils removed, saying this was the seat of the trouble. We had them removed, but it did not help her, and she seemed to have absorbed so much poison from the trouble that she did not pick up at all. She could neither eat nor sleep, and what food she did take did not digest. Then she developed a cough that kept her awake at night, and went down in weight to 95 pounds. A neighbour said to me, 'You have tried so many things why not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills?' I got some and before she finished the second box she began to show improvement. She continued the use of the pills for some time and is now in the pink of condition, able to work and play, and eat and sleep with all her old-time vigor. These statements can be verified by neighbors who watched her restored from ill health to perfect health."

If your medicine dealer does not keep these pills you can get them by mail at 50c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The late Bishop of Lincoln was once the subject of an amusing misunderstanding with a little girl.

The Bishop, who had been sitting in a park, experienced some difficulty in rising from his low chair, when a very small child came to his assistance.

"Shall I help you, sir?" she asked.

"It is very kind of you, my dear," said the Bishop, much touched and a little amused.

"But do you think you are strong enough?"

"Oh, yes," she replied readily. "I have often helped my daddy when he was much drunker than you are."

As ingenuous was the krankness of a small girl who took a premature interest in matrimony.

A young minister, attracted by Sister Grace, was dining with the family. Little Sister was talking rapidly when the minister was about to ask the blessing, so, turning to the child, he said in a tone of mild severity, "Laura, I am about to ask Grace."

"Well, it's about time," answered Little Sister in an equally reproving tone. "We've been expecting you to ask her for a year, and she has, too."

There ought to be only one head to every family, exclaimed a speaker at a certain meeting.

"That's true," replied a worried, looking man in the audience.

"You agree with me, sir?" said the speaker.

"I do," replied the man. "I've just paid for hats for nine daughters."

Is Your Child Thin and Weak?

Cod Liver Extract In Sugar Coated Tablets Puts On Flesh and Builds Them Up

In just a few days—quicker than you ever dreamt of—these wonderful health building, flesh creating tablets called McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets will start to help any thin, underweight little one.

After sickness and where rickets are suspected they are especially valuable.

Most people know that from the livers of the lowly codfish, vitamines of the first class are extracted—the kind that help all feeble underweight men, women and children.

Try these wonderful tablets for 30 days and if your frail, puny child don't greatly benefit — get your money back.

A very sickly child, age 9, gained 12 pounds in 7 months.

Ask any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets—as easy to take as candy, and 60 tablets, 60 cents.

JUST A SLIP OF A GIRL

A banana peel,
A flash of hose,
A little squeal,
And down she goes.

An eloquent politician was constantly interrupted by a man in the crowd, who kept on shouting out "Liar!". After about the twentieth repetition, the speaker paused and fixed his eye on his tormenter. "If the gentleman who persists in interrupting," he said, "will be good enough to tell us his name, instead of merely shouting out his profession, I am sure we shall all be pleased to make his acquaintance."

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

Automobile Insurance

Every time your car is driven you expose yourself to a danger, which in an instant may imperil your entire financial resources.

Why take any chances? Let us issue a policy that will protect you from damage claims due to any auto accident while driving your car. You will be surprised to find out just how much these auto rates have been reduced.

A new Speed Service

-Long Distance calls while you hold the line

USERS of Long Distance are finding our new high speed service a remarkable time-saver.

On the majority of calls to distant cities, the Long Distance Operator to whom details of the call are first given, at once endeavours to establish the connection while the calling party holds the line. The result is often only a matter of seconds. A constantly increasing proportion of Long Distance traffic is being handled on this new and speedier basis.

Extensive changes in Long Distance equipment, as well as rearrangement and intensive trainifg of our staff have made this new service an accomplished fact.

Your co-operation in making careful note for future use of distant numbers you may have occasion to call is always helpful. But whether you know the distant number or not, the Long Distance Operator will do her utmost to get the party you want while you hold the line!

"Almost as speedy as a local call" is the verdict of many who have used this new and speedier Long Distance Service.

Grandpa Roach's Story

END the roach nuisance now. Flit will do it. Flit spray destroys roaches, bed bugs and ants. It searches out the cracks and crevices where they hide and breed, and destroys insects and their eggs.

Kills All Household Insects

Flit spray also clears your home in a few minutes of disease-bearing flies and mosquitoes. It is clean, safe and easy to use. Spray Flit on your garments. Flit kills moths and their larvae which eat holes. Extensive tests showed that Flit spray did not stain the most delicate fabrics.

Flit is the result of exhaustive research by expert entomologists and chemists. It is harmless to mankind. Flit has replaced the old methods because it kills all the insects—and does it quickly. Get a Flit can and sprayer today.

Address and Presentation

A very pleasant evening was spent on Monday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kerr, when St. Andrew's Orchestra and Choir gathered to present Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodcock with an electric iron, a cold meat fork and pickle fork.

Mr. A. L. MacDonald read the following address :—

Mr. and Mrs. Woodcock,—We, the members of St. Andrew's Orchestra and Choir, have gathered here this evening to spend a social hour with you who have been one of us for a number of years, and we are happy at this time to wish much prosperity and joy on your voyage on the matrimonial sea. We hope this will not necessitate a severance with the Orchestra and Choir, but trust that we may have the pleasure of your presence in the future as well as in the past with these organizations.

In wishing you every success in life, we ask you to accept this small token of esteem and friendship.

Signed in behalf of the Orchestra and Choir.

An eloquent politician was constantly interrupted by a man in the crowd, who kept on shouting out "Liar!" After about the twentieth repetition, the speaker paused and fixed his eye on his tormentor. "If the gentleman who persists in interrupting," he said, "will be good enough to tell us his name, instead of merely shouting out his profession, I am sure we shall all be pleased to make his acquaintance."

Novelty is the Keynote of Our Men's Clothing Styles

Never before has there been a showing when Suits and Overcoats have been shown in such a variety of shades and patterns as we are offering for Fall and Winter.

In Suits, the outstanding style is the coat with wide, soft rolled lapels, slightly form-fitting at the waist, and snug-fitting over the hips. Trousers are straight hanging and medium width.

In Overcoats, the favor seems to be divided between the garments belted at the back, and the loose coat with straight hanging back. Here, too, lapels are wider, and the whole coat slightly longer.

One of the models shown is the Chesterfield, with or without Velvet collar.

Of course, the big double-breasted Ulster will be in steady demand. A fine style has been put into these garments of ours, making them easy and roomy, with wide storm collars, cuffs on sleeves, and with or without belts on backs.

In Style, in Quality, in Value, The Robinson Co. consistently maintains their leadership as they have done for the past thirty years.

Worm Treem.

For violin resin, boil down Venice turpentine with a little water until a drop cooled on a piece of glass is of proper consistence. During the boiling cold water must be added from time to time. When sufficiently thick pour into cold water; knead well, and when cold break into pieces. Expose to sun until dry and transparent. Select the best clear brown resin, melt it in a clean basin, to nearly a boil, which will clear it of turpentine or other volatile oils. Pour in paper molds.

Changes In Modern Face.

The tendency of the modern face, according to Prof. James Keith, lecturer on anthropology at the Royal Institute, London, England, is to become wedge-shaped, with a longer, narrower and more prominent nose. Prominences above the eyes are disappearing, and the brow is becoming smooth and of an even contour. These changes in the human face, declared the scientist, are due to changes in methods of mastication from the earlier days of the human race.

Practice of Kind Words.

Just as you now play without the music and do not think what notes you strike, though once you picked them out by slow and patient toil, so if you begin of set purpose, you will learn the law of kindness in utterance so perfectly that it will be second nature to you and make more music in your life than all the songs the sweetest voice has ever sung.

Old Lady (who has been taking her time in selecting a purchase)—"But I don't think this is lamb. It looks to me like mutton."

Exasperated Butcher — "It was lamb when I first showed it to you, ma'am."

What She Wanted.

"My ideal husband," said the girl who had been reading cheap novels, "must be a strong, silent man, full of grit and able to bear the heat and burden of the day without flinching—one who will not bear a word said about me and who will not utter an unkind word himself." "What you want is a deaf and dumb coal heaver," murmured her friend.

When Tin Decays.

The most remarkable example of allotropic disintegration of metals is perhaps that of tin. The investigation has shown that the disease can only occur in a temperature not exceeding 64.5 degrees Fahrenheit. Tin decay is, therefore, most prevalent in cold climates.

Reviewing a Kindness.

If you have done a kind thing, do not spoil it by talking too much about it. The people who are all the time drawing attention to their kindness and generosity, and the sacrifices they have made, are not the ones who can expect the most sincere gratitude.

Old and Good Song.

That very well-known ditty, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," is the remains of an old crusader's song of the twelfth century. It has come down to us with many variations and inestimable verbal appendages.

Nice.

"Some girls can't reach the straps in the cars." "That's true. This morning I let a very nice little girl stand on my foot and bang onto my coat button."

Happiness Easily Attained.

Those of us who ever stop to reason or think along profitable lines know that there are "sermons in stones, books in running brooks, and good in everything" as the poet sings. We do not have to be either rich or famous to procure happiness. If we try to keep cheerful, forget our woes and "look pleasant," our narrow sphere will take on a broad and pleasing aspect. Furthermore, this view will make us see lots of good in the folks around us and many fine attractions in our home and old "home town."

Sheep Bone Toy of Small Orientals.

Without the bone of a sheep that eternal, ubiquitous playtoy of all the East, the children of Asia would be absolutely without an amusement device. Go wherever children play—Osmanlis or Kurds, Armenians or Arabs, Druses or Greeks—and you will see the sheep bone represents everything from a doll to a sword, from a pasha's horsetail ornamented standard to a British gunboat, from a mosque to a church.—Red Cross Magazine.

Cosmetic Art.

From the looks of some of the women when it turns cold, it would be a good proposition to sell different shades of powder for hot, warm, cool and cold weather. They say that they sell different shades for day and night —white for the daytime and blue for use under artificial light, so, why not for different degrees of temperature as well? However, probably some bright genius has already thought this up and patented his compound and it may not be well advertised as yet.—Grit.

Eyeless Oysters.

The oyster has a good-sized stomach, which is connected with the mouth by a short gullet; two pairs of gills for breathing, an intestine, a dark green liver, a two-chambered heart and an elementary nervous system, but is minus ears, nose and eyes. He also lacks the footlike appendage that many mollusks possess for the reason that it has no need of an organ of locomotion.

Mixing Tobacco.

The mixing of light and dark tobacco is a thing of comparatively recent date. A man from London found his pipe tobacco was nearly exhausted, so he cut up a cake of chewing tobacco and made a mixture. He continued to smoke the blend, and, meeting a friend who was in the trade, he gave him a sample, with the result that the first smoking mixture was soon before the public.

Various Alphabets.

There is quite a difference in the number of letters in the alphabets of the languages of the world. The English language contains 26 letters; the French, 23; the Italian, 20; the Spanish, 27; the German, 26; the Slavonic, 27; the Russian, 41; the Latin, 22; the Greek, 24; the Hebrew, 22; the Arabic, 28; the Persian, 32, and the Turkish, 33.

Conquer Fear.

It is an everlasting duty, the duty of being brave. Valor is still value. The first duty of a man is still that of subduing fear. We must get rid of fear; we cannot act till then. A man shall and must be valiant, he must march forward. Now and always the completeness of his victory over fear will determine how much of a man he is.

Cleaning an Umbrella.

To clean an umbrella place a tablespoonful of sugar in a basin, pour over it half a pint of water and stir till dissolved. Then open the umbrella and, starting from the ferrule, sponge each gore down to the point. Leave the umbrella open till dry.

Vegetable Wax.

A Japanese industry which has made remarkable progress in recent years is that concerned with the extraction of vegetable wax, which is coming into greater demand on foreign markets.

On Life's Journey.

I do not say we ought to be happier as we grow older, but we ought to be calmer, knowing better what life is, and looking forward to another, which we believe to be a reality though we cannot tell what it means.—Exchange.

Common Gain.

The cause of freedom is identified with the destinies of humanity, and in whatever part of the world it gains ground by and by, it will be a common gain to all those who desire it.—Kossuth.

Learn From Mistakes.

If you make a mistake don't look back at it long. Take the reason of the thing into your own mind, and then look forward. Mistakes are lessons of wisdom.—Hugh White.

An Oil That is Prized Everywhere.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was put upon the market more than one hundred over fifty years ago. It was put up to meet the wants of a small section, but as soon as its merits became known it had a whole continent for a field, and it is now known and prized throughout this continent. There is nothing equal to it.

The only honest native in Havana, declares the Havana Evening Telegram, is the proprietor of a shop in that more than fair city who has emblished his window with a sign: "Broken English Spoken".

An Oil For All Men.—The sailor, the soldier, the fisherman, the lumberman, the out-door laborer and all who are exposed to injury and the elements will find in Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil a true and faithful friend. To ease pain, relieve colds, dress wounds, subdue lumbago and overcome rheumatism, it is excellent. Therefore, it should have a place in all home medicines and be amongst those taken on a journey.

Undoubted Proof.

An eminent pianist was about to give a recital in a large hall. As the audience was filing in a man staggered up to the door and presented a ticket. "You cannot go in," said the official in charge; "you are not in a fit condition." "Didn't I pay for my ticket?" asked the man. "Isn't it in order?" "It's all right," was the reply, "but you—you are all wrong—you are intoxicated!" "Intoxicated? Of course I'm intoxicated! If I wasn't do you think I would come to a piano recital?"

Doomed to Wretchedness.

Let a man choose what condition he will, and let him accumulate around him all the goods and gratifications seemingly calculated to make him happy in it; if that man is left at any time without occupation or amusement, mid reflects on what he is, the meagerness and felicity of his present lot will not bear him up. He will turn necessarily to gloomy anticipation of the future; and unless his occupation calls him out of himself, he is inevitably wretched.—Pascal.

A Great Man.

A great man is he who chooses the right in invincible resolution, who resists the sorest temptations from within and without, who bears the heaviest burdens cheerfully, who is calmest in storms and most fearless under frowns, whose reliance on truth, on virtue, on God, is most unfaltering. I believe this greatness to be most common among the multitude, whose names are never heard.—W. E. Channing.

Keep Sweet.

Losing the temper takes all the sweet, pure feeling out of life. One may get up in the morning with a clean heart, full of song, and start out as happy as a bird, and the moment he is crossed and gives way to temper the clean feeling vanishes; and a load as heavy as lead is rolled upon the heart. Be the master of your temper and you hold the key to joy and contentment.

Whence "Dutch."

The name Dutch is derived from Dietsch, meaning the vernacular, as distinguished from Latin. It is the same word as the German Deutsch. Dutch belongs to the Frankish division of the Low German, and is closely related to the Flemish, with which it is now practically identified in its written form. The Dutch language is one of the Germanic group of dialects, and is practically the same in its structure.

Evidently No Lover of Cards.

It is very unfortunate that persons of the best sense passing hours together in shuffling and dividing a pack of pasteboards with no conversation but in different figures. Would not a man what is made up of a few gamephrases, and no other ideas but those of luck and spots be equally entitled to laugh to hear any one of his species complaining that life is short?—Addison.

A Happy Childhood A Matter of Health

Let Baby's Own Tablets Keep Your Children Well

Little children very quickly get out of sorts. By prompt treatment they can usually just as quickly be set right again. Most of their troubles arise in the first place from the stomach or bowels; that is why a good cleaning-out is the first thing prescribed by the doctor. Formerly castor oil was the means used to bring this about; now-a-days Baby's Own Tablets do the same work, but without trouble to the child. They are comfort to the little one. Children take Baby's Own Tablets happily because there is no taste and no discomfort to the little one. Children take Baby's Own Tablets happily because there is no taste and no discomfort to the little one. Children take Baby's Own Tablets happily because there is no taste and no griping after-pains follow their use.

As a specific for childhood indigestion, vomiting, constipation, colic, colds, teething pains, etc., there is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets. They never do harm and always do good. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Endurance.

Endurance, not fleetness, wins the race. Never give up. Keep pegging away even though everything looks hopeless. Many a man has failed to achieve both fortune and fame because he lost courage just as he was within reach of them. What you desire may be only one step ahead. Keep going.

Curiosities of the Calendar.

It will be found that January always begins on the same day of the week as October, and the same is true of April and July, September and December. Again February, March and November also begin on the same day of the week. This, however, is only true in years of 365 days.

Testing for All Wool.

Anybody can tell whether it is all wool or not by boiling out a little piece in a test-tube with a solution of caustic soda over an alcohol lamp. Whatever does not dissolve is not wool. This piece of chemical wisdom is propounded by the Little Journal.

The Old Story.

"I Was in a Habit Rut."

"I had always used a safety razor. I'd insert a new blade—a good enough first shave; then each shave worse. "The blade got duller and duller, until in a fret I'd throw it away and insert a new one. A constant annoyance, an expense. "I thought I'd go through life shaving this way. Ever dissatisfied. I was in a habit rut. "But now I own a Valet AutoStrop Razor. I sharpen the blade, I shave, I clean the razor, all without removing the blade. "I'd never go back to the old way."

And neither will you go back to the old way when you have used the Valet AutoStrop Razor with the automatic self-stropping feature built right into the frame of the razor. Not only does it mean a "first shave" edge every day on the same blade, it also means a quicker and smoother shave.

Just switch for awhile. See if you'd go back to the old way.

Sight Not to Be Forgotten.

When one is fortunate enough to see the line of swans etched upon the sky near sunset, a mile or more high, as has been my luck but twice in my life, one has seen something he will not soon forget.—John Burroughs, in the Atlantic.

Discovers Ice Cream Soda.

The honor of discovering ice-cream soda is generally given to Robert M. Green, who served the delicacy to the semi-centennial celebration of Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, in the summer of 1874, and advertised it at that time as something absolutely new.

Shell of Lobster.

The shell of the lobster is imbued with a black or bluish pigment, secreted by the true skin, which also gives out the calcareous matter after each molt so that lime and pigment are blended together. The pigment becomes red in water at the temperature of 112 degrees.

Wallace's Drug Store and druggists everywhere sell it with this guarantee.

He Wanted a Lot

Reginald was dining out, and under the watchful eyes of his father and mother he was behaving really well.

"Will you have a little of this icepudding, Reggie?" asked the hostess.

"No, thank you," replied Reggie.

Mother nearly gasped. Never before had her little darling refused pudding.

"Oh, come, dear!" she said, afraid he must be sickening for something. "Do have a little."

"No, thank you," said Reggie.

"Then what will you have?" asked the hostess.

"A lot, please!" replied Reggie, firmly.

Miller's Worm Powders do not need the after-help of castor oil or any purgative to complete their thoroughness, because they are thorough in themselves. One dose of them, and they will be found palatable by all children, will end the worm trouble by making the stomach and bowels untenable to the parasites. And not only this, but the powders will be certain to exert most beneficial influences in the digestive organs.

Her Interesting Experience

Buckingham, Quebec.—"I am the mother of eleven living children, and my baby is five months old. I am only 38 years old and I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and my nerves. I know of it from my sister, Dame Edouard Bellefeuille of Ramsayville. For five years I was in misery and was always ready to cry. Now I am so happy to have good health. My daughter, who is 18 years old, has also taken it and will be happy to recommend it to all who suffer."—Dame MELIAN PAQUENT, Box 414, Buckingham, Quebec.

FIRM IN PUBLIC FAVOR NOW MADE BETTER THAN EVER - - -

OVER the span of months and miles, in the hands of thousands of owners, Oldsmobile power and performance, dash and endurance, comfort and driving ease, demonstrated Oldsmobile's unchallengeable right to the new familiar phrase . . . "The car you recommend to your best friend." It asks no favors, fears no road!"

But even that could not satisfy a policy pledged to progress.

Today Oldsmobile embodies new features of known value . . . improvements of demonstrated worth. Providing even greater power, even longer life, even smoother performance; offering added driving ease and security, added qualities of luxury and comfort.

. . . the car so firm in public favor is now made better than ever.

Dual Air Cleaning In this new Oldsmobile, a master air cleaner eliminates the injurious particles from two-thirds of the air before it enters the carburetor directly—while the second, in connection with crankcase ventilation, cleans the balance of the air.

Crankcase Ventilation In all internal combustion engines water is formed by condensation. Cold engines do not burn all of it off. Fuel is starting. This water and liquid fuel pass into the crankcase and form crankcase dilution.

Excessive dilution is eliminated by crankcase ventilation. It drives off water vapor and unburned fuel that may have passed into the crankcase. Crankcase ventilation improves performance and gives longer life to the engine and oil.

Oil Filter An oil filter has been added to this Oldsmobile, protecting still more the life of the engine and the useful life of the oil. Should the filter become clogged with sediment, the lubricating system functions in the common manner. All principal parts are pressure lubricated.

Harmonic Balancer The Harmonic Balancer, developed by General Motors engineers, counteracts vibration and gives Oldsmobile a smoothness you will quickly recognize when you take the wheel.

Twin Beam Light Control Head lamps have double-filament bulbs, one filament for "bright action" and one for "dim action." On "dim action" the light is bright, but thrown at a downward angle that protects the oncoming driver and gives ample vision to the Oldsmobile driver.

Enlarged L-Head Engine Two-Way Cooling. Three-Way Pressure Lubrication, Full Automatic Spark Control, Thermostatic Air Charging Control, Tapered Dome-Shaped Combustion Chambers, High Velocity Hot-Section Manifold, Special Alloy Light Cast-Iron Pistons, Honed Cylinders, Silent Chain Drive, Balance Tires, Dunn Finish; new beauty of line and appointments in Fisher Bodies; many other features of Accepted Performance, at no increase in standard prices on GM Time Payment Plan if desired. GOLF

Despite the threatening appearance of the weather on Wednesday a party of golfers from the Belleville Club came to Napanee for a friendly game with members of the local club. Fortunately the rain kept off and the weather conditions were ideal for playing and the course was in splendid shape. The Belleville members remarked on the great improvement in the greens and the trim appearance and condition of the fairways.

HAD FINE DOGS

Some of the finest dogs in the Dog Show at the Fair Grounds at Kingston last week were those shown by H. E. Thompson, Napanee, and which were successful in winning several prizes. His German Police Dog won the special in that class. The police dog, "Pett of Wallon," was imported from England by Mr. Thompson in April, and three of its generation have been champion dogs. This wonderfully bred female is being bred to the International Champion of Toronto. Mr. Thompson also showed a small Boston terrier, which won the cup in the toy class and also took several other prizes. The dogs exhibited by Mr. Thompson attracted a great deal of attention by the many people who visited the show.

SOFTBALL

Deseronto 36, Leafs 20.

The winter softball season opened very inauspiciously for the Leafs on Thursday evening, when the Deseronto Ponies handed them a 36-20 defeat. About two hundred fans witnessed the contest, and more than made themselves heard during the battle. The Ponies piled up a lead of 8 runs in the first two innings, and the excitement was at fever heat when the Leafs scored 8 runs and knotted the count in the last of the second. Lil Wagar, Deseronto's fine pitcher, then tightened down and held the Leafs at bay for the remainder of the game, although she yielded 12 more runs. She fanned 9 batters. Dot Johnston pitched a fine game for the Leafs, but loose fielding by the team behind her didn't help any. She fanned six batsmen and deserved a better fate. Irene Embury played 1b in the absence of Margaret Douglas, whose broken finger is far from healed.

The feature of the game was the batting of Jean Genereux, Deseronto's 3rd sacker, and difficult catches by Lil Wagar and Dot Johnston. Eileen Normile also contributed two nice catches.

Hazel O'Neill and Mary Stinson did some heavy clouting, as did Marion Douglas.

The teams :—

Deseronto—V. Whitton s.s., J. Genereaux 3b., L. Wagar p., L. Hopping c., I. Normile 2b., J. Perry cf., T. Foote r.f., J. Normile 1b., P. Gaulin lf.

Napanee—I. Embury 1b., M. Douglas 1.f., M. Embury 2b., M. Stinson s.s., H. O'Neill 3b., K. Ungar c.f., M. Grass c., M. Bates r.f., D. Johnston p.

Score by innings :—

Deseronto .... 5 3 3 0 0 6 4 7 6—36
Napanee .... 0 8 0 2 4 1 0 3 2—20

Umpires—Cole, Deseronto, at plate and Fraser, Napanee, on bases.

GALA NIGHT IN ARMOURIES FRIDAY (TO-NIGHT)

To-night promises to attract a large crowd to the Armouries, when the Leafs will tackle the Belleville Beavers, and "B" Company Seniors will try to flop Jim Naphin's C.N.R.'s in a double-header softball card. The Leafs and Beavers are two of the best matched teams in this district, although the Leafs have the edge on the Belleville squad. Jim Naphin, former local athlete, who is in the employ of the C.N.R. at Belleville, will bring down a strong team and try to beat his old team-mates. The games will likely start early, and judging by the talk of the fans, a bumper crowd will be on hand.

The announcement comes from Kingston that George (Paddy) Patterson has signed to play pro hockey with Hamilton in the new Canadian Professional League this winter. He will report on November 1st. Patterson, the fans will recall, was one of the best Junior players in Canada last winter. However, some are of the opinion that his action is a little hasty, when they recall the ill-fated trials of Ganton Scott and Jerry Deniord, of Toronto. Patterson is a young man and should have his fling at senior hockey before contemplating turning pro. If he fails he is lost to hockey and all amateur sports and should carefully consider his decision and seek the advice of men who know.

A Real Asthma Relief. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has never been advertised by extravagant statements. Its claims are conservative indeed, when judged by the benefits which it performs. Expect real relief and permanent benefits when you buy this remedy and you will not have cause for disappointment. OBITUARY

Ira B. Hudgins.

On September 23rd, 1926, there passed peacefully away, at the home of his son, in his 84th year, one of this county's most widely known and highly respected citizens, in the person of the late Ira B. Hudgins. The deceased was a life-long resident of the Township of Richmond, born on the homestead where his brother now resides. Remaining home until early manhood, when he entered the teaching profession. After a successful career as a school master, he married Ann Sexsmith, who predeceased him two years ago. After his marriage he moved to the farm now occupied by his son, where he spent the remainder of his life.

The deceased was a man of outstanding character and ability. In both church and state, he held many important positions. About the year 1881 he was elected to the Council of the Township of Richmond, afterwards being elected Reeve. For a great many years he was treasurer of his native township, and always filled that position with dignity and honor.

For a number of years he was secretary and treasurer of the Selby cheese factory. Being a scholar of no small degree, his work was always correct.

For a long period of years he was director of the Lennox and Addington Fire Insurance Co., where his wise counsel and advice was always eagerly sought, his far-sightedness always proving a great asset to the Company. The late Mr. Hudgins was a life long Liberal, and always worked in the interest of the party.

All through the long years of his life the late Mr. Hudgins has been a member of the Methodist (now United Church of Canada). For twelve years he was Superintendent of the Sunday School, and a Recording steward for thirty-seven years. Being a man of exemplary Christian character, his influence was a great force in the life of the church and community, and never once has he been heard to speak harmfully of anyone. Truly a life without guile. In the latter years when his mind was weakening and at the last when he did not know his own family, he never forgot his God, even led in family prayer the morning he took his bed for the last time, three days before the end came. Surely it can truly be said he leaves an example which a king might follow, and its influence which can never die, and many is the man and woman whose start in Christian life is traceable to his Christian influence.

Besides one son and three daughters, Mr. J. C. Hudgins, at home; Mrs. James Wilson, of Strathcona; Mrs. Edward Purcell, of Colebrook, and Mrs. Effie Wilson, of Edmonton, Alberta, he leaves to mourn his loss two brothers and one sister, seventeen grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The funeral services were conducted in the United Church at Selby, by his Pastor, Rev. Mr. Batstone, assisted by a former Pastor, Rev. Mr. Anderson. Mr. Batstone preached a fitting sermon taken from 116 Psalm and 15th verse, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints". Mr. Anderson spoke feelingly of the deceased's worth in life as a Christian gentleman. In spite of the inclement weather the church was filled to capacity, a large number of his old neighbors and friends who had moved miles away, returning to pay their last respects to a man who in life was everybody's friend, whose motto in life was the golden rule, and who followed its teaching to the letter. Surely the verse which he has often been heard to repeat, "Here's my heart and here's my hand to meet you in the heavenly land," has been brought to a grand reality in the life that has just closed.

MORVEN

A large number of our people availed themselves of the privilege of hearing their former pastor, Rev. R. C. Tait, who delivered a splendid address in Trinity Church on Sept. 12th on "The Power of the Leaven." Mr. Tait left on Wednesday by motor for his home in Unity, Sask., a distance of 2,600 miles.—Mrs. Somerville, of North Battleford, Sask., is visiting friends in this locality, having been called to attend the funeral of her father, the late John Curle. — Mr. Irvine Hunter had the misfortune to break his arm, the accident being caused from cranking a friend's car.—Mrs. Fairbrothers and daughter, Gladys, of Calgary, are visiting her niece, Mrs. Robert Fisher.—Miss Mildred Milling has returned to Toronto to continue her course of training as a nurse. — Miss Bessie Henwood spent several days visiting relatives in Kingston. — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garrison spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Purdy. — Miss Asselstine, Sillsville, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clark. — Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lake are spending a short time with their son and his family in Oshawa.—Mr. and Mrs. James Hawley and family spent Sunday with her parents at Roblin. — Mr. and Mrs. A. Storey and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Storey visited friends at Verona recently. — Mr. and Mrs. George Ungar and daughter, Kathleen, spent Sunday at Deseronto. — Mr. A. Vanalstine has added to the appearance of his residence by a coat of paint.—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bell took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sharp on Sunday. — Mrs. F. Mills

THE DOMINION BANK NAPANEE

NEW PREMISES, CORNER OF DUNDAS AND JOHN STREETS

On Monday, the 4th of October, the new premises of The Dominion Bank at the corner of Dundas and John Streets, will be opened for business. The new building presents an imposing appearance and evokes favourable comment from our leading citizens who, quite naturally, have been keenly interested in the remodelling of it. The addition of two elegant pillars on the outer pillars on the corner, is not only a very decorative feature, but one which adds tremendously to the whole appearance of the corner at night. The merchants of the main street will appreciate this innovation.

The interior decorations and appointments—solid oak counters and panelling, combine to make this a very attractive banking office.

It has, this corner, an old land mark in Napanee, again changes its identity. In first place as a prominence in local history in the middle of the last century as the Tichborne House, under Dan Pringle and George Davy. It now occupies a pivotal position in our business district. Supplanting the old frame hostelry came the present substantial brick building known as the Smith Block. Now remodelled, this building becomes the home of The Dominion Bank—a notwise counsel and advice was always wise corner for a notable institution.

The Dominion Bank has been in Napanee since 1878, and during this period has occupied a prominent place in the business of Napanee and throughout the country, meriting to the full public confidence. The following figures will show the phenomenal growth and development of this institution since 1878.

	Dec. 31, 1878	Dec. 31, 1925
Paid Up Capital	$ 970,250	$ 6,000,000
Reserve Fund and Undivided Profits...	300,000	8,000,000
Total Assets.	4,277,201	127,933,136

Needless to say, The Dominion Bank is regarded as one of the bulwarks of Canada's financial structure.

Napanee has a particular interest in The Dominion Bank, in that Mr. Clarence A. Bogert, Vice-President and General Manager, is an old Napanee boy. His father was the late Archdeacon Bogert, who for many years was rector of St. Mary Magdalene's Church. Napanee is justly proud of the eminent position which Mr. Bogert has attained.

Mr. Arthur Pepler, who was Manager of Napanee Branch in 1898, and later became Assistant General Manager of the Bank, is at present on a visit to Napanee.

Other former managers of this Branch were R. A. Halliwell, R. D. Gamble, Thos. Shaw, Secretary, W. Baines, T. S. Hill, D. L. Hill, F. A. Boulden, F. C. Cottle, and G. Patten Carr.

C. Waite is the present manager.

TABLETS COMMEMORATE IMPORTANT EVENTS

Suitable Memorials Erected on Historic Sites at Richmond and in Ottawa

Among the important sites marked by the Department of the Interior on the recommendation of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada during the past season were two connected with the early history of the City of Ottawa, which last month celebrated the hundredth anniversary of its founding as Bytown in 1826. The one commemorates the death of an early Governor General and the other the turning of the first sod in the construction of the Rideau canal.

On August 17, a cairn, bearing a tablet in memory of the services, self-devotion and tragic death of Charles Lennox, Fourth Duke of Richmond, was unveiled on a spot near the village of Richmond, several miles from the City of Ottawa. The Duke of Richmond was appointed Governor-in-Chief of the Canadas, Lower and Upper, in 1818, and took up his residence in Lower Canada in July of that year. It was during the following year, 1819, while on an official tour of inspection of the Upper province and while visiting the newly surveyed lands allotted to soldier settlers, among which was the settlement of Richmond named in his honour, that his death took place under tragic circumstances. An infected wound of the hand caused by the bite of a pet fox and aggravated by the hot weather and rough journeying caused him so much suffering that his attendants importuned him to rest at Richmond when that settlement had been reached. He made a determined effort to push forward however and after going a short distance was obliged to seek rest in the home of a settler where he died in great agony within a few hours.

The tablet commemorating the hundredth anniversary of the beginning of the Rideau canal, in September, 1826, under the direction of Col. John By, R.E., was unveiled on August 19, 1926. This memorial has been placed on the central pillar on the north side of the bridge spanning the canal in the heart of Ottawa. The construction of the Rideau canal was undertaken with a view to obtaining an interior water route between Montreal and Lake Ontario, by way of the Ottawa River, and it has played a leading part in the upbuilding of the City of Ottawa, and in the development of southeastern Ontario.

NEW RACE OF PYGMIES DISCOVERED IN GUINEA

Weltevreden, Java, Sept. 26.—In dense mountain jungles never before successfully penetrated by white men, the Dutch New Guinea expedition of American and Dutch scientists has discovered an entirely new group of pygmies. Details of the discovery were received here yesterday from the Associated Press correspondent accompanying the expedition. The despatch was carried by a bushman runner.

Entering a country in which previous expeditions had been decimated through fever and hanrships, the scientists, after four months of travel, came upon the strange small people, living a quiet and secluded life, hemmed in by rugged jungle covered mountains and cut off from the rest of the Papuan tribes.

Matthew W. Stirling, of Berkley, Cal., one of the leaders of the expedition, described the bushmen as unusually friendly.

"Also," he said, "contrasting with the loud yellings and menacing attitude of other natives below, the pygmies of the mountains talked in undertones or whispers, and seemed afraid of being too obtrusive. They were not timid, but quite intelligent and always cool and collected.

"The first thing they did was to give us all a present. The present consisted of their small bows and arrows, rattan arm bracelets, ornaments, bananas, betel nuts.

"Their whole maternal culture was entirely different from that of the Papuans. They raise tobacco, sweet potatoes, bananas and pigs. They brought us a pig, and all gathered round to make a ceremony of killing it."

Thousands of Mothers Use No Other Medicine

Baby's Own Tablets Are the Ideal Remedy for Babies and Young Children

Canadian mothers are noted for the care they give their little ones—the health of the baby is most jealously guarded and the mother is always on the lookout for a remedy which is efficient and at the same time absolutely safe. Thousands of mothers have found such a remedy in Baby's Own Tablets and many of them use nothing else for the ailments of their little ones. Among them is Mrs. Howard King, of Truro, N.S., who says:—"I can strongly recommend Baby's Own Tablets to mothers of young children as I know of nothing to equal them for little ones."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A man was spending a holiday in a city for the first time. Walking through a fashionable street he noticed on a door the words, "Please ring the bell."

He rang the bell. In a minute a servant appeared and asked him what he wanted.

"Nothing," said the man.

"Then why did you ring the bell?" asked the servant.

"Because it said so," replied the man.

"Oh," said the servant, "I see you come from the country where goats grow on bushes."

"Yes," said the man, "but in the city there are more wonderful sights. You have only to ring the bell and a monkey pops out."

FARMERS' HOTEL FOR KINGSTON

Mr. J. S. Gilmour, who was proprietor of the Campbell House, Napanee, up to a month ago when it was sold to Picton interests, was in Kingston this week in connection with a deal for the opening of a farmers' hotel near the corner of Princess and Montreal streets. About twelve years the Windsor Hotel was run on this site by the McCue Bros., who left shortly after that time for Rochester, N.Y. They are now running the New Windsor Hotel, at Rochester.

It is understood that the new hotel will be opened before very long under the proprietorship of Mr. Gilmour. Besides hotel accommodation sheds are to be provided for the wagons and cars brought to the city by the farmers, mainly for the Kingston market. The main entrance will be on Princess street, according to present plans. The access on the ground floor will not have to change if the hotel is opened, fer most of them are protected by long leases.

Mr. Gilmour was at London, Ont., this week also, and was considering operating a hotel in that city, but it is said that he favors going to Kingston.

GOLD MEDAL AWARDSD TO NEW CANADIAN ROSE

The Agnes rose, originated by the late Dr. Wm. Saunders while Director of Dominion Experimental Farms has been awarded a gold medal by the American Rose Society. This medal, called the Walter Van Fleet Gold Medal, was presented to the American Rose Society to be awarded for a thoroughly hardy outdoor rose originated on the American continent. Although the American Rose Society received the medal three years ago, it was not awarded until the present year, when it was given to the Experimental Farms in recognition of the merits of the Agnes rose.

The Agnes rose is a rose between Rosa Rugosa as the seed parent and Persian Yellow as the pollen parent. The cross was made by the late Dr. Wm. Saunders at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, Canada, about the year 1900. It bloomed first in 1902 and ahs been under test at Ottawa ever since and although never protected during the winters, it has never been noticeably injured by the weather. The flowers, double and pale amber in colour, are borne singly and in great profusion. It is fragrent and blooms early but only once in the season. Because of its extreme eartiness and great hardiness and the distinct and attractive colour of the flower, this variety should prove a valuable addition to the robes of the Rugosa group.

ROD AND GUN

Many features dealing with all kinds of outdoor sport combine to make a very attractive magazine of the October issue of Rod and Gun the publication of which falls in line with the opening of the fall hunting season in Canada.

A novel means of pursuing game is dealt with by Raymond Thompson in an article "Hunting and Fishing via Scow." The country is the vicinity of the Athabasca River in Alberta, the interior of British Columbia is the scene of "Three Fishers Went Trailing" by Robert Watson. A timely article by an old timer is an article on methods of duck shooting by Frank J. Parsons, which contains a number of good wrinkles. A. Bryan Williams concludes his good series of articles "Breezes from the West" in this issue, while a useful series of articles on first aid in the bush by A. G. Shakespeare commences.

Another of Frise's inimitable cartoons is one of the special features of the issue and a special article covering the B.G.R.A. matches at Ottawa, also appears in the October number.

Rod and Gun is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ontario.

The motor campsite at the base of mount Rundle, near the town of Banff in Banff National Park, Alberta, has been very considerably extended to meet the greatly increased demand by campers. It is now one of the most modern and best equipped in the West.

"Georgie, I shouldn't slide down the bannisters like that."

CROYDON

The weather continues very rainy, and the farmers hereabouts are very much behind with their work. — We are pleased to hear Mr. Less Kellar is much improved in health. Mr. Kellar has been very ill for the past month.—Election passed off quietly in our little town, the result being quite satisfactory. — John Kring finished a big contract on the Township road last week, hauling over five hundred loads of gravel. — Albert Hughes has purchased David Barrager's farm.—Thos. Kellar, Thorpe, is visiting friends around here. — Mr. Kellar is a hustling farmer who believes in speeding up. Here is some of his records:—Ploughing with a single plow cutting a furrow from 6 to 8 inches in width, he averaged 3 acres per day; with a 12-foot harrow he did 40 acres in a day. In the same length of time he cultivated, using a 6-ft. in width machine, 22 acres. Several years ago he cut alone with a sickle six acres of fodder corn which averaged 15 tons per acre. This man has been known to pick one hundred loads of stone per day.—Patrick McCabe and Alex. Lynch spent a few days at Rochester, N.Y. Pat says times are very dull over there. Quite a number from here took in the school fair at Centreville on Monday last.

"So you went fishing with Brown yesterday. What did you catch?" "Ask Brown. I've forgotten the number we agreed."

Hub (seeing her off on the train)—"Now, dear, as soon as you arrive you must telegraph."

Wife—"Very well. How much shall I telegraph for?"

Agent—"But it's a shame to let your husband's life insurance lapse." Fed-up Female—"I'll not pay another penny. I've paid regular for eight years, an' I've had no luck yet!"

"Yes say you married him for his money?"

"Yes."

"And why did you divorce him?"

"I got it."

An Oil That Is Famous—Though Canada was not the birthplace of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, it is the home of that famous compound. From here its good name was spread to Central and South America, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand. That is also about enough to attest its excellence, for in all these countries it is on sale and in demand.

"Now, Albert," said the teacher, "if you had four apples, and your little sister asked for half of them, how many would you have left?" "Fifty-five," answered Albert, without a moment's hesitation.

Requisite on the Farm. — Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency, and a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle afflicted by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

Rheumatic Sufferers

May Obtain Relief by Enriching the Blood Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

In the days of our grandfathers rheumatism was thought to be the unavoidable penalty of middle life and old age. Almost every elderly person had rheumatism, as well as many young people. It was thought that rheumatism was due to exposure to cold and dampness, and it was treated with liniments and hot applications which sometimes gave temporary relief but did not remove the trouble. In those days there were many rheumatic cripples. Now medical science understands that rheumatism is a disease of the blood and that with good red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism. There are now many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism, because they have kept their blood in good condition, and there are many who have conquered it by building up their weak, watery blood. The blood-enriching qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is becoming every year more widely known and the more general use of these pills has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of thin, the ravages of disease by taking Dr. impure blood protect yourself against Williams' Pink Pills. They have helped thousands—if you give them a fair trial they will not disappoint you. Their value in the case of rheumatism is proved by the statement of Mr. Finlay Beaton, Blackstone, N.S., who says:—"I feel it a duty to tell you of the wonderful benefit I derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I suffered untold agony from rheumatism and a run-down condition. The trouble left me incapable of work of any kind, and for a part of the time I was unable to move without the assistance of a cane. I took different medicine from doctors, and also other remedies that were recommended, but did not improve and had about given up hope of getting better when a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did this with the result that within four months I was as well a man as ever I had been. I can say that I was a complete wreck when I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and that this medicine completely built up my health. This was some years ago, and I have had no return of the trouble since. I give this statement hoping it will benefit others."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Chevrolet Smoothness is Built into this Power Plant for Economical Transportation CHEVROLET

IT is by strictest attention to quality—of material and workmanship—that Chevrolet has achieved, not only the most powerful but also the smoothest, engine in its price class.

Notice how the working parts are fully enclosed—protected from road dust, grit and water. The valve-lifter assembly is completely encased in pressed steel, covering to prevent entry of harmful foreign matter and to silence the engine. The Chevrolet Dry Disc Clutch is mounted in the flywheel housing, while the transmission is immediately behind the clutch and, with the propeller shaft, is completely enclosed.

A newly-designed camshaft and well-balanced crankshaft with extra large main bearings insure the smoothness which has won for this Chevrolet such unanimous praise.

Come in to your nearest Chevrolet dealer. Raise the hood of the smooth Chevrolet and examine for yourself the engine that makes Chevrolet so smooth and so powerful.

The Smoothest Chevrolet in Chevrolet History is selling at a lower Price for which Chevrolet has ever been sold in Canada.

Catholic Woman's League.

On Wednesday afternoon, September 22nd, the Catholic Woman's League of St. Patrick's Church held a most delightful and successful Tea and Sale of Candy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marsh, Bridge St. West. The rooms were most tastefully decorated with yellow and white asters, the League colors, the guests being received by Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. J. Marshall. The daintily appointed tea table was presided over by Mrs. John Barrett, who was ably assisted by Mrs. Bedore and Miss Katharine Barrett, while Miss Marian Emery had charge of the candy table. During the afternoon Mrs. Katherine Powell gave selections from the works of Dr. Drummond, and solos were sung by Miss Gale, of Cobourg. On Wednesday evening nine tables of euchre were played, prizes falling to Mr. E. O. Unger and Mrs. Patrick Gleeson.

S. MEEKS IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

Stewart Meeks met with a very severe and painful accident last Friday afternoon, his injuries being considered very serious. Mr. Meeks, with the usual quota of men which is necessary to unload the coal boats which come in the Napanee River, was standing in the elevated runway waiting for a bucket of coal when in some manner he fell headlong, a distance of 25 or 20 feet, striking his head on the railing of the boat. His body then slipped into the water.

He was picked out at once and rushed to his home and medical assistance was sent for. It is feared that he has suffered a very severe fracture of the skull and his condition was reported as very serious.

Mr. Meeks is known to practically every one in town who will regret to learn of his serious accident. The boat which was discharging its cargo of coal was the "Lyman-Davis".

OBITUARY.

William Sharpe.

On Sunday, September 12th, 1926, the death occurred in Ernestown, of Wm. Sharpe, son of the late Adam Sharpe, of Odessa, who was of Scotch descent, but came to this country from Ireland. Mr. Sharpe had been ill only a couple of days and his death came as a severe shock to his wife and family, as well as to the whole community. The late Mr. Sharpe was born at Odessa, in October, 1857, and had spent nearly all his life in this township. In 1887 he was married to Adelaide Storms, daughter of the late Norman Storms. Mr. Sharpe was a member of Wilton Presbyterian Church until Union took place, after which he became a member of Wilton United Church. Besides his widow, he leaves to mourn his loss, one son, Fred, on the homestead; two sisters, Mrs. David Fraser, of Hamilton, and Mrs. Tuesday morning, September 14th, from his late residence, and was conducted by his Pastor, Rev. Mr. McQuade, of Odessa, assisted by Rev. Mr. McKenzie, a former Pastor. Interment took place at Cataraqui cemetery. — Kingston papers please copy.

SPORTS AT N.C.I.

The annual Field Day will be held Friday, October 8th. A large number of athletes are training for the various events, and no doubt some track and field events of a high order will be witnessed. The girls' basketball teams are practicing hard, and the season will shortly open. That relay team which won in Kingston at the District Athletic Meet, is training hard for the meet in Toronto to-day. Harry Robinson, Harry Moore, Jim Moffat and Colborne Harrington are the makings of fine athletes. All are very young and should, in time, develop into some of the best athletes around here. Our dependable Freddy Ballard, will try the pole vault again in the Queen City this year. "Ben" has won the vault twice in two years and will doubtless come off favourably in his quest for higher laurels. All wish the boys the best of luck in their try for Provincial honours in Toronto to-day.

The boys at the N.C.I. are booting the rugby ball from morning till night, but practices will not begin for a week or two. Billy Houle, former local hockey star, will line-up with Lakefield this season. Houle was high-scorer for the locals last season and played for Belleville Intermediates in the O.H.A. play-offs. Houle is a fast man and can shoot from either side of the rink. He is well-known around here, and has been a star for years. Tom Kirby, the Kingston Standard reports, will shortly return to the Limestone City, but he is here now and intends to stay for a while. Jim Naphin is securely located in Belleville, and will be out with the Intermediates next year. Fred Bentley is home again to stay, but it is rumoured that Kingston wants him if there is no team here.

LEAFS AND "B" CO. WIN

On Friday evening last Napanee triumphed over both Belleville teams in the Armouries, before a small crowd of fans. "B" Co., by a great rally in the last of the 5th, beat the Canadian Nationals by 14-13, and the Leafs had an easy time subduing the Beavers.

"B" Company 14, C.N.R. 13.

"B" Co. started things going right when they beat the strong C.N.R. team. The game was late in starting and had to be called after the 5th. Daverin hurled nice ball for the locals, and fanned two men in the last innings. The C.N.Rs failed to hit him regularly, but managed to get the men over the plate who did get on. Murray relieved him in the last of the 4th, just in time to be credited with the win. The locals staged a great rally in the last of the 5th, and shoved over five counters, which won the game. Hurley did the twirling for Belleville, and kept the locals' hits scattered for three innings, but bunched hits in the 1st and 5th accounted for ten markers. Jim Josephin, Harry McNeil and Kenneth Edgecombe, all former local athletes, did their playing for the Nationals, and all turned in nice games. However, Daverin had the Indian sign on all three, and Edgecombe was the only one of the trio to hit safely.

Owing to the play in Grace Church only a small crowd attended the games, but more will doubtless be out to see the Leafs and "B" Co. do their stuff next week.

The line-ups :—

C.N.R.—Young 1b, Hagerman 2b, Wakeford ss, Naphin 2b, Edgecombe cf, McNeill rf, Cohen lf, Newton c, Hurley p.

"B" Co.—MacDonald ss, Garrett rf, Harrison c, Fraser 1b, Reid lf, Murray lf, Kirby 3b, Bentley 2b, Daverin p.

Umpires—Mencher and Bell.

Leafs 24, Beavers 14.

The Leafs easily defeated a much strengthened Beaver team by a 10 run margin. They were a better team on the night's play and their margin was earned. The game was featured by heavy hitting and brilliant fielding by both teams.

Grace Harrigan played 1b in the absence of Margaret Douglas and turned in a nice game, as did Irene Embury in centre field, who filled in while Kathleen Ungar was away. That battery of Dot Johnston and Marion Grass never worked better. Dot fanned thirteen. Marion Embury and Mary Stinson aren't used to the lights yet, but Hazel O'Neill played as good inside as out, her hitting and baserunning being a feature. Marion Douglas, Mary Bates and Ruth Dickson played nice ball in the field, and each got a couple of hits.

For Beavers, Miss Mossman and Miss Curry made up a formidable battery, the former pitching a fine game. Miss Mellchior, at 2b, made a couple of nice fielding efforts, and Miss Holloway, in right field, made a nice catch.

The line-ups :—

Beavers—Lee ss, O'Neill 2b, Currie c, Warham cf, Holloway rf, Mossman p, Cook 1b, Melchior 2b, Killeher.

Leafs—Grass c, Johnston p, Harrigan 1b, M. Embury 2b, Stinson ss, O'Neill 3b, Douglas lf, I. Embury cf, Dickson rf, Bates cf.

Belleville Alemites 31, Leafs 30.

On Wednesday evening both the local teams were defeated by Belleville Alemites, in the Armouries. The Alemite Girls defeated the Leafs by 31-30, in a slugging bee, scoring three runs in the last frame to win the game. It was no pitcher's battle and the players showed no mercy to the slab artists. Marion Grass certainly showed her worth as a catcher when she threw out three runners, besides slamming out several hard drives. Dot Johnston twirled nice ball and should have won handily. Marion Embury, Mary Stinson and Hazel O'Neill played nice ball in the infield, and Irene Embury made a beautiful catch in deep centre. Marion Douglas and Ruth Dickson were more prominent in their hitting, as was Mary Bates. Margaret Douglas accounted for a long double and her fielding was good. Grace Harrigan also played nice ball.

For Belleville, Liz. Currie was about the best, although Miss Baker and Miss Fairbairn played nice ball.

The teams :—

Alemites—Baker c, Boyle cf, Curry 3b, Lainbun 2b, Miles rf, Fairburn p, Weese ss, Pringle lf, Kay 1b.

Leafs—I. Embury cf, M. Douglas lf, M. Embury 2b, M. Stinson ss, H. O'Neill 3b, M. Grass c, Margaret Douglas 1b, R. Dickson rf, D. Johnston p, G. Harrigan 1b.

Score by innings :—

Alemites	2	1	0	1	6	2	3	3	3
Leafs	1	0	4	3	1	3	7	2	1	0

Umpires—Murray and Fraser.

Alemites 11, "B" Co. 4.

In the men's game, Alemites defeated "B" Co. 11-4, after a hard, fast game. Alemites presented a pitcher who had to bend down to get under the girders, but he certainly had the goods. His successor was also a fine pitcher. Murray pitched nice ball for the locals, but the soldiers couldn't connect with the Belleville pitcher's slants. Reid made two nice catches in centre field and started a fast double play.

The teams :—

Alemite—Flegle, Kerr, Palmer, Bilnup, Foste, Rigley, Davis, Gibson, Darragh.

"B" Co.—Garrett, Harrison, Bentley, Fraser, MacDonald, Murray, Kirby, Reid, Daverin.

"... Do you remember Red McCutcheon?"

Two college grads, had adjourned to the locker-room to discuss old friends.

"Old Red? You bet I do! He's with Bywater Electric up at Sandison? I only see him about three times a year, but we're in touch all the time. He's as circumspect about letter-writing as he always was, but I telephone him one week and he telephones me the next. A lot of other fellows are up there too — it seems as if we have a long distance class reunion every Thursday night."

The miles which separate old friends no longer mean haphazard "duty" letters. Instead, Long Distance enables you to talk with your friends wherever you wish. Try it!

Don't Miss This

You're behind the times if you don't know that Cod Liver Extract is one of the greatest flesh producers in the world.

Because it contains more vitalizing vitamines than any food you can get.

You'll be glad to know that McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets come in sugar coated form now, so if you really want to put 10 or 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh on your bones and feel well and strong and have a complexion that people will admire—ask any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets and if you don't gain five pounds in 30 days your druggist will hand you back the money you paid for them.

It isn't anything unusual for a person to gain 10 pounds in 30 days, and few old people with feebleness overtaking them they work wonders.

Ontario is ablaze with Autumn Splendour

MR. CITY-DWELLER, where did you spend your boyhood days? Was yours the privilege of wandering through the fields and woodland where every tree and bush had been painted by the divine artist?

Today you say 'tis but the hectic flame of a dying year. Then it contained all the mystery of an enchanted palace.

Ontario's highways lead you to the land of yesteryear—over white roads flecked with fallen leaves, patterned here and there by checkered shadows of trees. Field and hillside are gay with fiery sumach. Maple groves aflame, backed by the darker evergreen.

Through this lovely panorama, in every direction, leads Ontario's splendid system of highways. You are entitled to enjoy them, for they are yours. Keep in mind, however, that upon you will come the expense of maintaining them in proper condition.

Speeding eats away road surfaces. It "milks" your pocket-book for both motor and road upkeep. Moderate driving is far more economical and pleasurable.

By so doing you will greatly assist the traffic patrol who operate for everyone's safety—who have instructions to enforce the law rigorously.

THE HON. G. S. HENRY, Minister of Highways.
S. L. SQUIRE, Deputy Minister.

Issued by the Ontario Department of Highways to secure the co-operation of motorists in abating the abuse of the roads of the Province.

PILE SUFFERERS

You can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause — congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Nothing but an internal remedy can do this—that's why cutting and salves fail. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, is guaranteed to quickly and safely banish any form of Pile misery or money back. Wallace's Drug Store and druggists everywhere sell it with this guarantee.

Pat's Reason

There was a dispute in progress in the cemetery between two of the sextons, who were both Irishmen. "No, Michael," said one, "I don't like this cimetry a bit, I don't."

"Och," said the other, "'tis a moighty foine cimetry."

"No," persisted the first. "I don't like it. Never did, and pwhat's more, I'll never be buried in it as long as I live."

For a moment Michael pondered over the other's dictum, then he shook his head. "Ye're an onreasonable fule, to be sure, Pat," he remarked slowly. "Why, man alive, 'tis a foine cimetry, and if me loife should be sparred, why, then, I'll be buried in ut, too!"

FOR GIRLS WHO WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Is a Great Friend—It Stops Pain and Restores Health

Toronto, Ontario. — "I work in a factory and I would have to get away from my work every time I was sick. The dragging-down pains and cramps were very bad, but my back was terrible. It hurt so that I couldn't lie down with it. I heard some of the girls talking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me to try it. I have taken about a dozen bottles of it and it has done me a lot of good. I never have any pains or sore back now, and have not been off from work a day since I have taken it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound when I have the opportunity." — Miss Rosie, 21 Howie Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

"The Advice of a Friend"

Hanover, Ontario. — "I was terribly pained and a few old times I almost fainted. I used to do housework until a few months ago and sometimes had to leave my work and go to bed. I am now a wonder in the knitting-mill. I suffered five or six years from painful periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by the advice of a friend. I got relief almost immediately, and I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. You may use this testimonial if you like, if it will help others."—Mrs. J. Pranzow, Victoria Street, Hanover, Ontario.

Saves $24 A Year

Cooking experts figure that the SMP Enameled Ware Roaster will save the average Canadian family fully $24.00 a year in meat bills. The secret is, it roasts the meat with very little shrinkage. Also, it makes cheap cuts taste like the best ones.

You place the roast in the roaster, put on the cover; the roaster does the rest. No basting required. Every roast is perfectly cooked.

The cover fits close, so that cooking odors cannot escape. Grease can't spatter out, which means a sweet clean oven. Prices range from 85c. to $1.50 each, depending on size and finish—and don't forget the saving of $24.00 yearly.

In the twelve months ending with the sixth month of the present year, according to the Dominion Dairy News Letter, Canada's export of butter decreased close upon two and a half million pounds compared with the previous year's returns, but a cent and a half per pound increase in price to some extent counterbalanced the deficit. On the other hand the total export of cheese increased by over twelve million pounds and by almost three cents a pound in price.

Good plowing is the fundamental operation in Agriculture, the basis of profitable crop growing and is inseparable from successful farming. Well plowed land would put thousands of dollars annually in the pockets of Lennox and Addington farmers. A plowing match should be encouraged as a means of stimulating better plowing. Another meeting will be held in the Agricultural Office, at 1.30 p.m., on Saturday, October 2nd, to receive reports of committees, set date for match, arrange the prize list, and complete other details. "POLLYANNA"

The Sunday School room of Grace Church was filled to overflowing on Thursday night of last week for the presentation of the well-known play, "Pollyanna"; and as so many had to be turned away the play was presented again on Friday evening. The play was given under the auspices of the Mission Circle, and was undoubtedly the best amateur production that has been given in Napanee for years.

The cast was carefully chosen, and each and every one portrayed his or her part in a most creditable manner. Miss Alma Wales made a delightful Pollyanna, the little Glad Girl, who won her way into the hearts of all, including John Pendelton, the hermit, which part was taken splendidly by Mr. Harry Garrett. Miss Marion Wales, as Aunt Polly, and Mr. Fred B. Russell as Dr. Chilton, proved two very interesting and amusing characters to the audience. The antics of Ward Huffman as Jimmie, brought roars of laughter, while Miss Grace Hall, as Nancy, elicited much applause for her witty sallies, and Arnold Rogers, as the butler, portrayed his role most acceptably. The Misses Norma Ballard, Clare Thompson and Hazel O'Neill, as the "Ladies' Aiders", were real village gossips.

Special Orchestra music was given between acts. As a result of the two performances a handsome sum was realized on behalf of the Mission Circle.

Rats and mice destroy over $100,000,000 in property annually! You are asked to do your share in protecting against these disease carriers. One of the best poisons is Elkay's Rat Paste, kills and leaves no odor. 25c. a tube at Wallace's.

WEDDING BELLS

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of French grey crepe-back satin with blue and silver trimming. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for a motor trip to Montreal, Ottawa, and other eastern points, the bride travelling in a dress of navy romaine with metallic embroidery and mole grey trimming, and wearing a coat of grey charmeen with platinum coney and tailored hat to match.

Silo filling was finished this week this viewing. What might have proved a serious loss by fire to Mr. Edmond McKnight's barn, while filling his silo, was only averted by seconds by the quick work of the men present with pails of water. The roof of his barn caught fire in two different places, and one place went through into a hay mow, caused by sparks from the steam engine which was operating the silage cutter. The send-off party at the home of Mrs. Myrtie McWilliams and Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Jeffrey, took place on Monday night, when the neighbours and friends met to bid them farewell on their leaving this neighborhood to settle in their new home in Camden East. W. J. Normile Passes Away

Death claimed one of Napanee's best - known citizens on Tuesday afternoon in the person of William J. Normile. Deceased was apparently in good health and in the best of spirits when he was suddenly stricken with apoplexy on Sunday night just after retiring, and passed away at the end came on Tuesday.

The late W. J. Normile had been connected with the business life of Napanee for the past thirty years. He was widely known to the people of the town and county, and he held their esteem and respect.

About 1895 deceased opened a bicycle store and repair shop in the premises now occupied by W. H. Grass. Cycling was the popular sport at this period and his business naturally increased to large proportions. Securing the premises opposite, now occupied by R. H. Paul, he enlarged his business, and when the automobile supplanted the bicycle he made extensive improvements, and confined himself principally to the handling of motor cars. It might be said he was the pioneer dealer in automobiles in Napanee. The advent of the bicycle and afterwards the auto were opportunities that deceased took advantage of to build up a successful business. He sold his garage business to R. H. Paul in 1921, and afterwards built a fine, up-to-date garage and repair shop on East St., adjoining his residence, which he conducted up to the time of his death.

In his younger days deceased was an enthusiastic cyclist, and as a cycle rider he won numerous medals and trophies at bicycle meets in Napanee and district. Large crowds attended these races, and Will Normile was always a familiar figure on the track.

He was also a member of the old Napanee Dramatic Club, an organization of talented Napanee people, and excelled portrayed Irishman roles, and as an amateur actor he had exceptional ability.

He likewise did his bit on the administration of the affairs of the town, serving on the Council Board for two years, 1905-6. He was also a Charter Member of Napanee Branch C.M.B.A. The people of Napanee, where deceased spent his lifetime, will sincerely regret his death. The hand of good fellowship, his whole souled manner, won him a host of friends.

He leaves surviving, besides his faithful wife, three sons, William, James and Donald, living at home, and one brother, Michael, residing in Deseronto, to all of whom deep sympathy is extended.

The funeral took place on Thursday morning. Requiem services were held in St. Patrick's Church, where a large number of friends and citizens gathered to pay their last respects to one whom they esteemed in life.

Neilson on Saturday, October 2nd, in the Methodist Church. Congratulations are extended to the happy young couple.— Another of Stella's school teachers has also forsaken the profession for that of a higher calling, when Miss Edna Fleming and F. B. :: NEW NAPANEE PREMISES ::

On Monday, Oct. 4th, our New Premises were Opened for Business

ESTABLISHED in 1878, Napanee is one of the oldest offices in the chain of Dominion Bank Branches, which now extends from coast to coast, and also embraces London, Eng., and New York.

Up to 1906 there were only two Banks in the whole County of Lennox and Addington, our Napanee Branch being one. Thus it may well be said that the Dominion Bank was 'a pioneer of banking service in this historic County, and by its record has merited the great public confidence reposed in it.

During the 48 years that this Bank has been serving the citizens of this district, there have been developments in every department of banking—the common use of cheques, bank money orders, travellers' cheques, safety deposit boxes, etc., etc.

To meet the changing and increasing demands of modern business the Dominion Bank is continually adapting and extending its facilities. We offer to the public a thoroughly comprehensive and up-to-date banking service.

WEDDING BELLS

Jackson—Galbraith.

At St. Andrew's United Church, Vernon, B.C., on Wednesday evening, Sept. 22nd, 1926, at eight o'clock, a marriage of unusual interest took place. The bride, Miss Frances Kathleen Galbraith, only daughter of Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Galbraith, is a recent graduate of Macdonald Institute, Guelph, and took post-graduate work in dietetics at St. Luke's Hospital, New York. The groom, Mr. George Thompson Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Jackson, Toronto, is a graduate of Toronto University. The church had been beautifully decorated in autumn leaves, berries and flowers, by Mrs. R. Meyer and other friends of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson. Miss Ella Richmond presided at the organ. Before the ceremony commenced the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was beautifully gowned in white French georgette with rhinestone trimming. Her tulle veil was embroidered with true-lovers-knots, and held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and pearls. She wore silver pumps and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. The maid of honor Miss Zeta Bailey, was gowned in mauve georgette trimmed with satin ruffles and wore a wreath of mauve and sequin flowers. Miss Jean Sherry of 5076 Connaught Drive, Vancouver, was bridesmaid. She wore a very becoming frock of pink georgette trimmed with a single velvet and sequin flower, and a bandeau of pink and sequin flowers. The maid of honor and bridesmaid carried pink and white carnations. Little "Didi" Dent, as flower-girl, was very sweet in ruffled blue silk dress and bandeau. From her dainty basket she scattered rose petals before the bride and groom as they left the church. The bride's mother, Mrs. J. S. Galbraith, was dressed in French orchid crepe beaded with pearls, sequin and rhinestone. She wore silver slippers and black velvet picture hat with ostrich mount. Mrs. T. Jackson, mother of the groom, wore navy georgette beaded in green and purple, and purple velvet hat with scarf to match. Both Mrs. Galbraith and Mrs. Jackson wore corsage bouquets of violets. Mrs. R. P. Anson, of Toronto, a niece of the groom, was in beaded black georgette with black picture hat. The only other out-of-town guest was Mr. J. H. Thorburn of North Bay, a college chum of Mr. Jackson. Mr. Horace Galbraith, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Fred Galbraith, Mr. Harold Galbraith, Mr. Russell Heggie, and Mr. John Webster. During the signing of the register, Mrs. A. Fleming sang very sweetly "Beloved, It Is Morn".

Gifts from the groom were, to the bride, a white gold wrist watch, to the maid of honor and bridesmaid, each a string of seed pearls, to the flower girl, a signet ring; to the organist an abaloni pearl ring, to the bride's mother an amethyst and pearl brooch, to the groom's mother a pearl ring, to the best man a pearl stick pin and to the ushers alligator wallets.

A reception followed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake under a suspended flower bell of silver and white. Buffet luncheon was served from tables tastefully decorated with carnations and chrysanthemums.

Mr. Jackson and his bride left by motor for their honeymoon trip to Moose Jaw, stopping en route at Sicamous, Banff and Calgary. Mr. Jackson is Branch Manager for the Saskatchewan Consolidated Creameries at Moose Jaw. The bride wore a three piece ensemble suit of rose-blonde with feather trimmed turban to match.—The Vernon News, Vernon, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Galbraith were formerly residents of Camden East.

Showers for Miss Galbraith

In honor of Miss Kathleen Galbraith, whose wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, many celebrations have been held, the first of these given in July by Miss Zeta Bailey. On Saturday last, two very pretty showers were held at the home of Miss Archie Fleming. The guests were entertained at bridge and during the tea hour, little Betty Jane Fleming and Master Bobby Megaw, dressed as cupids brought in the miscellaneous gifts. At the function in the evening, the guest of honor was presented with many useful kitchen utensils.

Last Thursday, Mrs. Basil Steuart, Mrs. John White, Mrs. C. S. Dent, and Miss Irene Megaw entertained Miss Galbraith at a pre-nuptial shower at Mrs. Steuart's summer home on beautiful Kalamalka lake. The rooms were prettily decorated with autumn flowers. The tea table artistically decorated, was centred with a miniature bride and groom and vases of asters in pale shades of pink. It was presided over by Mrs. W. E. Megaw and Mrs. E. H. Harkness, while Mrs. James McDonald of Victoria, cut the ices at a smaller table. Assisting the hostesses were Miss Pat McDonald, Victoria, Miss Dorothy Jackson and the Misses Dora and Jean Wagner. After tea had been served the guests repaired to the balcony overlooking the lake to the waters of which floated a boat decorated to represent a swan, and in which a basket of lovely gifts was concealed. Long white streamers were attached to the basket and these were used to draw it up. About fifty guests enjoyed the novel function.

Many of our townspeople will remember Mr. Hodgson, who, at one time, resided in Napanee and was associated with Messrs. Lahey & McKenty in the dry goods business. Mrs. Hodgson was formerly Miss Emma Bennett, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bennett:—

"Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hodgson and their son George left yesterday morning by way of Trail and Nelson for Calgary, where they will visit for a short time, while en route by motor to Toronto, where they expect to locate. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson came to Grand Forks about 24 years ago and have been closely identified with the business and social life of the community. Mr. Hodgson was first associated with the Hunter-Kendrick Company, afterwards with N. L. McInnes & Company, and latterly as one of the firm of McLeod & Hodgson Limited, in which he recently disposed of his interests. Mrs. Hodgson has always been active in church and social circles. Both were entertained at a large gathering of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters in the Davis Hall last Monday evening, when both lodges expressed deep regret in their leaving. Mrs. Hodgson was presented with a fountain pen and pencil set by the Pythian Sisters and Mr. Hodgson with a like set by the Knights of which he was a prominent officer. Mrs. Hodgson was also the recipient of a lovely bar pin from the Presbyterian Church, where she had been organist, and on Monday afternoon she was the guest of honor at a large handkerchief shower given at the home of Mrs. Ross McLeod. Mr. Hodgson has not been enjoying the best of health here in recent years and will probably take a holiday before re-entering business. His son, George, will attend Queen's University. They will make the long motor trip by easy stages and enjoy a tour through the United States. Their many friends will wish them good fortune in the East.

Napanee Branch :: C. WAITE, Manager

ESTABLISHED in 1878, Napanee is one of the oldest offices in the chain of Dominion Bank Branches, which now extends from coast to coast, and also embraces London, Eng., and New York.

Up to 1906 there were only two Banks in the whole County of Lennox and Addington, our Napanee Branch being one. Thus it may well be said that the Dominion Bank was a pioneer of banking service in this historic County, and by its record has merited the great public confidence reposed in it.

During the 48 years that this Bank has been serving the citizens of this district, there have been developments in every department of banking—the common use of cheques, bank money orders, travellers' cheques, safety deposit boxes, etc., etc.

To meet the changing and increasing demands of modern business the Dominion Bank is continually adapting and extending its facilities. We offer to the public a thoroughly comprehensive and up-to-date banking service.

WEDDING BELLS

Jackson—Galbraith.

At St. Andrew's United Church, Vernon, B.C., on Wednesday evening, Sept. 22nd, 1926, at eight o'clock, a marriage of unusual interest took place. The bride, Miss Frances Kathleen Galbraith, only daughter of Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Galbraith, is a recent graduate of Macdonald Institute, Guelph, and took post-graduate work in dietetics at St. Luke's Hospital, New York. The groom, Mr. George Thompson Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Jackson, Toronto, is a graduate of Toronto University. The church had been beautifully decorated in autumn leaves, berries and flowers, by Mrs. R. Meyer and other friends of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. S. Ferguson. Miss Ella Richmond presided at the organ. Before the ceremony commenced the choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was beautifully gowned in white French georgette with rhinestone trimming. Her tulle veil was embroidered with true-lovers-knots, and held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and pearls. She wore silver pumps and carried a shower bouquet, of Ophelia roses. The maid of honor Miss Zeta Bailey, was gowned in mauve georgette trimmed with satin ruffles and wore a wreath of mauve and sequin flowers. Miss Jean Berry of 5076 Connaught Drive, Vancouver, was bridesmaid. She wore a very becoming frock of pink georgette trimmed with a single velvet and sequin flower, and a bandeau of pink and sequin flowers. PROTECTING FORESTS AGAINST DISEASE

Canadian Government Carries on Fight in Forest Products Laboratories—Causes of Fungous Growths

The need of protecting Canada's forests is now becoming known throughout the country, especially in the direction of protection against fire. Fire is not the only enemy of our worests, however. There is another enemy, probably quite as destructive but not as spectacular. Fungous diseases take an enormous toll of our timber and timber products each year, and the Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior is actively engaged in solving the problems which these destructive agencies present.

To the majority of men the growth of punks, conchs or toadstools upon tree, lumber pile, or cellar floor, means little. Their presence, however, is a matter of vital concern to the lumber industry, for it proclaims the maturity of plants which have nourished themselves upon food substance supplied by the wood upon which they appear. They are the symptoms of a most advanced stage of timber disease.

The development of this disease is due to fungous action. Fungi are plants and those with which we are here concerned derive their nourishment from woody tissues. The fungous body consists simply of innumerable branching threads of microscopic size, which ramify through the wood, and absorb and assimilate the food there found. To permit growth, moisture and air must be present and a moderately high temperature is generally necessary although some growth may occur at low temperature. Having penetrated the wood in all directions the fungous plant is in time sufficiently well nourished to produce its fruits. These are the punks or toadstools, mentioned above, which appear on the wood surface. They indicate a widespread disintegration of the wood upon which they appear, whether it be a forest tree or a roof timber. Then, fulfilling their purpose, these fruit bodies spread abroad a fine, dust-like cloud of spores and disseminate the fungus. Such a cloud may often be noted in moderately still forest air, being gently wafted from the under surface of large woody conchs. Each particle, microscopic in size though it be, carries in it the possibility of further timber infection, for, given favourable conditions for germination, it may in its turn spread destruction through valuable material.

If it be asked how these microscopic spores effect an entrance to forest trees, protected as they are by their heavy covering of bark, the answer is not far to seek. Natural pruning as a tree matures leaves many broken branch stubs, breaks made by passing animals, the fall of neighbouring trees—these and other agents leave many open wounds which furnish acceptable lodging points for these minute bodies. Spores are not the only means of infection possessed by these destructive plants. The branching threads themselves, or in some forms ramify through the soil and infect roots of neighbouring trees. Or the crossing of roots may cause abrasion and, if one is already diseased, may lead to the infection of the other by simple growth of the fungus into the healthy tissues. This passage of the fungus from diseased to healthy material is perhaps the most frequent source of danger in stored lumber. Cores in poles are the decking of logs on infected skids and the careless disposition of infected debris in the vicinity of lumber piles.

From the above will be seen the nature of the problems which confront the timber pathologist. Take the case of one timber, jack pine. Jack pine is excellently adapted for railway tie purposes but it is very susceptible to attack by the ring scale fungus. Therefore questions immediately arise such as : How much of this timber is fit for use? What percentage of infection can be permitted without danger? Is the fungus killed by creosote treatment? And to go back further the question comes: How could the original spread of the disease have been prevented? In building timbers, aeroplane wood, mine timbers and in every other of the myriad situations in which wood is used similar questions arise, for in all places where strength and permanence are required fungous growth must be excluded.

Few of the enemies of timber have as yet been studied in such detail that their specific requirements under different conditions can be answered with assurance. From the general habit of growth, detailed above, however, certain general rules may be deduced. Fungi require food, air, moisture, and a certain amount of heat. Deprive the food supply, exclude air or dry the wood and fungous action is inhibited. Infection is possible only in the presence of spores or of contaminated material. Remove all debris, which may harbour disease, and the danger of infection is lessened.

An estimate of the annual loss of forest trees and structural timber cannot be made as yet, but from the information available it is known to be of very serious proportions; and these problems are among the most important upon which the Forest Products Laboratories of the Forest Service are now working.

You should select the everyday household remedies, such as Epsom Salts or Castor Oil with more than ordinary care. The health of your children demands it. The label, "Pure Test" is a guarantee that you are purchasing the best to be had. "Pure Test" remedies for sale at Wallace's.

Just because she is a woman there are times when every woman needs help and strength in the form of a blood-building tonic.

To thousands of girls and women Dr. Williams' Pin Pills have proved a blessing because they enrich the blood, give strength and restore tone to the aching nerves. The anaemic girl who is languid and pale; the wife whose back feels like breaking; the matron whose health fails as she reaches middle age—for all such sufferers Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are invaluable because ill-health in girls and women is usually caused by poor blood or insufficient blood. These pills have proved a blessing to thousands of others, why not you? At various stages of life Mrs. G. R. Lake, Walton, N.S., has proved the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says:—"I first used these pills when a young girl, for it is during the teen age when nature calls upon every bit of the reserve strength we have, that we need their rejuvenating help. It was then I found Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a friend indeed. And again, now that the girlhood stage is past and I am a mother of four children, subject to all the cares and worries of the home, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the only tonic I take to keep up my health and strength, and they have never failed me. Should any ailing girl or weary mother, due to my advice try these pills, I know they will find them as equally good as I have done."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Formation of the States.

From the beginning of our history the tendency has been toward territorial expansion in the formation of new states. Of the 13 original states seven contained less than 10,000 square miles, as Vermont, 9,564; New Hampshire, 9,341; Massachusetts, 8,266; New Jersey, 8,224; Connecticut, 4,965; Delaware, 2,370; Rhode Island, 1,248. New York contains only 48,204 square miles. The middle western states were considered of great size when formed. Ohio, 41,045 square miles; Indiana, 36,384; Illinois, 56,905; Michigan, 57,980; Wisconsin, 56,906, but they are small compared with the far western states of California, 158,297 square miles; Montana, 146,997; Arizona, 113,956; Nevada, 110,690, and Colorado, 103,948. Texas, with her 265,896 square miles, would almost make six states as large as New York.

Service Flag for Grief.

Service flags are displayed all over the big city, and it appears to be quite the patriotic thing for large corporations to outdo each other in showing the largest number of employees engaged in the war game. There are four corporations in New York with a vague sort of community interest, each of which, though entirely independent, insists on placing on its service flag a star for every employee of the four corporations now in service. But a saloonkeeper has the star service banner. It hangs before his saloon, and he has patriotically placed upon it a star for every one of his customers gone to the front.

When the Soul Is Hurt.

The most terrible thing in the world is sin. A man is never hurt until his soul is hurt, and the only thing that can hurt his soul is sin

SIDELIGHTS ON GENERAL SPORTS

The rugby aspirants at the Collegiate will soon be given their chance to show what they can do, as signal practices will likely start next week. Deseronto have been practising for the last month. The locals have a wealth of raw material besides the majority of last year's team. The regulars from last year include Deline, Corkill, Cowle, Ballard, Wright, Benjamin, Way, Wilson, of the line, Wilson quarter and Fraser of the backfield; Ballard and Cowle will likely get half line assignments and probably Deline. McGuire, Breeze, Reid, Asselstine, MacGregor, Conway, Howitt, Barrett, Bouse, Gilbert, Roberts, Wartman, Gibson and many others will likely be trying for places. Mr. Shoemaker and Mr. Murray hope to make it four straight wins this year.

The Girls' Senior and Junior Basketball teams are practicing hard for the opening game which is not far away. The Senior team of last year is completely wrecked, only Grace Boyes being left. However, there is plenty of promising material in Katherine Gleeson, Marion Douglas, Marion Grass, Elleen Harrison, Helen Grange and many others. The Juniors will be strong this year with Lois Stalker, Marjorie Daly, Marion Thompson, Helen Whiting, Evelyn Mills, Grace Harrigan and many others turning out to catch a place. Miss McLaughlin is very enthusiastic over the two teams and expects to bring them out winners.

This Friday afternoon the annual Field Day will be held at the Collegiate in the morning, and the track in the afternoon. Athletes will likely be present from Deseronto and Picton, and the fans will have a chance to see our athletes competing against some of the best in this district.

The name "Frontenacs" was applied to the "B" Co. Seniors by the Belleville Alemites last Wednesday, and it looks as though it will stick. The name seems to fit and henceforth the "B" Co. Seniors will be referred to as the Frontenacs in the columns of this paper. The Leafs and Frontenacs are rivalling each other in their games to date, and the Frontenacs have the edge, although they have played only two to the Leafs three.

NAPANEE ATHLETES AT TORONTO

Athletes from Napanee Collegiate Institute who competed in the Ontario Athletic Meet in Toronto on Saturday more than made a name for themselves, and the N.C.I. is justly proud of them.

Fred Ballard captured 3rd place in the Senior Pole Vault, and certainly did wonderful work. He cleared the bar at 10 ft. 6 in., and was beaten out by 2 inches. Ballard has the honor of being the 3rd best polevaulter in the Province, and more than brought glory to the N.C.I. by his phenomenal work.

Ted Breeze, competing for the first time in any sport, came 5th in the Senior High Jump, clearing the rod at 5 ft. 6 in., a remarkable jump for a youth competing for the first time. Breeze certainly surprised everybody by his wonderful work, and deserves great praise for his effort.

That Senior Public School Relay was "robbed" of the race. As it was they came in 4th, but could easily have done much better. Here the authorities in charge of the Meet made a grave mistake. Instead of running the race in two heats, as there were ten or twelve schools represented, all were packed together, and in rounding the turns one man was crowded back. This incident lost us the race when they might easily have run the race in two heats. However, great praise is due the members of the Relay Team, who are Harry Moore, Harry Johnson, Colborne Harrington and Jim Moffat. They certainly did great work, and it was no fault of theirs that they lost.

Signal practices are the order of the day at N.C.I. The Rugby players are turning out and no heavy work is being indulged in.

CARRIED WIFE TO BED

Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minesing, Ontario.—"I am a practical nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three years I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to eat a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed. I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering as I did and got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so he went and got a bottle for me. When I had taken three bottles I was just like a new woman and have had splendid health ever since. When I feel any bearing-down pain I always take it; sometimes a bottle or whatever I need. It is the only medicine and I have told many a one about it. Any one wanting to know more about it, I will gladly write to her. I do all I can to recommend it for I feel I owe it to health and strength to it."—Mrs. Mary Bowser, R.R. 1, Minesing, Ontario.

Do you feel broken-down, nervous and weak sometimes? Do you have this horrid feeling of fear now and then times comes to women when they not well? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to build up such a time. It always helps. Why not take it regularly and see if taken regularly and persistently it will relieve this condition.

LEAFS WIN BUT FRONTENACS LOSE

On Tuesday evening Belleville Alemites defeated the Frontenacs in the Armouries in Belleville, but the Leafs trounced the Alemite girls 18-8.

The Frontenac and Alemites played first, and served up a pretty snappy game, although it was not as fast as the one here last week. Davidson, Alemite hurler, had the locals at his mercy, although he was very wild. His terrific speed completely dazzled the Frontenacs, and but two hits were registered off him, although two runners crossed the plate. Alemites collected seven runs in the 1st innings, the result of some very heavy hitting. Davidson's successor yielded 4 runs in the last three innings.

Murray and Daverin twirled for the locals. The game was punctured by two lightning double plays, both by the locals. Reid started the 1st twin killing by grabbing a liner and doubling an Alemite off 1st base. The second came when Kirby speared a line drive and doubled up at 3rd. In the 5th innings, Belleville threw in their heavy ball, which resembled a football more than a softball, and as a result Alemites lacked on four counters when the locals couldn't become accustomed to the large ball.

The teams:—

Frontenacs—Daverin lf and p, Garratt rf, Fraser 1b, MacDonald ss, Kirby 2b, Reid cf, Bentley 3b, Murray p and rf, Harrison c.

Alemites—Fleigle 3b, Kerr cf, Palmer 1b, Bilnup 2b, Peste ss, Rigley rf, Davidson p, Gibson lf, Darragh c.

Umpires—Meagher and Naphin.

Leafs 18, Alemites 8.

By heavy and timely hitting the Leafs trounced Alemites 18-8, and clearly demonstrated their superiority over their conquerors of last week. Alemites were never in the hunt and were beaten by a better team. Every member of the Leafs played wonderful ball, and making 2 hits, first appearance in the role of pitcher, Hazel O'Neill had the Alemites eating out of her hand and was never in danger. This girl pitched wonderful ball and certainly did great work. She was held up by Marion Grass, her regular first baseter. Her throwing to bases, especially to 2nd, couldn't have been improved upon. She beat four runners by 10 ft. and looked exceptionally good on several plays at the plate. That infield of Margaret Douglas, Marion Embury, Mary Stinson and Irene Embury played wonderful ball and all welded heavy bats. Marion Embury pasted a four-bagger with two on, and Mary Stinson promptly clouted a long triple to deep centre, but

Doctor—"Are you bothered with things dancing before your eyes?"

Tired Business Man (ardent musical comedy first-nighter)—"No; in fact, I rather like it."

Useful in Camp.—Explorers, surveyors, prospectors and hunters will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil very useful in camp. When the feet and legs are wet and cold it is well to rub them freely with the Oil and the result will be the prevention of pains in the muscles, and should a cut, or contusion, or sprain be sustained, nothing could be better as a dressing or lotion.

The family was enjoying a nice tea, when father remarked: "When I was young we hadn't all these good things to eat—no jam and no rich cake."

Quietness reigned for a moment, when the youngest piped out: "You are much better off now, father since you came to live with us."

Nation-wide Fame.—There is scarcely a corner of this great Dominion where the merits of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil have not been tried and proved. It is one of the world's most efficient remedies for sore throat, bronchitis and many other ailments arising from inflammation. Rubbed on the skin its healing power is readily absorbed, and it can also be taken internally.

"No. I couldn't get there, but I sent Johnson a pair of sugar-tongs for a hundred people."

A shepherd was sleeping peacefully through a thunderstorm one night. His wife, however, was trembling with fear, and as flash after flash and peal after peal filled the valley around them she seized the shepherd and shook him violently.

Suddenly the waiter noticed that the party of four dinners were beckoning to him with frantic gestures. He crossed to their table.

Apparently an argument was taking place with regard to the formation of the world. One man declared that China was the oldest known country, another Russia, and so on. The waiter, who, by the way, was a Scotchman, was asked to settle the matter.

He said that Ireland was the oldest country.

"How is it then," asked a member of the party, "that there is no mention of any of you being in the Ark with Noah?"

"Oh, sure, Ireland was always an independent nation entoirely," said the waiter, "and she had boats of her own then."

SMILING COURTESY.

Something of Which There Is by No Means Enough In the World.

After war is abolished the great reform next in order will be that of instilling that of universal courtesy. This reform may be said to be on its feet, even at the present time, but it is wobbly legged and needs a great deal of encouragement.

We have some very courteous individuals in our midst, most of whom were born that way and who insist on staying that way despite all temptations to the contrary, but we have some who are almost hopeless.

Courtesy is just another name for unselfishness. The greedy, self centered individual is never courteous, no matter what kind of manners he displays in public. Courtesy does not reveal itself for effect. It is not calculating. It acts out of the promptings of consideration for the just claims and rights of others, and in smaller matters at least it is even willing to make sacrifices. It is the sense of service revealed in action.

When you give your neighbor a smile instead of a frown you do him a real service, for you cause him to smile and be happy. It is courteous, therefore, to smile.

When you smother the needless word of criticism you have some one a pang. It is courteous, therefore, to control your tongue.

It doesn't matter very much at just what angle you tip your hat to a lady, although it is commendable to start in both points. The important thing is to look as though you were glad of the opportunity to tip it. That is the real courtesy.

If the world would start out to-day to follow two rules—smile and avoid using gossip—it would be almost civilized at the end of a year.

The First Laugh Was the Last.

A personable young man with little baggage but a winning smile engaged two rooms and bath at one of the finest hotels in a western city. He spun a twenty dollar gold piece across the desk and said, "I'll stay that much anyhow, and when that's used up let me know." The room clerk smiled and turned the gold over to the cashier to be credited to the man's account. He fared sumptuously every day.

A bill for $95 was presented to the young man a week later. He frowned and handed it to the room clerk. "This is all wrong," he said. "You remember I paid you $20 in advance and said I'd take that much of your hospitality!"

"Yes, but that was only a joke," the clerk protested.

"I wasn't joking, and you can't get another cent out of me," said the personable young man. They sent for the proprietor, Colonel Sackett. He listened to the facts, glowered awhile, then broke into a genial grin and exclaimed, "I'll give you your money back and a receipt in full if you'll go over and play this trick on the —— House."

"Sorry, colonel," answered the young man, "but Mr. Hatem of the —— House gave me a week's board to come over and play it here."

German Lance Heavy.

"Among the most interesting of the war trophies that have found their way over here," says the Manchester (Eng.) Guardian, "are some specimens of the German lance. It is not a wooden pole, but an eleven or twelve foot steel tube. It is very heavy, and at first seems quite unmanageable to a man of ordinary strength. But two-thirds of the way down from the head towards the butt is a wrapping of thick twine to give a grip. And just hold it there, and there only, you find that it is so evenly poised that, as one admiring observer remarked, you could write your name with it.

"There have been some descriptions of cases where these tubular lances have crumpled up in action like an overburdened fly meet on a racing yacht. Perhaps that may be accounted for by the peculiar shape of the head. There is no point or spear of any kind. Instead, there is a solid piece of iron shaped exactly like the end of a giant poker, square and quite blunt."

Her Memory All Right.

Mrs. Geddes had a new maid, and she found it necessary to repeat her instructions several times before Nora obeyed them. The mistress had told her repeatedly about the finger bowls, and on the first dinner there were guests they were again forgotten.

"Now, Nora," said Mrs. Geddes, extremely exercised over the omission, "this is the sixth time I've had to tell you about the finger bowls. Didn't the woman you last worked for have them on the table?"

"No, mum," replied Nora; "her friends always washed their hands before they cum."

Childhood Ailments

Can Be Quickly Banished With Baby's Own Tablets

The ailments of childhood are many but nine-tenths of them are due to one cause and one cause only—a disordered condition of the stomach and bowels. To quickly banish any of the minor ailments of babyhood and childhood the bowels must be made to work regular and the stomach must be sweetened.

No other medicine for little ones has had such success as has Baby's Own Tablets. They banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers; correct diarrhoea and colic and promote healthful sleep by regulating the functions of the stomach and bowels. Concerning them Mrs. L. M. Brown, Walton, N.S., writes:—"I cannot speak too highly of Baby's Own Tablets as I have found them excellent for childhood ailments."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"Mother looks forward to my telephone visits—"

said Helen to her husband—

"That was a wonderful idea of yours, Fred, that I should alternate my letters to mother with telephone calls.

"She misses me a good deal, and she was just delighted when she heard my voice. We talked over a lot of things, too — settled more questions in three minutes than we could have done in twenty letters.

"And it's so much easier than writing! We were both so pleased that I've arranged to call her every Wednesday night now—"

To bridge those unavoidable gaps, there is nothing like an occasional talk by Long Distance. For a few minutes the miles are rolled away and sundered friends are brought face-to-face.

SAFETY AND SERVICE IN LATEST BENCH MARK

In the early days of the Geodetic Survey of Canada experience taught the precise leveller that the best safeguard for the bench-mark (the mark that indicates the altitude above sea level) against vandalism was to make it as inconspicuous as possible. Thus for years the standard bench-mark was a small bronze bolt set vertically or horizontally in such permanent structures as public buildings, etc. However the inconspicuous bench-mark, while it did secure protection against vandals, by its inconspicuousness was in a fair way of defeating the main object of this Survey, namely, service. This is borne out by the experience of the Director of the Geodetic Survey while attending an annual gathering of engineers a few years ago. At one of the meetings he made the acquaintance of a city engineer of one of the foremost cities in Western Canada. In the course of conversation this engineer expressed a desire that the system of precise levels should soon reach his city as he had been desirous for years to place all of his level records on standard datum. To his amazement, he learned that a standard bench-mark was located at the entrance of his city hall and for a number of years every time he entered his office he had passed within a few feet of it.

The Geodetic Survey since that time has adopted a larger and more conspicuous mark which combines both the features of safety and utility.

A man appeared at a police station and said:

"Oh, in regard to the watch which I reported was stolen yesterday, I have since found that it is not lost at all."

"You are too late," replied the superintendent, "the thief has been arrested."

An elderly man boarded a train at Crewe. The next stop was Warrington, and just as the train was about to leave Warrington a young man dashed along the platform and threw himself into a corner seat of the same compartment.

When the young man had had a little time to cool down from his strenuous exertions, the old man said:—

"Look here, young man, there is no need for all this puffing and blowing. When I was your age, I could always catch a train without so much trouble."

"Sir," replied the young man, "allow me to say that I missed this train at Crewe".

Shrub May Prove Valuable.

Two years before the war, as the story is told, two German chemists applied for permission to experiment with the plant life on a great semi-arid ranch in central Mexico. Their request was granted, with the understanding that they furnish a complete report of their findings. The two chemists worked feverishly, and chiefly on a squat, odorous shrub called "gobernadora," long reputed to possess medicinal properties. Suddenly they disappeared; what they had discovered was never known. Now, after experiments with this same desert shrub which they have found in drier parts of New Mexico, chemists of the United States department of agriculture believe that they have discovered another alkaloid to add to the list which already includes morphine, quinine and cocaine. Its chemical and pharmaceutical properties are now under investigation.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Trapper's Tomb a Log Cabin.

A humble log cabin which stands in a trackless forest near Lake Athabasca, in western Canada, was once the home of a fur trapper, its builder. Now it is a tomb, sheltering the frozen body of its former occupant, who died there, alone and unaided, nearly two years ago. To investigate the cause of the trapper's death, a fearless member of the royal northwest mounted police journeyed to the desolate scene in midwinter, braving the terrors of the wilderness for months before reaching his objective, situated miles from railroads and civilization. The corpse was in a perfect state of preservation, due to the cold, dry air, and was not moved from the bunk on which the trapper passed away.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Last Resort.

An eminent engineer said in our hearing yesterday, that in Italy the workers are giving two hours of their time as a free gift to the state. They realize that increased production means ultimately increased wealth. In Germany there are signs of the same spirit among the colliers. But in old England the following story admirably illustrates the industrial situation: Two miners were discussing the minimum wage. "Say, Bill," said the first, "what's this 'ere minimum wage?" Bill spat. "The minimum wage! That's what we gets for goin' down; an' if we wants ter make any more brass, we goes and does some work for it."—London Morning Post.

NAVY LIBRARY WORTH VISIT

Apartment in States, War and Navy Building at Washington Should Appeal to Tourists.

The navy library, in the state, war and navy building, is a lovely place to soak up atmosphere. Like the building itself, it is thirty-three years old. When it was built England, France, Spain and Italy presented the marbles of porphyry, alenna and malachite with which the walls are paneled. Mexico sent the pieces of onyx which encrust the gallery. The round stone over the door came from the ruins of Pompeii. The connoisseur in marble who visits Washington will enjoy it well here.

In the center of the large room, lined with shelves of weighty tomes on naval matters, there is a large and important green-topped table. Around this table sat the strategic board of the Spanish-American war. Here also the naval advisory board for the great war made their secret plans and experiments. Edison, Maxim, Miller and many others conferred over it, with the windows carefully darkened and a guard before the door.

There is a quaint side to the library, too. A little white-haired lady can be seen any time, flitting about the shelves of dark, heavy books, or cutting and pasting busily in her corner by the window. This is Miss Mason, daughter of a former secretary of the navy. She has been in the library 26 years. If you happen in near noon she may give you a cup of tea on one corner of her desk.

And of all charming places to have an unexpected cup of tea, with a sweet little lady, this quiet nook among the books is recommended.

TWO TRAVELERS CAME BACK

According to Army Captain, Mules Returned From That Dim and Undiscovered Shore.

The regimental morning report is a fearsome document. On it appear all the changes in status of men and animals for each preceding 24 hours. It happened in an Ohio regiment once that two mules fell ill one night. The veterinarian gave his verdict of hopeless, and the captain of the supply company accordingly made the proper entry on the morning report: "Two mules, from duty to dead."

But under the care of the grizzled old stable sergeant the mules recovered and next morning the captain found them alive and kicking. Now, entries made on the morning report can never be erased, which made the situation embarrassing for the captain. However, he was a man of resource, and the next day's report carried the startling entry: "Two mules, from dead to duty."

Baked Apple Sauce.

Pare, core and quarter tart apples. Place in layers in a gallon stone jar, sprinkling each layer with sugar, using about two cups of sugar in all. Cover and bake in a very slow oven for several hours. It will be better if baked all day. When thoroughly cooked it will be rich red in color. This may be canned while hot.

Try Another Note.

Shop forewoman (to great musician, practising on the French horn) —"The factory managers over the way send their compliments, and will you switch off on to another note, 'cos a lot of the 'ands 'ave mistaken it for the dinner hour."

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action, it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germs.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchical asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

40,000 Trucks Now Use Ontario's Highways

Commercial users have increased from less than 2,800 in 1916 to 40,000 in 1926.

County engineers and others complain of damage to roads because of overloading of trucks and speed at which they are driven on highways.

The necessity of limiting loads was recognized by the Government three years ago. Unless you wish more drastic legislation, further limiting of weight and speed, you will co-operate with the Department and obey the law.

All tax payers must not be penalized because of temporary profit to the few.

Road repair bills should never be burdensome and will not be if you use the highways reasonably.

Penalties are provided for overloading and fast driving. These should be unnecessary, but will be rigidly enforced whenever necessary.

THE HON. G. S. HENRY, Minister of Highways

S. L. SQUIRE, Deputy Minister

Issued by the Ontario Department of Highways to secure the co-operation of motorists and truck operators in abating the abuse of the roads of the Province.

N.C.I. FIELD DAY LAST FRIDAY

Many Fine Marks, But No Records Broken. — Reid Breaks Arm

The field events of the N.C.I.'s Field Day were run off at the N.C.I. grounds last Friday and brought the making of some fine athletes to light. Unfortunately, Clifford Reid, of Odessa, an entrant in the Intermediates, broke his arm in the Pole Vault. This accident puts Reid out of the running, and was very unfortunate as he was right in the running for the Intermediate Crown. rivalry between the Spartans and Athenians was very keen, and like the Spartans and Athenians of old, they are striving for supremacy in all branches of sport although the Spartans have had a slight edge so far.

The results of the boys were :—

"S" is for Spartan, and "A" for Athenian.

Senior Running Broad Jump—R. Cowle-(S), D. Anderson (A), M. Corkill (A), 17'9½".

Intermediate—L. Merritt (A), C. Reid (S), W. Smith, 32'9".

Junior—H. Robinson (A), T. Oliver, R. Herrington (S).

The Girls' events turned up some fine girl athletes, and although no records were broken, it is plain to be seen that there are some future stars in the lower forms. As in the boys' events the competition between the Spartans and Athenians was very keen.

The results were :—

OBITUARY

Archie McAvoy, 24 years of age, was almost instantly killed when caught in a pulley around which he was working at the Empire Cotton Oil Mills, Wednesday afternoon. He was attempting to put a belt on a pulley near the ceiling in the meal room. Somehow he got entangled with both shaft and pulley, which wound his body around the shafting. In January last Mr. McAvoy married Miss Mamie Braswell, and had been residing at Stanley Street. Mr. McAvoy was well liked by his fellow-workmen and all who knew him, having come here from Canada a little over a year ago. Besides his wife, he leaves two sisters, Marguerite and Loretta, of Toronto, Ont., and one brother, Jack, of Campbellford, Ont. His sister-in-law, Mrs. James Mc. Avoy, of Toronto, are expected to arrive here on Saturday to accompany the remains to their home at Belleville, Ont., where his funeral will take place.—The Courier-Herald, Dublin, Georgia.

Would not be Without Zutoo Tablets At Any Cost

Mr. A. O. Norton, the millionaire Jack Manufacturer, of Boston, who recently died, was a great "booster" for Zutoo Tablets.

He suffered from headaches from childhood and when he found Zutoo Tablets stopped these headaches in a few minutes and left no bad effect, he began recommending them to his family and friends. In an unsolicited letter, Mr. Norton says in closing:

"My family use them when ever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from Headache and they never failed to give quick relief. I always carry Zutoo Tablets in my grip on the road and WOULD NOT BE WITHOUT THEM AT ANY COST."

CANADA LEADS EMPIRE IN SILVER PRODUCTION

High Rate of Output Likely To Be Maintained — The Provinces Contributing

Canada has held the premier place within the Empire as the greatest producer of silver for the past two decades. During the last few years Canada has been the third largest producing country in the world, being outranked only by Mexico and the United States. Last year (1925) third place was captured by Peru, whose production exceeded that of Canada by slightly over one and a half million ounces.

The principal producing areas in Canada are, in order of their importance, Ontario, British Columbia, and Yukon. Silver ores have also been found in other parts of the Dominion, but the total production from these areas has been small. The total recorded production to the end of 1925 is 493 million fine ounces, last year's output being slightly in excess of 20 million ounces. The market price of silver fluctuates from day to day; the highest yearly averages were recorded on the London market, in 1855 and 1854 at $1.348, and in 1920 at $1.546. The lowest price was in 1915 at $0.519. The total market value placed on Canada's production during the years for which records are available (1887 to 1925), based on average market values from year to year was $318,826,880. In 1925 the production was valued at $12,815,762.

The mines of Cobalt, South Lorrain, and Gowganda, all in the province of Ontario, are at present Canada's principal silver producers. Ontario's mines have contributed slightly over 363.2 million ounces to the accumulated total of Canada's silver production, of which only 1.8 million ounces were produced prior to 1903, the year of the discovery of the Cobalt area. The average production in Ontario for each of the past four years was 10.7 million ounces. Dividends paid out to the end of 1925 by silver companies operating in northern Ontario amounted to approximately $92,500,000.

Silver production in British Columbia and in Yukon is obtained from lead-zinc ores. The present rate of production in British Columbia is about 8,500,000 ounces per annum; Yukon production last year was about 905,000 ounces. There appears to be every reason to believe that the present rate of production of silver in Canada will be maintained for some years to come. The decline in production in Cobalt has been more than compensated by new discoveries and increased production from South Lorrain and Gowganda, and there has also been an increase in the production from British Columbia.

A writer observes that nowadays a woman will sacrifice everything to her complexion. Even her complexion.

LIGHTS ON VEHICLES

Police Magistrate S. B. Arnold, of Chatham, it is stated, has asserted that the Kent County Council ought to pass at its December meeting a by-law calling for the use of lights on all vehicles driven at night on highways within the county. A number of accidents, he has said, have occurred of late in the district because drivers of automobiles have been dazzled by the bright headlights of other approaching motor vehicles and have failed to observe in time unlighted horse-drawn vehicles a few yards ahead of them on the roads.

In Mr. Arnold's opinion "a rig at night without a light is the most dangerous thing on a road. A bicycle at night without a light might be, from the rider's viewpoint, an even more dangerous thing but, according to the Ontario Highway Traffic Act, every bicycle in the Province must display at night either a red light or a reflector that will be visible from the rear of the machine. The Ontario Traffic Act sets forth the types of lights that shall be used on motor vehicles in all parts of the Province. It does not stipulate that horse-drawn vehicles throughout the Province shall be equipped at night with protective lights. Instead, the statute authorizes municipalities to pass by-laws that will compel the use of lights on such vehicles on the roads. In some counties the municipal councils have passed such by-laws; in others the councils have not taken action. Some councils that have not passed by-laws have favored the principle embodied in the proposed enactments but have contended that a law governing the use of lights on horse-drawn vehicles and applicable throughout the Province should be promulgated by the Legislative Assembly of the Province. Just why such a general law has not been passed by the Legislative Assembly possibly is not clear to everyone in the Province. Perhaps, the legislators felt that in some districts there might be as yet little rapidly moving motor traffic, that in such districts it might be unnecessary to require the use of lights on horse-drawn vehicles at night and that, therefore, it would be advisable to give local bodies discretion to deal with the question in accordance with local requirements. Still, it must be admitted that, as Mr. Arnold says, a rig at night without a light is a dangerous thing on a road both from the viewpoint of its occupants and the occupants of other conveyances. Anyone who has driven at night on highways in the country knows that an unlighted horse-drawn vehicle is not likely to be seen from a distance. It may not be noticed until it comes within range of a motor vehicle's headlights. If it were equipped with lights it would be noticed long before it came within the range of a following automobile's headlights and be much less likely to be the cause of a highway accident.

Just why county councils in thickly populated sections of the Province should hesitate to legislate on the subject, many people may find difficulty in understanding. They may be reluctant to impose upon owners of horse-drawn vehicles in the county the duty of supplying themselves with lights for those vehicles and oil to keep the lights burning. On the other hand, it is not easy to comprehend why persons, compelled to travel in horse-drawn vehicles at night on highways used by many motor vehicles, should not provide themselves, without compulsion, with lights for their own protection, if not for the protection of other people.

FINAL REPORT OF PEAT COMMITTEE

Fuel Can Be Prepared by Air-Drying —Many Large Bogs Favourably Situated

The prospect of the establishment of a peat fuel industry in Canada has been materially advanced by the investigations carried on by the Peat Committee, according to the final report of that body, published by the Department of Mines. The Peat Committee was appointed jointly by the Governments of the Dominion of Canada and the Province of Ontario, with the object of finding, if possible, a practical working and commercially-feasible method of making available the products of our extensive peat deposits as an auxiliary source of fuel supply, especially in the "Acute Fuel Area" of Ontario and Quebec. The foreword to the committee's final report states that a gratifying measure of success had been met by the committee in its investigations and that the object of its appointment had been substantially attained.

The unsatisfactory situations which have arisen in parts of Canada, particularly in Ontario and Quebec, through the dependence on importation of foreign origin brought forward the necessity for a domestic source of fuel supply for this area. An investigation into the possibilities of peat was carried on by the committee at the peat bog near Alfred, Ontario, about 40 miles east of Ottawa. During the period of investigation machines were designed and methods developed by which the production of peat on a commercial basis could be accomplished. The investigators went further and made a study of the uses to which peat fuel could be put and how the bogs not worked for fuel and those from which the peat had been removed could be utilized for agricultural purposes or otherwise advantageously disposed of.

The outstanding conclusions arrived at by the committee were that the only methods or processes which could be economically employed for the manufacture of peat fuel were those employing air-drying, that the climatic conditions in Ontario and Quebec were favourable for the manufacture of peat fuel for 100 days during the summer season, and that the commercial production of this form of fuel, on a large scale, could be conducted on many of the bogs which had been examined in detail, and which were favourably situated with regard to centres of population and transportation facilities.

A FINE TONIC FOR NERVOUS WOMEN

Proof That Building Up The Blood Will Strengthen the Nerves

If you want strong nerves you must make the effort yourself. You can help yourself by refusing to worry, by taking the proper rest, sleep and out-of-door exercise. For medicine take only Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which promptly build up the blood and thus feed the starved, frayed nerves.

A case of extreme nervous exhaustion restored by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is that of Mrs. R. Dundas, Peterboro', Ont., who says:—"Some years ago I suffered a complete nervous breakdown. I doctored with two local doctors, but got no relief. In fact I was growing worse and weaker all the time. In this condition my mother came to take care of me and urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as she had taken them all through the change of life with splendid results. At this time I felt so far gone that I did not care whether I lived or not. But the coaxing of my mother and other relatives finally persuaded me to try the pills. By the time I had taken a few boxes I was feeling a little improvement and was able to move around. As I kept on taking the pills I felt myself able to go out and made a practice of going to a near-by store every second week to weigh myself, and I gained rapidly from 103 to 135 pounds." I continued taking the pills for several months, and it is impossible for me to express in words the wonders they did for me. Nobody but myself knows the tortures I endured from nerve trouble, and now, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am a normal, healthy woman. I do not think anyone troubled as I was can find a better remedy than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

If your dealer does not keep the pills you can get them by mail at 50c. a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MOSCOW WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The October meeting of the Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Wilmot Shangraw, Colebrook, twenty-five members and visitors being present.

The meeting was opened by singing the Ode and repeating the Lord's Prayer.

The roll call was answered by "Aunt Het's" sayings, which caused much laughter.

The usual routine of business was conducted, and plans made for the annual Hallowe'en party, which will be given at the home of Mrs. A. A. Asselstine, on October 28th. Everybody to come in costume.

All were delighted to have present at the meeting Mrs. J. Shibley, of Harrowsmith Institute, who so pleasingly gave two solos, and a splendid address, which were very much appreciated.

The Current Events paper was very ably prepared, and read by Mrs. Lyall Milsap. Miss Doris Asselstine favored with a well rendered piano solo. Mrs. W. Shangraw and little niece, Miss Aileen Patterson, also gave a piano duett.

The November meeting will be held at Mrs. Lyall Milsap's home. One feature of the meeting will be an apron exhibit. A prize will be given for the best fancy apron, and one for the best work apron, made by members of the Institute.

The meeting was closed by singing "God Save the King".

The hostess and committee served delicious refreshments, which all enjoyed sitting around the open fire place, which made the room so cosy and comfortable.

MES. MORLEY HUFFMAN,
Press Reporter.

Jenkins had held a very good position as manager to a large manufacturing company that had just been forced to close its doors owing to trade depression. He ordered his housekeeper not to prepare expensive meals and to save on everything he could, as he was out of employment.

About a week later,he happened to go into the kitchen, where, to his astonishment, he saw a fine, tender fowl ready for roasting.

On the good lady's return he asked her what she meant of going, quite contrary to his instructions.

"Oh," replied the housekeeper, "it is you who is out of employment, not me; and the fowl's not for your dinner, it's for mine."

The rather excited lady dashed hurriedly along the street and at last turned in at the gate upon which was a brass plate announcing that a doctor lived within.

Ringing the bell, she demanded to see the physician, and, on being ushered into his consulting-room, she burst out :

"Oh, doctor, will you please come along at once? My husband has another of his bad fits."

The doctor at once started to make preparations for departure, and pre-

Presentation and Address.

On October 1st the friends and neighbors presented Mr. and Mrs. Tendall, who were leaving Napanee, with the following address and an electric piate and carving set.

To Mr. and Mrs. Tendall and Family:

As you are about to leave us, and the pleasant ties and associations that have so long bound us together as friends and neighbors are soon to be severed, we feel that we could not let you depart without making an effort to express the sorrow we feel at parting with those who have so loyally stood with us in pleasure and in sorrow. You are leaving those who will remember you with the kindest feelings, and hope and trust that in your new associations to which you are going you will ever remember from whom you are now called to part.

Please accept this small token of the esteem in which you are held by those who have been privileged often in this present world, and finally to meet where friends are never called to take the parting hand.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours,

ANDREW G. FORD.
JOHN A. BIRRELL.
G. A. DOUGLAS.

IN MEMORIAM.

In fondest memory of Donald Roy, the darling baby of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garrison, who died October 14th, 1925.

He was only a little white rosebud,
A sweet little flower from birth;
God took him home to heaven,
Before he was soiled on earth.

One year has passed since that sad day,
God called the one we loved away;
Forget him, no, we never will,
We loved him then, we love him still.

42ap

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Gladys MacTaggart, who left this world Oct. 12th, 1925. Also little sister, Nina, who departed seven years ago.

We know that we shall find them
When tears are wiped away,
Amid the white robed angels,
Who praise their Lord away.

For well we know our darlings
Are safe within that home,
Where neither pain or death
Or partings ever come.

Greatly missed by Mother, Daddy and Flora. 42a

Autumn Preparedness at Robinson's

The scene changes. Nature sounds a new note. Men go about the business of living with a quickened step and a keener sense. Autumn is the harvest time in field and factory, in store and market-place. The fireside beckons. There is a rustle amongst the leaves of the trees and the leaves of books. What is there more splendid, more colorful, more satisfying than the Fall of the year or the Fall-time of life? Both are glorified by experience.

CONWAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Being Grandmother's Day on October 12th, in the Conway Women's Institute, a very enjoyable meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John C. Fitchett. Many various were the quaint costumes and relics displayed at this meeting. One member with a quaint black silk dress having nine widths in her trailing skirt, found a little difficulty in managing it, after the wearing of present day styles. Another lady also dressed in the same manner, created quite a bit of interest as a replica of the styles of our grandmothers. These dresses were accompanied by the inevitable shawl of old days, and one of these a Paisley, a beauty indeed; another one in striped pattern. Also a carpet bag of olden days, and the little vial for smelling salts affected by a past generation. Several pieces of fine old china, one teapot a hundred years old; some rare old brooches, a pair of brass candlesticks, a spinning wheel for spinning flax into linen thread, and an old flint lock musket bought in Ireland in 1795, and which went through the rebellion in that country in 1798, were among the interesting objects displayed. Also two old-fashioned braided rugs made by a genuine living grandmother in her 84 years old, and could teach many younger ones the art. An ancient bedspread handed down for three generations also came in for inspection.

The regular business of the Institute disposed of, Miss H. Rawlinson sang sweetly an old-fashioned song. The Institute was fortunate in having with them at this meeting Dr. C. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Young, of Sandhurst, who gave a very able and interesting address. He spoke of the advance made in the study and practice of medicine since the days of our grandmothers, and then gave a short talk on goitre, its effect on the human system and the form of treatment.

Mrs. Ira Spearing read current events, which were strictly up to date. Mrs. H. Pippen read some beautiful verses. The roll call was answered by each member giving a bit of history of some happening in the neighborhood. After a hearty vote of thanks for those who contributed towards the program, some of the members told little funny jokes. An old-fashioned luncheon of sandwiches, cookies, doughnuts and tea completed this very interesting and enjoyable Grandmother's Day.

Address and Presentation.

A large number of friends and neighbors met at the home of Mrs. Myrtle McWilliams and Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Jeffrey to spend a social evening before their departure to their new home in Camden East. During the evening Mrs. John Jaynes read the following address, and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton and Mrs. James Hamilton made the presentations, to Mrs. McWilliams an electric shade lamp, and to Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey an electric heater.

Dear Mrs. McWilliams and
Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey.

We, a few of your nearest neighbors, have gathered to-night to spend a social hour of the many pleasant evenings which we have enjoyed with you. It is not to say good bye, for we expect to see you just as often in your new home, but for the express purpose of conveying to you the esteem in which you are held by us. You will be missed in the old place where you have spent so many years. But as changes come to all of us in one way or another, we trust this may be a better change (if possible) for you. To show in a small way our appreciation of you as neighbors and friends, we wish you to accept as a reminder of the days spent in our midst, these gifts from your old Bethel friends. Signed,

Mrs. J. E. Hamilton.
Myrtle Hamilton.
Beatrice Lewis.
Mrs. John Jayne.

In retaliation Mr. Jeffrey thanked their many friends for the beautiful gifts presented, and wishing them an enjoyable evening, extending an invitation to them to visit their new home. Dainty lunch was served and all joined in a pleasant evening of entertainment.

EMPEY HILL

Mr. Jesse Russell returned home on Sunday, after attending the funeral of his father-in-law, Mr. Empey. The Ladies' Aid held their regular meeting at the home of Mr. Wilson on Monday evening last, and the social time was enjoyed. Important business was transacted including plans for a social in November. Particulars later. Credit is due the ladies for providing the appearance of a new church with paint lately. The date of the annual fowl supper, which is held here, the United Church Anniversary, will has this year arranged to be a special thankoffering to be applied on the plates at the Sunday afternoon services on Sunday next, October 17th. It is hoped that the whole community will enter into the spirit with enthusiasm, and that all members will take advantage of the opportunity of hearing Rev. W. H. Woodger, B.A., pastor of Bethel church, Napanee, who will preach here at 2 p.m. and 7.30 p.m. Special music. Let us make this a rousing rally.

NAPANEE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Great interest was shown in the program for the October meeting of the Napanee Branch of the Women's Institute held in the Agricultural Classroom on Tuesday afternoon, October 12th, as eighty-six members were present.

After singing the Opening Ode, the minutes of last meeting were read and approved. It was decided to purchase a gramophone for the Public School, and a committee of three, Mrs. Alpine Woods, Mrs. Frank Herrington and Mrs. G. W. Gibbard, to look after same. A Home Nursing Course is to be held, the Secretary to make arrangements with the Department as to date and instructor. This Branch means to use its influence where it will be most felt, and voted to affiliate with the Local Council of Women which meets in Kingston the third Thursday of each month. Mrs. Alpine Woods was unanimously chosen as representative. The local Institute are to serve refreshments at the Ploughing Match on Tuesday, October 19th, and all donations of pies to be sent Mrs. Susie Robinson that morning. Mrs. Ralph Ham was appointed a delegate from the Napanee Branch to the Women's Institute Convention in Ottawa, Mrs. Alpine Woods being the Federation delegate.

The usual splendid and popular paper on current events was read by Mrs. E. Wagar.

Miss Ethel Preston, of the Fruit Branch, Ottawa, was then introduced. Besides giving talks on the food values of our Canadian fruits and vegetables and the place they should occupy in our diet, Miss Preston demonstrated different methods of canning peaches and pears, showing how to select jars, test rubbers, sterilize jars and rubbers, prepare fruit, make syrup and pack fruit in jars. A fruit salad was also canned and the ladies shown how handy and worth-while to have jars of this in their cellars. Besides there was peach and plum conserve for all to taste. One wondered how so much could be demonstrated in an hour, but realized what time had been spent in preparation. The information gained was most valuable, being based on much investigation and experimental work of an expert.

On Wednesday afternoon the demonstration was continued, using the Canadian apple in many ways and delicious dishes. Books on fruits and vegetables, containing many original recipes by Miss Preston, were distributed, and are free for the asking from the Fruit Branch, Ottawa. It is hoped there may be further demonstrations by Miss Preston, that our housewives will use Canadian products rather than imported.

OBITUARY.

Mary Schryver.

At Long Beach, California, on September 10th, 1926, Mary Schryver, wife of the late Collin A. Schryver, passed away, after a brief illness, though she had been ailing for some time, and for a short time previous seemed to be gaining in health.

Deceased was born in North Fredericksburgh, where she married and resided for forty years, later moving with her husband and family to reside in Napanee, from where through the death of her husband, afterwards took up residence with her family at Los Angeles, Cal.

Deceased was very domesticated, of a quiet, retiring disposition, whose first thought was of home and family, and with kindly thoughts for everyone. In early youth she became a member of the Methodist Church, to which throughout her life she adhered faithfully. She leaves two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Ansley, of Kingston, and Mr. Thistlewaite, of Enterprise.

Her remains were brought east, when after an excellent and fitting service conducted by Dr. J. P. Wilson, her former Pastor and friend, the remains were interred in Riverside cemetery.

LEAFS AND FRONTENACS WIN AGAIN

On Wednesday evening the Leafs and Frontenacs took a round out of Deseronto by winning both ends of the doubleheader. Frontenacs started things when they trounced Deseronto 37-7, and the Leafs ended it by taking the Ponies to a 26-20 defeat.

The local "soldiers" showed Deseronto how softball should be played. Murray pitched a fine game and was backed up by splendid fielding and hitting on the part of his team mates. The game was punctured by two lightning fast double-plays, both by the locals. Carl Garrett made the feature catch of the evening, when he picked one off the girders and shot it to first for a double play. Kirby snared a fly which glanced off the girders, and his throw to 1st completed the 2nd double killing. That catch of Garrett's was the best seen in a long time.

The line-ups :—

Deseronto—Whitton 1b, Lyons rf, Perry c, Bruyea 2b, Maracle cf, Cole ss, Detlor p, Webster rf, L. McVicker 3b, C. McVicker p.
Frontenacs—Kirby 2b, Bentley 3b, Murray p, Daverin lf, MacDonald ss, Reid cf, Garrett rf, Harrison c, Fraser 1b.
Score by innings :—
Deseronto	0	2	4	0	1
"B" Company	4	9	6	4	x

Umpires—Neal O'Neill at plate; Lil Wagar on basis.

Leafs 26, Ponies 20.

The Leafs started in by slamming Lil Wagar's pitching all over the lot. They piled up a commanding lead in the early frames and were never headed. There were three circuit clouts during the game. Jean Genereaux lifted a fly in centre but a game of football ensued, and while this game was going on among the outfielders, Miss Genereaux completed the circuit. Alma Gaslin clouted a four-bagger, and then to cap the performance Marion Embury kissed one into deep centre for four bags, scoring two ahead of her. The game was marked by good fielding on the part of both teams although nothing sensational came up. Dot Johnston had the edge on Lil Wagar and 20 runs should not have been scored upon her. Marion Grass hit a three-bagger, and all the others did good work. By the way, we forgot to mention the fact that Margaret Douglas hit a homer in the game in Belleville last week. It was some clout, too! Kathleen Ungar, former local star, turned out with the Ponies. During the game Marion Embury was presented with a handsome wind-breaker bearing a crest, the result of her pounding the ball at a .456 clip all summer. She was the leading hitter on the Leaf's team.

Following is the line-ups :—

Deseronto—Whittin ss, Genereaux 3b, Wagar p, Gaulin 1b, Normile 2b, Hoppings c, Ungar rf, Perry cf, Amey lf.
Leafs—1. Embury cf, M. Embury 2b, Johnston p, Stinson ss, Marion Douglas lf, O'Neill 3b, Grass c, Margaret Douglas 1b, Dickson rf.
Score by innings :—
Deseronto	1	0	1	1	0	2	4	4	7
Napanee	6	1	0	5	2	7	4	1	x

Umpires—Kirby, at plate; Perry, on bases.

BASKETBALL.

To-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, the N.C.I. Seniors and Juniors will take on the Trenton Seniors and Juniors in the new Gymnasium at the Collegiate. The games will start at 3 o'clock. The local Seniors are extraordinarily strong this year. Grace Boyes and Marion Robbins are all that can be asked for in defence players, and Mil. Rikely and Eileen Harrison will look after the centre positions. Catherine Gleeson and Marjorie Daly are two high class forwards, and from all appearances the Seniors ought to win easily.

The Juniors are also strong, with Marion Douglas and Marion Grass on the defence. Hazel O'Neil and Ruth Mallory in centre, and Agnes Cavanaugh, Hazel Moore, Dorothy Wilson and others to look after the forward positions. The admission fee is 15c. and there is lots of room.

PIONEER OF SASKATOON IS DEAD

George Wesley Garrison, one of the first white men to set his foot on the site of the present City of Saskatoon, died this morning at the home of his son, D. W. Garrison, at 710 Walmer Road. The immediate cause of death was bronchial pneumonia, which developed out of a cold contracted about a week ago. Until that time, the late Mr. Garrison enjoyed excellent health. His death breaks another link in the small chain of pioneers of this city.

Saskatoon Born.

When the winter snows disappeared from the prairies in the spring of 1883, there was no settlement which could be called even a hamlet in all the great territory between Prince Albert and Fort Qu'Appelle. Saskatoon had not yet been born.

That year witnessed the beginnings of the present city, and among the first group of men who crossed the South Saskatchewan and set up their tents on the southern bank, where Nutana stands to-day, was George Garrison.

A few short weeks went by and a village of rough shacks rose from the prairie. Gradually, through the passing months, more settlers came more and better buildings were erected, and the little settlement was launched.

Rebellion Days

Two years passed and the fiery Reil and his Metis followers raised the flag of rebellion against the government and defied the armies of General Middleton. Battleford was besieged. The settlers of the Prince Albert district took refuge behind a stout log stockade. Fort Carlton was burned and Frozier's men fell in ambush near Duck Lake. Middleton and his column fought a sharp skirmish with the rebels under Gabriel Dumont at Fish Creek. Finally Batoche fell and Riel was captured and the rebellion ended.

George Garrison, together with most of the other able-bodied white settlers of Saskatoon, took part in the military operations. Mr. Garrison was attached to a transport column, and later in the rebellion worked in the base hospital established in Saskatoon, which was entirely on the Nutana side of the river at that time. To the emergency hospital were brought wounded soldiers from the Fish Creek and Batoche engagements.

In 1886 George Garrison established a boarding house, known to the old-timers as the "stone house", where Broadway and 11th street now meet. The building is still there, although altered and remodelled beyond recognition.

Went to Clavet

The boarding house was operated until 1891 or 1892. In that year the late Mr. Garrison left for the Clavet district and established a cattle ranch two miles west of Clavet, where he resided until June of this year, when he returned to Saskatoon to spend his declining days with his son.

According to D. W. Garrison, the son, the elder Mr. Garrison, who was known for his robust constitution, enjoyed the best of health until he contracted the cold about a week ago. He was well-known among the old-timers of the West.

He is survived by two sons, D. W. Garrison, of Saskatoon, and W. P. Garrison, of Chicago, and Mrs. W. B. Bate, of this city. Mrs. George W. Garrison died about seven years ago. Also surviving are twelve grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral Not Settled

Funeral arrangements had not been completed this morning pending word from Mr. Garrison's son in Chicago. Should W. P. Garrison be able to make the trip to Saskatoon, the funeral will be delayed until his arrival.

A telegram is expected from him this afternoon. If he is unable to come funeral services will be held at two o'clock Monday afternoon. If Mr. Garrison were to leave Chicago to-day, he could reach Saskatoon by Tuesday.—Saskatoon Star, October 2nd, 1926.

Saskatoon, Oct. 5th, 1926.

To the Editor Napanee Beaver.

Dear Sir:

In old times, when visiting the home in Saskatoon of Mr. and Mrs. Garrison, and incidentally of their daughter Maud, who for thirty years has been more than the usual better half to me, one of the papers they looked for in their very sporadic mail was the Beaver of Napanee. I take it that so good a paper must still be living and send you a matter of news that may be of real interest to some residents about Napanee, Morven and North Fredericksburgh.

The names of Garrison and Perry were those of good old stock resident about North Fredericksburgh. Gideon Garrison, Mr. George Wesley Garrison's father, held a farm that is probably to-day known as the old Garrison farm there, and near by, possibly right there or at Morven, was the Perry place. Gideon had a fairly numerous family,—I have heard the names of Nathan, John, Charles and others I forget. Fine old stock they must have been. George came to Saskatoon in 1883; came with his eldest son, Donald W., returning in 1885, after the Riel Rebellion ended, in which he played a part, freighting, attending to the hospital base at Saskatoon, etc., and in the spring of 1886 or fall of 1885, returned to Saskatoon, bringing with him Mrs. Garrison (nee Elizabeth Perry) and their family.—Donald W. remained at Saskatoon, the eldest, Sandy McVean, Wilkerson Perry, Everton Willett and Maud Amelia. That is giving it very fully. I came in August, 1886. When I came, the boys and Mr. Garrison were very busy over the erection of what remained until very recent times as a historic landmark, the solid stone house known to travellers for many years, to their great comfort, as the Garrison House. That was completed that fall. To that house, partly because of its size and comfort, partly because of the nature of the family, but mainly because of the unfailing welcome always there, and its open table, Mrs. Garrison's great contribution to the community of young men and women, everybody turned. What a place to dance in! What a place to come to on desperate winter nights when the fierce storms of those old winters cut through and through the general run of houses. Always somebody home, always something doing, and always a welcome and never failing the help of any kind for those in any kind of trouble. The name of Mrs. Garrison remains green in the memory of all of that day who still have memory left them.

George, like many others in this country where there were then no markets, except for cattle, which could be sold to passing buyers, and except also for a small demand for oats and hay for surveyors or Government use, police, etc., just "made a living" anyhow, but never failing. His place was not a hotel in that sense of the word, but travellers were always taken in and there were horses for hire. How the living was made, heaven knows. It was just a matter of wits. A small herd of cattle gradually grew into a large one, the place being so sparsely settled, the wild hay could be found and cut almost anywhere, and close to the village, and it was no simple matter to provide for the herd's winter wants. But the herd prospered and the market for cattle being steady and increasing, it seemed the wisest thing to work the cattle end of his business to its limit. Wilkie and Sandy had long since left home in 1890 or 1892—the time now speak of—having first joined the North West Mounted Police, served their three years and gone away to the States. Everton and Maud were the only ones remaining. Everton went out some 17 miles west of the village and located a place suitable for a cattle ranch and to that the herd was removed, Everton running the place and a bachelor's hall. Time rendered that a poor arrangement and the old stone house became deserted, the whole family went out to the ranch, then built there a fine home and until 1925 it was the Garrison home, the old stone house having fallen by the Real Estate way and demolished, to make way for better building. Maud alone did not go out there, having decided some years before that my bachelor place needed her more than the ranch did.

From 1892 to 1915 things went on well. Everton married, staying there with the old people in a house on one of the quarters of land they then had. But in 1915, June 10th, Everton died in very untimely fashion, of myelitis, spreading from some injury. Mrs. Garrison died, to make matters worse, in 1916, Feb. 23rd, of pneumonia. Mr. Garrison refused to leave the old place, and for a number of years lived on there with a housekeeper part of the time, and part of the time, especially recently, with his son, Donald, himself a widower. In April or May of this year, however, he decided to leave the place, and came into Saskatoon, living with his son, D. W., until his death recently. It is his death that prompts this letter to you.

A more remarkable man, physically, could hardly be found. I never knew him to be ill. His hair, always thick and dark, did not show any perceptibly with his years. Until the time of his removing to Saskatoon, though not quite as nimble as once he was, he still would do all the customary work about his farm, rising early, out on bare-back for his cows, milking, separating, churning, ploughing, and running any of the usual farm machinery. The last few months, spent in town, were months of keen interest in all that was passing about him in a busy city. To me, that is striking. Most men, wrapped up in their business, narrowing and very circumscribed life of the prairie farmer, could not accustom themselves to the new life to a totally different environment. He did. The farm seemed to be a shut door; the business of the city was a fascination; he entered into every passing matter of interest, games, lectures, political meetings, what not, with real enjoyment. We were delighted at prospect of many years to be spent this way. Age there had somewhat diminished; no doubt the absence of a good wife accounted physically as well as mentally to bring that about, and he would not weigh a hundred pounds, but the erect carriage was there and the old quickness of movement and the energy.

On Saturday, September 26th, having already a slight cold, he was out in a blustering cold wind and had to take to his bed. During the following week, symptoms of bronchitis were evident, developing into bronchial pneumonia. He was not apparently very ill, but by turns seemed so and again rallied to amazing brightness. Only taking into account his age, would it seem to us to be serious. At no time did he suffer more inconvenience than many do with an ordinary severe Scottish cold—headache sometimes, weariness, but nothing that seemed really distressing. On the morning when he died, even, he was sitting up, talking at times, always rational, even with a 105 temperature, and so died, almost without warning. As he lay for burial, those who saw him expressed wonder at the strength and comparatively young appearance of him. He did not look more than 50, though he was within a couple of months of 85. A wonderful iron constitution, heritage of sturdy clean ancestors, husbanded by a rugged and temperate life outdoors. I never saw him or knew him to drink; he did not use tobacco—whether that counts or not. A hardy life, a fine, clean record. Had he been granted uninterrupted home life and the care of his wife, he might have attained a remarkable old age. As it is, there are not many nowadays of his enviable type. He was buried at the Woodlawn cemetery here, beside Mrs. Garrison, on Monday, October 4th, his death occurring on the 2nd.

Of his family, there remain his eldest son, Donald W., resident at Saskatoon; Wilkie P., President of The Garrison Lumber Co., Chicago; and Maud A., my wife, resident here. The son, Sandy, after years of mining in Arizona and Colorado, probably died, but nothing has been traced. A soldier of the same name was reported in the list of killed in the great War, enlisting from Western United States. That may have been he, but it cannot be established.

As far as I can find, only one of the Garrison (Gideon's family) children remains, in George's brother Charles. From his wife, came a letter addressed to George W. just before his death. It is from Cobourg, apparently a place not far out of Vancouver, where he is fruit farming. From the letter one reads, "Will, Warner and Addie are here looking after us. Will is in the real estate business in Vancouver", also "we have been here fourteen years now".

Of the Perry side, Mrs. Garrison's one sister is here, Jane. She must have come to Napanee some eight or ten years ago, when that brother of hers died, in the Napanee district; for whom she and another sister, years kept house. Here Jane Perry married Wm. H. Baker, a grain buyer, and here she still lives, having her home in the place so many years owned by George W. Garrison. Her address is Clavet, Sask.

These matters may interest you. They are told in rambling fashion, but from them you may be able to write an article that will be of great interest to some down about the old places. Mrs. Bate would be greatly interested if some of the news were forthcoming, seeing what you may care to publish, may be stirred to write a letter to Mrs. Bate, 622 21st St., Saskatoon, or a letter addressed to some one offices of the School Board would reach her.

Trusting that you will be interested, I am,

Yours very truly,
WILLIAM P. BATE.

P.S.—Among Mr. Garrison's papers we found his marriage certificate, which is interesting. It is very full, ed and in some places unreadable, but we see the date, February 4th, 1864, the minister's name, William McCulloch, and a witness' name is (Ellen?) Fralick. I am told that this was solemnized probably at what was then and possibly still is known as the "little white Church" at Morven. Is that recognizable?

Children Like Baby's Own Tablets

Because They Are Tasteless and Are Easy to Take

One of the strongest points in favor of any medicine for children is that it is so agreeable that the mother does not have to force it down the little one's throat.

Baby's Own Tablets have no drug taste, may be crushed to a powder if desired, and babies like them. They are perfectly safe for they contain no opiate or narcotic. They sweeten the stomach and remove the cause of fretfulness.

Mrs. Arthur Charlebois, Pawtucket R.I., says: "I have found Baby's Own Tablets to be a gentle laxative and a safe remedy for stomach disorders in children. Our little boy had been given hafish cathartics but these tablets worked more effectively without the severe griping. I can recommend them to all mothers of little children."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Senator's Wife—What is your pleasure in regard to the dinner, my dear?

Senator (just returned from session)—I move that it be laid on the table.

"You know, I have read a good deal about Long Distance service, so this afternoon I called my married daughter."

"Do you mean Shirley who moved up to Morganville, last spring?"

"Yes, and do you know I could hear her voice as distinctly as I hear yours. Shirley was so surprised and delighted that she wants me to call her every week."

Constant improvement in telephone equipment and service has virtually abolished distance. Even between cities hundreds of miles apart, are re-united by the modern magic—Long Distance.

Have you ever visited a distant friend by telephone? If not, why not give someone a pleasant surprise.

Call her by Long Distance.

"FOR THOSE IN PERIL"

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star:

Sir,—It has been the custom ever since I can remember, for the congregations of churches to sing and pray for the safety of those about to cross the ocean and "for those in peril on the sea". May I suggest, not in any spirit of levity, but with all due reverence, that we also pray "for those in peril on the street". It is now safer to cross the sea than to cross a city street.

A POOR PEDESTRIAN.

THE LETTER HOME

Writing a letter, are you? (Mothers wait
With anxious hearts to hear the postman's bell!)
You can't think what to say—it's getting late—
You're tired—you really haven't much to tell?

You think you'll leave it for another day?
There's something else you want to do to-night?
(She's knitting by the fire; I hear her say:
"They know I miss them — and they're sure to write"?)

Here—take your pen and pour out every thought,
Just what you'd say if you were in the gloam
Beside her chair. A mother's life is fraught
With love for you—the bairns away from home!

"Does your mother ever pay you any compliments?" said Sam to his pal Alexander.

"Only in the winter time," replied the other. "When the fire gets low, she says, 'Alexander, the grate!'"

Simple and Sure.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is so simple in application that a child can understand the instructions. Used as a liniment the only direction is to rub, and when used as a dressing to apply. The directions are so plain and unmistakable that they are readily understood by young or old.

Two little girls were saying their prayers prior to being tucked in for the night. When both had finished, the younger of the two climbed on her mother's knee and said in a confidential but triumphant whisper: "Mother, Clara only asked for daily bread; I asked for bread and jam."

Miller's Worm Powders not only make the infantile system untenable for worms, but by their action on the stomach, liver and bowels, they correct such troubles as lack of appetite, biliousness and other internal disorders that the worms create. Children thrive upon them, and no matter what condition their worm-infested stomachs may be in, they will show improvement as soon as the treatment begins.

Two Englishmen were out riding in India when suddenly there dashed out from the jungle a native running for his life, hotly pursued by a large leopard.

"He's making a race of it," remarked one of the Englishmen. "D'ye think you can spot the winner?"

"The winner," came the dry retort, "is spotted."

Cheapest of all Oils.—Considering the qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil it is the cheapest of all preparations offered to the public. It is to be found in every drug store in Canada from coast to coast and all country merchants keep it for sale. So, being easily procurable and extremely moderate in price, no one should be without a bottle of it.

"Pussyfoot" Johnson said on a recent visit to New York:

"Our work is advancing, but it will be a long time before we bring the English to prohibition. I was preaching prohibition in Manchester one night, and I wound up with the words:

"'If I had my way, dear friends, I'd have all the whiskey, beer, brandy, wine, cordials, gin and rum thrown into the river!'

"Then I sat down, and the chairman—a minister, mind—rose and gave out the closing hymn. It was:

"'Shall we gather at the river?'"

The passengers in the big car speeding towars the railroad crossing began arguing whether or not they could beat the train.

"Don't get excited," said the driver, "I can easily make it."

"And I say you can't," shouted the front-seat passenger. "The train will beat us by twenty seconds."

"Gwan!" said the driver, who kept increasing his speed while the argument continued. Finally a passenger in the rear seat who had said nothing so far, remarked as he clutched the sides of the rushing car, "For my part, I don't care a hang who wins this race, but I hope it won't be no tie."

Ontario is Ablaze with Autumn's Splendour

Mr. City Dweller, where did you spend your boyhood days? Was yours the privilege of wandering through the fields and woodland where every tree and bush had been painted by the divine artist?

Today you say 'tis but the hectic flame of a dying year. Then it contained all the mystery of an enchanted palace.

Ontario's highways lead you to the land of yesteryear—over white roads flecked with fallen leaves, patterned here and there by checkered shadows of trees. Field and hillside are gay with fiery sumach. Maple groves aflame backed by the darker evergreen.

Through this lovely panorama, in every direction, leads Ontario's splendid system of highways. You are entitled to enjoy them, for they are yours. Keep in mind, however, that upon you will come the expense of maintaining them in proper condition.

Speeding eats away road surfaces. It "milks" your pocketbook for both motor and road upkeep. Moderate driving is far more economical and pleasurable.

By so doing you will greatly assist the traffic patrol who operate for everyone's safety — who have instructions to enforce the law rigorously.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Barber, Crawling Through Window, Dies.

Albert L. Lafferty, a barber, of Tacoma, came home early Wednesday morning, Oct. 6th, and rather than disturb his wife, who was sleeping, decided to crawl in a window. Placing a ladder against the ledge of a rear window, he climbed up. As he was about to enter, the window fell upon his neck, pinning him to the ledge. Neighbors discovered his lifeless body at daybreak.—Seattle Star, Oct. 6th, 1926.

Young People's Rally.

Napanee is to have the honor of entertaining about two hundred young people of the United Church of Canada for three days, Nov. 3rd, 4th and 5th. They will come from all parts of Eastern Ontario, from points as far distant as Uxbridge on the West, and Prescott on the East. The three days will be given over to a study of the problem of the young people and the part they play in the life of the nation. Leaders in Young People's work will be present to address the gatherings and lead in discussion.

Plowing Match.

Great interest is being taken in the Plowing Match to be held on Mr. W. H. Hunter's farm, on Tuesday, the 19th. There are classes in both sod and stubble for men and boys, and a tractor competition for which several entries have been received. The field to be plowed is a very suitable one, being level and in a convenient location. Parking space for cars will be left around the edge of the field. The Women's Institute will have a tent on the ground where hot coffee, sandwiches, and other eatables will be served. All contestants should be at the ground ready to commence plowing at 10 a.m. 42a

Odessa Women's Institute.

The September meeting of Odessa Women's Institute was held in the Public Library. The roll call was answered by suggestions on preserving and pickling. Part of the sewing was brought in and more given out. It was decided that the use of a blackboard would help to keep in mind the date of the meeting, and perhaps interest some who are not members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Sproule on Wednesday, October 20th. The afternoon will be spent in cutting out material for the Christmas baskets. Don't forget patterns and scissors. Everyone welcome.

In the afternoon, discussions on various phases of junior farming activities will be led by several of the young men present, including R. I. Fallis, Millbrook; Archie Hinnie, Woodville; Cecil Bolton, Indian River; William Ball, Wilton; John Cruickshank, Frankford; Gerald Anderson, Belleville, and Leslie Campbell, Castleton. This Conference will afford an excellent opportunity for junior farmers of Lennox and Addington to meet with those from other counties and discuss topics of common interest. All farmer's sons over 16 years of age who expect to attend should leave their names as soon as possible with J. Laughland, Agricultural Representative.

LEAFS AND FRONTENACS BOTH WIN

On Thursday evening both the Leafs and Frontenacs worr their games before a small crowd in the Armouries. "B" Company Frontenacs started the evening right by trouncing a Napanee team 29-8. With the exception of the 4th innings the game wasn't bad. In the 4th the Frontenacs batted around three times and scored 21 runs. Such an innings was never witnessed before in these parts and perhaps will never be seen again. Napanee used three pitchers but all were hit hard. The feature of the game was the umpiring of three girls who called the plays and didn't do bad. Mary Stinson called the balls and strikes, Hazel O'Neill called them out at 1st and 2nd base, and Marion Douglas did the same at 3b.

The line-ups were :—
"B" Company—Daverin lf, Bentley 3b, Kirby 2b, Fraser 1b, MacDonald ss, Harrison c, Murray p, Powell cf, Howie rf, Garrett rf.

Napanee—Mills ss and p, Huffman cf, Joyce 1b, Skitch 3b, Johnston 2b and p, Scrimshaw rf, Rogers c, Johnston cf, Richardson p and ss.

Score by innings :—

	1	2	3	4	5
"B" Company	0	2	4	21	4
Napanee	0	2	3	3	0

Leafs 12, Tamworth 10.

The pitchers were the whole works in the girls' game. Both Dot Johnston for the Leafs and Miss Lockridge for Tamworth pitched fine ball. Dot fanned 19 batters but Miss Lockridge was right behind with 17 strike-outs. The latter showed a lot of speed and excellent control. That she is a good pitcher is putting it mildly. She fanned nearly every member of the Leafs at least once and some more than once. When a pitcher fans Marion Grass, Mary Stinson and others on the Leafs she must be a fine pitcher.

While the pitchers were battling away, the batters found time to score a few runs, but these were far between. Both teams played wonderful ball but neither showed anything remarkable with the stick, in the face of such fine pitching. The Embury sisters weakened the Leafs by their absence, but Helen Harrigan and Mary Bates filled in nicely.

The teams were :—
Tamworth—B. Milligan 2b, A. Lott, c, J. Milligan cf, C. Lockridge p, B. Galbraith 3b, N. Perry ss, V. Galbraith rf, N. Rumett 1b, L. Carscallen lf.

Leafs—M. Bates cf, Marion Douglas lf and 2b, M. Stinson ss, M. Grass c, H. O'Neill 3b, Margaret Douglas 1b, D. Johnston p, H. Harrington 2b and If, R. Dickson rf.

Umpires—Fraser and Galbraith.

Score by innings :—

Tamworth	2	0	4	0	0	1	0	0	3
Leafs	2	0	2	0	0	1	4	1	2

Many fans and others around town are commenting upon the failure of the Athletic Association at the N.C.I. to present each member with crests. The Rugby season is now in full swing and it would be a good idea to present each member of the team with an N.C.I. crest with the word rugby on it somewhere and so on with the basketball, hockey and other teams. The players themselves would appreciate it, and feel more like turning out.

WEDDING BELLS

Killoran—Currie

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, Marysville, on Monday morning, Sept. 27th, when Mary Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Currie, became the bride of Mr. Hilliard Killoran, of Marksday.

Promptly at nine o'clock the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Stella Collins, of Bridgewater. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father O'Gorman, Parish Priest. The bride looked charming in a gown of blue canton crepe with touches of gold, a black picture hat and a fox choker. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary LeSage, of Tweed, wore a gown of rust satin faced canton with hat to match and a grey squirrel choker. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Earl Killoran, of North Bay.

During the Nuptial Mass, Miss Nora Currie, sister of the bride, sang suitable selections. "Until" was beautifully rendered by Miss Collins, while the register was being signed.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The many and costly gifts testified to the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls, to the bridesmaid a silver mesh bag, to the organist a gold compact and chain, and to the best man a cigarette holder and case.

The bride and groom left amid showers of confetti and good wishes for a motor trip to Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls, and other Western points. They will take up their residence at Marksday.

Vannest—Knowlton.

At the United Church Parsonage, Enterprise, on Wednesday, October 6th, 1926, a quiet wedding took place at 9 a.m., when Lena Pearl, eldest daughter of Mr. Levi Vannest, became the bride of Mr. Silas Knowlton, of Watertown, N.Y., the Rev. H. A. Bunt officiating. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to Napanee, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, and took the 12.30 train for Brockville and other points east, the bride travelling in a dress of Copenhagen Blue Crepe trimmed in brown, with coat and hat to match. On their return they will reside at Watertown, N.Y.

N.C.I. LOSES THE BAY OF QUINTE LEAGUE FIXTURE

On Saturday afternoon both the Junior and Senior Girls' Basketball teams lost their games to Trenton H. S. After a great fight the Seniors lost by one point, but the Juniors were outclassed. The Seniors had the edge on the play with the Trentonians, and should have won. N.C.I. led 14-12 at half time and should have won the game, and they had the best of the play. Nevertheless the locals did great work, considering that few of them have played the game before. Katherine Gleeson and Marjorie Daly, two of the youngest forwards in the League, certainly showed that they were up among the best, as forwards. Katherine started plunking them in right from the start, but Marjorie was outlucked on every shot. However, her shooting put the Blue and Yellow back in the fight in the second period when Trenton ran in a few goals. Mildred Riker was right on the job all centre and Aileen Harrison combined nicely with her four smart dashes up and down the floor. Grace Boyes and Marion Rehlin were in the thick of the fight from beginning to end, and their great defence work saved the N.C.I. time after time. They both guarded their checks closely, seldom missed a rebound and got the ball away fast and sure.

Trenton displayed a nice defence pair in Miss Croft and Miss Pero. Both were fast on their feet and got the ball away fast, but their work was overshadowed by that of the N.C.I. defence. Miss Haines was the best of the forwards, but Miss Black scored a few timely baskets.

The line-ups were:

Trenton H. S.—Forwards, Elsie Black, Nora Haines; centre, Carma Bowen; side centre, Kathleen Dodswell; defence, Margaret Croft, Luto Pero.

N.C.I.—Defence, Grace Boyes, Marion Roblin; centre, Mildred Riksy; side centre, Eileen Harrison; forwards, Katherine Gleeson, Marjorie Daly.

Trenton 23, N.C.I. 12.

The Juniors shared the same fate as the Seniors, though beaten more decisively. The Juniors, nevertheless, put up a fifty team, but are altogether too small in statute. Helen Grange and Agnes Cavanaugh faced a defence twice their size, and this accounts for their poor shooting. If Trenton were not the taller girls would turn out, the N.C.I. would have a strong team. Dorothy Wilson is good enough for size, and her work on Saturday was good. Ruth Mallory also played a nice game, although she is a new player. However, the defence bore the brunt of the work and stood up well. We wouldn't like to interfere with the work of the management, but it might be a good idea to put Marion Douglas up on side centre and get a taller defence to fill her place. Marion is a good defence player, but her ability to follow the ball often takes her away from her check, as on Saturday. She would doubtless be a star at side centre. Marion Grass is cut out for defence alright and plays it among game there. Her checking and passing was especially good on Saturday.—Belleville Ontario. Embury, Mabel McHoull and Grace Harrigan as subs on Saturday and all did good work.

In Miss Bellyon and Miss McTier, Trenton showed two fine Junior forwards. Both are dead shots, and the only the smart work of the N.C.I. defence kept the score down.

The teams:

Trenton—Forwards, Mary Bellyon, Clara McTier; centre, Vivian Snell; side centre, Anna Galna; defence, Grace Bellyon, Eileen Pilion; spares, Ruth Bedrick, Cora Hutton, Lenire Breath.

N.C.I.—Forwards, Agnes Cavanaugh, Helen Grange; centre, Dorothy Wilson; side centre, Ruth Mallory; defence, Marion Grass, Marion Douglas; spares, Marion Embury, Mabel MacHoull, Grace Harrigan.

Referee—Miss Pat Livingston.

The rugby aspirants at the Collegiate are down to hard work, practicing every night. Two teams, both Junior and Senior, are practicing hard for the opening game, which is next fall.

This year there will be a Bay of Quinte Interscholastic League, with Napanee, Deseronto and Picton as contenders.

SPORTS

The Inter-Church League will open next Tuesday, in the Armouries, with St. Marys and Grace providing the fireworks. Grace are practically an unchanged team, and St. Marys are stronger. St. Marys, however, have many new players signed, and have an extremely young team which is balanced properly by such star players as Marion Grass, Dot Johnston, Marion and Irene Bedrick would be on the vacant lot across from Mr. F. S. Boyes' residence, or down in Mr. A. E. Parliament lot. For the present the lower section of Springside Park would be an ideal place for a rink as it is in protected. If the boys think are a great number of young people around town who can't afford tickets for the Arena, and such rinks would certainly be appreciated, both by parents and kiddies. The cost of upkeep of such rinks is very little and there are lots of men around town to look after them.

One thing very noticeable on Saturday at the N.C.I. was the complete lack or absence of the school "yell". No doubt the girls would have played a great deal harder if they had heard the yell and knew the students were behind them. There are a great many young men in the school who take an active part in the sports and would fit in nicely for a job as cheerleader. Many expressed their surprise at the total lack of school spirit, as it were, and no doubt this will soon be remedied.

The executive of the Athletic Societies at N.C.I., have decided to present the various athletes with crests at the close of each season for the different sports. It might be a good idea to prohibit other students not playing on the teams to wear crests so everyone won't have one.

Don't forget McIntosh Bros.' Dollar Days, Friday and Saturday, October 22nd and 23rd.

VIOLET

On Friday evening, Oct. 15th, Violet United Church held one of their most successful tea meetings of several years. The ideal weather no doubt made possible the large attendance present from neighboring points. The eats and program are worthy of special mention. With Mayor Ming, of Napanee, in the chair everything went along merrily. The quartette, led by Mr. P. H. Baker, of Queen St. United Church, Kingston, rendered most effectively a number of selections of special merit; splendid solos were given by Mr. Middleton, while the Misses McKim, of Napanee, were in their best form, and the readings and solos by Miss Nina McKim were greatly enjoyed. Among the various numbers of note was a violin solo by Miss Emberly, of Camden. All of the above numbers were very much enjoyed and enthusiastically encored by the large and appreciative audience. Before the closing of the meeting the pastor, Rev. W. R. Merrick, on behalf of the members and officials, voiced their warmest thanks to Mayor Ming and to all who assisted in the program so generously and gratuitously. We hope that it will be our privilege to hear them again.

CAMDEN EAST

Those who failed to attend the opening of the United Church Hall on Tuesday evening last, certainly missed a great treat. The programme was put on by Kingston talent and was all that could be desired. There were addresses given by the Rev. A. J. Wilson, of Napanee, who so ably filled the chair, and by Rev. Mr. Hoare, of Newburgh, and by Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, the Pastor. A neat sum was realized.—Mrs. H. Yeomans spent last week visiting her aunt, Mrs. S. LaRue, Belleville.—Mr. D. Yeomans and son, Earl, of Harrowsmith, spent Sunday last with his brother, Mr. J. S. Yeomans. —Mrs. J. W. Amey is staying with her sister, Mrs. S. LaRue, Belleville, for a few weeks, and is under Dr. Bramshaw's care. — Don't forget the 10c. social to be held in the United Church Hall, on Friday evening, October 22nd. Cake, sandwiches and coffee to be served, and a real good time in every way.—Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Halsted on Saturday evening last. — Mrs. Marshall Hinch is still very low, with no hope of her recovery.

TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The sermon subject for next Sunday is "Feeding the Multitude."

A delegation consisting of S. S. White, J. R. King and the minister attended the conference for greater service held in Toronto on October 5th, 6th and 7th.

Fifteen from the pastoral charge attended the Ladies' Aid convention held in Yarker, and five attended the W. M. S. convention at Strathcona. Owing to other duties the minister was unable to attend the Religious Education Council convention held at Enterprise on Tuesday last, but we understand that the Tamworth charge was well represented.

The joint meeting of the Y. P. S. of Tamworth and Marlbank, held at the latter place last Thursday night, was well attended. The Tamworth Society gave the programme and the Marlbank young people proved themselves to be good entertainers. On Thursday, October 14th, the minister visited Mrs. Titus Wagar, of Tamworth, and Helen Benn and William Asselstine, of Marlbank, in the General Hospital, Kingston. They all give promise of a successful and, we hope, speedy recovery.

Communion service will be observed at the three congregations on Sunday, October 31st. Tamworth in the forenoon, Reidville in the afternoon, Marlbank at night. Preparatory services as follows: Reidville, Wednesday, Oct. 27th; Marlbank, Thursday, Oct. 28th; Tamworth, Friday, Oct. 29th; all meetings at 7.30 p.m.

TRACK EVENTS OF N.C.I. FIELD DAY

SENSATIONAL WORK OF HARRY ROBINSON—NEW CHAMPIONS —DRAMATIC FINISH TO SENIOR HALF MILE.

On Friday afternoon the Track events of the N.C.I.'s annual Field Day were run off at the Driving Park. The track was muddy, and the day was generally disagreeable for such an event, but nevertheless a small crowd of students turned out to witness this annual meet. Harry Robinson, entrant in the Juniors, caused a mild sensation by his phenomenal work in winning nine "firsts" in as many events. Needless to say he is Junior Champion for 1926, and will doubtless hold the shield for scoring the most number of points. The Athenians finally defeated the Spartans and made a good start for the year. Robinson was the big noise in the Athenian victory and contributed 45 points to their total. Jack Grange is the new Intermediate Champion and is a Spartan. Jack did great work all afternoon and his sensational sprinting in the last lap of the Inter-Form Relay won the cup for Form II.A.

Douglas Anderson is the Senior Champion and the Athenians are proud of him. He ran away from everybody and is undoubtedly the best runner in the school now. He contributed a large number of points to the Athenian cause and was another big noise in the Athenian triumph. The Senior half-mile was the feature race of the day. Three entered and all three set a fast pace throughout. Glenn Herrington finished first, Don Wright second, and Fred Ballard third. All three sprinted at the finish and collapsed at the tape.

The Boys' results were :—

Senior

100 yards — Douglas Anderson, Fred Ballard, Malcolm Corkill. Durwood Conway also ran in this race.

220 yards — Douglas Anderson, Fred Ballard, Malcolm Corkill.

Hurdle Race—Archie Wilson, Malcolm Corkill.

Half-Mile—Glen Herrington, Don Wright, Malcolm Corkill.

Intermediate

100 yards—Jack Grange, Leslie Merritt, Charlie Walters.

220 yards—Jack Grange, Charlie Walters, Leslie Merritt.

Hurdles—Jack Grange, Leslie Merritt, Charlie Walters.

Half-Mile—Leslie Merritt, Roland Stalker, Jim Moffat.

Junior

100 yards—Harry Robinson, Nelson Kennedy, Russel Vanalstine.

220 yards—Harry Robinson, Nelson Kennedy, Fred Oliver.

Hurdles—Harry Robinson, Russel Vanalstine, Douglas Akenhead.

440 yards—Harry Robinson, Nelson Kennedy, Fred Oliver.

Inter-Form Relay

Form II.—D. Conway, D. Davern, G. Herrington, J. Grange.

Form I.—D. Anderson, R. Cowle, H. Reid, A. Wilson.

Girls' Events

There was plenty of excitement in the Girls' events, and all the races were close, especially the dashes.

The Athenian vs. Spartan idea was very prominent, but it would be a splendid idea for each Association to have a yell.

Hazel O'Neill is the new Senior Champion, and is proud to say she is an Athenian. She is a worthy Champion and her society is proud of her.

The Spartans were very much in the limelight when Helen Grange won the Intermediate crown. The Spartans are very proud of Helen and Jack, the only Spartans to win a school championship this year. They were both Intermediate championships at that. Marjorie Daly, another loyal Athenian, carried the colors of Athenians to victory in the Junior class and won the fourth Athenian championship.

The results were :—

Senior

100 yards—Hazel O'Neill, Mil Rikely, Helen Schell.

Intermediate

100 yards—Helen Grange, Helen Drake, Irene Fox.

Junior

100 yards—Gladys Parrott, Marion Thompson.

Girls' Inter-Form Relay

Senior Commercial—Marion Douglas, Muriel Garrison, Josephine Clarke, Gladys Parrott.

HUMANE EDUCATION

What is it? It is simply this:—To teach our boys and girls to be kind to all living creatures,, to educate the rising generation to-day, thereby preventing wars and cruelties to-morrow.

A new idea has dawned upon the world in the last century,—that that animals have a right to mental as well as physical comfort, and that the infliction of unnecessary suffering upon them is selfish, cowardly and immoral. To neglect or abuse a dumb brute is an a par with striking a person smaller and weaker than ourselves.

Animals have their place in the universe. They are our helpmates and playmates; without them the world could not exist, and we all know what bird life means; that should all the birds suddenly become extinct in less than four years this earth would be a barren waste—not a tree, not a blade of grass would have escaped the ravages of the insects and worms, which any birds, bats and toads destroy. Therefore, let us spare our friends.

Cruelty to animals is our meanest crime because they have so little chance of defense, but must suffer in silence. People who do not understand animals should not be permitted to keep them, and people who understand them, but do not care sufficiently to give them the care and attention they deserve, should not be permitted to keep them. The man who gives the square deal to his horse will be more likely to extend the same to man.

With the winter months approaching much suffering and pain is enforced upon our dumb friends. If each person will do his or her little bit, much of this suffering can be averted, and fewer complaints sent into Humane Societies; and if teachers in our schools, and mothers in the homes will say a few words occasionally to the children, in time there will be no necessity for such societies, and the world will be bettered by Humane Education.

Opening of the Mission Renewal and Holy Year Exercises in St. Patrick's Church

The zeal that inspired the Rev. Pastor of St. Patrick's Church to open a Triduum of prayer in order to emphasize the duty and obligations of humanity to God, and increase its confidence in the mercy and love of God, was amply rewarded in the universal response as evidenced by the splendid outpouring of devotion of the people of town and country which taxed the capacity of the church morning and evening. The eloquent Missionary, Father James P. Fallon, who conducted so successful a Mission here a year ago, also conducted this Triduum.

An instruction every morning on the virtues necessary to every Christian followed 7.30 o'clock Mass.

The evenings were devoted to special sermons delivered after the recitation of the Rosary. The opening sermon on Sunday evening was taken from the words of St. Luke, 15th Chapter, "There shall be more joy in Heaven over one sinner who doth penance, than ninety-nine just who need not penance". In clear and forceful language the Rev. speaker explained the true meaning of these words, and showed from practical illustrations that there was no evil in the world more to be feared and avoided that the evil of despair, while on the contrary there was no virtue more to be desired than the virtue of confidence and faith in God.

The subject of Monday evening was taken from the words of Christ to Peter, "What shall it profit a man to gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his soul."

Tuesday evening the Rev. Missionary clearly and reasonably enunciated the "vanity of all things", save to know, love and serve God, taking for his text the words of St. Paul, "Christ suffered for us leaving an example that we Christians must follow patiently Him who is the Way, the Truth and Life in our trials, crosses and suffering.

The climax of the devotions was reached on Wednesday evening, when to an overflowing audience of all denominations, the eloquent Missionary gave a lucid and very earnest explanation of a devotion dear to every Christian heart, viz., devotion to the great Mother of God. The words of Christ dying on the cross to his beloved disciple John, was the text chosen for this beautiful discourse, "Son behold thy Mother, Mother behold thy son." Seldom, if ever, was there ever heard from any pulpit a more illuminating and eloquent sermon on her who was God's vessel of election in bringing forth the world's redeemer.

The occasion why so much honor is paid the Blessed Virgin in the Catholic Church was fully and reasonably answered by the Rev. lecturer, whose treatment of the subject of devotion to the Mother of God, so much misunderstood outside the church, was brilliant in point of oration, and held the great assemblage in the deepest interest, while his words stirred the religious emotions of all and inflamed the hearts of the faithful with increased respect and confidence in her whom God so specially honored. The Rev. speaker set before and carefully weighed each word of the dialogue between the Angel and the Virgin and from this meeting proved that no greater honor was ever conferred upon a human creature than was on this occasion, bestowed on Mary whether we consider the personal dignity of the Envoy or the momentous character of the message.

This homage and honor paid to the Mother of God rebounds to the Son. We honor her, the Rev. Missionary exclaimed, as Our Lady of Perpetual Help and our advocate before God, but we adore God alone. The Rev. Missionary closed with a touching appeal to all to increase their devotion and confidence in the Advocacy of the Blessed Mother of God, to whom no one appealed in vain. After the Apostolic blessing was solemnly given there was brought to a close the most successful Triduum ever held in St. Patrick's Church.

An amusing story is told by Miss Colleen Moore, the well-known film actress, concerning another "movie" star, who has been married quite a number of times—even for America.

When he went with her latest, husband-to-be to arrange about the license the registrar was somewhat inquisitive. There were papers to sign and questions to be answered.

One of these questions, addressed to the expectant bride, was:

"Have you been married before, and if so, to whom?"

The actress bridled up. It was the last straw.

"What is this," she demanded, "a memory test?"

Prison Visitor—"And what brought you here, my man?"

Convict—"Well, sir, my father said when I was a boy that he hoped I'd marry beauty and brains, and I wanted to please him."

"Yes?"

"So I committed bigamy."

FATTENING THE SURPLUS COCKERELS

(Experimental Farms Note)

An improved quality article of diet increases consumption. If all table poultry were properly conditioned before killing it would quickly result in greatly increased consumption.

It is a short sighted policy on the part of any poultry raiser to sell table poultry in a thin condition; he is not only losing the profit which he might secure through an increased weight and an improved quality of flesh, but he is actually discouraging the use of poultry by the poor quality he is supplying.

In experiments conducted at the Central Experimental Farm it has repeatedly been shown that the crate feeding of poultry pays. It has also been demonstrated that a wide ration, that is one rich in carbohydrates gave better results than a narrow ration—one rich in protein. It also has been demonstrated that for the greatest gains in both quantity and quality of flesh, milk in some form is essential. This is especially emphasized in a series of feeding experiments carried out at the Kapuskasing Experimental Farm where in every instance where milk was fed as part of the ration the gains were much better in both quantity and quality than where the ration contained no milk. This series of experiments also brought out strongly that in parts of the country where corn can not be grown that home grown feeds, wheat, oats and barley, may be used with good results, but that the ration is made more efficient by the addition of corn, especially where it is fed in conjunction with milk.

Baby's Own Tablets An Excellent Remedy

For Any of the Many Minor Ailments of Infants and Young Children

No mother can expect that her child will escape all the ills to which babyhood and childhood are subject, but she can do much to lessen their severity, and to make baby's battles for health easily won.

Nine-tenths of the minor ailments which afflict babyhood and childhood are caused by some derangement of the stomach and bowels. Regulate the stomach and bowels and these troubles will disappear. To do this nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative which through their action on the stomach and bowels never fail to banish constipation and indigestion; colds and simple fevers; expel worms and make the dreaded teething time easy.

Concerning Baby's Own Tablets Mrs. A. Keshan, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"Kindly send me your booklet, "Care of Baby in Health and Sickness." I have two little children four and a half and three years old and have used nothing else for them but Baby's Own Tablets. I think the Tablets are a wonderful medicine for little ones."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

sently reached the patient's bedside.

After he had examined the man he turned to the wife and said somewhat testily:

"Why didn't you send for me sooner? You should not have waited until he lost corfaciousness."

"Well," was the good reason the lady gave for her delay, "as long as he had his senseh he wouldn't let me send for you!"

Jimmy—"What are you bein' kept in for?"

Tommy—"Because, when the minister called, he asked me if Mary was the oldest, and who comes after her, and I said: 'Oh, a different fella every night'."

How Rinso Keeps Peace in the Family

Many a family tiff results from too much "nerves." A hard wash-day, fagged muscles, worn-out patience—a hasty word and a whole evening spoiled.

It's so utterly unnecessary, too. Rinso, the new kind of soap, changes the hard work of washing to just rinsing.

Entirely replaces bar soap—and rubbing.

Simply dissolve Rinso in hot water, 25 seconds does it, soak the clothes in Rinso suds for a couple of hours, or overnight, rinse and—that's all.

How much easier, how much quicker, what a nerve, temper and patience saver.

Don't try to do another washing without Rinso.

"HABIT, kept me from a Real Shave."

THAT'S what many men confess, once they've learned the advantages of the stropping feature of the Valet AutoStrop Razor.

"I formerly used an ordinary safety razor," many say "but only the first few shaves with a new blade were good. After that it was a choice between a poor shave or a new blade.

Now I give my Valet AutoStrop Razor blade a few strokes on the strop without removing it from the holder, and thus enjoy many perfect shaves from the same blade."

Changing Habits

If you're in a habit rut, why not break loose and find out how superior shaving is so easily attainable? If you'll just switch to a Valet AutoStrop Razor you will never return to old ways, for it is the only razor that automatically sharpens its own blades without removing them.

CANADA LEADS IN MANY PHASES OF POULTRY INDUSTRY

Domestic Hen Thrives in Our Climate. — Canadian Birds First in Egg-Laying Contests — World's Congress at Ottawa in 1927.

Because the hen in the wild state was a jungle fowl—a native of the hot countries—the impression prevails among those who have not looked into the question that poultry is exotic to Canada and that this country must necessarily be handicapped as compared with the countries along the Mediterranean or other warm regions. On the contrary the exact opposite is the case and Canada, because of her climatic and other advantages, leads the world in many phases of poultry production. This is in line with the general tendency shown by the more northerly developed strains of plants and animals to excel in vitality and quality their southern prototypes.

It should also be remembered that although the hen is a native of hot countries the turkey, partridge, prairie chicken, the duck and the famous Canada goose are indigenous to this country. The two latter are, of course, migratory but when domesticated thrive exceedingly well here all the year round.

Modern poultry production is concerned particularly with the domestic hen and it is to this bird that the following figures relate. The hen has followed the white man to nearly every part of Canada and has shown herself a thrifty settler. At first she took her chance with other live stock and did equally well, then came a period when men who desired to increase production confined their fowls in warm but dark and unventilated winter quarters, (with little success be it added); and finally within the last thirty years, came the discovery that given plenty of sunlight and fresh air domestic fowls throve exceedingly well in Canada and produced a high percentage of winter eggs. The latter fact is important because the efforts of poultrymen all the world over are directed not only to egg production generally but also and especially to increasing the number produced in the winter months when eggs are most valuable.

The Government of Canada and the Provincial governments have given a great deal of attention to the poultry industry. The Dominion Government, in addition to the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa, has 25 branch farms and a number of substations throughout Canada, and on all of these poultry work is carried on. Pedigree breeding is conducted at all the farms, egg laying contests throughout the Dominion are organized by the Poultry Division of the Experimental Farm, and there has been established the Canadian Record of Performance and Registration of Poultry, all of which develop heavy laying strains and increase production of the whole country.

With this combination of ideal climate and concentrated effort how are the poultry resources of Canada developing? The figures of actual numbers of fowls on farms and poultry plants are given below :—

Year	No. of Birds.
1901	17,922,658
1911	31,793,261
1924	54,938,150

In addition to this threefold increase in numbers, the estimated egg production per hen has increased since 1901. The relative importance of poultry is shown by a comparison with the value of some other farm products. In 1924 dairy products were valued at $218,436,532; commercial fruit, $25,553,212; wool, $4,199,000, and farm eggs alone $87,950,340. As this latter does not take into consideration the value of birds sold for breeding or food, or the eggs produced in commercial or household poultry plants away from the farms, and as it does not take in the produce of the flocks of turkeys, geese and ducks, it is safe to say that in that year the value of poultry products was at least $100,000,000.

Canada's status in the poultry world may be viewed from another angle. Fourteen countries hold egg laying contests. The rules in these contests are not all alike and Canada stands with those nations having the most stringent regulations. For instance our rules require ten hens per pen whereas some other countries permit much smaller pens or even single birds to compete, which naturally raises their average; Canada eliminates small eggs that most other countries count, and does not use artificial lights while many others do. In spite of adherence to these strict rules the results are very satisfactory to Canada. The country with the largest number of birds entered is the United States with 12,570; the British Isles has 7,538; Canada 4,210; Australia 2,571; while the other countries range from 39 to 800 birds. The results of these contests show that Canada has an average of 172 eggs per hen per year, the British Isles 171 and the United States 164. Taking four popular breeds the averages obtained in Canada and the United States were:—

	Average Eggs per Year
	Canada	United States
Barred Plymouth Rock..	182	175
White Leghorn	182	175
White Wyandotte	169	152
Rhode Island Red	156	149

Of the 35 birds in all the contests that laid 300 eggs and over, 19 of them were Canadian hens and we had the two highest with 332 and 331 eggs.

In 1924 Canada participated in the World's Poultry Congress held at Barcelona, Spain, and succeeded in attracting so much attention because of the completeness of her organization and the high quality of her birds that many sales to breeders in different European countries of pedigreed stock have already taken place, and, more than this, it was decided to hold the next Congress in Ottawa in the summer of 1927. This Congress it is anticipated will bring between 5,000 and 6,000 delegates (including friends, probably 10,000 people all told) to Ottawa from all parts of the world. These parties will tour the country in all directions. Thus it will be seen that the no longer lowly Canadian hen not only adds greatly to the annual production of the nation but is also making known the extent of Canada's resources to the different countries of the world.

The Gift of God.

Sleep is the gift of God. We think we lay our heads upon our pillows and compose our bodies in a peaceful posture, and that therefore we naturally and necessarily fall asleep. But it is not so. Sleep is the gift of God, and not a man would close his eyes did not God put his fingers on his eyelids; did not the Almighty send a soft and balmy influence over his frame which lulled his thoughts into quiescence, making him enter into that blissful state of rest which we call sleep.

A Confusing Invitation.

A man named Dodgin had been appointed foreman in a brickyard, but his name was not known to all the employes. One day, while on his round he came across two men sitting in a corner smoking, and stopped near them. "Who are you?" asked one of them. "I'm Dodgin, the new foreman," he replied. "So are we," replied the other workers. "Sit down and have a smoke."

Bear a Destroyer of Salmon.

The bear is a great destroyer of salmon. He is so fastidious that he will eat only the salmon cheeks and will consume one-third of his weight in this delicacy every day. When his hunger is satisfied he amuses himself by tossing the fish out on the banks. The fish are in the stream to spawn, and the egg destruction is by no means insignificant.

A Racy Item.

A New York dye expert declares that "American dyes are as fast, class for class, as German dyes."

Happy Thought—Write article on speed in dyes. Study the classes, those in the 2.04 class and so on. Discourage bookmaking and side bets as degrading to a noble sport.

Invented Duplex Telegraph.

Dr. Wilhelm Ginth of Austria invented the duplex telegraph in 1853, by which two messages were sent over one wire, one message in each direction, at the same time. Carl Fischen of Hanover improved the system in 1864, and Joseph B. Stearns of Boston, perfected it in 1872.

Much Different.

After a woman has been married a month or two she discovers that seeing a man only Wednesday and Sunday evenings is a vastly different proposition from seeing him every day in the week.

All Make Mistakes.

The best of men and the most earnest workers will make enough of mistakes to keep them humble. Thank God for mistakes and take courage. Don't give up on account of mistakes.

Influence and Example.

The blossom cannot tell what becomes of its odor, and no man can tell what becomes of his influence and example, that roll away from him and go beyond his ken in their perilous mission.

Thoughts Mightier Than Armies.

Ideas go bounding through the world louder than cannon. Thoughts are mightier than armies. Principles have achieved more victories than horsemen or chariots.—Rev. Dr. W. M. Paxton.

Substitute for Platinum.

A gold palladium alloy which makes an acceptable substitute for the more expensive platinum iridium alloy used in chemists' utensils has been developed by metallurgists in California.

Never Quite Satisfied.

It doesn't make any difference what a woman gets, there is always something a little more expensive she wishes she could have had.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Harvey Lockwood, who fell asleep in Jesus, on October 21st, 1922.

God called her home, my mother,
The one I loved so dear;
Her chair is vacant,
Her voice I miss,
Her voice I cannot hear.

She went home to her Jesus,
Forever more to stay;
Upon the golden streets to walk,
Where we hope to meet some day.

Sad and sudden was the parting,
Taken home without a sigh,
We could not think her life was ended
For to none she said good-bye.

Sadly missed by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Revell, Collin's Bay.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The first annual convention of the Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada was held in the Strathcona United Church on Thursday, October 14th, 1926, with a splendid attendance of delegates and visitors present.

At the morning session Mrs. J. V. Henderson, 2nd Vice President of the Belleville Presbyterial, presided.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, of Newburgh.

Greetings from the Strathcona Auxiliary to the visiting delegates were extended by Mrs. Jas. Wilson, Strathcona, who, in a most happy and cordial manner, made everyone feel very welcome.

Mrs. A. N. Benn, Moscow, made a suitable and appreciative reply.

Reports from the various Auxiliaries, Circles and Bands were received. A number of these reports were particularly encouraging and showed an earnest desire on the part of the members to help carry on the great missionary enterprise.

Mrs. Geo. Switzer, Napanee, in a forcible address spoke on "The New Constitution," emphasizing the motto "Every woman in the Church a member of the W. M. S." A valuable suggestion she offered was that the convention submit several names, representative of the district, to the Belleville Presbyterial, as delegates to the Branch meeting.

Miss Campbell, a missionary recently returned from Angola, West Central Africa, a mission founded and maintained by the former Congregational Church, proved a very interesting speaker. She traced the growth of the mission from the time of Dr. Walter Currie, in 1861, up to the present. It now reaches inland a distance of six hundred miles, with a population of three million people. The Portugese were the first white people to enter that country and traded in rubber with the natives. The recent building of a railway by the British has helped to open up the country. Owing to the influence of the missionaries the customs and habits of the people have changed considerably. Some primitive building and manufacturing is carried on by the natives, who are taught to make lumber and also tools for their own use. The status of the women and children has undergone a great change. They are now making homes for themselves where formerly the home was an institution not known in the country. Polgamy among the native Christians was a thing of the past.

The Quiet Hour, conducted by Mrs. R. C. Moss, Tamworth, was one of inspiration and uplift, and a fitting close to a most hopeful morning session.

At noon, the Strathcona ladies, though few in number, proved equal to the occasion, and, in the Library Hall, served a luncheon with abundant good things to eat, which were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Wesley Wagar, Centreville, presided at the afternoon session, which was opened by devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. W. R. Tanton, Napanee.

Mrs. G. I. Perry, Vice President of the Belleville Presbyterial, delivered a short address, after which the minutes of the morning session were read by the Recording Secretary, Mrs. D. B. Wilson, Napanee.

Miss Campbell, continuing her address of the morning, said that the African natives were very superstitious, believing in charms and witchcraft, had fetish houses and observed horrible customs when one of their number died. She contrasted the burial of a christian native with that of a heathen native. She traced the development in the native of the ideas of right and wrong as taught by Jesus Christ. People were anxious for knowledge and were eager to use their knowledge in order to develop the resources of their own country. Miss Campbell concluded her address with a word-picture of Chisamba as it is to-day. The station, the largest of three stations in Angola, has two boarding schools, one for boys, the other for girls; provides a church where nearly two thousand natives can worship; has a hospital where the sick are cared for, homes for the missionaries, besides other buildings in which the natives are educated and are taught trades of various kinds.

An address that gave the Convention a fine idea of the magnitude of the work that the Woman's Missionary Society tries to do, was given by Mrs. T. E. Wilson, Belleville Presbyterial President. Mrs. Wilson had just returned from the Dominion Board meetings held in Toronto a few days previous. She intimated that the Board was asking for $1.-013,000 from the W. M. S. of the United Church of Canada, and urged systematic giving as a means of raising this amount, needed to meet existing obligations.

A solo that was much enjoyed was rendered by Mrs. Volkman, Napanee.

The Convention closed with some brief addresses dealing with topics helpful to missionary workers:—

1. Value of a plan and objective in missionary work, by Mrs. Jos. Ramsay, Newburgh.
2. Recruiting for the Missionary Army, Circles, by Miss H. Paul, Newburgh.
3. Recruiting for the Missionary Army, Bands, by Mrs. Jas. Thomson, Napanee.
4. Obstacles and How to Meet Them, by Mrs. T. H. P. Anderson, Newburgh.
5. Prayer and its Relation to Our Work, by Mrs. F. Martin, Yarker.

Ten Little Light Bearers from the Strathcona Mission Band presented an interesting exercise.

The Convention accepted the invitation of the Centreville Auxiliary to meet at Centreville next year, 1927.

OBITUARY

Mrs. James Shannon.

Mrs. James Shannon, of Newburgh, passed into the New Life on Friday morning, October 8th, 1926, at about 7 o'clock, having attained the 78th year of her birth.

Her maiden name, Isabella Hinchey, was one of the daughters of the late Thomas Hinchey, of the Northern part of the Township of Camden. Two sisters, Mrs. Catherine McGregor and Mrs. Baptist Wilson, with one brother, Mr. T. Shirley Hinchey, all of the Village of Enterprise, survive, along with her bereaved husband, who is now over 80 years old.

Her marriage took place 56 years ago on September 15th, 1870, and was solemnized by the Rev. J. H. Nimmo, Anglican Minister, of Tamworth. Her life was spent entirely in this County, during which time she gathered around a host of friends in Enterprise, Morven, Napanee, and latterly in Newburgh, many of whom attested by being present at her obsequies. Her home was always noted for its hospitality, and a warm welcome always greeted the young people who often gathered there in the evenings.

A faithful and earnest supporter and a strong believer in the church of her choice, a former Presbyterian, and now of the United Church of Canada, the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, at their residence, and was assisted at the family plot in Camden VIII. cemetery, by the Rev. Mr. Thornley. The sympathy of the many friends is extended to the one who will miss her most. 43a

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Wilton Branch of the Women's Institute have most successfully completed a two weeks' course in Millinery. These lessons were very ably taught by Miss M. McDiarmid, who never tired in her teaching and demonstrating of any part of the work. There were twenty-four names on the class roll, and about sixteen hats were made. These were made in the most becoming of the latest styles and of the most popular materials. When the hats were finished, the last days were given up to the making of flowers—roses, morning glories, violets, etc., and several wool trimmings for wool or ribbon hats. Every item of this work was so interesting and profitable that no one could afford to miss a bit, after they had once started the work.

On Thursday, October 14th, the class held a social evening, each one inviting their best friend, and the evening was spent in a progressive euchre party. Nine tables were in play. The lady's prize was carried off by Mrs. Archie Simmons, and that for the gentleman by Mr. Adrian Babcock. Delicious refreshments were served, and after this Mrs. W. C. Snider, on behalf of the millinery class, presented Miss McDiarmid with a small gift, not for its intrinsic value, but to show their appreciation of her kindness toward them. Miss McDiarmid very ably responded.

The best wishes of the Wilton people go with Miss McDiarmid in her labours for other Institutes.

The township stone crusher moved into this street last week, and is making great progress in gravelling our roads, which was badly in need of repairing.—Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Jackson, on Sunday last. — The old and young alike are looking forward to the usual good time on Hallowe'en. Several places are advertising their different entertainments for celebrating this most joyful event.—Don't forget the United Church Ladies' Aid Hallowe'en social at Colebrook, in the L. L. Hall, on Friday evening, the 29th inst., with lots of doughnuts and pumpkin pie for refreshments, and good mixed programme of instrumental and vocal numbers and Hallowe'en stunts. Everybody is requested to come dressed in fun masquerade costume. Come one, come all, and have a real good time.

WEDDING BELLS

Macdonald—Edgar.

St. Luke's Church, Camden East, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Saturday, the 16th inst., at 2.30 o'clock, when Miss Alice Gertrude Macdonald became the bride of Harry Allen Edgar. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers and the ceremony, at which the bride elect has been a member for a number of years, was in attendance. The Rector, Rev. R. W. Spencer, officiated. The hymn, "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden" was sung as the bride, accompanied by her father, who gave her away, took her place at the Chancel step. The church was filled to capacity with relatives and friends to witness the ceremony, after which an adjournment was made to the bride's home, where a wedding breakfast was served. On returning from their honeymoon trip the happy couple will reside near Sharp's Corners, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

THE TRIALS OF MIDDLE-AGE

Much of the Suffering Women Endure Can Be Avoided

Every woman approaches middle-age with considerable anxiety, because she knows this is the time of her life when trivial ailments may be the first signs of trials and sufferings to come. She fears the headaches, backaches, lassitude and other distressing weaknesses that burden the life of so many women at this period.

Much of the anxiety and suffering that assail women approaching middle age can be avoided. This has been proved by thousands of happy, virile women who have relied at this time on the health-help given by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. To the middle-aged woman the one thing necessary to carry her through her years of trial is rich, red blood. Because of their direct action on the blood, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the one remedy prased by women for women's needs. Among the thousands who have found benefit from this remedy is Mrs. Allan Wagar, Echo Lake, Ont., who says:—"I was at a critical period in the lives of all women and was sick and miserable. I became so much run-down that I was unable to do my housework. The least exertion would cause my heart to flutter so violently that I would have to sit down. I had headaches and backaches, and was in a depressed condition. I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills recommended and decided to give them a trial. It was fortunate that I did so, for under the use of this medicine I was restored to good health and strength and feel like a new woman. I never neglect an opportunity to recommend this remedy to those who are run-down for I am very grateful for what the pills did for me."

For all ailments due to weak watery blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found a specific. You can get the pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"I made my first call home to-day . . ."

Two salesmen met in a small hotel. Said one: "Do you know Jim, although I have been on the road over four years, I never thought of telephoning home 'til today—was always content to 'drop a line' every couple of days. From now on it's going to be different! My wife was so glad to hear my voice—said it would brighten her whole day.

"I'll telephone her every second night around nine o'clock, or if I happen to be on the train, I'll call around breakfast time; she's sure to be at home then."

Every day many travelling salesmen are using Long Distance to keep in touch with the folks at home. At slight expense they enjoy a few minutes intimate talk that means so much.

Why Percy Sobbed.

Reference at a social affair was made to the vexed subject of infidelity, when this anecdote was fittingly related by Representative Frederic H. Gillette of Massachusetts:

One afternoon two tramps knocked at the back door of a farmhouse and meekly asked the farmer's wife for something to eat. Instead of giving them bread, she seized a convenient broomstick and began to beat them over the head with such good effect that they precipitately fled for the gate. A mile down the road one of the tramps stopped running and sobbingly dropped beneath a tree.

"Why, Percy," exclaimed the other, solicitously turning to his comrade, "did she hurt you?"

"No," answered Percy, with another burst of sobs; "fortunitely, most of the blows went wild."

"What's the matter then, old fellow?" queried the second. "Why those tears?"

"Tears of sympathy," answered Percy. "Sympathy for the lady's poor husband."—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

THE MINUTES OF THE LENNOX TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

The annual Convention of the Teachers of Lennox was held in the Concreation Hall, N.C.I., October 7th and 8th.

Thursday morning session opened at 10.30. Mr. Corkill, B.A., I.P.S., conducted the opening exercises by reading a short selection from the Bible and leading the teachers in the Lord's Prayer.

The President, Mrs. Fairbairn, of Wilton, called for the minutes of the last meeting. These were written by Miss J. E. Main, and consisted of a very excellent report of the trip to Ottawa taken last year in lieu of a regular convention. The report called forth many expressions of appreciation and thanks from the President and Mr. Trenouth and others who had taken the trip.

Communications were then read. Rev. Father O'Conner wrote expressing sincere regret that he was unable to conduct the opening exercises, but asked the teachers to accept the assurance of his highest regards accompanied with the very sincere wish that their deliberations at the Convention would result in the advancement of education in its highest and broadest meaning. Mr. Trenouth, Napanee P. S., regretted that Rev. Father O'Conner was unable to be present, as he would have enjoyed so much another address, similar to the very fine one given at a former meeting. He moved that the letter be received and filed. Seconded by Mr. J. G. Hamilton, Newburgh H. S. Carried.

A letter was read from Dr. Fred J. Conboy, Director of Dental Service, Spadina House, Toronto, 5, asking teachers to give a talk on Oral Hygiene on the Ontario Dental Health Day, October 20th, and to impress upon pupils the value of regular inspections, sufficient mastication, proper diet and mouth cleansing. The service clubs will gladly donate prizes for essays or art competitions on "Dental Health". Further information may be obtained from Dr. Conboy.

A communication from Mr. Chas. G. Fraser, Toronto, asked for resolutions of a provincial nature passed by this Institute, that delegates for the Northern trip be selected, that a fee to the O. E. A. be granted, and teachers be asked to join the O. E. A.

The President moved that the Secretary take names of the teachers who wished to join O. E. A., and that the usual grant be forwarded to Mr. Fraser.

A Committee on Resolutions to O. E. A. prepared the following resolutions, which were read by Miss Dennee, and accepted. Resolved,—

1. That the dates of the Entrance Exams. shall be over before June 30th.

2. That when a child starts school at any age under eight years, he or she shall be considered a regular pupil and come under the Attendance Act.

3. That the Normal School term shall be extended to cover two years.

Mr. Trenouth read a communication from "The School" requesting that teachers who were members of this Institute receive "The School" on the same terms as last year. Seconded by Mr. Corkill. Carried.

A communication from the Ontario Teachers' Federation was also read by Mr. Trenouth. This explained the aims of the Federation. Fees are one and three dollars, respectively. Teachers who wish to join may address Mr. H. E. Kerr, Secretary to Teachers' Federations.

Mr. Corkill read the following report of the Nominating Committee:

Officers of Lennox Teachers' Association, 1926-1927

Hon. President—Mr. E. J. Corkill, B.A., I.P.S., Napanee.

President—Mr. J. G. Hamilton, Newburgh.

1st Vice President—Miss Gladys Shane, Meacham.

2nd Vice President—Miss A. L. Rockwell, Napanee.

Secretary Treasurer—Miss E. Harrison, Napanee.

Executive—Principals of Napanee, Newburgh, Odessa and Yarker Schools, and Mr. E. Young, Bath, and Miss J. M. Dennee, Bath.

Delegates to O. E. A.—Mrs. Fairbairn and Mr. H. Moore, No. 6, Napanee.

Auditors—Misses Rockwell and Aylsworth, Napanee.

Mr. H. Swerdfeger, Richmond, gave the report of the delegate to O. E. A., and gave an outline of the different meetings and a short summary of some of the speeches.

Mr. Hamilton moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Swerdfeger for his very interesting report, so instructive and pleasing to be received by Mr. Corkill. A hearty clapping of the hands showed the teachers' appreciation.

The President's address closed the programme for Thursday morning. Moved by Mr. Trenouth, seconded by Mr. Hamilton, that the President be given a vote of thanks, and that the address be printed in the Minutes.

Thursday afternoon session opened at 1.20 o'clock.

Misses Lenore Black and Catherine Henderson gave two very beautiful instrumental duets.

The Inspector's address given by Mr. Corkill, as always, was pleasantly anticipated, and received its usual mede of appreciation. At the outset he gave the teachers a hint that it was of no use for a teacher to stay longer than two years in one place, for, if she could get a husband in that time, she never would.

Mr. Corkill asked new teachers when filling out the Teachers' Report to be sure to give the Class of the certificate as well as its number. He spoke on Entrance exams., Part II. Entrance exams., new manuals, course of study 1926-27, Decimal Day, Canada's Diamond Jubilee, Women Teachers' Federation, a Survey of Educational Children, and a World Conference next August.

In closing, Mr. Corkill spoke very encouragingly to the teachers, reminding them that it was man's lot to serve, suffer and die; that there is no room for cowards; that teachers as well as others must shoulder their burden cheerfully and hopefully and press forward, looking for results in the distant future.

Mrs. Fairbairn thanked Mr. Corkill for his very helpful address, and remarked that he was always a friend to the teachers.

The Misses Dennee then gave two very pleasing instrumental duets.

Dr. Sandford, of the College of Education, University of Toronto, gave an illustrated lecture on Recent Studies in the Psychology of Reading. He showed how, by the use of photographic records of eye movements, the teachers might reduce the time of learning to read to three months, and thus get this tool into the hands of pupils as soon as possible.

Dr. Morden, N.C.I., discussed mistakes made by pupils on Entrance examinations, and showed what teachers might do to prevent such errors another time. He offered to provide teachers with outline blank maps for pupils to use in practising locating places,—an offer which the teachers thought was exceedingly kind.

Thursday evening, a programme was given in Convocation Hall, N.C.I. Mrs. Fairbairn occupying the chair. Selections were given by St. Andrew's Orchestra, and quartettes by Messrs. Caldwell, Waite, Shannon and Vandervoort. After the President's address, Prof. MacClement, Queen's College, Kingston, gave an illustrated lecture on "Winged Friends and Winged Foes". This was particularly interesting and educative. Miss Ramsay, of Newburgh, very kindly gave a vocal solo, and the Misses Dennee an instrumental duet. The artists received a very warm vote of thanks.

Friday morning work began at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Laughland, Agricultural Representative of Lennox and Addington, gave a talk on Agriculture and School Fairs. He offered several good suggestions for programmes at school fairs. The prize lists come out by June 1st, and exhibits in Art and Writing should be sent in before the end of the school term.

This talk was followed by another on Agriculture by Mr. C. A. Shoemaker, N.C.I. Any information on teaching Agriculture may be received absolutely free, by applying to Department of Agriculture, West Block, Ottawa.

Mr. B. S. Jenkins, B.A., Newburgh H. S., read a wonderfully interesting paper on History in Public School. His presentation of the subject put it in a new light, and gave the teacher a new outlook on History.

Dr. Sandford's second lecture was on "Viewpoints in Educational Psychology".

The President expressed her enjoyment of both of Dr. Sandford's lectures, moved a vote of thanks, and that he be made an Honorary Member of this Association. Carried.

The new President, Mr. Hamilton, on being called to the chair, thanked the teachers for the honour, and expressed appreciation of the good work of the former President, and the excellent programme prepared. He then gave a helpful talk on Music in Public School, but the teachers were disappointed that time did not permit of the community singing which Mr. Hamilton was to have led.

Moved by Miss Rockwell, and seconded, that the Auditors' Report, finding Secretary's books correct, be accepted. Carried.

Moved by Miss Parke, seconded by Miss Hawley, that expenses of this Association be paid. Carried.

Moved by Mrs. Fairbairn, seconded by Mr. Trenouth, that a vote of thanks be tendered the Board of Education, Napanee, the High School Board, and Dr. Morden, for the use of the Convocation Hall, N.C.I., also to all who so kindly assisted in any way to make this Convention a success.

Mr. Corkill expressed his pleasure at the good attendance at all meetings, and the good programme.

Mr. Trenouth asked for an expression of the wishes of the teachers as to where the next Convention would be held. The vote showed an almost universal desire to take a trip next year.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

ETTA HARRISON,
Secty.-Treas.

President's Address by Mrs. H. S. Fairbairn.

Dear Mr. Corkill, Members of the Executive, and Fellow Teachers, I wish to express my appreciation of the honour of being President of the Teachers' Association of Lennox.

I wish to thank Miss Mair for her kindness in acting as Secretary last October, and for the splendid report she gave of our long-to-be-remembered trip to the Capital of our Dominion.

On behalf of the Executive and Teachers, I wish to thank the members of the Board of Education, and the Principal and staff of the N.C.I., for the use of their Assembly Hall and the freedom to view and enjoy the School.

To the Musical Committee, who have secured such excellent numbers for our programme, and to those taking part in any way, to help make this Convention a success. I thank you, one and all.

The subject of my address is "Looking Forward".

Only six short weeks ago we were all looking forward to the re-opening of our several schools. Some of us were going back to our former schools and pupils, and some would be for the first time in full charge of a school-world under their own management. No doubt you wondered if you would like the school, the pupils, and the people of the district in which you would be living.

The pupils were also looking forward to the re-opening of school, and I think these were some of the wishes in their little hearts:—

(a) Give me a good-looking teacher.

(b) Give me a teacher with a smile.

(c) Give me a teacher who can make things plain.

(d) Give me a teacher who can tell stories, and

(e) Give me a teacher who loves me.

The teacher's responsibility is widening as the years go by, and those who have been in the profession for a few years can best realize what progress has been made, and is still being made, in the Science of Education.

The development of public education in the first quarter of the Twentieth Century has been almost as marvellous as the progress in the realms of science and mechanics. It is doubtful whether the automobile has been improved more in the past twenty-five years than have been some of our school procedures.

Our new course of study which has been revised this year is the best one yet produced in Ontario. Let us all follow it carefully, thoughtfully, ever looking forward and keeping the education in Ontario on a high plane.

This Spring, Mr. Trenouth passed the remark, "A nation is no higher than its teachers". How much is involved in that sentence, and what a trust is imposed on the body of School Teachers who have the youth of our land in their care, during the most plastic period of their lives!

People everywhere are realizing the importance of education, the need of good, trained teachers, better schools and more equipment. If the subject is presented to the Trustees in the right way, very few just requests will be refused. What is the challenge of to-day?

Each teacher comes in contact with numerous intimate friends and acquaintances, and these friends and acquaintances are forming their opinion of the schools from what these teachers say and from their demeanor when educational problems are discussed. Every teacher ought to be able to discuss intelligently the educational programme of his town or province.

The influence of the teacher extends far beyond the class-room. How do we use our influence? Are we making an intelligent use of it? Are we using it constructively? Or could we better use our influence if we had a better grasp on the educational problems?

Since Teaching is our chosen profession, let us look forward to putting faithful service into our work each day. Every day is a new beginning; let us only remember our mistakes of the past that we need not commit the same errors few just reap profit by our successes and go forward, filled with courage and an unconquerable desire to keep bright the lamp of knowledge in the mind of each child entrusted to our care. Our motto is the teacher's friend, ready to help and advise wherever possible. But let us remember that each one of us will come in contact with some peculiar difficulty, one of the newest in our province being the Foreign child. No one can tell just how they would deal with this problem until they had the actual experience. Our duty is to make good patriotic citizens of all, and this can best be done through a sympathetic understanding and desire to help.

The aim of true education is to create the feeling of brotherhood among all peoples, and the encouragement of Industrial development of the world's resources.

True Service is the Teacher's guiding word. In our schools and in the community in which we live, let us each strive to follow the example of the Great Teacher, whose time was spent in doing good, cheering the sad, and comforting the lonely and sick, and in whose sight each little child was most precious.

"The Law of a king is service,
And the kingliest serve the most.
Then ye who are sons of promise
And would royal lineage boast,
Get under the common burden,
Go, brother and brotherless sons,
And win the royal guerdon,
The thanks of comforted ones.
For suffering is nameless,
The sorrowing are a host,
The law of a king is Service,
And the kingliest serve the most."

Have you heard about Peps? Peps is a scientific preparation put up in pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.

Peps contain certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

While no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and healing commences.

Shakespeare Law Unto Himself.

A correspondent wonders how such a phrase as "piping time of peace" could originate. One might think it referred to the Indian's peace pipe, but Shakespeare was rather unfamiliar with the customs of American aborigines. However, Shakespeare did what he pleased with English language.

First American Balloon Ascension.

January 9 is the anniversary of the first balloon ascension in this country. It was made in Philadelphia in 1793, and it is interesting in view of the rapid strides in aeronautics made in the past few years. Even twenty-five years ago the idea of a dirigible airship was largely a dream.

Must Be Progression.

The moral law of the universe is progress. Every generation that passes idly over the earth without adding to that progress remains uninscribed upon the register of humanity, and the succeeding generation tramples its ashes as dust.—Mazzini.

The fact that mountain laurel blooms on three great national holidays, Memorial day, Flag day and Fourth of July, is one reason why the National Federation of Women's clubs advocates that flower for the national emblem.

Mrs. Parks Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health

Toronto, Ontario.—"My daughter is 16 now and has been an invalid ever since she was six months old and has been compelled to remain out of school the greater part of the time. We have tried different kinds of medicine, but none helped her much. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was run-down, and it had helped me so much that I thought it might help her at this time. She has gained ever since she began taking it. She attends school every day now and goes skating, and does other out-door sports. I recommend this medicine to any one who is run-down and nervous and weak."—Mrs. PARKS, 106 Bond Street, Toronto, Ontario.

DESERONTO

The Harvest Thanksgiving Services at St. Mark's, Deseronto, lasted over two Sundays. The decorations were in splendid taste and a band of workers, including the young girls, did excellent work. The music was full of the splendid spirit of praise and thanksgiving, how could there be any other spirit at this glorious season of the year. The organist and choir rendered their portion of the services well. The solo in the Communion service was taken by Mrs. "Sing to the Lord of Harvest" by Field, and the solo in the anthem, Mrs. C. J. Knight, Jr. The Rev. Francis Archbold, M.A., of Kingston, preached two most interesting sermons the first Sunday, which were highly appreciated, and the second Sunday the Rev. Rural Dean Coleman, M. A., of Napanee, preached an excellent sermon at Evensong. Mr. Coleman is well known in Deseronto, where he was a Curate some years ago, and the people were very pleased to see him again.

WEDDING BELLS

Johnston—Armstrong.

On Saturday morning, October 9th, 1926, the Anglican Church at Adolphustown was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Mildred Beatrice Johnston, daughter of Mr. Harry Johnston, of Adolphustown, was united in marriage with Howard LeRoy Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Armstrong, Newburgh Road. The church was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, yellow chrysanthemums and dahlias, and the guest pews were tied with asters and white satin ribbon. The Rev. Mr. Pringle officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming frock of powder blue georgette crepe, with a black hat faced with blue and rose, and a corsage bouquet of sweet heart roses and ferns. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Johnston, who wore black georgette embroidered in rose and sand, with hat to match. Dr. Hugo Gleeson, of Philadelphia, acted as best man.

The wedding breakfast at the home of the bride, was attended by the intimate members of the two families only. The house was bright with autumn flowers, huge yellow mums and asters, and at the bride's table the wedding cake surrounded by silver vases of pink roses, made a dainty and effective arrangement.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong left during the morning on a motor trip to be gone two weeks, after which they will reside in their new home on the Newburgh Road.

NORTHWAY GARMENTS

We have been asked several times how we were fortunate enough to be able to secure the Northway agency for their garments. We say in all sincerity that we are proud to be their local representatives in Napanee and this part of the country for reasons which we will outline in a very few words: Their Coats are all man-tailored and show the most conscientious and best workmanship of any garment to be had anywhere, because they employ experienced and reliable help. The sizes fit better and are usually larger and keep their shape better than any other line on the market. The price is much lower for the quality of garment that they make, and one of the greatest reasons why we handle their garments is that they are manufactured in a most up-to-date clean and sanitary factory. This is not the case with a great many coats and dresses shown throughout the country. To show you that we know what we are talking about we have visited some of the fishiest places, on account of advertising themselves as some Coat Company. A few years ago we were looking for a certain Coat Company in Toronto. We discovered them in a certain house. Here they were manufacturing coats in the room they slept in, the garments were piled on a filthy bed. We could have bought the coats quite cheaply, but we did not buy, as we held our customers in regard and we did not want to take a chance of disease and dirt in our own business. All of the garments that are being worn today have been manufactured by foreigners, who are making a big bid to corral this business. These are real facts and surely you cannot blame us if we try to bring to you garments that are made under proper sanitary conditions. That is why we handle the Northway Garments and Betty Brown Dresses, and this week we are turning our attention to a Special Sale in these reliable lines.

LADIES' AID MET AT YARKER

Many Splendid Reports Received at Important Gathering. Able addresses and Interesting Discussions —Officers Elected.

The fourth annual Convention of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church of Canada was held in Yarker United Church on October 1st. At 9.30 a.m. the registration of delegates and visitors took place and immediately after the President, Mrs. G. Ruttan, Adolphustown, took the chair and the meeting was opened by singing the hymn "Jesus Saves", followed by the opening exercises conducted by the Pastor of the Church, Rev. G. F. McKenzie. After the reading of the 2nd Psalm, the Pastor led in prayer. The Secretary, Mrs. D. H. Smith, Yarker, read the minutes of the last convention which were adopted, as was also the report of the Treasurer, Mrs. Alpine Woods, Napanee. The Treasurer reported $7.40 in bank last year and $24.80 on hand at present. It was moved by Mrs. A. Woods, seconded by Mrs. Eckhardt, that Mrs. Purcell, Colebrook, act as Press Reporter. Moved Mrs. A. Switzer, seconded by Mrs. Shangraw, that Mr. McKenzie, Mrs. Norman Boyce, Mrs. A. Woods, Mrs. E. Perry, Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Davis act as nominating committee. Moved by Mrs. Wood, seconded by Mrs. Switzer, that Mrs. G. I. Perry, Mrs. Card, Mrs. Richmond and Mr. Wilson act as Memorial Committee.

The next on the program was a chorus beautifully rendered by Yarker ladies.

The report of the several "aids" was next received. Trinity reported having raised $1,014; Grace, $1,041.61; Morven, $86.47; Roblin, $103.56; Newburgh, $303.73; Adolphustown, $408.00; Sillsville, $275.65; Hayburn, $181.00; Yarker, $630.00; Colebrook, $292.63; Arden, $230.00; Hay Bay, $59.40; Wilton, $526.00; Union, $168.00; Enterprise, $347.00; Camden East, $320.00; Centreville, $150.00; Yarker Circuit Ladies' Aid, $150.00. Tamworth also reported their aid in a flourishing condition.

It was a disappointment to the Convention that Mrs. Dugald Herron, P. Anderson could not get her paper entitled "Viewpoint of a Ladies' Aid as seen by a Minister's Wife," owing to the fact of her being ill.

Able Addresses

Mr. Thornlee, of Tamworth, was then called upon by the President to give an address. Mr. Thornlee, upon rising, said he felt it was an honor to be called upon to address the Convention. Mr. Thornlee traced the important part women have played ever since early Bible times. He spoke of Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, the mother of Moses, Miriam, Hannah, Mary, Ruth and Esther as godly women of the old Testament. Then in the New Testament the more prominent are Jesus, Mary Magdalene, Mary and Martha of Bethany, Women healers, Jesus and Joseph's tomb. But it was Jesus who had put the crown on women's head.

Mrs. Harold Freeman gave the address of welcome in a very gracious manner. She spoke very feelingly of the co-operation existing among the Ladies' Aid members, and said that Yarker extended to the Convention a very warm welcome.

Mrs. W. D. Roblin replied to the address of welcome telling how pleased the Convention was to be entertained in Yarker United Church. Convention was served in the League Hall by the Yarker ladies, to which everyone did justice to the good things provided.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was opened by singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "There Shall be Showers of Blessings."

After the singing, Rev. A. J. Wilson, Napanee, read from the Scripture, 1st Timothy, chapter 6, giving an exposition of the same. Afterwards Mr. Wilson led in prayer.

Mrs. (Rev.) Daggett, Harrowsmith, sang a sweetly "Hark the Voice of Jesus Calling." The minutes of the morning session were then read, declared correct. Odessa Aid reported having 50 members and they gave $200 to church and $75 to parsonage funds.

Round Table Conference.

A Round Table Conference was led by Mrs. Thornlee, Tamworth. The following points were ably discussed and dealt with and satisfactorily settled:

Can a woman belong to all the organizations in Church and community and do effective work, and if not which organizations are the most important?

Are the meetings of the Ladies' Aid free from gossip?

What should be the attitude of the Ladies' Aid to the Board of Stewards?

Is it advisable for the minister's wife to be President of the Ladies' Aid?

Name benefits derived from last Convention?

How far should the Ladies' Aid go toward furnishing the parsonage?

A solo entitled "God Cares for His Children" was then sweetly rendered by Miss Allen, of Moscow.

The offering was then taken and amounted to $16.00.

An Excellent Paper

Mrs. Carscallen, of Enterprise, gave a very excellent paper on "Success".

She said work was a first start to success. "My father worked hither to and thither, and I never digni fies the task. The one who stands on the mountain top is not the strongest but the worker. Concentration of effort led to success. Not education alone but will power leads to success. Real beauty comes from within. Influence of good companions tends to lift up one's life. Honesty leads to success. "An honest man is the noblest work of God." Push is the watchword to success. Lastly a great value to success. Reading books stores the mind. Mothers have a strong influence in the making of character.

After Mrs. Carscallen's paper was concluded it was moved by Mrs. Buck, seconded by Mrs. Perry, that the current expenses be paid. The sum was $9.80. It was moved by Mrs. Kitchen, seconded by Mrs. Shangraw, that the Convention of 1927 be held at Enterprise. A solo was then rendered with good effect by Mrs. Lochhead, Tamworth.

The nominating committee brought in the following report:

Hon. Pres.—Rev. G. T. McKenzie.

President—Mrs. Buck, Bath.

1st Vice President—Mrs. Allen Carscallen, Enterprise.

2nd Vice President—Mrs. Elmer Aikenbrack.

Secretary—Mrs. Earl Perry.

Assistant Secretary — Mrs. N. Boyce.

Treasurer—Mrs. A. Woods.

Executive—Rev. G. T. McKenzie, Mrs. R. N. Roblin, Mrs. D. A. Richmond, Mrs. G. I. Perry.

Memorial Committee Report

The Memorial Committee brought in the following report: "Resolved that we appreciate the idea of the Ladies' Aid Convention for several reasons:

For the helpful suggestions we receive from other Ladies' Aids. As a means of bringing together the ladies of the three great churches. That we appreciate the services of the retiring President, Mrs. G. Ruttan. That we express our appreciation of the splendid hospitality rendered by the ladies of Yarker circuit. That we accept the Enterprise invitation for the Convention of 1927. That we recommend that the Convention be held annually about the same time of year."

The Convention was then brought to a close by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Merrick.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION COUNCIL

The forty-fourth annual convention of the Sunday School workers of the County of Lennox and Addington was held at Enterprise on Tuesday, Oct. 19th, 1926.

The devotional period was taken by Rev. H. A. Bunt, B.A. pastor of the church. A very hearty welcome was extended to the visitors by Mr. W. Dopking, the Superintendent of the Sunday School at Enterprise. In reply Mrs. (Rev.) R. J. Merriam, who had formerly lived in the parsonage there, expressed her delight at being home again with the very kind folk of Enterprise.

After the general business and the appointment of the several necessary committees, Rev. A. J. Wilson, B.A., B.D., of St. Andrew's, Napanee, gave a splendid portrayal of how to teach the Old Testament to the several grades of the Sunday School.

The afternoon session was opened by Rev. C. J. Wilson, of Roblin. The President, Mr. A. C. Baldwin, then called for the reports of the several superintendents of the divisions and the secretary-treasurer. From the reports given, Mr. Lake, of Morven, gave what seemed to be the most outstanding of all. Mr. Lake, owing to pressure of business, felt it necessary for him to retire this year, and consequently gave a resume of the work of his department for the last six years. When he began there were only fifteen organized registered adult classes; now there are fifty-two registered. Rev. A. J. Wilson conducted the conference on the reports.

Another instructive and interesting feature of the session was the Charted Life of Christ, by Mrs. (Rev.) T. H. P. Anderson.

The evening session was opened by Rev. H. A. Bunt, after which the report of the Nominating Committee was read and adopted.

Rev. A. J. Wilson installed the following as officers for the ensuing year:

Hon. President—A. MacGregor.
President—Rev. T. H. P. Anderson.
1st Vice President—A. Switzer.
2nd Vice President—Geo. Brooks.
Sec.-Treas.—Mrs. Geo. Finlay.
Supt. Children's Div.—Mrs. R. Smith.
Supt. Boys' Div.—Rev. R. J. Merriam.
Supt. Girls' Div.—Mrs. A. C. Baldwin.
Supt. Adult Div.—A. C. Baldwin.
Supt. Home Department Div.—Mrs. J. C. Hudgins.
Supt. Teacher Training Div.—Mrs. T. H. P. Anderson.
Supt. Missionary Div.—H. E. Vanest.
Supt. Temperance Div.—J. C. Hudgins.

A vote of thanks was given to the retiring officers. Mrs. A. MacGregor for three years past has devoted a great deal of time and given a great impetus as secretary-treasurer to the efficiency as a county organization; we are sorry to lose her. The work will be a great deal poorer because of her retirement. Mr. A. C. Baldwin has presided over the affairs of the county as president during the past three years and in a very dignified and painstaking way has guided the work of the county. We are glad to have him still on the executive as Superintendent of the Adult Division. Mr. F. G. Lake, the dean of the executive, retired this year, as did also his wife, who was the Superintendent of the Home Department. The work of these two very capable officers during the term of their office has developed wonderfully, and very sincerely did the convention regret their retirement.

The convention was entertained for dinner and supper by the Sunday School workers of the convention church, and most generous was their hospitality.

The singing of the splendid choir at the evening session was a great help.

The next place of meeting is to be at Trinity United Church, Napanee.

The closing address of the convention was given by the new President, Rev. T. H. P. Anderson, of Newburgh. Mr. Baldwin, the retiring President, spoke of Mr. Anderson's work on the County Executive for a number of years, and of his pleasure in having Mr. Anderson succeed him.

Mr. Anderson, in a very earnest and inspiring message, outlined the ideals of religious education in the home and church.

RHEUMATIC PAIN AND THIN BLOOD

Liniments of No Avail — The Trouble Must Be Treated Through the Blood

The most a rheumatic sufferer can hope for in rubbing something on the swollen, aching joints is a little relief and all the while the trouble is becoming more firmly rooted. It is now known that rheumatism is rooted in the blood, and that as the trouble goes on the blood becomes still further thin and watery. To get rid of rheumatism, therefore, you must go to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved so beneficial when taken for this trouble. They make new, rich blood which expels the poisonous acid and the rheumatism disappears. There are thousands of former rheumatic sufferers in Canada, now well and strong, who thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that they are now free from the aches and pains of this dreaded trouble. One of these is Mr. Robt. A. Smith, Mersey Point, N.S., who says:—"Some years ago I was attacked with rheumatism, which grew so bad that I could not walk and had to go to bed under the doctor's care. It is needless to say that I underwent a great deal of suffering. The doctor's medicine did not seem to reach the trouble, so when I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I did so, and after taking them for some weeks I was able to get out of bed. I continued using the pills and was soon able to work, and I have not been troubled with rheumatism since. In other respects also I derived a great deal of benefit from these pills and I think them a wonderful remedy."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NOVEMBER ROD AND GUN

A fishing department of more than usual interest, with a good representation of other sporting articles, seems to feature the November issue of Rod and Gun, which is just published. Two good fiction stories are also included in the aggregation of out-door reading matter "McLean of the Hudson's Bay" by William C. Millar and "The Blue Buoy" by B. Robbins.

"An Eventful Snipe Shooting Trip" is a good yarn of shooting on the Tidal flats of the St. Lawrence. Bonnycastle Dale writes of "Bait Fishes of the Bay of Quinte," with J. W. Winson's article is this month on "Cuckoo Owls and Cuckoos." Among the writers in Fishing Notes this month are F. Merrett, a well known angler, Ozark Ripley and R. H. Moore, whose articles are supplemented by a number of others as well as a good Queries and Answers section. C. S. Landis' Guns and Ammunition department has also an interesting collection of special contributions. W. C. Motley in Outdoor Talk this month deals with "The Woodcraft Sign Language."

You should select the everyday household remedies, such as Epsom Salts or Castor Oil with more than ordinary care. The health of your children demands it. The label, "Pure Test" is a guarantee that you are purchasing the best to be had. "Pure Test" remedies for sale at Wallace's.

WHEN THE KING TRAVELS BY TRAIN

Many Precautions Taken to Ensure Safety and Comfort.

Few people among the crowds that raise farewell cheers when the royal train starts on a long journey in this country have any idea how numerous and minute are the precautions taken to ensure safety writes a contributor to the London Daily Mail.

All along the route officials have received special instructions, which must be followed to the last letter. Keen eyes are strained to catch sight of the royal engine with its four lights, one of which is fixed at the foot of the chimney, one at each end of the buffer beam, and the fourth in the centre. At night they give an unmistakable warning; all other engines carry only two lights.

Every care is taken to make the King's journey as noiseless as possible. Work proceeding on any section through which his train passes is suspended; shunting operations are stopped. No passenger train overtaken on the way may exceed ten miles an hour. This rule is made in order that the King shall not be observed for more than a few seconds at any one point. As the royal train travels between fifty and sixty miles an hour other traffic is thus swiftly left behind.

Tunnels receive very particular attention. An hour before the King's train enters them they are closely examined and the lines are tested. Men with hand signals are posted at both ends of a tunnel, and those at the entrance relax their vigilance only when they have received an agreed signal from the sentinels at the exit that the train is safely through.

Another very strict rule is that where a woman is in charge of the gate or a level crossing on the royal way, her place must be taken by a competent man half an hour before the King's train is due, and he must remain for ten minutes after it has passed. If there is any likelihood of fog or snow, fog-signalmen are required to be on duty.

Finally there are expert engineers aboard the royal train who, with special apparatus, could in an emergency establish communication on the track-side telephone wires at any point of the journey.

Before the war the King's train was always preceded by a "pilot" engine, but this precaution is now considered unnecessary, as are many other safeguards of other days.

Roger, ordinarily quite a peaceable child, came home after a fight with his new neighbor.

"Why, Roger, I'm ashamed of you!" mother said, sternly. "And I'm certainly surprised at that new boy fighting; I thought he had the nicest face!"

"Well, he ain't got it now!" replied Roger, reminiscently.

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

WEDDING BELLS

Conway—Murphy

A pretty wedding took place at 9.30 a.m., Sept. 30th, 1926, at the Church of the Holy Name, New York City, when Mary F. Murphy, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Murphy, Bath, Ont., was united in Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Thomas H. Conway, of Richmond Hill, Long Island. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Halligan. The wedding march was played by Miss Fay Sullivan, and Miss L. A. Koch sang the Ave Marie during the nuptial mass. The bride looked very smart in a gown of melon pink with hat to match and carried a bouquet of ophilia roses and lily of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Edna Killin, R.N., Newark, N.J., wore a channel red georgette gown with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses. Mr. Martin Moore, Worchester, N.Y., acted as best man.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served to the immediate friends of the young couple at Lucerne. The groom's gift to the bride was a dainty string of baby pearls, to the bridesmaid a slave bangle set with sapphires, and to the best man a silver flask.

After a short honeymoon spent at Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Conway will reside in New York City.

Baby's Own Tablets Are of Great Value

To All Mothers Having Young Children in the Home

No other medicine is of such aid to mothers of young children as is Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are the very best medicine a mother can give her little ones during the dreadful teething time because they regulate the stomach and bowels and thus drive out constipation and indigestion; prevent colic and simple fevers and break up colds and simple fevers.

Concerning Baby's Own Tablets, Mrs. John A. Patterson, Scotch Village, N.S., says:—"I have six children, and all the medicine they ever get is Baby's Own Tablets. I would use nothing else for them and can strongly recommend the Tablets to all other mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

That famous actress, Nadine March, has quite a collection of good stories to tell.

One of her favorites concerns a lady who had been victimised by her cook, inasmuch that when sent to buy things, the cook had always charged her mistress more than the articles actually cost.

Consequently the lady advertised for another cook.

"Now if you are strictly honest," she said to an applicant, "I will give you five shillings extra at the end of each month."

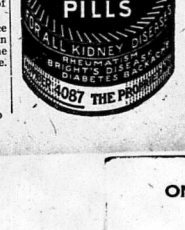
The cook, who had evidently played the same trick as her predecessor, hesitated for some moments before saying :

"I'll think it over very carefully, ma'am, and let you know this evening."

Parent—"You ask for the hand of my daughter. Can you wash, darn, sew, nurse children, and keep house?"

Suitor—"What has that got to do with it?"

"Well, my daughter can't."



Experienced mothers say Zam-Buk is best for children's injuries and skin troubles, because:

It is herbal—no poisonous mineral coloring.

It is antiseptic—prevents cuts and burns taking the wrong way.

It is soothing—ends pain quickly.

It heals every time.

Just as good for grown-ups.

Sold at all stores and druggists.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"I understand your cook has left. "Yes," answered the housewife, who was taking account of broken china, "but nit much."

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

A sporting young curate named Meek At a social proposed "hide and seek". A lesson it taught him, Miss Miggins soon caught him; The wedding is next Tuesday week.

When Holloway's Corn Remover is applied to a corn it kills the roots and the callosity comes out without injury to the flesh.

The teacher was giving a lesson on Venice, and as Tommy didn't appear to be taking notice, she said to him : "Now, Tommy, what is a gondola?"

"Please, miss, a gondoler's a man what's gone on the dole."

Always Ready and Reliable.—Practically all pains arising from indigestion can be removed with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Simply rub it on the sore spot and it is quickly absorbed by the skin. Its healing power is conveyed to the inflamed tissue which is quickly soothed. This fine old remedy is also a specific for all manner of cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. Keep a bottle handy always.

Waiter (fishing for tip): "How did you find the steak, sir?"

Diner (rejecting the bait): "Oh, quite by strategy. The little beggar was hiding behind one of the potatoes!"

A woman well known locally for her fowls sold one to a neighbor. But it proved particularly tough, and as he had paid a big price for the bird he called on the woman without delay.

"What do you mean by imposing such a bird on me, one of your oldest neighbors?" he inquired.

"Why, was there anything wrong with it?"

"Wrong! It wasn't good at all !" "Well, it ought to have been. It won first prize at the poultry show 11 years in succession !"

An angler who describing to his friend the size of a salmon he had caught.

"How big was it?" asked the hearer.

"Biggest salmon you ever saw," said the sportsman.

"But that doesn't explain much to me," argued his friend. "The only salmon I ever saw was in a can. Measure with your hands to give me an idea."

The host glanced at the walls of the room.

"All right," he said, "but we'll have to go outdoors to do it."

Spare the children from suffering from worms by using Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective vermifuge with which to combat these insidious foes of the young and helpless. It is an excellent worm destroyer, and when its qualities become known in a household no other will be used. The medicine acts by itself, requiring no purgative to assist it, and so shortly oughly that nothing more is desired.

The host's small daughter, called upon to entertain the professor who was her father's guest, announced that she would tell him a story.

"There was once a man named Columbus," she began, "an' a queen sent him on a voyage, an' his ships were named the Nina, the Pinta, and—and—"

"Santa Maria," prompted the professor.

"Yes; and the queen's name was—was—"

"Isabella," suggested the professor.

"Professor," asked the child, with sudden suspicion, "have you ever heard this story before?"

STRATFORD WOMAN

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Stratford, Ontario.—"After my first baby was born I started to work on the tenth day and did a big washing on the twelfth day. I was only young (I was married at 19) I did not know what was the matter, so let it go until I was all run down, weak and nervous, and had a bad displacement. For nearly two years I could not sleep and I would always complain of having 'not a head-ache, but a brain-ache.' My mother is taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life and she recommended it to me. After taking two bottles I began to get a little sleep and to feel better and I have never felt off since then, except for about three months. I can safely say I have taken thirty bottles since my second baby was born. I think it makes child-birth easier as I had terrible pains with my first three children and very few with my fourth as I was so much stronger. I am now able to do my work alone, but I am still taking the Vegetable Compound as I am nursing baby."—Mrs. Omer Paul, 49 Cherry Street, Stratford, Ontario.

If you are suffering from any weakness which causes such symptoms as pains in the side and back and nervous feelings, give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial now. C

IN MEMORIAM.

To the memory of the late T. G. Hinch, who died October 18th, 1925.
A precious one from us has gone.
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
We have lost a good brother,
How we miss him we but know;
But we know he has gone to Heaven,
Where there is neither pain nor woe.
But we need not grieve for him,
For his hope in God was strong;
Now he is mingled with the angels,
Yes, among that glorious throng.

But ever in our aching hearts

Those who have a loving son,
Treat him with all care,
For you never know the value
Till you see the vacant chair."

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear Wife and Mother, Mrs. W. A. Lockridge, who passed away on October 26th, 1925.

One year has passed and gone
Since one we loved so well,
Was taken from our home on earth
To Jesus Christ to dwell.
We watched you suffer day and night
It caused us bitter grief,
We see you slowly pass away
And could not give relief.
There is someone who misses you, dear mother,
And find the year long since you went
There is someone who thinks of you sadly,
But tries to be brave and content.
What would we give to clasp your hand,
Your happy face to see;
To hear your voice, to see your smile
That meant so much to me.
Sadly missed by Husband and Family. 44ap

Helen had been brought up as a Presbyterian and had always attended her father's church.

When the time happened to be visiting relatives who were Episcopalians, the subject of going to church came up during conversation at the dinner table on Saturday night, and the family was invited to attend the Episcopal Church.

Helen begged her father to accept, but he replied that he thought they would go to their own church.

"Oh, daddy," said the little girl, "if you'll only let me go, I'll promise not to believe a word they say."

The teacher was giving a lesson on Venice, and as Tommy didn't appear to be taking notice, she said to him: "Now, Tommy, what is a gondola?"

"Please, miss, a gondolier's a man what's gone on the dole."

Diner (rejecting the bait): "Oh, quite by strategy. The little beggar was hiding behind one of the potatoes!"

PROHIBITION MANIFESTO

At a meeting of the Executive of the Frontenac-Lennox Prohibition Union, held in Odessa, on Tuesday, October 26th, the situation in the riding was discussed, and the progress of organization reviewed. After a thorough canvass of the whole situation, the Executive re-affirmed its stand on Prohibition as set forth in a letter under date of May 20th, 1926, which was sent to each of the political organizations in the riding. The letter with verbal changes necessary to meet the present issue is as follows, and was unanimously passed and ordered published:—

"We, the members of the Frontenac-Lennox Prohibition Union, desire to call your attention to the stand which we as a Prohibition organization take, and the manner in which we propose to conduct ourselves during the next election.

As you are aware we are a non-party organization and our members represent all shades of political opinion. Our object is simply and solely to see that this Province enjoys the total prohibition of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes. We believe that the O. T. A., though not perfect, is the best social legislation that province has ever enjoyed, and we recall with pleasure, that all parties in Ontario united in having it put on the statute books. It is our intention to do all in our power to the end that this law shall be maintained.

The electors of this riding when ever they have had the opportunity have pronounced themselves as strongly opposed to any weakening of the O. T. A. And speaking for that large prohibition majority we intend to use all our influence and power to see that only a member who pledges himself to vote against the present government sale proposals and for the retention of the O. T. A. shall represent this riding in the Ontario House.

A. J. WILSON,
Secretary.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Monday evening, October 18th, about forty relatives and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson, to celebrate their twenty-fifth anniversary. After an enjoyable evening was spent a beautiful gasoline lamp was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Gibson. Although taken by surprise, Mr. Gibson showed their appreciation in a few well chosen words. The presentation was made by Mrs. Arthur Waddingham, and the address was read by Mrs. Russell Withers. A dainty lunch was served after which the company dispersed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gibson many more happy years of married life.

Following is the address:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson,—As this is the twentieth anniversary of your wedding, we have taken this opportunity of gathering in your home to celebrate it with you. We ask you to accept this lamp as a small token of our esteem. With it go our good wishes for many more years of happiness.

Signed on behalf of your sincere friends.

Helen Waddingham.

Walroth, became the bride of Mr. Stanley Clifford Embury, of Newburgh. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. V. Fairbairn, of Kingston. Immediately following the ceremony, a dinner was served in the dining room. The young couple late in the afternoon motored to Harrowsmith, and took the eastern train for Ottawa.

ST. MARY'S WINS INTER-CHURCH LEAGUE OPENER

If anybody wants action they should have come to the Armouries on Tuesday evening. Talk about slugging! Home-runs, triples, doubles, singles, and even puny bunts were joined together to manufacture exactly 100 runs in 16 innings of softball. The pleasing part of the evening was that the games were over at 9.45. There were bits of good old baseball mixed in, but in all the crowd saw two really good games.

St. Mary's 32, Grace 11.

Pandemonium reigned in the ranks of the Grace supporters when the rejuvenated St. Mary's, under the able guidance of Fred Carter and Harold Johnston trounced the wearers of the Blue and White 32-11 in the Inter-Church League's opening game.

St. Mary's trotted out three newcomers in Dorothy Hagan, Leonora Fraser and Miss Benn. All three did excellent work and weakened the team in no way. Marion Grass needs no introduction to the fans and received a great hand when she caressed one of Mary's shoots into deep centre and while Helen Walker was trying to corral the ball she easily made the circuit, scoring two ahead of her. Leonora Fraser, St. Mary's shortstop, stepped into her first league game and carried herself like a veteran. She drove out several hard drives, one a double which accounted for two runs, and later made a nice play at 2nd in avoiding a putout. Dorothy Hagan at 3b was also in the limelight with her hitting and fielding. Miss Benn, another newcomer, did some good batting, and Joe Clarke was in there doing her best. Irene and Marion Embury needn't be mentioned especially, because they are stars anyway, and what they did on Tuesday evening was their natural playing. Dorothy Johnston twirled her usual stellar game and was at her best in the pinches. Then comes Doris Lucas and Noreen Johnston, both well known to the fans. Both did good playing and didn't weaken the team in any way.

Now for the vanquished! Who was their star or stars? Who knows? To be frank, the Grace girls played their worst ball and couldn't do a thing right. They presented nearly the same team as last year, nearly all experienced players, but all played their worst. Mary Stinson and Hazel O'Neil formed the battery. Margaret Douglas, Marion Douglas, Helen Harrigan, Marion Thompson and Dorothy Lucas made up the infield, but none did anything spectacular. Marion Douglas made a couple of nice put-outs at 2nd but sister Margaret couldn't do anything right at 1b. Grace Hall made one nice catch in left field, and Helen Walker and Thelma Hambly played nice ball in left and centre as they couldn't be blamed for doing much wrong when they had little or nothing to do. Marion and Margaret Douglas, Mary Stinson and Hazel O'Neill were Grace's best bit with the stick. That Dorothy Johnston was at her best was plain when she fanned that slugger, Marion Douglas, to end the game. Mary Stinson was not up to form because she hasn't pitched since last winter and naturally she wouldn't be at her best.

Messrs. Mills and MacPherson did the official work of calling what was what.

These games will be held every other Tuesday evening, so don't forget from next Tuesday a double-header will be on the card. The games will start at 6.30 p.m., and all Frontenac fans will be in action. Now be sure and read this. The Armouries will be heated and there will be lots of room so let us have a record crowd.

Frontenacs 43, Napanee 11.

Next on the program came the men's game, when "B" Co. swamped Napanee 43-14. Three home runs rattled off the "B" Co. bats, the marksmen being Carl Garrett, Fred Bentley and Claude Fraser. There were numerous doubles and triples, but they were so frequent that it was useless to keep track of them. An amusing incident in the game came when Fraser hit an apparent three-bagger with the bases loaded, by Harrison stopping at 3rd, and Fraser failed to notice him and stopped there too. A scramble ensued and Harrison raced back to 2nd and Fraser stayed on 3rd. The order of the runners was thus reversed, but no one noticed it, and both runners scored later.

"B" Co. figured in two double plays both fast and spectacular. The first was MacDonald to Kirby to Fraser, and the 2nd was Fraser to MacDonald.

Napanee had their good plays too. Gerald Johnston made a beautiful catch in left field and others made nice plays. A triple play, the first of the season, was pulled when Skitch speared one, teased to 2nd for a double, and Johnston promptly tossed to 3b for the third out. It was a smart effort.

Cornelius Mills, Marion and Irene Embury acted as umpires.

Spartans 11, Athenians 5.

Spartans won the second game in the Inter-Society Rugby series at N.C.I., on Wednesday, by 11-5. Malcolm Corkill scored the Athenians' only touch a minute before the whistle. Five minutes after the opening whistle Ralph Cowle crashed through the Athenians' line for a touch. A kick to the deadline gave the Spartans another, and then a one-side kick enabled Claude Fraser to score another touch-down. As usual there were a great number of minor accidents, but nothing serious.

Mr. Shoemaker and Mr. Murray officiated.

LEAFS WIN, BUT FRONTENACS LOSE

On Friday evening a small crowd turned out to see the Leafs trim the Deserontos, and the Frontenacs bow to a much inferior outfit from Deseronto.

Leafs 26, Deserontos 6.

The Leafs whaled Lil Wagar's offerings all over the Armouries and walked away with a 26-6 victory. The Leafs clouted everything she offered, singles, doubles, triples and one home-run belting to the extremities of the Armouries. Hazel O'Neill crashed out the four-bagger, a long clout to deep centre. Ruth Dickson showed a complete reversal of form over her previous games. She stole base after base, slammed out three or four hits, and then surprised herself and everyone else by making a circus catch and doubling a runner off 1st base. Marion Embury made an unassisted double play and played nice ball throughout. Dot Johnston held the Ponies in check all evening and showed fourteen hitters or would-be-hitters.

The game between Frontenacs and Deserontos resulted in a victory for the latter. Score, 18-16.

SIDELIGHTS ON GENERAL SPORT

On Thursday afternoon at the N. C. I. ground the Athenians won the first of a set of rugby games from the Spartatans by 12-9. The Spartans were trailing 12-1 at half time but hustled in the last half and scored eight points. The Athenians dominated the play in the first half. The feature of this half was the work of Corkill, Athians' husky middle wing, who scored a "touch" besides starring throughout. Glen Herrington, a new-comer, raised the Athenians' stock by scoring another "touch", bringing glory to himself as well. Ralph Cowle, a loyal Spartan, scored the Spartans' lone touchdown, and with Beline did the starring for Spartans. Other games will be held shortly and any citizens wishing to see these games can very easily find out the dates and time by calling up Dr. Morden or asking any of the pupils.

MISSIONARY RALLY

The first Missionary Rally of the Napanee Division of the Belleville Presbyterial was held in the United Church, Selby, on Wednesday, October 13th. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, there was a very enthusiastic gathering of earnest workers all eager to do their part in the furtherance of the missionary cause.

The meeting opened by singing our old familiar hymn, No. 483, after which the Pastor, Rev. Mr. Batstone, read in the Apostle's Creed, followed by a short prayer.

Mrs. G. I. Perry, 1st Vice President of Belleville Presbyterial, was in charge of the rally, and Mrs. I. Aselstine was unanimously chosen Secretary, a post she has filled most capably in the past. Mrs. E. C. Wright was chosen Press Reporter.

The reports of the various auxiliaries were received and with few exceptions, the returns were well worthy of mention.

Nearly all the organizations had new members and there were many schemes of raising money, but the great stress was laid upon systematic giving. One W. M. S. has special monthly envelopes, another subscribes for several copies of Missionary Monthly for disinterested members, another Auxiliary has a different member take charge of each monthly meeting, and another organization makes a special sacrifice week and they do make real sacrifices. The mite boxes in many societies were out in average numbers, but many had flow compared to their membership.

Hymn No. 140 was sung at this point, followed by the reports of Circles and Bands, also encouraging to know that many enterprising young people were coming along to take the place of the older ones who pod down, for it is from the trained ranks of the younger mission workers that we must look to for our leaders of to-morrow.

The reports of the Secretaries of Christian Stewardship and Strangers Secretary were given, and it seemed as if with few exceptions this work was not being taken up as it should be in our Auxiliaries. Wilton W. M. S. have two very busy Strangers Secretaries who have surely caught the vision of just what their duties are. Selby W. M. S. lay special emphasis on Christian Stewardship.

The Selby Mission Band rendered a chorus very sweetly, "In the Vineyard of the Lord"; a little chorus by little people, with a big lesson for all of us.

A splendid paper was given by Mrs. Fred Sharpe, "Aims and Values of a Mission Band". The aims of the Band is to instill a missionary spirit in the minds of the children, for it is to the children we must look for our future W. M. S. workers, and our missionary workers upon the foreign and home fields. A child cannot acquire a missionary education if we do not implant the seed in their little minds. When this is done they never rest easily in their love for missionary work. They love to feel their pennies are doing a great work, and the desire to do their part in the mite box contribution is a spirit well worth cultivating. We as parents, perhaps, do not accept our responsibilities as we should in educating them along missionary lines. We desire to give our children the best education possible in music, art, science, etc., but do we do our part in helping them to grasp the missionary vision of a world yet to win for Christ? Some people lay stress upon home teaching of missions and think the band just one organization in many, but what of the boys and girls whose parents are not interested in band work. Their missionary training would be sadly lacking but for the bands. Care should be taken to make the program varied and interesting. Let the children give most of the program. Make the Bible the vital part of missionary study, have them study early bible missionaries, a commandment at each meeting, cutting up of illustrated bible pictures, and telling the story when the picture is completed, thus impresses the lesson upon their childish minds never to be forgotten. Consider the social side of the band work, hold the children's loyalty to their band, and we have no fear of lack of future workers of our Christian mission cause. Let us accept our responsibilities with renewed spirit to our children and do our best to assist by our prayers and co-operation the furtherance of His Kingdom through the little children entrusted to our care.

Mrs. Henry Smith, of Odessa Auxiliary, favoured the Convention with a solo. At this period three bright, to the point, papers were given by ladies of Napanee Grace Church, "What Do We Owe Christ".

1. Time, by Mrs. J. Stalker. What do we owe Christ as Christians. We owe it to our very lives to live with as He wills. We have to learn to give our wills to the Master. The disciples sat and talked with Christ, listened to His teaching and worked with Him; how else can we know our friends, and we must follow His teaching as truly as the chosen twelve. We are so interested in our own affairs that we think that Martha's part in the household was necessarily the most important, but what about the dear communion with the Master that was Mary's sitting at His feet. We must take time to go away quietly to pray, and thus to be strengthened. We learn great lessons in our quiet hours. The very fact of Christ choosing twelve disciples proves that we need the contact with one another. In His life on earth for us, His final renunciation for our sake surely we owe Him our time. We owe Him time to learn of Him, to keep inviolate His church. We owe Him our very best in all things.

2. Talent, by Mrs. T. Symington. Talents represent gifts from God, which vary in different individuals. Dr. Bushnell says the capacity for religion of knowing God, of love of faith, of being guided by God, is our very highest talent. No Christian receives gifts for himself. God gives the larger opportunities, fuller measure of the spirit, more important work to those who have ability to use those talents. Every time we do our duty we make it easier for someone else to do theirs and vice versa. A duty well done is a living force, a self perpetuating power. It keeps repeating itself in the lives of others until the ripple from one little stone breaks at last upon the shores of eternity. Christ does not give us all the same little talent to use, each has their own little sphere to fill, to use their talents accordingly, all going to make up the vital whole. Even he who had but one talent could have surpassed in a short time he who had five talents with less faithfulness. We must use to the best of our ability all that God has entrusted to us. Mrs. Symington closed her paper with a very fitting little poem, "The One Talent Man".

3. Money, by Mrs. F. L. Hooper. What do we owe Christ? Everything, our life, our time, our talents, our money. We may give both our time and talent, but we must also give of our substance to the Master's service. The millenium will never come till Christ has His share of our pocket book. The task is tremendous, but if every Christian woman would but feel her responsibility, the task would be lightened considerably. The old plea, so many home calls, pews are uncomfortable, furnace pipes are rusted, the church needs a new roof, etc., etc., does not relieve us of the debt we owe to those who know not our Saviour. We often read of the honor paid to a great statesman, or a noted general, representing Royalty, but we have a greater honor if we see it thus representing the King of Kings in furthering His Kingdom at home and abroad. We should feel the world is our parish. Systematic giving is the keynote of success. Let each accept their share, and the burden would be lessened considerably. Is the price of half a dozen eggs, half a loaf of bread or an ice cream cone too much to give to send the blessed gospel to those who dwell in darkness? What do we owe God? Everything. Can He count on us? Is the great task of keeping workers in His vineyard to fail because we have not caught the divine vision that God owns all our substance, and to Him we owe everything.

The Quiet Half Hour was in charge of Miss Frances Asselstine, Odessa, assisted by Mrs. J. H. Babcock. All stood and sang "Talk to us Lord, thyself reveal". The 25th Chapter of Mathew was read by Miss Asselstine. We are all born in God's image and we must be co-workers and assist Him. One of the hardest arts is getting along with others, and how we fill each hour is what will count on that day. We must look ever for the best. God found the best even in the Prodigal Son and Zacchaeus. If a stranger came among us to-day would he get the right idea of Christianity by our lives? The story of the life of Mohammed forms a startling illustration and how he came to be the head of the great Moslem religion. Wouldn't it have been a wonderful factor for good if he had known the Christian religion, and he had used his strong personality for Christianity in those Eastern countries where Mohammedanism is so deeply rooted? God often gives us lessons through the flowers, birds, etc. "There is no place where one is so near to God as in a garden". Mrs. Babcock closed the quiet half hour with a very fitting prayer.

We were warmly welcomed to Selby church by Mrs. Martin, in a few well chosen words, and a very cordial invitation extended to the gentlemen present, after which we proceeded to the basement of the church, where at the tables beautifully decked with flowers and bountifully laden, we enjoyed a tempting hot dinner. The proceeds of the dinner netted the Selby ladies about seventy-five dollars.

The afternoon session opened at 1.30, with devotional service in charge of ladies from Empey Hill, each Auxiliary answering to roll call with a verse of scripture. A short memorial service for the deceased members was held. The members stood and sang one verse of "Faith of Our Fathers" as Rev. Mr. Merrick lead in a brief prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and adopted.

Mrs. H. VanDusen, Deseronto, replied very capably to the greetings. Music, two little boys, members of Selby Mission Band, "A Light to the World Ever Shining".

"Prayer as a Force in our W. M. S. Work" by Mrs. J. Laughland. The supreme teachings of the bible in regard to prayer are found in the New Testament, for it is in the example and teachings of Jesus and the Apostles that the prayer life of the bible culminates. Luke has been called the gospel of prayer. The gospel opens in prayer, the annunciation comes to Mary as she is praying. The wise men and the shepherds pray. Christ is heralded by a man who spent his life apart in the desert in prayer. Christ prays for his friends and his enemies, in private, in public, in the upper room, in the desert, and upon the cross.

Let us as a band of Christian workers, follow the supreme prayers of Paul, that we too may achieve results in the missionary cause. With such a background of study in prayer from the lives of the saints, let us turn directly to the value of prayer in missions. The first of the great missionary societies of the English speaking world was organized in 1792 under the leadership of William Cary. All are familiar with the wonderful and definite answer to prayer by the leaders of the China Inland Mission.

Mrs. G. I. Perry, 1st Vice President of Belleville Presbyterial, was in charge of the rally, and Mrs. I. Asselstine was unanimously chosen Secretary, a post she has filled most capably in the past. Mrs. E. A. Wright was chosen Press Reporter.

The reports of the various Auxiliaries were received and with few exceptions, the returns were well worthy of mention.

Nearly all the organizations had new members and there were many schemes of raising money, but the great stress was laid upon systematic giving. One W. M. S. has special monthly envelopes, another subscribes for several copies of Missionary Monthly for disinterested members, another Auxiliary has a different member take charge of each monthly meeting, and another organization makes a special sacrifice week and they do make real sacrifices. The mite boxes in many societies were out in appreciable numbers, but many a had flow compared with their membership.

Hymn No. 140 was sung at this point, followed by the reports of Circles and Bands, also encouraging to know that many enterprising young people were coming along to fill up ranks as we older ones stepped down, for it is from the trained ranks of the younger mission workers that we must look to for our leaders of to-morrow.

The reports of the Secretaries of Christian Stewardship and Strangers Secretary were given, and it seemed as if with few exceptions this work was not being taken up as it should be in our Auxiliaries. Wilton W. M. S. have two very busy Stranger's Secretaries who have surely caught the vision of just what their duties are. Selby W. M. S. lay special emphasis on Christian Stewardship.

The Selby Mission Band rendered a chorus very sweetly, "In the Vineyard of the Lord"; a little chorus by little people, with a big lesson for all of us.

An splendid paper, was given by Mrs. Fred Sharpe, "Aims and Values of a Mission Band." The aims of the Band is to instill a missionary spirit in the minds of the children, for it is to the children we must look for our future W. M. S. workers, and our missionary workers upon the foreign and home fields. A child cannot acquire a missionary education if we do not implant the seed in their little minds. When this is done they move entirely lose their love for missionary work. Their love for what their parents are doing a great work, and the desire to do their part in the mite box contribution is a spirit well worth cultivating. We as parents, perhaps, do not accept our responsibilities as we should in educating them along missionary lines. We desire to give our children the best education possible in music, art, science, etc., but do we do our part in helping them to grasp the missionary vision of a world yet to win for Christ? Some people lay stress upon home teaching of missions and think the band just one organization too many, but what of the boys and girls who in many cases are not interested in band work. Their missionary training would be sadly lacking but for the bands. Care should be taken to make the program varied and interesting. Let the children give most of the program. Make the Bible the vital part of missionary study, have them study early bible missionaries, a commandment at each meeting, putting up of illustrated bible pictures, and telling the story when the picture is completed, thus impressing the lesson upon their childish minds never to be forgotten. Consider the social side of the band work, hold the children's loyalty to their band, and we have no fear of lack of future workers of our Christian mission cause. Let us accept our responsibilities with renewed spirit to our children and do our best to assist by our prayers and co-operation the furtherance of His Kingdom through the little children entrusted to our care.

Mrs. Henry Smith, of Odessa Auxiliary, favoured the Convention with a solo. At this period three bright, to the point, papers were given by ladies of Napanee Grace Church, "What Do We Owe Christ".

1. Time, by Mrs. J. Stalker. What do we owe Christ as Christians. We owe Him our very lives to do with as He will. We have to learn to give our wills to Thy Master. The disciples sat and talked with Christ, listened to His teaching and worked with Him; how else can we know our friends, and we must follow His teaching as truly as the chosen twelve. We are so interested in our own affairs that we think that Martha's part in the household was necessarily the most important, but what a blessed communion with the Master that was Mary's sitting at His feet. We must take time to go away quietly to pray, and thus to be strengthened. We learn great lessons in our quiet hours. The very fact of Christ choosing twelve disciples proves that we need the contact with one another. In His life on earth for us, His final preparation for our sakes surely we owe Him our time. We owe Him time to learn of Him, to keep invitable Him in our life. We owe Him our very best in all things.

2. Talent, by Mrs. T. Symington. Talents represent gifts from God, which vary in different individuals. Dr. Bushnell says the capacity for religion of knowing God, of love of faith, of being guided by God, is our very highest talent. No Christian receives gifts for himself. God gives the largest opportunities, fuller measures of the spirit, more important work to those who have ability to use those talents. Every time we do our duty we make it easier for someone else to do theirs, and vice versa. A duty well done is a living force, a self perpetuating power. It keeps repeating itself in the lives of others until the ripple from one little stone breaks at last upon the shores of eternity. Christ does not give us all the same little talent to use, each has their own little sphere to fill, to use their talents accordingly, all going to make up the vital whole. Even he who had but one talent could have surpassed in a short time he who had five talents with less faithfulness. We must use to the best of our ability all that God has entrusted to us. Mrs. Symington closed her paper with a very fitting little poem, "The One Talent Man".

3. Money, by Mrs. F. L. Hooper. What do we owe Christ? Everything, our life, our time, our talents, our money. We may give both our time and talent, but we must also give of our substance to the Master's service. The millennium will never come till Christ has His share of our pocket book. The task is tremendous, but if every Christian woman would but feel her responsibility, the task would be lightened considerably. The old plea, no many home calls, pews are uncomfortable, furnace pipes are rusted, the church needs a new roof, etc., etc., does not relieve us of the debt we owe to those who know not our Saviour. We often read of the honor paid to a great statesman, or a noted general, representing Royalty, but we have a greater honor if we see it thus representing the King of Kings in furthering His Kingdom at home and abroad. We should feel the world is our parish. Systematic giving is the keynote of success. Let each accept their share, and the burden would be lessened considerably. Is the price of half a dozen eggs, half a loaf of bread or an ice cream cone too much to give to send the blessed gospel to those who dwell in darkness? What do we owe God? Everything. Can He count on us? Is the great task of keeping workers in His vineyard to fail because we have not caught the divine vision that God owns all our substance, and to Him we owe everything.

The Quiet Half Hour was in charge of Miss Frances Asselstine, Odessa, assisted by Mrs. J. H. Babcock. All stood and sang "Talk to us Lord, thyself reveal". The 25th Chapter of Mathew was read by Miss Asselstine. We are all born in God's image and we must be co-workers and assist Him. One of the hardest arts is getting along with others, and how we fill each hour is what will count on that day. We must look ever for the best. God found the best even in the Prodigal Son and Zaccharius. If a stranger came among us to-day would he get the right idea of Christianity by our lives? The story of the life of Mohammed forms a startling illustration and how he came to be the head of the great Moslem religion. Wouldn't it have been a wonderful factor for good if he had known the Christian religion, and he had used his strong personality for Christianity in those Eastern countries where Mohammedanism is so deeply rooted? Good often gives us lessons through the flowers, birds, etc. "There is no place where one is so near to God as in a garden". Mrs. Babcock closed the quiet half hour with a very fitting prayer.

We were warmly welcomed to Selby church by Mrs. Martin, in a few well chosen words, and a very cordial invitation extended to the gentlemen present, after which we proceeded to the basement of the church, where at the tables beautifully decked with flowers and bountifully laden, we enjoyed a tempting hot dinner. The proceeds of the dinner netted the Selby ladies about seventy-five dollars.

The afternoon session opened at 1.30, with devotional exercises in charge of ladies from Empey Hill, each Auxiliary answering to roll call with a verse of scripture. A short memorial service for five deceased members was held. The members stood and sang one verse of "Faith of Our Fathers", and Rev. Mr. Merrick lead in a brief prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and adopted.

Mrs. H. VanDusen, Deseronto, replied very capably to the greetings.

Music, two little boys, members of Selby Mission Band, "A Call to the World Ever Shining".

"Prayer as a Force in our W. M. S. Work" by Mrs. J. Laughland. The supreme teachings of the bible in regard to prayer are found in the New Testament, for it is in the example and teachings of Jesus and the Apostles that the prayer life of the bible culminates. Luke has been called the gospel of prayer. The story opens in prayer, the annunciation comes to Mary as she is praying. The wise men and the shepherds pray. Christ is heralded by a man who spent his life apart in the desert in prayer. Christ prays for His friends and his enemies, in private, in public, in the upper room, in the desert, and upon the cross.

Let us as a band of Christian workers, follow the supreme prayers of Paul, that we too may achieve results in the missionary cause. With such a background of study in prayer from the Scriptures, let us turn directly to the value of prayer in missions. The first of the great missionary societies of the Eaglish speaking world was organized in 1792 under the leadership of William Cary. All are familiar with the wonderful and definite answer to prayer by the leaders of the China Inland Mission.

There is not one missionary society in the world that does not every year plan, draw up contracts, agree to pay passages and salaries and to equip hospitals all in humble reliance upon the voluntary contributions of God's people. Year after year the great enterprise is sustained and advanced. The most vital thing for us to learn to-day is that prayer is a force as real as electricity. "God works for him who is waiting on him". Isai. 64 : 4. Let not the lesson be lost upon us. Prayer is our mightiest weapon in every reform that helps the progress of the Kingdom of God.

Dr. John R. Mott, says, "Prayer is the great unused force of the Christian church. J. Campbell White says, "Prayer is the first and chief method of solving our missionary problem". "God bless China" we pray, and our prayers cease for we do not know the needs of that great country. "God bless our missionaries" and we can hardly name one or tell what she is doing. We think of the church as a place for prayer, but can't go there every day. Ardent heartfelt prayers can be offered in the privacy of our room or as we go about our work. In China, Japan and India a beautiful feature of the girls' schools are prayer rooms, where they can go singly or in groups to pray. In Madras Christian College the chapel is always open. Ramabai has a tower room in her school for Indian widows where the work of intercession goes on night and day. To stimulate the prayer life: Have a special missionary or field, have a praying partner, have prayer calendars, organize children's and young people for prayer, have family prayers. The basis of prayer: The bible itself is the world's supreme book of prayer. It is interwoven throughout its textures. The world turns to the bible to find its deepest expression of the prayer life. The bible's greatest teaching on prayer as on every other topic is by object lesson, individual instance. Think of the prayers of Abraham, Enoch and his vow, of Jacob, of Moses' great intercessory prayer, Joshua, Hannah, Samuel who drawn his breath in prayer, the miracle working prayers of Elijah and Elisha, the Psalms of David and the rich symphony of prayer of the prophets and so on through the new testament we find the literature of prayer.

At Cawnpore and Lucknow they prayed the 18th Psalm. The Huguenots in their deep persecution expressed their triumphal confidence, as did Savonarola in Psalm 68. After the Battle of Jena in 1806 Queen Louise of Prussia rested her heart on Psalm 37. Margaret Wilson, the maiden martyr of Scotland repeated Psalm 25 till the waters of the Solway stilled her young voice. The harvest is great but the labourers are few. Therefore pray, therefore pray, therefore pray.

A duet by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith, Odessa, "He'll Never Forget to Keep Me", was beautifully rendered.

"Efficiency at the Home Base" by Mrs. Bruce Robertson. Two words caught in from out of the English language and seemingly held there never to be entangled again, 'Efficiency and specializing'. One may become an adept or marvel through a course of close study, and experience. Naturally we claim this end as a point of oefficiency whether on a home base, foreign base, or any base alien to the great missionary project. The embodiment of the word is age old. Did not God specialize when he made a world of such beauty and completeness? The climax of efficiency. We are the foundation, the central structure, the pedestal on which the Board of Managers sit to finance for all the various needs of the field, and to regulate the pendulum which swings from the home base to all quarters of the globe. Undermine the structure and there are rent asunder. Thus our base must be firmly planted at home and bear the obligations laid upon it. This is not the time for ramshackle preparations, the home base must be well rounded out under the following headings :—1. A Job for Every Woman and Every Woman on her Job; 2. Responsibility; 3. Material; 4. Knowledge. On all occasions are we on the alert for missionary enterprise. To we think of the shut-ins who were once invaluable members? We often allow our responsibilities to shift with the old adage, "Back fitted-for the burden", but sometimes the burden irks and needs shifting. Glance at the lists of our missionaries in the last two monthlies. Can't you see the noble bigness of the vision caught of the world for Christ? Do you not hear the Macedonian cry, "Come over and help us". God's command is the giving of the first fruits. Knowledge is a clear perception of truth, skill from practice, learnedness through much learning. Knowledge, economy and labor are virtues of the civilized woman, then what is our duty to the less fortunate.

Seek ye the light of knowledge, For wisdom is more than wealth; It gives to the mind the blessing Of spiritual strength and health.

Solo, by Mrs. Ezra Huffman, "The Master Stood in His Garden".

Miss Campbell, a returned missionary from West Africa, gave a brief but very interesting address to the assembly, "From the mission of the Province of Angola, greetings to our Christian friends, and bring to them the message from us, who were in darkness, but who now dwell in the light".

The little town of Lobeta, in the Province of Angola (the section where Miss Campbell is stationed) is very picturesque, 800 miles from the seacoast. The missionaries used to be compelled to go 400 miles into the interior of Bengali over a trail which took three weeks, but now it is an easily accessible place and the journey can be done in a day. Is not that a marked change? The mission-aries go in the darkest continent of our globe and civilization and its comforts follow. The town of Lobeta is a native settlement first opened under the United States Mission Board in 1880, now it comes under the Canadian Board. There are twenty workers in the three stations, Belundi, Lobeta and Dondi. There are two nurses, of which Miss Melville is one, and the teachers are Miss Elizabeth Read and Miss Campbell.

A glimpse of the stations, one climbs hills over 5000 ft. above the sea level. It is always cool and pleasant. The rainy season lasts from October to May, and bright, warm weather from May to October. Before the advent of the missionaries, homes of natives were rude huts made of mud and sticks, but the missionaries have taught them to build better homes. Until recently they spoke a native language, but have been compelled to speak the Portugese language, which was another obstacle to the mission progress. The great hope is among the boys and girls of which there are 63 girls and 110 boys going to the mission schools. It is a remarkable feature to have as many girls going to school as they have to do farm work. The staple food is corn. At Dondi the central school for training boys of the Curry Institute, is situated under Dr. Tucker, who is now home on furlough.

Union will make a vast difference in the missionary work. She asked for our prayers in their work and that we would stand shoulder to shoulder with the Mission Board.

Miss Olive Hambly, who was unexpectedly present, was asked to come to the platform, and spoke briefly to the assembly. It was certainly gratifying to the Convention to have Miss Hambly with us, as we look upon her as our own missionary.

Mrs. Perry's message to the Convention was brief as time was flying. She hoped we as auxiliaries, would go home with renewed vigor for missionary enterprise and ask ourselves a question, "Have I found my place in God's work?" Let us ever be a united body. Ours is a tremendous task. Let us not forget but launch out boldly. This is not Gabriel's trumpet call to a dead cause, but a clear call to do our best. It is not fair to shoulder our tasks on someone else. This is a God given trust and it must be administered. Let you and I find our place and put first things first for Christ.

Collection amounting to about $26.00, was taken.

The Convention stood and sang one verse of "God Be With You", and the Pastor closed with prayer a very successful Convention, a day well spent in the Master's service.

I Saw in the Paper.

"I have just learned of a new way to remove a scorch from linen," said the woman who studies the papers. "Tis always scorching mine; tell me about it," requested the woman who did not know.

"It is a little troublesome at first. You put two ounces of fuller's earth into a pan, add half an ounce of white soap, the juice of two large onions and half a pint of vinegar. You boil this together for a few minutes, then you put in a covered vessel for future use. When you have a scorch, you spread this mixture on it with a knife. Let it dry on the cloth and the stain will disappear."

Business Courtesy.

A business man rises to welcome his wife or a woman friend or a woman relative who visits him at his office, but he does not rise to greet his stenographer or other woman employees. No business woman is justified in resenting this distinction. The custom cannot be construed to mean that the man does not respect his women employees highly. It simply means that in the business world, as nowhere else, women and men are all human beings working together, and on much the same plane of courtesy.

Novel Treatment.

A whirlpool bath is the novel treatment applied at a hospital in Manchester, England, for cases of rheumatism, following typhoid and dysentery. The tank, large enough for 12 men, contains 4 feet of water and is provided with seats on which the bathers are immersed to their necks. The temperature is kept at 93 degrees Fahrenheit below that of the body. The room is quiet and dimly lighted, and after an hour in the bath the men go to rest rooms.

By a Long Path.

"All that we possess has come to us by a long path. There is no instantaneous liberty or wisdom, language or religion." Even that which comes to us as a sudden revelation is but the opening of our eyes or minds to be-hold that which has long been begun by toil and struggle. It reaches us as the sunlight does in the morning, when it has travelled around the world.

Women Soldiers in China.

China had women soldiers long before they were known in Russia. During the Tae Ping rebellion, 1850, women as well as men served in the ranks. In Nanking, in 1853, an army of 500,000 women was recruited. They were divided into brigades of 13,000 each and were commanded by women officers.

Interesting Discovery.

The Roman occupation of England was recalled by a discovery made a few days ago at Stalbridge, Dorset. Working in his garden, a man dug up a skeleton. Examining it he found it to be in a perfect state of preservation, the teeth being quite sound. In the mouth was a coin bearing the inscription of Caesar Augustus.

First Called Sleuthhounds.

Bloodhounds were first known as deathhounds, owing to their ability to track the deer, wild boar or the wolf. When the wounded game broke away and was lost, these good-scent dogs were used in trailing the quarry by the blood trail, and hence they were finally called bloodhounds.

Memories of the Crowded City.

"This ark is terribly crowded with all these animals aboard," remarked Japhet. "Yes," replied Shem. "And it's lonely at that. It makes me think of one of those apartment houses where they let people have all kinds of pets and won't admit children."

Oriental Rugs.

Not only the design but the colors of the rugs woven in the Orient are full of significance. They represent national or individual traditions, and stand for virtues, vices and social importance.

A Fantastical Terror.

"It's curious how soldier uniforms always show an influence on feminine fashions." "Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "But I hope we won't keep on shortening skirts until we begin to imitate the Scottish Highlanders."

Method.

"How did you get the reputation of being so wise?" "I talk with a man till I discover something he doesn't know anything about. Then I pretend to explain it to him."

A Test of Time.

Another way in which a man can tell when he's getting along in years is by noticing whether a reference to the veterans of '98 sounds at all funny to him or not.

Would Puzzle Socrates.

Were Socrates to come among us now he would probably want to know why Mexican poodles have no hair, Manx cats no tails, and pacifists at peace.

Program by Napanee Talent.

The following extract was taken from the Belleville paper in the account of the fowl supper and concert held in Centenary Church on Wednesday evening:—

"The programme was put on by Napanee talent, and was thoroughly enjoyed by a packed church which showed their appreciation by remaining till the very last number. The Black Bros. Orchestra of Napanee furnished excellent music during the tea hour and also throughout the programme. The male quartette was fine and funny; also a trombone solo; solos, duetts and trios were all excellent. The readings rehdered by Mrs. Catherine Powell, of Napanee, were appreciated. She has a remarkable voice and a very pleasing personality. Her selections from Dr. Drummond, also the "Highwayman", held her listeners with breathless attention, while the humorous selections kept them in roars of laughter. She is a general favorite at Centenary.

Former Napanee Boy Wins Honors in Lacrosse.

Brampton Senior Lacrosse Club won the championship of the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association in the final game at Weston on Saturday last. Of particular interest to Napaneans is the fact that George Sproule, a Napanee boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Sproule, was coached and playing member of the new champions. George was born on Robert street, Napanee, but moved to Brampton about twenty-five years ago. The Toronto Daily Star had the following to say on Wednesday:—"It is not generally known that Geo. Sproule, of Brampton, coach and playing member of Excelsiors senior crew, also coached Orangeville in their first game against Wallaceburg. George surely knows the game and the handling of players to get the desired results, and is a credit to lacrosse. While he hails from Napanee, it's so far back that the natives of Brampton claim him as a native son."

Mail Orders promptly filled at Wallace's Drug Store.

As this important question is of interest to all, it has been decided to have the meeting open to the public. 44a

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONVENTION

Napanee is to have the honor of a convention of Young People for three days of next week, November 3rd, 4th and 5th. It is expected that there will be present about two hundred young people from all parts of Eastern Ontario. The meetings will be held in Trinity United Church, and the delegates will be entertained at the homes of the three United congregations.

There is much need to-day of an attempt to readjust the life of the youth to the new conditions existing. The young people themselves are taking a hand in the matter and are coming together under trained leadership and religious auspices to discuss vital problems.

Among those who take part in directing the discussion are Rev. C. D. Daniels, R. A. Whattam, Rev. A. J. Wilson, Rev. M. Doyle, Rev. J. K. Curtis, Rev. A. E. Armstrong, Bishop Brewing, Rev. C. D. DeMille and Rev. George Brown.

N.C.I. GIRLS WIN AND LOSE

At Picton on Saturday afternoon the N.C.I. Seniors lost their second straight game in the Bay of Quinte League, when they were outlucked on a 16-12 score. They fought hard from whistle to whistle, but Dame Fortune refused to smile on them and they lost by two baskets after a great fight. However, the Juniors rose to great heights and trounced the Picton Juniors 35-5. There was not a bit of doubt left as to which was the better team and that defence of Marion Grass and Marion Douglas stood out above all the players on the field. So closely did they guard the forwards that Picton didn't score a single basket from the field. Three free shots was all that Picton got during the whole game. Dorothy Wilson and a new-comer, Edna Ayls-worth, played a great game at centre, their passing and checking being of a high order. Then came the two forwards, Agnes Cavanaugh and Ruth Dickson. Both did some very accurate shooting, and during the game these two forwards played fine basketball.

N.C.I. will play their final games of the season in Belleville on Saturday afternoon. The Seniors are practically eliminated but the Juniors have a splendid chance to cop the championship. Quite a delegation of fans and students, it is said, will accompany the team.

Young Gubbins sang in the Village Hall,
With right good-will he bawled.
The audience was overjoyed;
An encore soon was called.

And afterwards, the Vicar said:
"Your voice worked magic o'er us,
But tell me, why did you stop your song
Just when you came to the chorus?"

The youth replied, in some surprise:
"That's easy to, explain,
For, don't you see, the music there,
Distinctly says: 'Refrain'?"

ODDFELLOWS GATHER AT NAPANEE

A fairly large gathering of Oddfellows and Rebekahs from Napanee and surrounding district met in the United Church on Friday evening to hear Mr. Guy S. Luke, of Hamilton, Grand Master of Ontario, and Mr. Wm. Brooks, of Toronto, Grand Secretary.

Preceeding the evening meeting a most sumptuous banquet was held in the dining hall of Argyll Lodge No. 212, at 6 o'clock, which was in charge of the members of Queen of Sheba Lodge No. 254, Daughters of Rebekah.

Seated at the head table were the Grand Master, the Grand Secretary, Mr. U. M. Wilson, Past Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Ontario, Mr. L. B. Switzer, D.D.G.M. of Napanee District, as well as the officers of the several local branches of the Order.

After full justice had been done to the many good things provided by the ladies, the assemblage repaired to Grace Church, where there was a fairly large gathering in waiting. The meeting was presided over by Mr. U. M. Wilson, J.G.P., of Napanee, who made it short and to the point.

In his opening address the chairman expressed his pleasure at having the Grand Master and Grand Secretary present, and extended a hearty welcome to all the members.

Seated on the platform in addition to the Grand Master and Grand Secretary were Past Grand Master Cooper, of Belleville, Past Grand Master Tully, of Alberta, Past Grand Patriarch Ketcheson, of Belleville, Past District Deputy Grand Master, Rev. W. R. Tamblyn and Mr. L. B. Switzer, D.D.G.M., of this district.

During the address, the church organ solo was given by the Organist of Grace Church, Mrs. B. M. Hall.

Grand Master G. O. Luke was accorded a hearty reception upon rising to address the meeting and his remarks said that he and the Grand Secretary were on a tour of humanity. The object of the gentlemen's was to meet the brethren in the many districts and to inspire Oddfellowship in various parts of the province. The I.O.O.F. society is a great and grand order. Under the Sovereign Grand Lodge there are today 15,968 subordinate lodges, 10,372 Rebekah lodges and over 5,642 Encampments, in fact the I.O.O.F. is the largest beneficial fraternal society in North America. The speaker stated that the finest men and women were working for Oddfellowship.

The speaker then gave a number of illustrations of the wonderful work which the several branches of the order are doing.

Mr. Luke referred to the lodge dues and stated that the question would come up at the next Grand Lodge session as to the increase of dues. The lodges could not prosper unless something was done in this regard in the near future.

The Grand Master was given an ovation at the close of his masterly address.

Bro. Brooks, the Grand Secretary, then gave a very clear and concise address on the work appertaining to the duties of his office. The visit of these distinguished brethren will undoubtedly be productive of much good in this district. The meeting was then brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFERENCE

On Wednesday evening the Young People's Convention of the Bay of Quinte Conference held its opening session.

The Convention is being held in Trinity Church, and is largely attended by young people from the United Churches in the territory lying between Toronto and Ottawa. For three days they meet and discuss problems in connection with the young people's work in Canada.

The first session found Trinity Church crowded to the doors. The President, Mr. E. H. Brown, of Port Hope, presided. The devotional exercises were in charge of the Young People of the Convention Church, Mr. C. D. Black was in charge of this part of the programme. Mr. Hubert Graham, Miss Robertson and the Misses McKim took part.

Following the opening exercises, Mr. W. T. MacKenzie, of Napanee, officially welcomed the delegates on behalf of the Societies in the town and the town people generally, pointing out the advantageous position the town held for just such a gathering. Mr. E. H. Brown replied on behalf of the guests, and a few well chosen words, expressed the thanks of the Committee of Arrangement.

The feature of the evening followed. It was in the nature of a debate between debating teams from Woodville and Bridge Street, Belleville. Within the Conference are five Presbyteries, and in each Presbytery elemination debates had been held, so that there emerged from close on to fifty debates the two winning teams. In one Presbytery alone the winning team had won its way against twenty-three other teams.

The question debated was "Resolved that organized labor is a greater menace to the state than organized capital". The affirmative was upheld by Bridge Street and the negative by Woodville. The judges were the three resident ministers of the United Churches in Napanee, and gave a verdict in favor of the negative.

Rev. A. J. Wilson, who brought in the report of the judges, commented on the high quality of the debaters, on the diversified character of the arguments, and the keen and thorough grasp of the subject which the speakers showed.

Mr. Leslie Percival in opening the debate pointed out that labor as organized is a menace, and then went on to show that it is selfish in its motives, is comprised of the less educated portion of the community, and often takes advantage of difficult positions in the life of the nation. To support his position he cited evidence.

Miss Tompkins in reply very carefully defined her subject, admitted for the sake of argument that both capital and labor as organized is a menace, and then went on to show that capital was the greater menace. She quoted from authorities to show that 90 per cent. which constituted the laboring classes were forced to organize for self defense.

Rev. J. H. Coleman dealt principally with the strike, analyzing its effect on the community, and showed that it was the greatest menace the community has known.

Mr. Jamieson in summing up the case for the negative quoted from many recognized authorities to show that capital as organized has a disasterous effect on the community.

While the judges were out the Grace Quartette gave a selection "Come Unto Me". The meeting closed with the Benediction by Dr. Mallett.

Thursday Morning.

The Convention opened at 9.30 with the President in the chair. Rev. A. J. Wilson had charge of the devotional exercises, and spoke briefly on the need for vision, idealism and spiritual power in the Young People's Societies. He pointed out that we might have the best machine possible but if the power was off it would not amount to much. This was true in church work. He thought the unrest of the present was a sign of hopefulness. It could emerge in a healthy dissatisfaction with present conditions.

Reports were then presented from the various Committees and adopted. Rev. Mr. Bennett and Rev. Manson Doyle addressed the Convention on "Organization of the Young People's Work in the New United Church."

A discussion touching all the vital points in organization took place.

Committees were then appointed as follows:—

Resolutions—Rev. W. P. Woodger, Napanee, Chairman; Miss Verna Gray, Renfrew; Miss Jessie MacIvor, Kingston; Mr. G. H. Hodges, Belleville; Mr. Melville Hancock, Cobourg; Mr. E. Graham, Lindsay.

Nominating—Rev. W. Tamblyn, Napanee, Chairman; Mrs. Callow, Miss Mildred VanSickle, Renfrew; Mrs. Bell, Miss E. McQueen, Kingston; Mr. G. H. Hollon, Mr. Hulin, Belleville; Miss Searfe and Mr. Wm. Perry, Cobourg; Mrs. Ingram, Miss Bertha Lapp, Lindsay.

After the devotional exercises in the afternoon the Resolutions Committee brought in the following resolutions with respect to the present temperance situation, which was passed by a standing vote of the Convention :—

O. T. A. Resolution.

"We, the representatives of the Young People's Societies of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church in Convention assembled at Napanee, representing twenty-two electoral constituencies in the Province of Ontario, do hereby place on record : First, our most earnest conviction that the present O. T. A., which is the most advanced temperance legislation this province has ever had, should be maintained, strengthened and enforced, and that we record our intense opposition to the Government control (sale) policy proposed by the Premier and Province, as we are of the opinion that this policy has proved a failure in the provinces where it has been tried. Second, we do deeply resent the slander upon the younger people of today whom we claim to represent, and with whose habits and life we are therefore most familiar, that the Premier of this province has made when he pushed upon the platforms of the wholesale disrespect for the temperance law, and the carrying of hip flasks and the drinking of intoxicating liquor, which he claims is prevalent amongst the youth of today.

Dr. A. E. Armstrong, Associate Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Church, then addressed the Convention on the work of the Church in the foreign field. He stressed the need of money, men and life, that the work of giving Christianity to those of non-christian peoples be maintained.

He spoke briefly on foreign countries and particularly in China, demanded, he said, that the christian people make greater sacrifices than ever in order that the unrest be allayed, and the new democratic forces directed into proper channels.

As The Beaver goes to press in the midst of Convention time, the balance of the report will appear in the next issue.

Mr. Black's name was the only one placed before the convention, which was attended by regularly-appointed delegates from every township in the constituency.

QUEEN'S ALUMNI DINNER

Napanee Branch Formed

For the first time in its history Napanee now has an organized University Alumni. The organization was effected on Tuesday evening, when about forty graduates and Friends of Queen's met at the Campbell House for dinner.

The formation of a local branch is part of a general plan for the establishment of branches throughout the whole of Canada and the United States.

Just now the immediate purpose is to assist in the raising of two million and a half dollar endowment fund for the University.

After dinner a series of three motion picture reels depicting the growth of Queen's, were shown. One of the best features of this was the picture of the football games at Queen's and Varsity, which had been witnessed by many present, and in which it was quite easy to distinguish plays and players that had delighted Queen's students everywhere.

Mr. E. J. Corkill acted as chairman of the meeting; Rev. A. J. Wilson welcomed the Sister Universities; Rev. J. H. Coleman spoke for Trinity, U. M. Wilson for Varsity, and J. Laughland for O. A. C.

Then Dean Matheson, who was representing the University, spoke on its place in the national life, its varsity activities, its pioneer spirit, and its need for funds in order that it might meet increasing demands.

After the address by Dean Matheson, the organization of a local alumni was formed, with Mr. Corkill President, and W. A. Grange Secretary.

A committee was appointed to draft a letter of condolence to Prof. Jennett, a Napanee boy, on account of his recent bereavement.

The meeting broke up with a few Queen's songs and the famous Queen's yell.

Rouyn—A New Community Becomes Mining Railhead

Top—A view of Rouyn, a city in the making. Centre—The Canadian National Railways branch line near Rouyn. Lower left—A truck of ore from the Noranda mine. Right—View of the Noranda mine.

Rouyn, one of the newest communities in the Province of Quebec, is now in touch with the rest of the world by means of a branch line, 44 miles in length, which reaches the Quebec-Cochrane main line of the Canadian National Railways at Taschereau (formerly known as O'Brien), a divisional point. Previous to the advent of the branch line, access to Rouyn was by means of land and water route. Now the railway runs directly into the municipality and provides efficient service for freight and passengers.

As the work of railway construction was progressing, the citizens of Rouyn, encouraged by the solution of transportation problems, effected considerable progress in developing civic improvements and a further programme will be undertaken now that it is possible to obtain supplies expeditiously and more economically.

Rouyn is the centre of a most important gold-copper field, some mines being of proven value, with others offering good prospects and inviting further development. With the completion of the branch line it will be possible to ship in heavy material required for the construction of a smelter for handling ores of the local mines.

The new branch from Taschereau to Rouyn traverses a territory well wooded, with numerous lakes and streams, a section of which in the vicinity of Lois Lake is good agricultural land, offering inducements to colonists.

N.C.I. RUGBY TEAMS WIN AND LOSE IN A SEA OF MUD

Whoever said that the Rugby teams at the N.C.I. were afraid of inclement weather certainly had to take it all back when they played two games in a driving rain on a very muddy field last Saturday. The rain started in the morning and kept up all day, but the games went on just the same. The Juniors lost to the Dark Horses 12-0, but the Seniors outplayed the strong Hi-Y team and won easily by 10-0.

The Junior Game

The Dark Horses presented a formidable Junior team as far as size goes. The difference in weight was just the margin between victory and defeat. The local Juniors were in there all the time fighting hard, and Kingston won because they were lucky, not because they were a better team.

The game was featured by Bill Templeton's catching and kicking. This youth caught everything that came his way and booted the ball far down the field every time. Carmon Sessmith got in some pretty tackling, and Don Daverin had his share of the tackling. Unfortunately Daverin's fakes were blocked every time. Lester Boyes' tackling was another feature of the game. The field was very muddy, and the pool of water at the east end was the centre of attraction for a while. Daverin appeasing the crowd by a hand-some Annette Kellerman after a loose ball.

Bob Elliott, Kingston Quarterback, also treated the fans to a nice exhibition of dives, including the Jack Knife, and did some much needed cleaning up around the field. McKee's dive gave Kingston their 1st touch, and Elliott notched the 2nd. McKee's convert and a rouge gave Kingston two more points.

Senior Game.

N.C.I. Seniors weren't inclined to get all wet and none were in a hurry to get ducked. N.C.I. kicked off and play centred around Kingston's goal. Again the same hole was kept busy and N.C.I. secured on Hi-Y's 20 yd. line. An end run ensued, Deline skirting the right end and passing to Cowle who was grassed 10 yds. out. A criss-cross to Deline moved the ball up closer and Eddie Way swam over for a touch. Cowle tried a convert but missed by inches. Hi-Y's kicked off and the N.C.I. returned to Matheson, who returned the ball to Ballard. An end run left resulted in a twenty yard gain, Fraser passing to Cowle. A criss-cross gained yards, but an offside put the N.C.I. back 10 yds. Play centred around Hi-Y's goal line, but continued offsides set N.C.I. back time after time. The 1st period ended 5-0 for N.C.I.

Hi-Y's kicked off and the ball was run back 20 yds. A series of bucks, criss-crosses and end runs landed N.C.I. on Hi-Y's 20 yd. line. Here Archie Wilson galloped over for the 2nd touch. The convert again failed. The teams changed ends and two on-side kicks gave N.C.I. possession 20 yds. out, but a 3rd kick was retrieved by Matheson who ran up five yds. Corkill's bucking was a big feature all during the game and the tackling of Conway, Wright and Wilson was hard and sure. Deline's running and tackling was classy, and Wilson showed good judgment in calling the plays. Howitt did some good bucking, and Ballard and Fraser, who did the catching on the backfield, never missed a catch and were prominent in running back punts and in other plays. Cowle's bucking and running was faultless, and Bill Parks is doubtless the best snap-back in this district. Benjamin was a big factor in breaking up plays, and his sensational tackling smothered play after play before they got started. Moffat played a nice game at inside wing, and Eddie Ways at left middle did some fine backing. The big fellow never played better and his hard bucking gave N.C.I. their first touch-down.

Rusty Upton called the plays for the Hi-Y's, but the N.C.I. wing-line held up every time, and play after play was nipped in the bud. Bob Elliott was used in but few plays but did good work. McKee and Gibson couldn't get away, but Matheson added a few yards nearly every time. Grattan and Day were watched closely, and Hunt—and Thompson were never allowed to get away.

After the game there was considerable discussion as to which stroke was the best to use. Eddie Way said he used the overhand stroke in swimming over his touch-down, but Archie Wilson said he used a straight breast stroke, aided by kicking his feet. Dick Hunt of Hi-Y's said he'd rather side-through hanging on Ballard's belt, while McKee said that the water was too wet for being dragged through and preferred to be ducked suddenly rather than by degrees.

Be Sure You Get The Genuine
GILLETT'S FLAKE LYE

After the game the ground was chewed up as though the Battle of Vimy Ridge had just been fought, and the players were covered from head to foot with mud. All were soaked through and through but nobody complained about the muddy going. How's that for spirit?

To-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, the N.C.I. Juniors will play the return game at Kingston, much altered and strengthened team will make the trip.

A rather shabby trick was played on the N.C.I. by the teams in the Bay of Quinte Interscholastic Rugby League this fall, when the N.C.I. was not asked to enter a team. The N.C.I. had the makings of a strong team and apparently the other schools knew it and failed to ask the N.C.I. to join. The N.C.I. have played home and home games with Deseronto and Picton for the last two or three years, and it doesn't seem like sportsmanship to leave N.C.I. out.

The local Collegiate has won six games and lost one to Picton, and won three and lost one to Deseronto. This apparently states the reason why the N.C.I. was left out. N.C.I. has always been superior in all athletic activities as far as Picton boys are concerned, and have bowed a very few times to Deseronto. Nevertheless the N.C.I. will challenge the winners of the Bay of Quinte League to a set of home and home games. The locals don't claim to be able to trounce any of the teams in the League, but will show them that the N.C.I. is not inferior to any team of its calibre in this district, and is always ready for a game with any school no matter strong or weak.

JOHN N. ROBLIN DIES FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

John, N. Roblin, 68, prominent farmer of the town of Hounsfield, died early this morning at his home in Sacket Harbor.

Mr. Roblin has been in poor health for the past six or seven years and suffered from a slight paralysis but was able to be around.

Mr. Roblin was born in Adolphustown, Canada, and came to the country when he was about 28 years old after his marriage to Edith A. Roblin. They settled on a farm near Sacket Harbor.

Mr. Roblin took an active part in the village life and was known as a man of friendly nature and sterling, upright character.

He served in the village as a member of the board of supervisor during 1914-1915. He took an active part in the Oddfellows Lodge of Sacket Harbor, of which he was a member for many years, serving as secretary and treasurer at different times.

He was one of the few Democrats ever elected to the board of supervisors from the town of Hounsfield which is strongly Republican.

Up to about ten or twelve years ago he conducted a prosperous farm of over 170 acres in the village limits.

His farm is located facing the old battlefield at Sackets Harbor. After his retirement, Mr. Roblin sold part of his farm to the Standard Oil Company for their shipping and receiving station.

He is survived by his wife, Edith A.; two sons, Dr. H. Membrey and Dr. Arthur C., both of Syracuse, and one brother, William of Adolphustown, Canada. He was the son of the late Cyrus and Mary Catherine Davis Roblin.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Christ Episcopal Church. Rev. Charles, D.D., Pastor, will officiate. Interment will be made in Sacket Harbor cemetery. Members of the Oddfellows' Lodge of Sacket Harbor will act as bearers.—Watertown Daily Standard, Oct. 21st, 1926.

Mothers Praise Baby's Own Tablets

Mrs. L. M. Brown, Walton, N.S., says:—"I cannot recommend Baby's Own Tablets too highly. I have found them invaluable for the ailments of little ones." Mrs. Brown's testimony is the same as that of thousands of other mothers who have used the Tablets. To use them once is a sure guarantee that they will always be kept in the home as long as there are babies or young children to be cared for. The Tablets are a laxative—mild but thorough in action—which never fail to regulate the stomach and bowels; relieve constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the dreaded teething period easy. In fact you banish all the minor ills from which little ones suffer. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Canadian Doctor's Wonderful Discovery

Kills aches and pains almost instantly

A Canadian doctor, whose medical practice extended over a period of 20 years in a Canadian city, noticed that one particular prescription was more useful for killing pain than all others combined. In the capacity of medical officer with a Canadian Battalion he proved the worth of his prescription in killing pains and aches and stopping colds, coughs, la grippe, flu, rheumatism and other sickness caused by colds and exposure.

This prescription has been made up in tablet form and is called KILLAKES. It is doing exactly the same good work here as it did for the boys when they were in the trenches.

McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets Fine For Thin Underdeveloped Kids

It's your duty, Mother, to see that the frail, peaked, sickly youngster grows up to be strong in body, keen in mind and robust in health.

Doctor's know about them and so do all druggists, and if your children need building up ask for these tablets to-day if you want to give your loved ones a good appetite and put pounds of healthy flesh on their bones. But be sure and get McCoy's. They are not expensive—50 tablets 60 cents—and if you are not pleased with the improvement after 30 days —your money back.

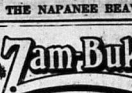
Zam-Buk

ITS ROMANTIC STORY

A World Search for Rare Medicinal Herbs.

It is not commonly known that countries so far apart as China and Spain, Japan and England, and Tasmania and France have to be searched for the species of herbs used in the manufacture of that world-famed healing balm ZAM-BUK. These herbs are, many of them, rare and costly. They need to be gathered just at the right season when their juices and medicinal contents are at their very best.



Gathering medicinal herbs in Tasmania

Zam-buk is the true successor of the herbal healing balms of Ancient Rome, with this important advantage. Zam-buk, in addition to its rare herbal composition, has twentieth century medical knowledge and manufacturing skill, to bring it to a pitch of perfection, probably never equalled in the annals of healing.

The different medical qualities in Zam-buk are beautifully balanced. The healing side with the antiseptic, the soothing with the germicidal; it is penetrative yet not too stimulating, and has just the right lubricity for removing superficial swellings, sprains and pains.

Thus Zam-buk is a useful, reliable, and highly-concentrated, medicinal dressing always ready to instantly soothe pain, swiftly allay swelling and inflammation, expel deep-seated disease, and grow new healthy skin. Moreover, users of Zam-buk have perfect confidence which alone comes from the knowledge that it is a refined herbal preparation and not an artificial ointment composed of pore-clogging fats and crude drugs.

Zam-buk is invaluable in all itching, inflamed, and diseased conditions of the skin, whilst its swift antiseptic healing makes it the ideal first-aid dressing for burns, scalds, cuts, etc. It is also the soothing remedy for piles. Of dealers everywhere 50c the box: 3 for $1.25, or Zam-buk Co., Dupont St., Toronto.

FIRST TO TEACH PHILOSOPHY

Honor Is Accorded Thales, Who Established a School Which Exerted Wide Influence.

The first school of philosophy was established in Miletus (Asia Minor) by Thales, one of the wise men, and was quite a remarkable institution, exerting an influence for more than a century.

Thales seems to have given himself more entirely to his school than to any of his other undertakings. There is a legend that he never married, and when his mother pressed him to do so he said: "It is not yet time." After his youth was passed she again urged him to marry and he said: "It is no longer time."

Many of the subjects taught in his school, such as astronomy, geometry and geography, show the influence of Egypt and Phoenicia; but the philosophy was probably an original product, for while some of the sciences were somewhat advanced, the philosophy was apparently a first attempt at an explanation of the origin of the world. It originated a movement which culminated more than a century later in the idealism of Plato.

We may perhaps understand something of the attitude of the common people toward Thales' school of philosophy from the story of the old woman who laughed when the master fell backward into a ditch after gazing too long at the stars. The old woman not only laughed, but she is said to have called after him: "If you cannot see what is under your feet, how can you understand what is in heaven?"

The geography and astronomy taught in this school were very primitive: The earth was flat, the sun circled around it horizontally, being concealed at night by high hills, one writer of the time describes the world in the following poetical way: "God makes a mantle large and fair and embroiders on it earth and ocean and ocean's dwellings."

Why Percy Sobbed.

Reference at a social affair was made to the subject of conjugal infelicity, when this anecdote was fittingly related by Representative Frederick H. Gillette of Massachusetts:

One afternoon two tramps knocked at the back door of a farmhouse and politely asked the farmer's wife for something to eat. Instead of giving them bread, she seized a convenient broomstick and began to beat them over the head with such good effect that they precipitately fled for the gate. A mile down the road one of the tramps stopped running and sobbingly dropped beneath a tree.

"Why, Percy," exclaimed the other, solicitously turning to his comrade, "did she hurt you?"

"No," answered Percy, with another burst of sobs; "fortunately, most of the blows went wild."

"What's the matter then, old fellow?" queried the second. "Why those tears?"

"Tears of sympathy," answered Percy. "Sympathy for the lady's poor husband."—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

Retain "Perspective."

We say of a painting that the "perspective" is good—meaning that one can see far ahead, beyond the apparent background to imagined beauties still further in the distance. Many people have not this perspective—they see only the pebbles and shallow water in the foreground and, stopping to dabble their feet in the first pleasant invitation to ease and coolness, they lose the call and lure of the deep pools and forests farther on, content to stay at the half-way house, even forgetting that they once held a faint vision of castles of accomplishment.

Ant Development.

Ants have developed nothing remotely resembling industrial organisation. Many unnecessary conclusions have been drawn from (undeveloped female) ant workers with the unmarried women of modern industry. A comparison with child labor would be truer. For ant workers are always "hunger" forms—stunted creatures who have no economic opportunity to grow up—who are forced by family necessity to venture out for food before they reach full growth.

Napkins.

Table napkins were in use long before some of the other accessories which we consider indispensable today. Before forks came to be known, men had to use their fingers in preparing their food; hence the ancient common habit of frequently passing the basin of water and its accompanying napkin for wiping the hands. It now seems incredible that forks were not customary until the seventeenth century.

Physicians' Oath.

A part of the Hippocratic oath is as follows: "Whatever, in connection with my professional practice, or not in connection with it, I may see or hear in the lives of men which ought not to be spoken abroad, I will not divulge, as reckoning that all such should be kept secret." This oath is respected by every court in the world, and rarely indeed has it ever been broken by a reputable physician.

Good Manners.

Good manners, which give color to life, are of greater importance than laws, which are but one of their manifestations. The law touches us here and there, but manners are about us, everywhere, pervading society like the air we breathe. Good manners, as we call them, are neither more nor less than good behavior, consisting of courtesy and kindness.—Samuel Smiles.

Moroccan Charm.

Moroccan wives have a recipe for winning back affection. The suspicious wife draws a line of honey from forehead to chin and collects the drippings. Then she rubs the tip of her tongue with a fig leaf till it bleeds and soaks seven grains of salt in the blood. This she mixes with the honey and eats the dose in the erring husband's food.

Home of Nymphs.

Near the cape of Shima, in Japan, there is a village the name of which in Japanese means "The settlement of Nymphs." Woman in this village is the predominant partner. The chief industry is pearl fishing and the women are the fishers. The men stay at home and do the work.

Have Record for Laziness.

The Todas of India are said to be the laziest people in the world. The men of the household club together to take one wife to support, and then they let her do the work. The Todas have seduced the simple life to the formula: Do only what you must, and very little of that.

Invented First Chronometer.

The first chronometer of any value was the invention of John Harrison, about 1750, for which he received from the British board of longitude $50,000 as a part of $100,000 which "they offered for many years as a reward for a thoroughly trustworthy timekeeper."

Roll Over, Bill, You're Snoring.

Man, say the scientists, is the only living thing that ever sleeps on its back. Perhaps it is from a feeling of pride that some of us make so much noise when indulging in this accomplishment.

Ingredients for Happiness.

Without strong affection and dignity of heart, and gratitude to that Being whose code is mercy and whose great attribute is benevolence to all things that breathe, true happiness can never be attained.—Dickens.

Oldest Roof.

The roof of Hotel Rhinebeck in New York city is supposed to be the oldest slate roof in America. It was slated in the year 1700 with slate brought from Wales for this purpose.

Alter-ve Halter.

Said the facetious fellow: "Nobody expects a wedding ceremony to go through without a hitch."

Daily Thought.

Valor consists in the power of self-recovery.—Emerson.

Mother of Eleven Children Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Her Interesting Experience

Buckingham, Quebec.—"I am the mother of eleven living children, and my baby is five months old. I am only 38 years old and I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and my nerves. I knew of it from my sister, Dame Edouard Bellefeuille of Ramasayville. For five years I was in misery and was always ready to cry. Now I am so happy to have good health. My daughter, who is 18 years old, has also taken it and will be happy to recommend it to all young girls."—Dame WILLIAM PARENT, Box 414, Buckingham, Quebec.

Why suffer for years with backache, nervousness and other ailments common to women from early life to middle age, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will give you relief?

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for 250,000 replies were received, and 98 out of every 100 reported they were benefited by its use. C

THE cause of most serious eye trouble is neglect. • If at the present time your eyes play you tricks you should have them examined at once. Perhaps a pair of resting glasses will allow them to recover their usual strength. Perhaps they need correction. Our optometrist will discover their shortcomings and advise you accordingly.

WILTON.

The Hallowe'en party held under the auspices of the Women's Institute was a decided success.—The farmers in this vicinity are glad to see a few nice days, which will enable them to finish potato digging and thresh their buckwheat. — The many friends of Mrs. Damon Babcock are sorry to hear of her illness in the Kingston General Hospital. We hope for a speedy recovery. — Mr. and Mrs. H. Marshall, of Kingston, visited last Sunday with Mr. B. W. Storms. — Mrs. R. N. Lapum and Mrs. Freemont Mills spent a day recently in town.—Mrs. Stover spent a couple of days last week with her brother in Yarker.—The young people of our community met at the United Church and organized a Young Peoples' League, of which we will hear a great deal about in the future.—The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Charles Stover on Thursday evening last for the purpose of making plans for the coming bazaar, to be held on Dec. 8th. — The young ladies Volunteer Class of the United Church Sunday School met at the home of Miss Evelyn Connors for the purpose of rearranging their class and having a social evening together. The following officers were elected: Teacher, Mrs. Chas. Stover; Assistant Teacher, Mrs. John Frink; President, Miss Ethel Babcock; Secretary, Miss Clara Peters; Treasurer, Miss Dorothy Neilson; Missionary Treasurer, Miss Dora Babcock; Organist, Miss Evelyn Connors; Reporter, Miss Grace Peters —An aged lady, in the person of Mrs. Charity Davison, passed away at her home on Friday morning. Funeral took place on Sunday. Deceased was the widow of the late Samuel Davison, who predeceased her some years ago. For some time she has been confined to her home through illness, under the care of her kind and loving son, Carter, and her kind neighbours. Deceased was a life long member of the former Methodist Church, and will be greatly missed in this community.'

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 27th, the Wilton Institute held their annual Masquerade party in Grange Hall, Wilton. The hall was very gaily decorated with orange and black crepe paper, black cats, pumpkin faces, corn stalks, etc. Over one hundred were there, most of them in costumes, representing everything imaginable. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marshall, Kingston, very kindly consented to act as judges. About 9 o'clock, the masked group marched about the hall for the judging of their costumes. The lady's prize was carried off by "Mary Garden", Miss Dorothy Neilson. This costume was well worthy of mention. Almost every vegetable of the garden was displayed on this dress, in some way. The gent's prize was won by "Uncle Sam", Mr. Arthur Simmons. After this the masqueraders unmasked and several contests took place. Music was supplied by a Victrola. About 11:30 lunch was served, which consisted of sandwiches, pie, coffee, pop corn and candy. The party broke up about midnight, and everyone declared, very appreciative of their evening's amusement.

The November meeting of Wilton Women's Institute will be held in Grange Hall, Wilton, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 9th, at 2 o'clock. Roll Call to be answered by a quotation from our favorite author. Demonstration on "Inexpensive Xmas gifts". Will each lady kindly bring an idea or sample (if possible) of some inexpensive Xmas gift. Everyone welcome.

BETHEL

Mr. Ross Reid, of Moscow, has been threshing in this neighborhood this week.—The frequent rains have surely delayed the harvesting of the buckwheat crop and farmers report a third of it lost in the shelling off in the stook. The rains have also delayed the work of the stone crushers, so they have hardly been able to get in three days a week so far.—A variety shower was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar (nee Miss Alice McDonald), a former teacher in our neighborhood, at Camden East on Tuesday night, several of our neighbors attending.

It was learned with regret of the Rev. George Biddle, brother of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Amey, of Bickell's Corners, on Tuesday. Much sympathy is extended to the parents in the loss of their dear little girl. — The Ladies' Aid, of Colebrook, held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Jackson on Wednesday evening. Mrs. John Moore has been spending an unlimited time with her sister, Mrs. Myrtle McWilliams, helping her to pack and move their household effects to Camden East. — Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Edmund McKnight in her recent bereavement in the death of her father. —Mr. David Kingsbury, Mr. Jack Jessie and Mr. Wm. Phillips and Mr. W. Day, of Toronto, spent a week at Camp Cedar Crest, duck shooting. — Mr. Percy Galbraith is doing extensive building and redecorating to his home. Miss Helen Benn, of the Rockwood staff of nurse-in-training, at Kingston, spent a day at home recently.

ST. ANDREW'S ANNIVERSARY

Crowded congregations greeted Prof. John Dow, of Knox United College, in St. Andrew's on Sunday. Grace had withdrawn its service in the morning and Trinity in the evening, so that a large number from other churches were thus able to hear Prof. Dow.

Prof. Dow, who is one of Scotland's most recent gifts to Canada, has the inimitable Scotch manner and schol... arship. His sermons were artistic, were couched in the choicest English and given with a depth of feeling and conviction that made a deep impression on all present.

OBITUARY

Esther Boyd Casey

Passed peacefully away at her home, Piety Hill, Napanee, on Thurs... day morning, October 26th, 1926.

Deceased was the youngest daughter of the late Archibald Boyd and Mrs. Boyd, of Sidney. She having married Col. Gilbert Samuel Casey, of Adolphustown, and lived in the old U. E. Loyalist homestead for many years, where she entertained many notable people, and kept up the hospitalities, for which the home was noted.

Being of a genial and happy nature, she had many warm friends there among the older residents.

After the death of her husband, quite a number, of years ago, and the dismoval of the farm, she came to Napanee and lived with her sister, Mrs. David Andrews. After the death of the latter, Mrs. Casey took up residence on Piety Hill to be near old friends. During her last few years of bad health she has been most carefully and thoughtfully cared for by her only daughter, Mrs. L. Marshall Orman, of Toronto, who was privileged to be with her mother throughout the illness. There are also two descendants left,—one daughter, one grandson, two grandchildren, two great-grandsons and nieces on both sides of the house, and with whom she always kept in touch.

The esteem in which she was held may be estimated by the many and ... elegant calls and kindnesses of friends, the beautiful floral emblems and flowers received from Ottawa and Toronto, from old friends, and the dignity of the Anglican Church service held at the home, the thoughtful and impressive ceremony held at the U. E. Loyalist Memorial St. Alban's Church in Adolphustown, the ... love and solidarity with which the ... whole community joined in the ... funeral cortege, and the beautiful ... floral offerings of the U. E. Loyalist ... Chapter, and two children. Mrs. ... Casey's death marks the passing of ... the last one to object of Napa...

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"I expect you have had a great many trials, my poor man?"

"Yes, but only two convictions, lady."

A safe and sure medicine for a child troubled with worms is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

"I saw a man yesterday that weighed two tons."

"Yer, crazy."

"No, he was weighing lead pipe."

Many people are almost crippled with rheumatism. But it is needless suffering which can be speedily ended with Holloway's Corn Remover.

Salesman—"A piano, madam? Certainly. I suppose you require a grand piano?"

Mrs. Knewgold—"Grand? Young man, I want a magnificent one."

Doris—"May says she keeps all men at arm's length."

Dora—"Well, from what I saw at the dance last night, I'd say she had awfully short arms."

Miller's Worm Powders are complete in themselves. They not only drive worms from the system, but repair the damage that worms cause and so invigorate the constitution that it speedily recovers from the disorders of the digestion that are the result of the work of these parasitic intruders. They do their work thoroughly and strength and soundness follow their use.

Mac—"A man fell from a six-storey window yesterday and didn't get hurt."

Dub—"What is he, an aviator?"

Mac—"Oh, no; but he had on a light fall suit."

Sore Heal Quickly.—Have you a persistent sore that refuses to heal? Then, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the dressing. It will stop sloughing, carry away the proud flesh, draw out the pus and prepare a clean way for the new skin. It is a recognized healer among oils and numbers of people can certify that it healed where properly applied.

Percy—"I saw a clever conjuring trick last night. A man actually turned a handkerchief into an egg."

Harold—"Oh, that's nothing. Last week, while I was on holiday, I saw a man turn a cow into a meadow!"

For Sprains and Bruises. — There is nothing better for sprains and contusions than Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It will reduce the swelling that follows a sprain, will cool the inflamed flesh and draw the pain. It will take the ache out of a bruise by counteracting the inflammation. A trial will convince any who doubt its power.

Parson—Don't you know, my boy, that you shouldn't play ball on Sunday?

Small Boy—That's all right, mister; we ain't playin', we're only practicin' for to-morrer's game.

No Rest With Asthma. Asthma usually attacks at night, the one time when rest is needed most. Hence the loss of strength, the nervous debility, the loss of flesh and other evils which must be expected unless relief is secured. Fortunately relief is possible. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has proved its merits through years of service. A trial will surely convince you.

A young nurse, inexperienced in reading the clinical thermometer, was horrified when, taking the temperature of a patient, the instrument apparently registered 120.

She sent a note to the doctor:—"Please come at once. Mr. Jones' temperature is 120."

The doctor sent back this message:—"You had better send for the fire engine. I can do no good."

Father—"So you wish to marry my daughter, eh? So you believe, young man, that you could support a family?"

Suitor—"Well, ah—er—that is—you see, sir, I was only figuring on Ellen, but I suppose it it's necessary I can take care of the rest of you, too.

A western politician had appointed as a smoke inspector a cousin of his from a rural district. The new official was given an assignment without any definite instructions; and this is the report he turned in at the end of his first week:

"This is to certify that I have inspected the smoke of my district for the week ending May 31st. I find plenty of said smoke, all apparently of good quality."

Pest—"Think it'll rain?"

Long-Suffering—"It is quite possible that the saturation of the moisture in the atmosphere has reached such a stage that the temperature might condense the vaporized clouds hovering overhead, but in my belief such a phenomenon is improbable at present because of the extreme height of the clouds, the high temperature, and the close proximity of a lot of hot air."

NEEDED A MASTER

German Official Helpless in the Absence of Orders.

Burgermeister's Case Typical of the Lack of Initiative Resulting From the System of Militarism So Long in Vogue.

The burgermeister of B—am Rhein was a person who looked like a white rat that had been thoroughly soaked and shaved. And he had the faculty, which all Germans have, of congealing his cords and muscles at a moment's notice, and could assume the rigor of an epileptic in the presence of superiors. To watch him slide into your office, uncover his teeth, espy you, and suddenly straighten himself up in obedience to an unspoken Achtung, was an impressive experience.

The American general's aid, appointed to this particular suburb of Coblenz, often wondered why the arrest of every vital function should be considered polite. He distrusted that German salute. It was too much like playing 'possum.

When the burgermeister came into the ortskommandantur, the aid told him that, in so far as he behaved himself, he would have nothing to fear from the American army; and that in so far as it didn't interfere with the satisfaction of American interests, he was to continue governing the town as usual.

The burgermeister stiffened himself and withdrew.

The aid was pleased. His first official act, he felt, had been kindly, yet firm, just but not harsh. If he had his way, B— would not suffer as northern France had suffered. He was going to show these boches that the Americans weren't there to terrorize, or to Americanize, but simply to occupy territory according to the terms of the armistice.

But he could not see the scene in the burgermeister's office overhead—the bobbing of cheeks in hands, the striking of chests, the weeps and rapid breathing of bewilderment, the groans of despair. And the next morning, when he went to the ortskommandantur, he was met by a request that he grant an audience to his German colleague. It was 10 o'clock, the exact hour of yesterday's meeting.

He granted the request, and in a moment the shaved rat slid in through a slit in the open door and ran his tongue over his pink lips. His little black eyes shone like shoe buttons, and he kept scratching the palms of his hands.

He wanted to know if the Herr Oberleutnant had any orders for him.

The Herr Oberleutnant wanted to know why.

"Ach!" cried the burgermeister, "before the Americans came we had a government. Now we have none. How, then, can I run the town of B— as I used to run it? There is no one to tell me what to do. If only the Herr Oberleutnant would express his wishes!"

The aid narrowed his eyes and looked at him in disgust.

"Have the streets cleaned," he said, and turned to his work.

The face of the burgermeister was radiant. He had found a boss.

In less than thirty minutes a platoon of boches was assembled in the street before the ortskommandantur. Every other man carried a broom at right shoulder arms and the man at his side, a shovel. The burgermeister stood on the steps of the building, with a pencil in one hand and a long list in the other, and checked off their names.

Then, "Hup!" said the burgermeister.

Out of the ranks jumped four men, saluted, and faced the platoon.

"Hup!" said the first of the four; and a little squad of brooms and shovelers faced to the right and marched off briskly northward.

"Hup!" said the second of the four; and another little squad trotted off, to the east.

"Hup!" said the third, and "Hup!" said the fourth, and soon all points of the compass had received their squads. And the voice of the gefreite was heard in the land. Clouds of dust hung over B—am Rhein, shovels clanged on the cobblestones, brooms scraped the roadways. The town was being cleaned.

The burgermeister stepped into the burgermeisterei and jabbed his pencil three times into his right ear. "So-o-o," he said with pride and satisfaction.

And from that day on the aid gave him orders punctually at 10 a. m.—George Boas, in Atlantic Monthly.

Ireland Again.

Two Irishmen were walking along one of the main thoroughfares in Glasgow when they noticed a large placard in the window of a shop with the words: "Butter! Butter!! Butter!!!" in large type drawn on it.

"Pat," said Mike, "what is the meaning of them big strokes after the words?"

"Och, ye ignoramus," says Pat, "sure they are meant for shillelahs, to show it's Irish butter."—London Ideas.

The Expanding Stone.

In the rock of St. Govan's chapel, in Wales, was a natural cavity upon which the name of the "expanding stone" was bestowed by popular tradition, because the strange fancy prevailed that this stone automatically adapted itself to the size of any one who entered the cavity.

The legend ran, as quoted by Mr. George F. Kunz in "The Magic of Jewels and Charms," that once, during the pagan persecutions, when a fugitive Christian, hotly pursued, reached this rock it opened up of its own accord so that he could slip into it and then closed about him so as to hide him effectually from his enemies. This expanding stone was believed to manifest its magic power by bringing to pass the wish expressed by any one who entered it, provided he did not change his wish while he turned around within it.

Henpecked Sparrows.

Female sparrows are especially tyrannical toward their partners, especially at nest building time, when they frequently attack their husbands fiercely on account of their laziness. At such times the female voice can always be detected, both louder and shriller than that of her mate, as she pecks and tousles him until he beats an ignominious retreat. Hen blackbirds and thrushes are often very overbearing and even spiteful toward their mates when their houses are in course of construction.

WHO WON THE MOVIE CHANNEL SWIM?

WIN New 1927 Chevrolet Coach $1800.00 IN PRIZES

It is said that the New York Standard Newspaper offered a prize of $50,000 for a swimming race across the English Channel, open to women Moving Picture stars only. Many entered the race. They started on the French coast and finished at Dover, England. The race was finished at night and the results kept secret. Radio Broadcasting Station WFLG broadcast the results but the operator just to have some fun and keep the interested multitudes in suspense, announced the names of the first seven in a jumbled way, instead of giving out their right names he jumbled up the letters of their names so that they read most ridiculous. For instance he gave number 1 as "Blame dyes a gall" instead of Gloria Swanson, and he told his radio audience to put the letters of each name in their proper order and they would spell the names of each of the first seven to land at Dover. Underneath the pictures above are the jumbled names of the movie stars just as the radio announcer gave them. If you can put the letters in their right order you will have the names of the seven stars. See if you can do it. It is not easy, but pleasant and diverting. We will help you. Below is printed the names of all of the famous movie stars who swam in the race. The names of the seven shown above are amongst them.

DIFFERENT KINDS OF SPEED

Aviator and Motorist Didn't Have the Same Kind of Comparison as They Traveled.

The motorist was taking an aviator friend, recently returned from the army air service, out for a spin. Thinking of the 125-mile-an-hour speed to which the airman was accustomed, the motorist felt that it was incumbent upon him to "let 'er out." His friend, he felt, would feel badly ambling along at the land rate folks are used to traveling. So he cut loose and the car was zipping along at something like 50 miles an hour.

Then the motorist felt a hand laid upon his arm.

"Going pretty fast, aren't you?" remarked the aviator, a trifle uneasily.

After the motorist had slowed down he asked: "Why, I thought the best speed I could make would seem slow to you. How is it that it appeared so fast?"

"You see, in the air, even at our greatest speed, we seem more or less stationary unless we look below us and see objects flitting past," explained the aviator. "You know speed can only be reckoned visually—by things one is leaving behind. Now, the gait you were moving a few minutes ago looked mighty fast, uncomfortably fast I might say, to me. I kept noticing things we are leaving behind."

Well, I'll be darned," said the motorist. "I never thought of it in that way before."

And the hand of the speed clock jiggled back to the 25-mile mark.—Kansas City Star.

If It Only Were!

The late Ella Wheeler Wilcox, though the most popular poet of modern times, steadfastly refused to enter New York society. The most exclusive Fifth avenue portals were open to her, but Mrs. Wilcox passed them indifferently by.

A New York magazine editor once sought her out with an invitation to a fifth avenue dinner party.

"I'm sorry," she said, "but I can't go."

"Oh," said the editor, "you must accept this invitation!"

"Why must I?" said the poet.

"Our host," the editor answered, "is rich—rich—a multimillionaire. You must accept."

"Well, I would," said Mrs. Wilcox, with a smile, "if it were catching!"

He Was No Mollycoddle.

A neighbor's son was entertaining about twenty of his little boy and girl friends at his birthday party. The children were supposed to return to their respective homes at eight o'clock in the evening; however, they were having such a good time when the going home hour arrived, its passing still found them hard at it. The mother of the little host suggested to him the advisability of intimating to his little friends the lateness of the hour. This is how he did it:

"Say, it's nine o'clock; I'm getting sleepy, and you kids have got to go home!"

"What's that? Go home this early?" said one of his indignant little guests. "I thought this was to be an all-night affair!"

Some Did.

"So you've been in the army, eh?" asked the old gentleman kindly. "And tell me, did you do much shooting while you were over there?"

"I won $80 the first day I landed in France," answered the gambler, proudly.—Home Sector.

Spare the children from suffering from worms by using Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective vermifuge with which to combat these insidious foes of the young and helpless. It is an excellent worm destroyer, and when its qualities become known in a household no other will be used. The medicine acts by itself, requiring no purgative to assist it, and so thoroughly that nothing more is desired.

Mean.

Mr. Scribe is a great rusher after compliments. Having given by request a reading from his own works to some ladies, he said afterward to one of them:

"It was very cruel of you, I think, to make me stand up there and read my own stuff."

"Ah," replied the young woman, "but you read your own so well, Mr. Scribe. You must have seen that we were compelled to listen."

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action, it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agents for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat trouble. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist for Creomulsion Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

St. Helena the Good.

St. Helena according to a colonial report, appears to have no real criminals. Stone-throwing by night was for a short period the most serious offense. Last year no person was committed for trial; 104 out of 210 summonses came under the education, road tax, and poor law ordinances and 77 trivial cases were dealt with by the police without bringing them to court. Three instances of flogging are recorded, under the juvenile smoking ordinance.

Crow Has Earned Farmer's Hate.

Most commonly the crow is hated by the farmer because it pulls up the young corn to get the soft seed kernels at the root, and everywhere is to be seen the scarecrow in the newly planted corn fields. Later on the damage they do to the corn crop can hardly be estimated, because they peck the end of the young ears, allowing the water to enter the shuck and rot the corn.

Home-Made Martyr.

John G. says, in a long letter of misery, that nobody understands him in this world. If you take up that role, John, then nobody can be expected to understand you. Don't try to make yourself out a martyr. Put your back into life and carry a burden for another. You'll soon find then that you are understood and appreciated.—Exchange.

Algerian Grain Regions.

Grain is produced in Algeria chiefly in valleys interspersed among the mountain ranges near the Mediterranean coast and on the high plateaus lying between the coastal mountain region and the less elevated ranges which form the northern border of the Sahara desert.

Carved in Algerian Rocks.

A huge buffalo with enormous horns is conspicuous in prehistoric rock drawings lately found in Algeria. The African elephant is also a striking feature, and other animals include the lion, leopard, gazelle and domestic goats and sheep.—San Francisco Argonaut.

To Remove Varnish Stains.

To remove varnish stains, first wet the spots with alcohol two or three times, then rub with a clean cloth. If the color is injured, sponge afterward with chloroform to restore it, unless the color is blue, in which case vinegar should be used instead.

Theoretically Still at War.

Although France and Mexico are ostensibly at peace, a state of war still exists, theoretically, between the two nations, for after Maximilian's execution in 1867, the French withdrew their armies from Mexico, but never signed any treaty.

Intentions Count for Little.

To be always intending to live a new life, but never to find time to set about it, is as if a man should put off eating and drinking and sleeping from one day and night to another, till he is starved and destroyed.—Tillotson.

Swiftest Dog.

The swiftest dog in the world, the borzoi, or Russian wolfhound, has made record runs that show 75 feet in a second, which would give it a speed of 4,800 feet in a minute if the pace could be kept up.

Paper From Many Kinds of Bark.

Fifty kinds of bark are now used to manufacture paper, besides banana skins, bean stalks, pea vines, coconut fiber, clover and hay, straw, fresh water weeds, sea weeds and over 125 kinds of grasses.

Nuts.

A nut lock has been invented that consists of a plate of metal to be placed between two nuts with wings at the sides that can be bent to grip the nuts.

DESERONTO

The annual Thanksgiving dinner in the basement of St. Mark's, Deseronto, Wednesday, October 27th, under the auspices of the Women's Guild, was a great success. The tables tastefully laid, groaned with the best of everything that could tempt the appetite. The members of the Guild and others who kindly assisted in waiting on the tables under the President, Mrs. Hetherington, were: Hon. Vice Presidents, Mrs. Radcliffe; 1st Vice, Mrs. Robinson; 2nd Vice, Mrs. Sandy Harvey; Treasurer, Mrs. Harband; Secretary, Mrs. Edward Smith; Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Naylor, Mrs. J. M. Hall, Mrs. Jas. McMath, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Field, Mrs. W. Henderson, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. Seales; Mrs. Oliver; Mrs. C. J. Knight, Mrs. Hopping and Mrs. Hunt and the Misses Violet Smith, Nellie Harvey, Effie Long, Violet Merrill, and Eva Harvey, and they did their work in the most up-to-date style. Mrs. Hetherington received the guests, and the Church Wardens, Mr. W. Henderson and Mr. Jas. Topping, took charge of the door. After the dinner, at 8 o'clock, a good programme was in order. Very fine stirring instrumental numbers were contributed by Miss Marion Creegan, Mrs. Sharpe, Miss Clarke and Professor Eppes; also a song in good voice by Mr. Bert Bowen. But the item on the programme which stirred the hearts and kindly feelings of the large audience present was the amusing and instructive lecture on "Ireland and the Irish", by the Rev. Canon Fitzgerald, M.A., of St. Paul's, Kingston, delivered in his own inimitable manner, once heard can scarcely be forgotten. He held the close attention of his hearers from start to finish. At the conclusion of the lecture a most cordial vote of thanks was tendered to the Canon by the Rev. W. D. Harrison, minister of the United Church, Deseronto, and seconded by one of the Wardens, which being duly put to the meeting by the Rector, the Rev. E. Radcliffe, B.C.L., brought down the hearty applause of the house. The Rector also thanked the ladies for their splendid efforts, the members of the congregation for their liberal donations to the dinner, and all present for their great help, patronage and support. Mrs. Fitzgerald motored from Kingston with the Canon and Mr. and Mrs. Bunt. The singing of the National Anthem closed by common consent one of the best Harvest Thanksgiving dinners yet held in the basement of deaf old St. Mark's Church, Deseronto.

DENBIGH

Mr. Meyer and his daughter, Margaret, of Philadelphia, Pa., who for two weeks have been welcome visitors to friends and acquaintances here, have returned to their city home and callings.—Mrs. (Dr.) J. Adams, who has been visiting with friends and relatives at Barry's Bay, has arrived home again.—Mr. and Mrs. H. Warlick, who were in Eganville on business, and visited some relatives residing at Vanbrugh on their way home, are also home again.—Mr. M. R. Reid, Inspector of Schools, paid one of his official visits to the schools in this part of his district.—The Denbigh cheese factory has closed a very successful season's operations a few days ago.—M. Storing, Collector of Taxes, is making his calls on the ratepayers of our municipality. — Wolves are getting to be a serious trouble to our farmers. Victor Wieneeke lately lost a spring calf by them, and O. Kliem, who keeps his sheep right near his outbuildings, missed three lambs one morning and found the torn carcass of only one. The other two had been carried away. Last Friday evening, during her husband's absence, Mrs. Jas. Pringle heard an unusual noise at the door. Opening it, the dog nearly fell into the room, and in plain sight in front of the door, she saw a wolfe which had probably been chasing the dog. A few days ago a citizen of Denbigh passed through the woods in the north east corner of the township and came across a place where a steer, probably three or four years old, had been shot dead, and skinned, and the meat cut in four quarters, covered with a heavy coat of salt and piled up. So far no owner or loser of an animal of similar size has been reported.

MASQUERADE BALL

The Napanee Golf Club gave a Masquerade Ball on Monday evening in the Armouries, when they entertained two or three hundred guests. The majority were in fancy dress, and the dancing throngs under the pretty colored lights made a very brilliant spectacle. The hall was bright with Hallowe'en colors, and pumpkin lanterns grinned mischievously from every corner. The Walters' Orchestra, all of whom were in costume, furnished inspiring music, and everyone entered into the fun with zest. A number of orange and black favors, flitting among the dancers, helped to carry out the ever fascinating color scheme, and Pierrot and Pierrette were revelling with their satellites in high glee.

The only worried people present were the judges who were confronted with the task of choosing from amongst this wealth of material, four maskers who should receive prizes. To the best of their ability, they chose the most striking, most original and the smartest costumes, the prizes being presented to the wearers, not alone for their appearance, but for the manner in which they portrayed the characters which they represented. Miss Ruth Graham, as a demure Turkish lady, in yellow and gold, was given the 1st lady's prize. Mrs. Beatty, as a delightful Hallowe'en Pierrette, was awarded the 2nd prize. Mr. Murray, as a very dignified Arab Chieftain, was chosen for the 1st prize, and "Mephistopheles". Mr. Bert Coburn, who is always hovering around, was proclaimed second only to the Arab gentleman.

The judges regretted that they had no special prizes for the "Old Time Costumes" as there were some very charming examples present. Special mention should be made of Mrs. Webb, who was a picture in a mauve panicred gown with powdered wig; Miss Helen Wallace, in a quaint silk of by-gone days, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roy, who were the admiration of everyone present. Mr. Archie Wilson made a splendid Chinaman; Mr. Ted Benjamin was a typical Quaker; Mr. Kenneth Ham, a fear-inspiring Romany Gypsy; but one cannot mention all the clever and beautiful characters who helped to make the ball the great success it was. The members of the Orchestra were all splendidly arrayed, and occasioned no end of merriment.

The beautiful tortoise shell cigarette case, donated to the Ladies' Club by Captain Douglas Ham, which was won in the recent handicap by Miss Constance Grange, was presented during the evening.

Twin Dollar Days
Friday & Saturday, Nov. 5-6

GLAD NEWS FOR THANKSGIVING

A year ago Twin Dollar Days were held in Napanee. Many have been inquiring if similar days are to be held this Fall. The Chamber of Commerce has not decided to appoint two days, so we feel that the people of Napanee and vicinity will be much disappointed if our store does not hold Twin Dollar Days. What more appropriate time could be chosen than the two days preceding Thanksgiving, namely, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5th and 6th? Never have we been in a better position to offer the public real values in merchandise. Study each item carefully. You cannot afford to pass by our wonderful bargains!

The enjoyable entertainment that followed by Napanee talent, consisting of vocal and instrumental solos, duets, quartettes, recitations, and dialogues, also reflected great praise for the talented performers. The proceeds amounted to one hundred and eighty dollars.—All persons interested in the Circulating Library and Public Reading Room will be interested to know that six new volumes arrived last week, a donation from Mary Sharpe, London, England. It will be remembered that Lady Sharpe presented the village with the library building over twenty years ago, and has always been interested in her home town. YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFERENCE

Thursday Evening.

On Thursday evening the Young People's Convention met for worship, which was conducted by Rev. C. D. Daniels, after which the Secretary read fraternal greetings from different Young People's Societies. Prof. W. T. Baird gave an organ selection in his usual brilliant manner, and Miss Ramsay, of Newburgh, rendered a vocal solo.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. A. E. Armstrong, of Toronto, whose topic was "The Overseas Task of the United Church".

Friday Morning

The Conference went into Departmental groups to study the Citizenship, Fellowship, Devotional, Social and Literary phases of young people's work. The leaders were Rev. Manson Doyle, E. Harston, C. Daniels, Mr. E. H. Brown and Miss Berry.

After the group discussions the Conference listened to a very inspiring address from the Rev. C. W. De-Mille, of Oshawa.

Luncheon was served at Grace Church and during the luncheon hour each Presbytery in the Conference put on a stunt. Mr. Wilbert Woodger and Mr. Tanton, and after a good deal of discussion the prize was awarded to the Kingston Presbytery.

Friday Afternoon.

1.30-2.00—Worship led by Rev. Geo. A. Brown, M.A., B.D., President of Bay of Quinte Conference.

2.00-2.30—Reports of Presbytery Committees were given. Chief of these were the following:—

1. That we, as a Conference, approve of the holding of a Y. P. National Council and suggest that it be held every four years.

3. That we, as a Conference, endorse the idea of publishing "The Pathfinder", as a National Y. P. paper.

4. That the Presbyteries arrange for three neutral judges at all debates held under Presbytery arrangement.

5. That we gratefully accept the invitation extended to us to hold our next Convention at Smith Falls, and that this Convention be held in the autumn of 1927.

These reports were accepted as resolutions and passed by the Conference.

ANTHONY M. RANKIN

Mr. Anthony M. Rankin, who was the unanimous choice of the Conservative convention at Odessa last week as candidate for the Riding of Frontenac-Lennox as a supporter of the Ferguson Government, has had a long and honorable public career, extending over twenty years.

Mr. Rankin, who was born at Collins Bay, is of U. E. Loyalist descent, and has always lived and carried on business in that locality. He entered the public life as a Councillor in the Township of Kingston, and later became Reeve of that Township. He was first elected to the Provincial Legislature in 1911, and has served as a member of the Local Legislature continuously since that date.

In 1919 Mr. Rankin was appointed by Sir James Whitney as a member of the Highway Commission, which made recommendations resulting in the present Provincial Highway system. In 1924 he was appointed a member of the Highway Advisory Board to reorganize the County Road systems of the Province, and which has resulted in Township grants being increased from 20% to 30%, and grants to County Roads being increased from 40% to 50%. This new revised system is the most up-to-date in force in Canada.

Mr. Rankin is a Director of the Excelsior Life Insurance Company, and is also a Director of the Ontario Good Roads Association and of the Canadian Good Roads Association, and states that if he is again elected and the Ferguson Government is returned, and this revenue from gasoline tax revised is as anticipated, he will recommend and work for a further increase of 10% to the Government grants for Township and County Road purposes. This would further reduce the tax rate in favor of maintaining and building roads, and Mr. Rankin says his ambition is to see the best road system and good to meet the traffic requirements, including all the roads in the back concessions.

RUGBY

N.C.I. 16, Old Boys 7

The Old Boys of the N.C.I. certainly threw a score into the present Rugby squad, when they led the N.C.I. Seniors 7-5 at half time, in the Rugby Classic at the Park on Thanksgiving Day. Quite a crowd turned out for the game, nartly to see the present day players and partly to see the players of other years in action. And the Old Boys put up a snappy fight for half the game, too. However, the superior condition and experience told in the long run, Bill Carr, former local quarter, called the plays for the Old Boys, and certainly hasn't dropped any of his former playing ability. His two field goals were pretty efforts and from a difficult angle. Brother Jim, now cavorting around the middle wing for Upper Canada College Hi, did some nice class punting and was a stonewall in the line. Jim Daly, at snap, was in the thick of the fight, but the treat of the game was to watch old Harry Babcock in action, this young man played soccer and rugby before many of the present team were able to walk, but he was in there playing as good as the best of them. George Reid, another player of other years, was there as large as life, knocking down everybody who came his way. Gerald Gleeson, Horace Lucas, Bill Coates, Wes Huffman, Allen Walters and Ambrose Killorin, all former local gridders, played as good as the present team for two periods, but lack of good condition told the story. Ralph Bleed played a steady game while he was on, and Harry McNeill did his duty by his cheering.

For N.C.I., the backfield players stood out above any on the field. Cowle's touch in the 1st period was a pretty effort, and Syd Ballard went on a tear scoring two touchdowns, one end run Fraser to Cowle to Ballard, was the biggest ground gained during the game. Daverin, Junior quarter, fitted in nicely and his two runs after fake plays were pretty tries. Wartman and Wye, middles, did some hard bucking, and Conway and Wilson, at outsides, were in the game from start to finish. Gibson made a nice job of snap, in the absence of Parks. His stamps were always accurate and he did some effective blocking on the side. Deline's tackling was another feature.

Jack Stewart, another player of former years, did some fine playing for the Old Boys, but his lacked condition but played nice rugby all during the game.

As was said before, quite a large crowd turned out to see the game. Evidently the townspeople have decided to support the various teams and let us hope that more turn out for the remaining games. However, the students at N.C.I. aren't backing up the team. The school "yell" has been heard but a single game this year, and the students aren't turning out for the games. The Old Boys showed the present generation how to drive the school yell.

N.C.I. Beats League-Leading Deseronto II. 8. Team

Deseronto High School, leaders in the Bay of Quinte Rugby League and the best team in the league, by virtue of their beating every other team in the League, weren't in the N.C.I.'s class last Thursday afternoon, when they were drubbed by 11-2. N.C.I. dominated the play throughout and only in the last quarter did the N.C.I. citadel seem in danger. In this quarter N.C.I. were forced to rouge twice, giving Deseronto their only points. The game was fairly clean, but as usual between Napanee and Deseronto, there were the usual verbal arguments, tho' none ventured to display their knowledge of the "manly art of self-defence".

N.C.I. backs, coupled with good interference grained yards time after time. In the 1st quarter a criss-cross fooled the Deseronto second. Interference around the right end sent Deline on a long run for a touchdown. The convert was good. The 2nd quarter was a repetition of the 1st altho' N.C.I. fumbled the ball too frequently. Deseronto tried a fake kick but failed to gain yards. Another kick was called, but the kicker mudjudged the ball in trying to kick it and missed cleanly. Durwood Conway, squat local outside, promptly scooped the ball up and galloped over for the 2nd touch. Cowle converted. The 3rd quarter remained 11-0 till within six minutes of the final whistle when the Deserontoians managed to collect two rouges.

On the whole N.C.I. were a much more superior team than Deseronto. The locals carried out their plays more smoothly, were quick to snatch loose balls and were fearless in their tackling. The N.C.I. backfield of Cowle, Fraser, Ballard and Deline, were each superior to their opponents. MacVicker, Detlor, L. MacVicker combination. They ran back punts, carried out plays and tackled much better than their opponents. The line held up better and were more experienced in making holes, and nearly every plunge there was a hole a mile wide. Corkill and Way, two husky middles, did some hard line-smashing. Wright and Conway, outsides, did some hard tackling, and each did some smart interfering. Benjamin and Moffat, insides, were in the thick of the fight all during the game, and both did good work. Bill Parks, the wormier snap of this district, handled the ball well during all the game and did good work in stopping plunges. Detlor and Drapeau played for Deseronto's best, although Clarence MacVicker did good work.

Referee A. Shoemaker and J. L. Murray officiated, and were very impartial in their decisions.

Bob Bowsitt, Lorne Wartman, Bob Wilson and Gerald McGuire did some effective relief work for the Collegiate squad.

WEDDING BELLS.

Clark—Hawley.

Oliver United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, October 30th, at 4 o'clock, when Muriel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hawley, was united in marriage to Mr. Alex. H. Clark, the Rev. A. W. Guild officiating. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father, and looked very sweet in a gown of silver grey chiffon with satin trimming, shoes and stockings to match, and French hat of blue and silver. Her bouquet was of Sweetheart roses, lily of the valley and baby's breath, and she wore an opal ring, the gift of the groom. The ushers were Mr. William Paterson and Mr. Harold Paterson. Miss Hawley, of Napanee, aunt of the bride, played the wedding music, and during the signing of the register, Miss Lila Hill sang very effectively "Because". The church was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, ferns and wax berries. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left later for Buffalo and points east, the bride wearing a coat of midnight blue needle-point with squirrel trimmings. On their return they will reside on Fennell Avenue North. —Hamilton Spectator.

Extraordinary wear in all types of Life-Buoy Rubber Footwear is guaranteed by the new Kaufman High-Pressure, Low-temperature Process.

This new method of treating rubber footwear retains the natural elasticity and durability of rubber which under old methods were ruined by excessive heat.

A specially woven fabric is used as the base of all Life-Buoy Rubber Footwear, every fibre of which is permeated and impregnated with purest flicid rubber. Result: a moisture-proof, snag-proof, non-rotting base for the high-grade Kaufman-cured rubber surface.

Life-Buoys cost no more and the additional miles of wear in each pair make them much more economical.

Don't take something "just as good"; insist upon Life-Buoys and be sure of rubber footwear made by the new exclusive High-pressure, Low-temperature process.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Elmer A. Bradshaw, who passed away Nov. 11th, 1922.

Why was he taken, so young and so fair?
Cut off in the midst of his bloom.
Yet his memory will live with us always,
Though he lies in a cold silent tomb.
He little thought when leaving home
That he would never return;
Nor how he lies in his lonely grave
While we are left to mourn.
His smile lives on though gone from view,
That face so merry and full of glee,
And though his voice we no longer hear,
We know and feel that he is near,
Biding us greet a friend more dear,
For we'll meet again on the other shore.
Sadly missed by Mother, Brothers and Sisters. 46ap

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Elmer Archie Bradshaw, who died Nov. 11th, 1923.

Dear, inoffensive and sincere,
A loving daddy and cherished here.
True dealings were his fond delight,
Still soul from body took its flight.
Farewell, dear children, my time is past,
I loved you dearly to the last;
Grieve not for me, but to prepare for Heaven,
Be this your greatest care.
—Billie, Iris, Marjorie Bradshaw. 46ap

The house they lived in there still stands much as they left it. Besides visiting her sister and family in Dakota, she went on to Idaho to see her brother, and then on to British Columbia to visit her sister and family there. She describes the trip across the Rocky Mountains as a wonderful and grand trip. Returning she called on friends at Winnipeg, Grimsby, Stamford, Ont., and other points West. She was delighted and well repaid for the trip.

FOR GIRLS WHO WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Is a Great Friend—It Stops Pain and Restores Health

Toronto, Ontario. — "I work in a factory and I would have to get away from my work every time I was sick. The dragging-down pains and cramps were very bad, but my back was terrible. It hurt so that I couldn't lie down with it. I heard some of the girls talking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me to try it. I have taken about a dozen bottles of it and it has done me a lot of good. I never have any pains across my back now, and have not been off from work a day since I have taken it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound when I have the opportunity."—Miss ROLLO, 21 Howie Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

"The Advice of a Friend"

Hanover, Ontario.—"I was terribly pained and a few odd times I almost fainted. I used to do housework until a few months ago and sometimes I had to leave my work and go to bed. I am now a member in the knitting-mill. I suffered five or six years from painful periods before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by the advice of a friend. It got relief almost immediately, and I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. You may use this testimonial if you like, if it will help others."—Miss J. PEARSON, Victoria Street, Hanover, Ontario.

THE CAUSE OF MOST TROUBLE NEGLECT

THE cause of most serious eye trouble is neglect. If at the present time your eyes play you tricks you should have them examined at once. Perhaps a pair of resting glasses will allow them to recover their usual strength. Perhaps they need correction. Our optometrist will discover their shortcomings and advise you accordingly.

Address and Presentation.

On Monday evening, Nov. 1st, one hundred or more friends and neighbours assembled at the home of D. R. Denison, and presented them with a library table and electric reading lamp.

Rev. Mr. Batstone read the following address:—

We, your friends and neighbours, having learned with sincere regret of your intended departure from the community, have assembled to spend a social evening with you, and to bid you God-speed. In a very real sense we have regarded you as one of ourselves. Your whole life has been spent in this neighborhood. From childhood you have grown up amongst us. We have therefore learned to appreciate your fine qualities and your true neighborly spirit. You have always manifested a sympathetic interest in us and have responded to any call made upon you. As an expression of the high esteem in which you are held by your neighbors and friends, and as a token of the appreciation of your worth, we ask you to accept these presents at our hands, and as you make use of them in the years to come, may they serve to keep afresh the memories of friends and associates where the best years of your life have been spent. We shall follow you with our prayers and best wishes that wherever your lot may be cast, you may enjoy health and happiness, and above all that the blessing of the Divine Father of us all may ever rest upon you both.

Signed on behalf of the community.

A. FRISKEN.
J. WINTER.
H. WINDOVER.

Mr. Denison thanked the friends for the kind words contained in the address, also for their beautiful gifts, and invited the friends to visit them in their new home, after which the company sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds", etc., and "They Are Jolly Good Fellows".

The Winners Class of the Sunday School also presented Mary with an ivory clock and an address. Following is the address:—

Dear Mary,—It is with sincere regret that we know you are going away. You have been a very efficient worker in all offices in our Young People's work. But you are only going to Newburgh, so we shall expect to see you often both here and there. As a little remembrance we ask you to accept this clock. Hoping you will like your new home.

Signed on behalf of the Class.

ST. MARY'S AND GRACE WIN

On Tuesday evening in the Armouries, St. Mary's and Grace pounded their way to victory over Trinity and St. Andrew's respectively, in the Inter-Church League, before a fair crowd. Slugging was the order of the day as far as St. Mary's and Grace were concerned. The games were over at 9.30 despite the big scores. Also some new players were brought to light. The best of these was Marjorie Daly, St. Andrew's 1st sacker and pitcher. This girl played a real star game at 1b, and then took over the pitching duties. With real good coaching she should develop into one of the best pitchers around here. She has a fast ball and good control and her work will be watched with interest by the fans.

Grace 22, St. Andrew's 6

In the opener, Grace Church trounced St. Andrew's 32-6. Miss Vivian Oliver, St. Andrew's hurler, was wild, and Grace pounded the ball hard throughout her stay in the box. Marjorie Daly, who had played a star game at 1b all along, took her place in the fifth and held the champions to six runs for the remainder of the game. Her fast ball zipped over the plate with plenty of speed and Grace failed to connect as often as before. No doubt she will get the pitching assignments hereafter. Mildred Blackadder, St. Andrew's catcher, showed signs of being a good receiver. When she learns to "line" the ball down to 2nd, she will be a good backstop. Gladys Post at s.s. turned in a neat performance, and will be heard from before the season closes, while Enid Fitzgerald 2nd did some nice all-round playing. Kathleen Henderson, another newcomer, at s.s. did some neat work, and Jean McGraw at 3rd, turned in a good night's work.

Marion Roblin, Ferne Booth and Winifred Perry turned in nice games in the outfield. Miss Booth was the best player in the game, her fielding being very good.

Grace needs little comment on their play. All played nice ball. Hazel O'Neill hit a homer with one on base, and all got one or more hits. Grace Harrigan at 1b made a nice catch off the girders, while Margaret Douglas at 2b, Marion Thompson at s.s., and Dorothy Lucas at 2b, all played bang-up ball. Thelma Hamby, Grace Hall and Helen Walker all turned in neat games in the outfield.

Score by innings:—

Grace	6	3	4	11	2	1	3	—	32
St. Andrew's	0	0	1	0	1	0	4	—	6

Umpires—Fraser and Taylor.

St. Mary's 32, Trinity 1

In the second game the leagueleading St. Mary's trounced Trinity 32-1. There wasn't a doubt as to which was the better team. St. Mary's slugged their way to victory. Marion Grass hit her second homer of the season in the 1st innings, and all the others pounded the ball hard. Dot Johnston held the "T" hitters in check throughout. Irene Embury played a snappy game at 1b, as did Marion at s.s. Lenora Fraser at 2b did smart playing throughout, as did Noreen Johnston in right field. Francis Wright in centre and Hazel Sampson in left, did good work. Joe Clarke at 2b got away with two or three good bunts.

Chris. Taylor pitched for Trinity, but was unable to hold the Anglican sluggers in check. Her support was poor, as was expected of a bunch of new players. Mil Rikely 1b, Ruth Dickson 2b, Helen Drake s.s., Kathleen Dickson lf., and Lenore Black in right were the only players of last year left. All played fair ball. Helen Drake did some smart fielding at "short" as did Mil. Rikely. Edna Aylesworth, Mabel Jackson, Alma McKnight and Mae Hawley were the newcomers. All played nice ball and will make good players in time. There was one double play, Dot Johnston to Dorothy Hagan.

Score by innings:—

St. Mary's	7	4	9	2	1	7	2	—	32

Umpires—Huffman and Loucks.

To-night (Friday) the Leafs will play Belleville Alemites at 7 o'clock. Each team has won a game, altho' the Leafs have the edge. Dot Johnston will likely twirl for the Leafs, and Miss Moss for the Alemites. The Frontenacs will play after the girls' game. However, it may be softball or basketball, as from all appearances there will be a record crowd. A dance is probably to be held after the games. The Armouries will be heated so go early and get a good seat.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Friday evening, Nov. 5th, a very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilbert, Marysburgh, when about eighty neighbors and friends from Odessa and Bath motored there for a farewell visit. The following address was read by Miss Jessie Thompson, and Mrs. Wesley Sharpe presented Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert with a gold lined silver tea service, and Grace a gold signet ring by Mrs. Willie Weese.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert and Grace,—We, your friends and neighbors, have assembled together to spend one more social evening with you prior to your departure for Rochester.

Although a feeling of sadness comes to us at saying farewell to you, yet we have one consolation that perhaps you may return again to dwell with us. We have spent many social evenings in your home, and as you go out from among us, you carry the good wishes of a host of friends for your success and happiness in your new home.

We would ask you to accept these gifts.

Signed on behalf of the community,

O. S. Snider.
Mrs. W. Weese.
Mrs. W. Sharpe.
Miss Helen Hagerman.
Miss Jessie Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert and Grace responded, and thanked their friends for the pleasant evening they had made for them, and also their beautiful gifts.

For Frost Bites and Chilblains—Chilblains come from undue exposure to slush and cold and frost-bite from the icy winds of winter. On reading this we are goaded To ask : What about the fellow Who didn't know it was loaded ?

The use of Miller's Worm Powders insures healthy children so far as the ailments attributable to worms are concerned. A high mortality among children is traceable to worms. These sap the strength of infants so that they are unable to maintain the battle the battle for life and succumb to weakness. This preparation gives promise of health and keeps it.

The Tired Out Woman

Needs the Help of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to Regain Strength

No mother should allow nervous weakness to get the upper hand of her; if she does worry will mar her work in the home, and unrest her in mind and body. The monotony of the average housewife's daily toil is enough to cause depression, but there are other causes, as every mother knows, that tend to weaken and make her nerves run-down. A change and rest might improve her health, but best of all for tired women is a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills make new blood, rich with the elements on which the body and nerves thrive.

The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when the blood is weak and watery, and the system run-down is shown by the experience of Mrs. C. W. Jackson, R.R. 1, Gilford, Ont., who says :—"Before beginning the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was completely run-down and could hardly walk across the floor. As the mother of young children with the usual household duties to perform, my condition was one of seriousness. I had seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised and decided to try them. This was a happy decision as I had not been taking the pills very long before I began to feel better both in body and mind. I continued the use of the pills for a couple of months and now feel like a new woman, able to perform all my household duties. I would not be without the pills in the house and I recommend them to all run-down people."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bride—"John, will you love me when I am old and ugly ?"

Groom (preoccupied)—"Well, dash it all ! If I don't by then, I never will."

For Burns and Scalds. — Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will take the fire out of a burn or scald. It should be at hand in every kitchen so that it may be available at any time. There is no preparation required. Just apply the oil to the burn or scald and the pain will abate and in a short time cease altogether.

Worried Telephone Subscriber—I say, my 'phone hasn't been working for a month and you paid no attention to my letter of complaint.

Official—"We did—we rang you up to ask you what was wrong, and got no answer !"

"What sort of people have taken the estate for the season ?" asked the family solicitor of the head gamekeeper.

"Men of their word, sir," was the reply. "They promised to send all they shot to the hospital, and two beaters have been admitted already."

Smoke and flames began to issue from the top windows of a house. A man ran over to it and rang the bell, and a woman who was rather deaf opened the door.

"Madam, your house is on fire," said the man.

"What do you say ?"

"Your house is on fire !"

"What's that ? House on fire ?"

"Oh, is that all ?".

"Well," said the man, "it's all I can think of at the moment."

The secretary of the hospital was making a speech. "Despite the large amount of money spent on attendance and druge," he said, "the number of fatal cases this year are really few."

The skipper was making up the log, and the first item ran : "The mate was intoxicated." When the mate saw it he asked the skipper to scratch out the entry.

"No," said the skipper, "it was true, wasn't it ?"

Some days after, the mate entered up the log ; "Captain sober to-day," he wrote.

The skipper immediately asked him angrily what he meant.

"Well," said the mate, "it was true, wasn't it ?"

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

NO MORE PILES

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad blood circulation in the lower bowel. Cutting and salves can't do this — an internal remedy must be used. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, succeeds because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. Hem-Roid has a wonderful record for quick, safe and lasting relief to Pile sufferers. It will do the same for you or money back. Wallace's Drug Store and druggists anywhere sell Hem-Roid with this guarantee.

"—Marian always remembers!"

"Ever since the Marshalls were our neighbours in Brooktown, Marian has never missed an opportunity of greeting me on my birthday. But to think that she would remember our Golden Wedding anniversary!"

"Yes, those thoughtful words over the telephone mean a great deal!"

"Indeed they do! As soon as I recognized her voice, I realized what it really means to be able to say that distance is no longer a barrier. It's wonderful to be alive in this age of marvels, when one can sit at home and chat with friends miles away!"

Long Distance is growing in favour day by day. For messages of congratulation and encouragement, there is nothing like the telephone. After all, your voice is you!

PROHIBITION UNION MEETING

A large and representative gathering of the prohibition workers from Frontenac-Lennox met in the Armouries on Wednesday night. In the absence of the President of the Union Mr. W. Anglin, the Vice President, Mr. A. MacGregor, occupied the chair.

Rev. A. J. Wilson, Secretary, read the minutes of the Executive meetings, and presented a resolution from the committee re-affirming faith in the Ontario Temperance Act and pledging the convention to support only a candidate who will neither directly nor indirectly support the government sale of liquor for beverage purposes." This was carried unanimously.

Dr. Irwin, the President of the Ontario Prohibition Union, then addressed the audience. He analyzed the government sale proposals of the premier, and of statistics gathered from all the provinces where government sale is in force, showed its utter failure to curb bootlegging or to reduce drunkenness. The address, which was closely reasoned and delivered in a quiet impressive manner, was intently listened to by the audience. The great mass of evidence from government statistics made a case against which there is no appeal.

The meeting was dismissed by singing the National Anthem.

The Passion Play at Wonderland, Monday and Tuesday, Nov'r 15th and 16th

Nations have become strange to each other. Hatred instead of mutual help—force instead of understanding—machine guns instead of bread. This is unbearable. And gentle voices, becoming louder and louder, raise from all countries of the universe; Reconciliation of the nations! International peace!—The film wants to go to the very core of the problem. It will demonstrate to everybody's needs, as it is the great reading book of the world. It speaks but one language: that of the heart. It utters but one demand: Be human! It propagates but one idea: Love instead of force!

This is the meaning of the film, "Passion Play" which speaks to the nations in the simple language which appeals to all hearts. The decision: Jesus has to come to the passion! Ate drama, is placed before everybody, rich and poor, great and humble; it is: Love instead of force, even at the price of a great sacrifice.

One show only, at 8 o'clock.

SWASTIKA CLUB DANCE

One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was given on Friday evening last in the Masonic Hall, by the girls of the Swastika Club. The guests were received at the entrance of the hall room by Mrs. B. F. Davy, Mrs. F. S. Boyes, Mrs. H. E. Boyle and Mrs. Harry Steacy. Walters' eight-piece Orchestra furnished excellent music, stationed in a bower gaily decorated with orange and black streamers, corn and pumpkins. The hall was done in the same colors and presented a gala scene under the many tiny shaded lights and bright colored balloons, while the lounges and anti-rooms were cosy with shaded lamps and attractive wicker furniture. During the intermission the girls of the Club served delightful refreshments. The special dances were unique and original. The Basket-Ball tag was popular, while the balloon dance was even more jolly than usual since many of the balloons contained powder and confetti. However, the event of the evening culminated in the Swastika Birthday Dance, the pretty souvenirs of which were won by Miss Louise Smith and Mr. Young. The dance was attended by many holiday guests in town, and was one of the jolliest and most successful ever given by the Swastika Club, and everyone is eagerly looking forward to the next Club dance to be given on Dec. 27th.

OBITUARY

Dorothy Jean Amey

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Amey, of Bicknell's Corner, was saddened on Tuesday, November 2nd, 1926, when their fourth daughter, Dorothy Jean, was called to her eternal home by the Good Shepherd. Little Dorothy had only been ill a short time, and all looked forward to her recovery.

In disposition Dorothy was always bright, cheerful and affectionate, and is sadly missed by her family, and the school children who pass by her home.

Dr. Mounce was in attendance and did all that was possible to alleviate any suffering.

Rev. Mr. Anderson conducted the funeral services at the Camden East United Church, where many were gathered in sympathy with the sorrowing family. The floral tributes were carried by Verna and Leah Scott, Ruby Simmons and Ila Wilson, and the bearers were Evelyn Peters, Marie Scott, Isabella Robinson and Mabelle Blakely. The burial service was conducted in St. Luke's burial ground, where the last remains of Dorothy were laid at rest.

Mrs. Daniel Daverne

There passed to her rest on October 28th, 1926, at her home in Adolphustown, Helen Flett, beloved wife of Daniel Daverne, aged 83 years and 12 days.

Mrs. Daverne has been almost a life-long resident of this place, coming with her parents at the age of two years from St. John, N.B., her father having bought Squire Lowe's place on Hay Bay, since known as "The Pines". She spent a part of her girlhood in Belleville, residing with an uncle, Henry Sylvester. In 1866 she married Mr. Daverne, and has since lived on the farm on which she died, excepting for six years residence in Napanee during 1913-1920.

She leaves behind, her aged husband, three sons, Richard, of Victoria, B.C.; Walter H., of Gormley, Ont., and George, at home; also eight grandchildren. Her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Cummings, Toronto, predeceased her almost six years ago.

The funeral was held on Saturday, 2 p.m. at the home. Interment was in St. Alban's churchyard, Adolphustown, the service being conducted by Rev. Herbert Pringle.

Friends from a distance present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Herb, Toronto, (granddaughter), and Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Lawrence, Bath.

THE FIRST FAMILY FALL

Mr. Geo. A. Cliff received a telegram on Monday from Victoria, B.C., notifying him of the sudden death in that city on Sunday, October 31st, of his youngest brother, Charles Edwin Cliff. The message said it was due to heart trouble. The family consisted of four brothers and one sister. This was the first break. The average age was eighty years, which is a rare record. The deceased was born in Kingston and attended the old Grammar School in Napanee. He became apprenticed to Boyle & Wright, hardware and tinsmith. Ambition swayed him, and after a business career in Bath and St. Mary's, Ontario, he moved with his wife and two sons to New Westminster, B.C. Possessed of large ability, acetylene-welded to integrity, he was doing famously when the great fire of 1898, which almost destroyed that city swept him out of home and business, but not out of heart. He borrowed a match to rekindle his flame, and he and his boys rose crackling from the ashes, entering the canning, the lumber, the condensed milk, real estate, and other industries, mounting from height to height into the realms of dazzling prosperity, his sons, Ronald and Norman, achieving a high niche in the world of finance.

OBITUARY

Mrs. James A. Garratt.

The death occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Harry C. Garratt, on Thursday of last week, of one of Napanee's well-known and highly esteemed ladies, in the person of Mrs. James A. Garratt, formerly of Vancouver, B.C. The deceased, who was in her 74th year, had been ill for a considerable period, and her passing will be learned with regret by a wide circle of friends.

For many years she had been a resident of Vancouver, where her husband and eldest son reside, and two years ago, owing to failing health, she returned east with the hope that the climatic conditions would prove more beneficial to her health. While in Napanee the deceased was a faithful worker in Grace Methodist (now United) Church.

Surviving are her husband and two sons, William in Vancouver and Harry in Napanee, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended. The funeral, which was private, was held Sunday afternoon.

Thomas Sexsmith

On Thursday, the 4th of November, 1926, there passed away, in Tyendinaga, an old and respected resident, in the person of Thomas Sexsmith, at the age of seventy-seven, after an illness of nine months. The deceased lived all his life, and died, on the farm where he was born.

He leaves to mourn his loss two sons, George R. and William J., and one grandchildren; also one sister, Mrs. William Booth, of Thomasburg.

The funeral was held on the Saturday following, a large number of friends and neighbors gathering to pay their last respects. The service was held in Empey Hill Church, where the Rev. Mr. Sharpe, of Belleville, preached a very impressive sermon, his text being taken from the 24th chapter of Deuteronomy, "And Moses died".

The remains were laid to rest in the family plot at Deseronto, beside those of his wife, who predeceased him five years ago.

BICKNELL'S CORNERS

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Emberley on Friday evening, October 29th, they had the pleasure of a very pretty party, in honor of their daughter, Miss Thora.

As the young people gathered they were welcomed by two ghastly visaged ghosts, whose hearty, though clammy hand shake, indicated the character of the evening's fun which partook of the nature of Hallowe'en. The rooms were tastefully decorated with black cats, witches, bats and streamers of black and yellow. Candles lighted in pumpkins furnished the light where the young people were present.

Many picturesque and grotesque costumes were worn. A real jolly time was enjoyed in games, music, contests, and a costume parade. The prizes awarded for best players in progressive, were Miss Lillian Alkenbrack, a pair of candle sticks, and Mr. Bert Denyes, a deck of cards; best costumes, "Snow Ball", Miss Jean Asselstine, fancy vase; an "Indian", Mr. Harold Brown, a deck of cards. Prizes for Floral contests, Miss Emma McMillan, fancy dish, and Mr. Reginald Dawson, box of fancy stationery". Refreshments were served. The young people wended their way home around 2.30 a.m., thanking Mr. and Mrs. Emberley and Thora for their enjoyable evening.

ADOLPHUSTOWN

The marriage of Miss Hazel Hawley and Mr. Charles Hoselton was solemnized in St. Alban's Church, at 6 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, the Rector officiating. The bride is a graduate of Kingston General Hospital, and the groom is well and favourably known in this locality. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hoselton left for an extended honeymoon to Montreal, Whitehall and Rochester, N.Y., and will later take up residence in Cobourg.

Mr. John Fitchett, Jr., and family, have moved to Napanee.—Mrs. Baldwin, Kingston, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Baldwin. Mr. Baldwin has recently undergone treatment in Kingston General Hospital.—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Instant, have returned from Ottawa.—Mrs. George Ruttan and Mrs. Roy Smith are patients in the Hospital, Kingston.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Orrel and Miss Jessie Smith, Trenton, spent Sunday with Mrs. JoSeph Smith. — Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gallagher spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Stratton Gallagher, Detroit.—Mrs. D. W. Allison, Napanee, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston. — Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith have moved from Kingston to Bath.

SANDHURST

In the sudden death of Mr. Joseph Carroll, which took place at his home Saturday evening last, Sandhurst, and particularly the congregation of St. Paul's Church, is called upon to mourn, with his family, the passing of a true and trusted friend. Indeed the genial and kind hearted Mr. Carroll was the friend of all who knew him; and the memory of many a cheery word and thoughtful deed will be long cherished among us. Besides his widow, there is a family of two sons and five daughters; one son, Arthur, being killed in the Great War, the funeral services were held in St. Paul's Church Tuesday afternoon, and notwithstanding the inclement weather, the church was filled to its capacity with those who wished to show their esteem of one who for long years had lived the life of a Christian gentleman among them. The Rector preached from the text "Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord". The hymns were favourites of the deceased, "Nearer, My God, to Thee", "A Few More Years Shall Roll", and "Now the Labourer's Task is O'er". Interment was made in S. Paul's church yard.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

On October 29th a number of friends and relatives, numbering over forty, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corie Cummings, South Napanee, it being the 25th Anniversary of their wedding, and spent an enjoyable evening in Progressive Euchre until 10.30, when the remainder was spent in dancing and cards, until the wee small hours.

The following address was read by Mrs. Jennie Sager, and a gift of a silver cake plate was presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Clark.

Napanee, Oct. 29th, 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. Corah Cummings,

Dear Brother and Sister,—I was with pleasure that we, your Sisters of the L.O.B.A., accepted your kind invitation to spend this 25th Anniversary of your wedding at your home. We feel first of all that it must be a time of thankfulness to our Heavenly Father, who has spared you both to come to this day and time, in good health. No doubt in looking back over these years of married life you have found it a time of many adverse circumstances which you felt a hinderance, but you were brought safely through by and with wise providence. Our sincere wish is that you may both be spared to enjoy many years of good health and happiness, and as a small token of our esteem, would ask that you accept this gift as a remembrance of your Sisters of Eastern Star. Lodge, No. 245.

Again wishing you both health, happiness and prosperity, we remain fraternally yours in F. H. and C.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge.

MRS. E. LINDSAY, D.M.
MRS. E. CLARK, W.M.

MASONIC BALL

On Friday evening, November 12th, the members of Union Lodge, No. 9, A.F. & A.M., gave a dinner-dance in their rooms, at which two hundred and seventy-seven guests were present. The Master of the Lodge, Mr. Geo. Robson, received with the other officers, and the guests were entertained by the Orchestra until dinner was announced. The ball-room with its flag-draped walls, presented a gala appearance, the long tables, with lighted candles in candelabra, pretty favors and dainty arrangements, were most attractive. A delicious dinner was served, after which an address of welcome to the ladies was made by Mr. W. Herrington, who was introduced by Mr. Robson. Mr. Herrington after initiating the ladies into a few Masonic secrets, then introduced the D.D.G.M., Mr. H. A. Carscallen, of Enterprise, who spoke for a few moments.

The musical entertainment was given by Miss Eileen Law, of Toronto, who possessed a beautiful contralto voice, and was greatly appreciated. Mr. Esplin, a Scotch comedian, was extremely funny and afforded a great deal of amusement. To complete this very delightful evening, Walters' Orchestra played enticing dance music until after midnight. During this period a Charleston contest was won by Mr. Allan Walters and Miss Margaret Walters, Miss Helen Grange and Mr. Charlie Walters. The winners of the old-fashioned waltz contest were Mr. Herbert Daly and Mrs. Galbraith; Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Boyes; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy. The Walters' Orchestra are to be complimented not only upon the manner of their playing, but upon their untiring efforts in providing a happy evening for everyone. Just a word of praise too, to the men behind the scenes, who generously worked to provide the party. But we also does one expect from the Masons?

A MEMORIAL SERVICE

In memory of the gallant and brave boys who sacrificed their lives in the Great War a large audience gathered at Deseronto on Sunday afternoon to pay a silent tribute. Promptly at 2.30, led by the Napanee Citizens' Band, the Boy Scouts and "B" Co., Frontenac Regiment, proceeded to the Court House Park, where the service was immediately held. Rev. Father T. P. O'Connor, of St. Patrick's Church, occupied the chair, and in an eloquent speech referred to the dark days of the war, the unswerving loyalty of the people, the sacrifices which had been made and the happy termination of one of the most colossal wars in history. In feeling terms he spoke of the valiant and glorious deeds which had been accomplished by the Canadian soldiers, and hoped that the Government would never be remiss in its duties to the great army of comrades who had returned in safety.

The service closed with the familiar hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," which was led by the band.

Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, Vicar of St. Mary Magdalene Church, then read the scripture lesson, which was followed by a prayer by the Captain of the Salvation Army. "Nearer My God to Thee" was then rendered, after which the Boy Scouts marched silently to the base of the cenotaph where they deposited a reverence with many floral wreaths, the Band at the same time playing the "Dead March in Saul".

A two minutes' silence was then observed, after which Rev. W. P. Woodger, of Grace Church, gave a short address. Three volleys were fired by "B" Co., after which the Last Post was sounded.

School Teacher Takes on Big Job

Alice is only twenty-one. Yet she already has a profession and a career and left both behind her. From now on her principal business is to fight hard for life, and when the footing does become a little less precarious she may take up some other kind of work. If it must not be teaching. At least that's what the doctors say —for the time work she's waged through her just one—when they placed her here on a cot in the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives.

Alice smiles bravely when she is told she is only a youngster, and a year her immediate big job is to respond to the wonderfully synthetic treatment she is receiving from the nurses and doctors who are trying to undo in a few months the harm that disease has wrought in seven years.

A girl from you will assist the Hospital by bringing Alice and other similar cases back to health.

ADOLPHUSTOWN YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

The Young People's Society of the Adolphustown United Church met at the home of Miss Annabel Magee, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9th, the President, Mr. Frank Loyst, in the chair. There was a good attendance despite the inclement weather. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. James Bird. The topic, "The Evils of Strong Drink", was taken up by Miss Hattie Magee. The report of the Convention held in Napanee was given by the two delegates, Miss Margaret and Miss Annabel Magee, and were very interesting.

A motion was introduced that we endorse the resolution adopted by the Young People at the Convention held in Napanee, and it carried unanimously. Resolution, "We, the Young People's Society, of the U. E. L. United Church of Adolphustown, do hereby place on record :—First, our most earnest conviction that the present O. T. A., which is the most advanced Temperance Legislation this Province has ever had, should be maintained, strengthened and enforced, and that we record our intense opposition to government control (sale) policy, proposed by Premier Ferguson, as we are of the opinion that this policy has proved a failure in the Provinces where it has been tried. Second, we do deeply resent and repudiate the slander upon the yonnger people of to-day, whom we claim to represent, and with whose habits and life we therefore are most familiar, that Premier Ferguson has made, when he speaks upon public platforms of the wholesale disrespect for the present law, and the carrying of hip flasks, and the drinking of intoxicating liquor, which he claims is prevalent amongst the youth of to-day."

Several of our people are in the Hospital in Kingston, and it was decided to remember them with letters and a shower of post cards.

Arrangements were made for the Young People's Rally, which is to be held at Adolphustown, on Friday evening, Nov. 26th, the Union and Mayburn Societies to be invited. Mr. Bunt, of Enterprise, will address the Young People.

It was decided that we subscribe for "The Pathfinder".

When the business was over, games were indulged in, refreshments served, and a generous collection taken.

Last of Calapoosias Dies.

Down around Cottage Grove, ore., the old-timers are only discussing what they remember of the Calapoosia Indian tribe. The last specimen of the tribe, Sam Fern, went to the happy hunting grounds a few days ago and the people at Cottage Grove are wondering what will become of the land which the Calapoosia tribe was using. Some of it is exceptionally fertile land. The tribe got its name from the range of mountains in that vicinity, or vice versa, and the Calapoosia were always a flavorful tribe. This tribe went through the great fire which swept the coast range about a century ago, when the only way the Indians could save themselves was to remain in the rivers for several days. The fire was so intense that the water became warm. Calapooze Indians declared that the wild animals also fled to the river and wolves and deer paddled around together in perfect harmony.—Portland Oregonian.

Artist vs. Photographer.

Early in the submarine campaign, one of our boats was given a coat of camouflage, and when the vessel sailed from its pier in the North river, New York, the owners sent a photographer two or three piers down the river to photograph the ship as she went by. He took the picture, writes A. Russell Bond, in his "Inventions of the Great War," but when the negative was developed, much to his astonishment, he found that the boat was not all on the plate. In the finder of his camera, he had mistaken a heavy band of black paint for the stern of the ship, quite overlooking the real stern, which was painted a grayish white. The artist had fooled the photographer and at a distance of not more than 200 or 300 yards.

Mark Twain had finished his speech at a dinner party, and, on seating himself a lawyer arose, shoved his hands deep into his trousers' pockets, as was his habit, and laughingly inquired of these present:

"Doesn't it strike this company as a little unusual that a professional humorist should be so funny?"

When the laughter that greeted this sally had subsided, Mark Twain drawled out.

"Doesn't it strike this company as a little unusual that a lawyer should have his hands in his own pockets?"

N. C. I. BASKETEERS DEFEAT "B" CO. QUINTET

On Friday evening a disappointed crowd went to the Armouries to watch the Leafs and "B" Co. put on a make-up match, because the Belleville Alemites failed to appear. "B" Co. should make the visiting management sign a guarantee to appear and not have to wait and then refund the money of the crowd. That happened on Friday and should be safe-guarded against and not allowed to happen again.

N.C.I. 37, "B" Co. 26.

However, the Basketball game went on as arranged, although a small crowd remained to witness the contest. The match was a pretty fair exhibition of the cage game, N.C.I., because of better condition, and more experience, won, but "B" Co. put up a hard fight. George Reid and Fred Bantley, two boys who have scarcely ever played before, put up a good game on the defence. Murray at centre turned in a good game and Tom Kirby showed that he hasn't lost track of the game. He showed a marked ability in netting the ball, and his passing was good. Claude (Mic) MacDonald was easily the fastest player on the floor. He showed a world of speed and his shooting was uncanny. He dropped them in from any angle, and doubtless is the best basketball player hereabouts. Jim Plumley did relief duty for "B" Co.

N.C.I. showed a more accurate shooting squad than "B" Co. and that is way they won. Ballard netted some pretty baskets as did Conway. Eddie Why did some smart centre work. The big fellow got the jump nearly every time and played a fine game. Harold Deline and Rajph Cook on the defence, both played steady games. Their checking was especially good and each played a smart game. Bob Wilson and Conway subbed for N.C.I. and both did good work.

Capt. H. L. Babcock "tooted the whistle" and His Honour Mr. Gordon (Hoot) Gibson, chalked up the scores and told the players when to rest.

WILL NAPANEE ENTER THE O.H.A. THIS WINTER?

Nearly all the neighbouring towns and cities have organized their clubs for the winter and are waiting only for ice. It might be a good idea to organize early this year and give the various teams and players a chance to get into condition. Last year the Senior Town League put up a good brand of hockey and turned in a prosperous season. Many new players were brought to light, and Napanee should have a strong team this year. Tom Kirby is still here, but is wanted by Kingston. So is Harry Skitch, but he will remain here. Fred Bentley is back, and Jim Naphin really finally return. C. A. Shoemaker is still here, and so are the Johnston Bros. Now why can't Napanee enter a team in the Intermediate O. H. A. with Kingston, Belleville and Brockville. The Intermediate teams from these cities are not a bit faster than our team, and we have just permission for the O. H. A. hockey. Local fans have seen the Kingston, Belleville and Brockville teams in action, and Napanee boys are just as fast. Billy Houle is now working in Point Anne, but has stated he would return if wanted. All our players are eligible, so why not enter? There is nothing to lose and all to gain. No doubt record crowds would fill the arena for such games, and a trip to Belleville could be run for a month and the best players picked out. So far we have the following players: Tom Kirby, Clinton Shoemaker, Harold Johnston, Fred Bentley, Harry Skitch, Jim Naphin, Billy Houle of last year's team. A goaltender could very easily be procured. Jack Stewart, Ray Huffman, Harry Babcock or Don Wright, of N.C.I., have asserted their willingness to play. Despite the many injuries received, Harry Babcock has gamly stated that he is ready to don the pads again if needs be. That's gameness for you! Don Wright, the youngster who headed so well for N.C.I. last winter, could be groomed for the position. Many Town League products are about ripe. Gerald Gleeson, Andrew Cavanaugh, Ambrose Killorin, Ray Loucks, Richardson, and others. Then Napanee would have Deseronto to pick from. Bruyea, Cole and Richardson would gladly play, while Clarence MacVicker could tend goal. Deseronto were Ontario Intermediate Champions last winter, and MacVicker is hailed as a coming star.

In all Napanee has a formidable array of hockey players and should go a long way in Group 2. Many locals could at least enter and then could drop out if outclassed, but there is little fear of that.

RUGBY NEWS

The N.C.I. Seniors have started practices again after a week's lay off. The N.C.I. Juniors were defeated 15-0 in Kingston on Saturday by K.C.I.'s second team. The locals were overpowered by the addition of a whole new team. The local Juniors all played well, and the score doesn't indicate the play whatever, as N.C.I. had just as much as the homesters. A much heavier team than the locals, the K.C.I. plungers were three times better after time by the much lighter N.C.I. backs. Individual of the locals was especially sure and hard, not one hesitating the least bit to get their man.

Have you heard about Pepsi? Peps is a scientific preparation put up in pastille form, which provides an entirely new and effective treatment for coughs, colds, chest and throat troubles.
Peps contain certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapor, and are breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.
While no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and healing commences.

TALC AND SOAPSTONE PRODUCTION HIGHER

According to statistics issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, there was an appreciable advance in the production of talc and soapstone in Canada during 1925. Shipments totalled 14,474 tons valued at $205,835 in 1925 as against 11,332 tons at $154,440 in 1924.

The Ontario production of talc was obtained from deposits in Hastings County. Practically all of the Quebec shipments consisted of soapstone blocks for use in lining the alkali recovery furnaces of sulphate (kraft) pulp mills. A small tonnage of ground talc was shipped from a deposit at Wolf Creek, Victoria Mining Division, British Columbia.

Mount Revelstoke National Park, British Columbia, has been connected with the outside world by the opening up of a motor highway from Okanagan Valley to Revelstoke, and many motorists have already taken advantage of this new artery of travel.

Canada's production of cobalt totalled 1,116,402 pounds valued at $2,228,517 during 1925 as against 948,704 pounds valued at $1,682,395 in 1924, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

FISH CULTURE SERVICE DEVELOPS NEW CARRIER

Attention to Shipments of Fish Eggs During Long Voyages Now Unnecessary

The fish of Canada are so highly regarded that efforts are frequently made to establish them in foreign countries, and, to assist in such endeavours, limited numbers of eggs of several species have recently been supplied by the Fish Cultural Branch of the Department of Marine and Fisheries for experimental and observational purposes in Europe and Japan.

In 1924, salmon trout eggs from Georgian Bay, Lake Huron, and cutthroat trout eggs from Banff, Alberta, were supplied to the Killywhan Fisheries near Dumfries, Scotland. Since the beginning of the present year speckled trout eggs have been shipped from Vancouver to the Tokyo Angling and Country Club, Tokyo, Japan, and sebago, or landlocked salmon eggs have been shipped from St. John, New Brunswick, to Dublin, Ireland. Arrangements have also been made to ship cutthroat, rainbow and Kamloops trout eggs from British Columbia to Japan during the coming spring.

Shipments for any great distance of such a fragile and perishable nature as fish eggs were at one time accompanied by attendants, but with the system of packing and insulation now in vogue they are forwarded by express without misgiving as regards their safe delivery, provided no accident occurs. The safe delivery at their destination of the salmon trout eggs shipped to Scotland in 1924, which reached Liverpool during a dockers' strike and were consequently delayed at that port for several days, is strong testimony to the efficiency of the protection and insulation provided by the new shipping cases developed by the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

REMEDIES OF THE DAYS PAST

Plants, Berries, Weeds and Roots Among Ancient Remedies Used for Cure of Ailments.

Quaint malady remedies of the past, many of which led to wealth on the part of their inventors, were nearly all made of berry plants and many of common weeds. Pokeberries, years ago, were used to make plaster for a cancer, and grapevine-sap was prepared for hair tonics. To produce a sweet, tea was made from magnolia leaves and the bark of this plant was often mentioned as a cure for consumption.

For toothache, the veteran practitioner used the barberry root. Berries of the cedar tree were supposed to stiffen the spine, and a tea made of the dried blue berries or of elderberries. The goldenrod, the mullein plant, the burdock, and common weeds were also held forth as cures for various ailments.

"Tuscarora rice," invented by a Philadelphia woman, and held forth as a cure for tuberculosis, enabled the practitioner to secure a fortune for herself. It was nothing more than hominy made from Indian corn.

To Extinguish Fires in Coal Mines.

The mud-jet seems to have been found especially adapted to extinguishing fires in coal mines, but it is liable to be inefficiently applied. A recent investigation shows that lime and clay mixed in water are at one time and the usual success of the mud-jet in controlling fire is largely due to the notion of these ever-present elements in causing loose particles, and closing gas-emitting openings by forming a cake over them. The refuse dust from the clay shipped to Scotland from Japan, and schaco, or landlocked salmon eggs have been shipped from St. John, New Brunswick, to Dublin, Ireland. Arrangements have also been made to ship cutthroat, rainbow and Kamloops trout eggs from British Columbia to Japan during the coming spring.

Advance of Japanese Women.

Japan is making remarkable progress in all lines of industry and in the development of modern ideas and thought, declared an officer of the Young Women's Christian Association, who returned from the Flowery Kingdom a short time ago.

Particularly interesting she said, is the changed attitude toward the girls. Education now is now being admitted to the big universities in Japan and given a freedom to develop herself along educational lines that has heretofore been rigidly denied her.

"This new attitude toward the Japanese woman is producing results almost unbelievable in the change of thought and serves to illustrate the progress that is being made.

The local debating society were enjoying a heated discussion on the subject of dress.

"Mr. Smith," concluded one honorable member, "has told us many times, nothing to the point. His arguments are like crinoline dresses, they cover everything, but touch nothing!"

Mr. Smith promptly rose ready for his fray. The honorable member," he exclaimed, "has adroitly avoided the issue, and explained nothing. His arguments bear a strong resemblance to the present clinging diaphanous fashions—they touch everything and cover nothing."

Father and Son Fight Side by Side

Boy is a handsome lad of fifteen, who is very proud of a new set of head gear his friend sent to him. Now he can hear as far as Boston on his radio. The wires come right in by his cot, where he rests most of the time. You see, Boy is in the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives and is by no means as well as he looks, although he says he is getting clung fine. He can visit his father, too, which is a great joy. Father and son are having their family. Boy is really making good progress, however—the complete rest, strict discipline and the care of kindly nurses and doctors are having their usual good effect in this efficient institution.

The Muskoka Hospital is urgently in need of funds. What can you spare to help?

CARRIED WIFE TO BED
Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Minesing, Ontario.—"I am a practical nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three months I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to drink a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed, I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering as I did who got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so he went and got it for me. When I had taken three bottles I was that like a new woman and have had splendid health ever since. When I feel any bearing-down pains I always take it; sometimes a half bottle or whatever I need. It is my only medicine and I have told many a one about it. Any one wanting to know more about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently will relieve this condition. C

CONWAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the Institute met at the home of Mrs. H. Phippen, on Nov. 9th, with the presiding officers, including our District President from Napanee, Mrs. J. Miller, in the chair, and twenty-four members present.

All the opening exercises were dealt with such as the new Institute Ode was sung, and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. The minutes of the former meeting were read and approved. Financial statements and committees reported. The current events were read as usual, then followed the roll call, which was responded to freely with useful gifts for Xmas. Many were the new ideas collected and exchange of patterns given.

Little Miss Betty Haight delighted the audience with a piano solo, entitled "Wildwood". She manifested great skill in her playing, and was encored. She responded, while her mother sang very cleverly, which was sure a treat.

Mrs. Miller then came forward with her instructive and inspiring address, entitled, "The Mother, the Home, the Country". This being a very deep and broad subject, one which required so much thought, was very cleverly synopsized, and our District President did her duty. She brought to view the value of love, patience, the smile of the mother over the home and country, and proved it to have more beneficial effect over the youth of our land than any measure of force could apply. As Mrs. Miller returned to her chair a very hearty vote of thanks was tendered her, and a pressing invitation to visit our Institute at a later date.

Community singing was indulged in for a few minutes, Mrs. Stainton presiding at the piano, one of the appropriate selections being "It isn't any trouble to Smile".

The meeting was closed by singing "God Save the King", after which the hostess served a very dainty lunch.

SOFTBALL GOSSIP

Marjorie Daly, St. Andrew's new twirler, is recognized as the find of the season. Under able coaching she will develop into a fine pitcher. She has the speed and control and can bat and field her position. She ought to catch a place on the Leafs next year. Her work on Tuesday was a great surprise to the "faithful few" who thought that all the best ball players were on the Leafs. Tuesday next the fans will watch her work with interest. Next Tuesday there will be another doubleheader, with all four teams on the card. St. Mary's will likely play St. Andrew's, and Grace will probably try to "lick" Trinity. Of course, St. Mary's and Grace are favoured to win, but there may be an upset. A game is never won till the last man is out.

To-night (Friday) at the Collegiate the N.C.I. Seniors will tackle Belleville H. S. Seniors in a basketball fixture. The local Collegiate girls are a nifty team, and the Juniors are just as good in their class. The games will be played in the Collegiate Gym, and will likely start around 7 o'clock. An effort is being made to have the Collegiate Boys Seniors and Belleville H. S. Seniors play as part of the program. In all there will be three games. The admission fee will be 15c., and is well worth it.

TAMWORTH

Three boys who live near Tamworth plundered one of our hardware stores on Sunday night of this week. They were found near town, and placed behind the bars in Napanee, to stand their trial. Prohibition Executive Endorses Dr. Ming

We, the members of the Frontenac-Lennox Prohibition Executive, desire to make public our reasons for our present decision.

Early in the campaign a letter was sent to each of the political parties containing the following words:

"As you are aware, we are a non-party organization, and our members represent all shades of political opinion. Our object is simply and solely to see that this Province enjoys the total prohibition of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes. We believe that the O.T.A., though not perfect, is the best social legislation the Province has ever enjoyed. And we recall with pleasure, that all parties in Ontario united in having it put on the statute books. It is our intention to do all in our power to the end that this law shall be maintained.

The electors of this riding, wherever they have had the opportunity, have pronounced themselves as strongly opposed to any weakening of the O.T.A., and speaking for that large prohibition majority, we intend to use all our influence and power to see that only a member who will pledge himself to vote against the present Government sale proposals, and who will support the O.T.A., shall represent this riding."

The Conservative party in Convention nominated Mr. Anthony Rankin, who is pledged to support the government sale proposals of Premier Ferguson.

The Liberal Convention nominated Dr. Ming to be their candidate; and he is pledged in the terms of the above letter, to support the O.T.A. and oppose the government sale proposals. We therefore call upon all loyal supporters of Prohibition, irrespective of party affiliation, to vote for Dr. Ming, who has been a consistent, life-long prohibitionist, and we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to elect the dry candidate.

Signed on behalf of the Executive,

W. S. ANGLIN, Battersea, President.
A. J. WILSON, Napanee, Secretary.

CHANGED ONE LETTER.

How a Serious Political Crisis in Canada Was Averted.

At the period when British Columbia was threatening to withdraw from the Dominion of Canada because the Carnarvon settlement had been ignored by the Mackenzie administration the late Lord Dufferin took part in a public function in Quebec.

While the procession was moving through the principal streets a gentleman, breathless with excitement, hurried up to his excellency's carriage to say a "rebel" arch had been placed across the road so as to identify the viceroy with the approval of the disloyal inscription thereon.

"Can you tell me what words there are on the arch?" quietly asked Dufferin.

"Oh, yes!" replied his informant. "They are 'Carnarvon Terms or Separation.'"

"Send the committee to me," commanded his excellency. "Now, gentlemen," said he, with a smile to the committee, "I'll go under your beautiful arch on one condition. I won't ask you to do much, and I beg but a trifling favor. I merely ask that you alter one letter in your motto. Turn the S into an R—make it 'Carnarvon Terms or Reparation'—and I will gladly pass under it."

The committee yielded, and eventually Dufferin contrived to smooth over the difficulties and to reconcile the malcontents.

SENSES OF TREES.

Something Almost Human In Some of the Plants' Actions.

Mr. James Rodway, who is the curator of the British Guiana museum and an eminent botanist, declares that plants have at least three of our five senses—feeling, taste and smell—and that certain tropical trees smell water from a distance and will move straight toward it.

But trees not in the tropics can do as well. A resident of an old Scotch mansion, says a writer in the Scotsman, found the waste pipe from the house repeatedly choked. Lifting the slabs in the basement paving, he discovered that the pipe was completely encircled by poplar roots. They belonged to a tree that grew some thirty yards away on the opposite side of the house.

Thus the roots had moved steadily toward the house and had penetrated below the foundation and across the basement until they reached their goal, the waste pipe, 150 feet away. Then they had pierced a cement joining and had worked their way in long, tapering lengths inside the pipe for a considerable distance beyond the house.

There seems something almost human in such unerring instinct and perseverance in surmounting obstacles.

And Yet They Say Authors Are Poor.

Authors may not now spurn the offer of money for their work, but they rarely do sometimes fail to cash checks according to the cashier of the Century company. "I don't know what they do with the checks," he said in complaint to a friend the other day, "unless they frame them. Though acknowledgments have proved the receipt of the checks, I am always carrying on the books corresponding accounts that I can't close up for months, sometimes years. I remember especially one check issued to a famous actor and author. He died a number of years ago. The check was made out anew to the estate. Still it is uncashed. There is more than one author I'd bless if he—it is usually he—would only go and get his money."

Ready For the Worst.

"A woman in a parish where I lived," said an English clergyman, "used each day to prepare herself for the worst. I was complimenting her one day on the extreme tidiness of the house even early in the morning.

"'Yes,' she said; 'I always likes to 'ave my bedrooms done hearly, for, as I allus say, you never knows what may 'appen, 'ow soon one of the children may be brought 'ome in a fit or with a broken leg, and, as I allus sez, it don't matter what 'appens so long as you've got a bedroom to put 'em into.'"

Chivalry.

"Do you know," said the particularly well groomed and elaborately vivacious lady in the full bloom of her second youth, "that I have the most wonderful gardener in the world—the tenderest hearted not only of gardeners, but of men? He has always made me up a very special bouquet on my birthday and presented it to me in person. But ever since I was thirty—well, he's only given me a birthday bouquet every third year."

Heroes and Villains.

Men are not made heroes by the performance of an act of heroism, but must be born heroes before they can perform it; so they were not made villains by the commission of a crime, but were villains before they committed it.

Is This So, Ladies?

"They say that a Martian year has over 600 days."

"Possibly it is in Martian years that our ladies give their ages."

OBITUARY.

Little Jimmie White

At Kingston General Hospital, on Wednesday, November 10th, the death angel came with tragic sudden ness to little Jimmie White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. White, Napanee.

Jimmie was a bright little fellow, with a sunny disposition, and although only 4 years and 9 months old, he had understanding and thoughts far beyond his age. He was a member of "The Little Helpers' Class" in the Morven Sunday School, which he attended, and each Sunday repeated with delight the verse assigned him.

The funeral was held on Friday, from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Marshall, Lyn, to the United Church, Lyn. Rev. W. R. Merrick, Pastor of Morven Church, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Delve, Lyn, and used as his text, "My Beloved has gone down into his garden to gather lilies", (Songs of Solomon, 6-2), from which he spoke words of comfort and sympathy. Interment was made in the Lyn cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Wilbert Purvis, Harvey Vickery, Cecil Dickey and Hugh Ferris. The floral tributes which rested on the casket were beautiful. They included:—

Broken Circle, Daddy and Mother; wreath, Grandfather and Grandmother Marshall and Harry; crescent, Lois and Mabel Marshall; sprays, Grandfather and Grandmother White and Victor; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Herbison; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer White; Mr. and Mrs. William T. Grunsell; Mr. and Mrs. Ray White; Mr. and Mrs. J. Mackie Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie White; Katherine White; Mr. and Mrs. Arden Clow; Mr. and Mrs. James Flanigan; "The Little Helpers' Sunday School Class"; a number of the neighbours, including Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Sperry Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perry, Mr. and Mrs. A. Scrimshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Morley Perry.

Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grunsell, Perth; Rev. W. R. Merrick, Napanee; Mr. John Bell, Napanee; and Mr. Frank Lake, Napanee.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents.

GOLF — DALY HANDICAP TROPHY

In October, eighteen years ago, Mr. Herb Daly, then, as now, an enthusiastic golfer, presented to the Napanee Golf Club a handsome silver cup to be competed for each year in a handicap elimination event. This cup has been the source of much friendly competition in our Club, and Mr. J. W. Robinson was the first golfer to win it, having his name inscribed in 1908. The following year the name of Mr. Dudley Hill was added, and in 1910 Mr. R. G. H. Travers won. In the next year Dr. R. A. Leonard's name appeared, and in 1912 Mr. G. P. Carr was the winner. Mr. T. B. German won in 1913, and repeated in 1914, two straight wins for him. In 1915 Mr. T. W. Rhind, then an officer of the Dominion Bank, was successful, and Mr. T. B. German repeated again in 1916. The following year the name of Mr. W. C. Smith appeared, but in 1918 there was no game. In 1919 Dr. R. C. Cattwright won, and in 1920 the name of Mr. G. P. Carr again appeared, and after a period of ten years Dr. R. A. Leonard came back and won the cup in 1921 and in 1922. The following year Mr. Harold Herrington won, and in 1924 Mr. D. B. White was the winner. Last year Mr. Carson Graham proved to be the winning player, and this year Mr. W. J. Wiggins was successful in winning from Mr. W. C. Smith in the final game. This year there were forty-one members who entered last year, and no doubt next year with the improved conditions in connection with the Club House accommodation, and the playing facilities of the course, a greater number of golfers will be taking part in the competitions.

Childhood ailments come quickly and means should always be at hand to promptly fight them. Baby's Own Tablets are the ideal home remedy. They regulate the bowels; sweeten the stomach; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers—in fact they relieve all the minor ills of little ones. Concerning them Mrs. Noise Cadotte, Makamik, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best remedy in the world for little ones. My baby suffered terribly from indigestion and vomiting, but the Tablets soon set her right and now she is in perfect health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Tourist, to little country boy: "Have you lived all your life in this village, my little man?"

Boy: "Naw, not yet!"

Soft corns are difficult to eradicate, but Holloway's Corn Remover will draw them out painlessly.

Ellen—"Home is the dearest spot on earth after all."

Ernest—"Yes, when you count the rent and servants' wages."

Unless worms be expelled from the system, no child can be healthy. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is an excellent medicine to destroy worms.

George—"When we reach the next bend in the road I'm going to stop the car and kiss you."

Geraldine—"That's going just a little bit too far."

Accused (to counsel after the acquittal)—"Thanks, awfully, old man. What on earth should I have done without you?"

"Oh, about five years!"

Time Has Tested It.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been on the market upwards of fifty years, and in that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. It is in high favor throughout Canada and its excellence has carried its fame beyond the seas. If it were double the price it would be a cheap liniment.

Some people do have strange ambitions. I know of a young man who has a burning desire to make good and buy up the firm he works for, but for mere lust of success, but to enjoy the delicious thrill of sacking the boss.

For Catarrh.—It is one of the best recommendations of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil that it can be used internally with as much success as it can outwardly. Sufferers from catarrh will find that the Oil when used according to directions will give prompt relief. Many sufferers from this ailment have found relief in the Oil and have sent testimonials.

A newly-rich man was being shown through a museum of natural history by the curator. "This collection of stuffed birds," explained the curator, "is worth hundreds of pounds." "Is that so?" was the response. "What are they stuffed with?"

Wise and experienced mothers know when their children are troubled with worms and lose no time in applying Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective vermifuge. It is absolute in clearing the system of worms and restoring those healthy conditions without which there can be no comfort for the child, or hope of robust growth. It is a most trustworthy worm exterminator.

While on a visit to the Highlands a gentleman went to hire a carriage for the purpose of taking his family for a drive. He looked at a vehicle and inquired how many it would hold. The proprietor scratched his head thoughtfully. "Well," he said, "it hauds four generally, but six if they are weel acquent."

Wretched From Asthma. Strength of body and vigor of mind are inevitably impaired by the visitations of asthma. While can live under the cloud of recurring attacks and keep body and mind at their full efficiency? Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy dissipates the cloud by removing the cause. It does relieve. It does restore the sufferer to normal bodily trim and mental happiness.

"It is my greatest wish that the party shall hang together," said the man on the platform.

"Hear, hear!" came a voice from the back seat.

"I don't mean in the sense in which that idle scoffer has heard, but would have you understand," went on the speaker with dignity, "but that they may hang together in concord and accord."

"I don't care what kind of a cord it is," came the voice again, "as long as it is a strong cord."

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATICS

If you suffer from torturing rheumatic pains, swollen, twisted joints, and suffer intensely because your system is full of that dangerous poison that makes thousands helpless and kills thousands years before their time, then you need Rheuma, and need it now.

Start taking it to-day. Rheuma acts at once on kidneys, liver, stomach and blood, and you can sincerely exclaim: "Good riddance to bad rubbish."

Many people, the most skeptical of skeptics right in this city and in the country hereabouts, bless the day when Wallace's Drug Store and other druggists offered Rheuma to the afflicted at a small price and guaranteed money refunded if not satisfied. If you have rheumatism get a bottle of Rheuma to-day.

If You Fell Off the Earth.

After you have learned that the earth is spinning through space like a great top and that we are all living on the outside of this top you probably wonder where we would all go if we fell off. The earth itself has enough power of attraction to keep everything on its surface from falling off.

Now, just imagine that this power of attraction stopped altogether. If that happened and you were indoors your head would hit the ceiling. If you were out of doors you would go straight up into the sky for a long time, and gradually you would begin to move slower and slower and slower, for the resistance of the air would retard you. At last you would come to a stop, and there you would stay. And very cold you would find it.

If the air did not resist, with the least little jump you would go sailing off into space. That is the only way you could fall off the earth, when the earth's attraction stopped and when the air did not resist.—Exchange.

Drills Tiny Holes.

Making an adding machine required the drilling of ten holes in a steel plate a thirty-second of an inch thick, each hole to be accurate to a thousandth of an inch, yet no bigger than a pin in diameter. Such a problem stopped the manufacture of the machine on a commercial basis until the inventor of the calculator could invent a means of solving it.

The machine devised stands but twelve inches high. The drill which was built carries ten spindles, each holding a drill of No. 6 Morse gauge, which is about the size of a pin of ordinary use. Each little sliver of steel thus does its work driven by a belt operating through a cam head and therefore works at the same speed as that of its neighbors.

The actual drilling requires ten seconds.

Two Coyotes.

"We watched two coyotes in captivity the other day," said a man interested in humane work. "They were of the same age, of the same parentage on both sides. They have been nearly a year confined in the cage. One of them, the male, is as restless a creature as one might ever see, almost never quiet, hurrying back and forth with rapid steps from one end of the cage to the other, apparently never free from fear, the eye restless and wild. The other, the female, is as gentle as a dog, rises to lean against the bars and be petted, is without fear, a restful, and one might imagine, a contented animal. Here is the old question of heredity. Families of humans present the same problem."—Detroit Free Press.

Turks' Names For Greeks.

The Turks have definite names for the Greeks who inhabit Ottoman territory and for those who are their own masters. The latter are Yunan and their country Yunanistan—names derived from "Ionia"—while the Greeks and Turks are Rum. By origin this is simply "Romans" and is an inheritance from the Byzantine days, when the inhabitants of Constantinople, the new Rome, were called Romaioi, while the provincials were known as Helladikoi. "Rum" was the conquering Turks' name for the Byzantine empire. It survives in Roumelia, while the popular Greek language of the present day is still known as Romaic. But every Greek, in Greece or in Turkey, calls himself a Hellene.—London Spectator.

A Mistake Somewhere.

A helpful friend recently requested us to write a funny piece about a game we used to play in boyhood's glad days called "hiding in the barn." He alleged that part of the gang hid and the rest searched for them, and when they were found all hands jumped and yelled most gleefully. This, he tried to remind us, was very, very funny. Either our memory is failing or we have lost our sense of humor, for as we recollect it our father did the hiding and we jumped and yelled. And it does not seem amusing to us even yet.

Serious Obstacle.

"Has your boy started in business yet?"

"No. He's been out of college over a year now, but he's still looking around."

"Why don't you take him in with you?"

"Well, to tell the truth, he's got his heart set on a job that pays at least $10,000 a year, and I don't make that much myself."

By Way of Contrast.

"There is one good thing about buying a really handsome and expensive dress," said Mrs. Dunting to Mrs. Larkin.

"What is that?"

"Why, you feel as though you really ought to buy another not quite so good to save your best one."

Sympathy.

Husband—Oh, there's that confounded rheumatism again! Wife—I'm so sorry. I wanted to go shopping tomorrow, and your rheumatism is always a sign of rain. Isn't it provoking!

Not For His Business.

"But they say," remarked the patron, "he has a good head for business."

"Nonsense!" replied the barber. "Why, he's absolutely bald."

Anatomical.

Sharing softly leaning in the cradle of his arm, he, hands in his, their hearts in each other's hands.—Jack London's "Martin Eden."

A boring and unpopular member of a club was boasting of his skill at all kinds of sport.

"I have just taken up shooting," he said, "and it comes easy to me. The first time I went out, after about two minutes there lay a rabbit dead at my feet."

"What did it die of?" asked a man in the corner.

Death Valley.

Death valley is a narrow valley between the Panamint and Funeral mountains in California. It is traversed by the Amargura river, which is usually a dry channel, though probably it was formerly full of water. The level of the valley is covered with salt, supposed to have been brought by the torrents from the surrounding desert and left on the evaporation of the water. Death valley is considered to be the hottest and driest place in the United States. A temperature of 122 degrees has been observed.

'Sky Went Along.

A woman was leaving a home where she had been very happy, and, as she boarded the train which was to take her away, the tears came fast. Her little son, anxious to comfort her, tried the effect of a cheering discovery he had just made. "Why, mother!" he exclaimed, "the sky is going right along with us." Other faint-hearted people need to make the same discovery. No matter what we leave behind, the best goes with us.

Find Indian Stone Celts.

In an article on Indian stone celts in the Wisconsin Archeologist, Charles E. Brown, chief of the state historical museum, describes the various classes of celts, or stone hatchets, found in what Wisconsin headlines many of them have been found. Jefferson county has been the source of many celts, and other counties in which they have been found are Dane, Calumet, Brown, Waupaca, Walworth, Winnebago, Waukesha and Washington.

Our War With Spain.

On the 18th of April, 1898, the United States senate and the house of representatives declared jointly that the Cubans "are and of right ought to be free and independent" and empowered President McKinley to use the land and naval forces of the United States to their utmost capacity to carry the resolution into effect. This resolution constituted our declaration of war against Spain.

Battle of San Jacinto.

The battle of San Jacinto was fought April 21, 1836, between 1,000 Mexicans under Santa Anna and 800 Americans under Sam Houston. Santa Anna was defeated and he and 730 of his men were captured, 630 killed and 208 wounded. The Texan loss was 2 killed and 23 wounded. This battle decided the independence of Texas, and the day is observed in the state as a holiday.

The Making of a Match.

Thorpe gives the following proportions for match head and for striking surface: Head composition: Potassium chlorat, five parts; potassium bichromat, two parts; glass powder, three parts; gum, two parts. Rubbing surface: Antimony trisulphid, five parts; red phosphorus, three parts; manganese dioxid, one and one-half parts; glue, four parts.—Electrical Experimenter.

Household Suggestion.

A Los Angeles woman says now that men have been taught to cook and keep house in the army, they should go ahead and cook and keep house indefinitely, leaving the women free to reform the world. Will the women agree, then, not to bring guests home to dinner without first calling up to find out whether there is enough food in the house to feed them?

A Russell Story.

A story that the late G. W. H. Russell told with gusto was of a mayor in a north of England town. His worship presented some seats for the sea front, and had this inscribed on them: "Presented to the borough by the mayor, Ald. Boggins. The sea is his and he made it."—London Chronicle.

Peculiar Feeling.

Celia had been ill for many weeks. One day when she was stronger and had been put in a chair, she slipped down to the floor unseen for a moment on her feet. "Oh," she said, in a much surprised voice, "I feel heavy to myself."

Why Be Thankful?

One good reason for being thankful all the time is that you have cool water to drink, wholesome food to eat, and fresh air to breathe. These make it possible to enjoy the kind of health that brings the state of good feeling called happiness.

Silly Jamie.

The other day Jamie came running into the house crying at the top of his voice. He was followed by Jane, who explained by saying: "Mother, I'm ashamed of Jamie—he's so unbrave, crying 'cause a little dog chased him."

Proper Food Important.

"As a man thinketh so is he." Yes; but also: "As a man eateth so doth he think." For the brain, a part of the body, is built of food.—Los Angeles Times.

"When Winter Comes"

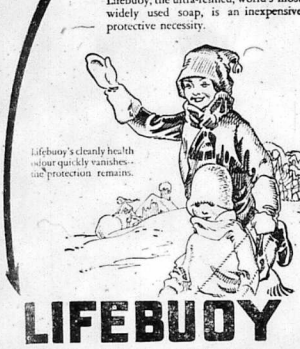
In winter, Lifebuoy, the all-year-round soap for hands and face, bath and shampoo, is especially good because:

It does not remove those natural oils which are necessary to skin health.

Its mild, creamy, antiseptic lather goes deep into the pores, cleansing and purifying.

It rids the hands and face of cold germs which, getting into the nose and mouth, would cause colds—real protection against winter's worst ills.

Lifebuoy, the ultra-refined, world's most widely used soap, is an inexpensive protective necessity.



Lifebuoy's cleanly health odour quickly vanishes—the protection remains.

Sympathy as a Fine Art

Sympathy is one of the fine arts. It should be perfect, not counterfeit; strengthen, not weaken; inspire while it comforts. It is easy enough to say you are sorry; it is easy to grieve with your friend over his trouble and pity him for his misfortune. But the sympathy which is a fine art does not encourage him to give way to despair. It stimulates. It puts hope in place of heartache. It points on and up. Do not wrong your friend with the sympathy which will make him feel like pitying himself.

Josephus.

Flavius Josephus, the most celebrated of Jewish historians, was born at Jerusalem in 37. As a mark of gratitude for favors, he assumed the family name, Flavius, of the Roman emperor Vespasian. The date of his death is unknown. His most important works are "History of the Jewish War," "The Antiquities of the Jews;" two treatises, "Against Aplon of Alexandria" and "A Discourse on the Martyrdom of the Maccabees," and an account of his own life.

Dream Has Physical Basis.

The "falling from a height" dream has a physical basis, for scientists have shown that this form of nightmare invariably occurs during the first few minutes after falling asleep. It is suggested by the general muscular relaxation that takes place when we settle down. A change of position of even a fraction of an inch, or the least little slip of the muscles, is sufficient to convey the idea of a fall to the brain.

Birds Net Man's Enemies.

It is a fact that if it were not for the bird life we would starve to death. The great natural enemy of man is any force that will destroy his foodstuffs. Every field is the home of thousands of insects, and agricultural reports will verify the fact that each year millions of dollars' worth of crops are destroyed by insects. And the birds are the natural enemies of the insect pest.

Her Excuse a Good One.

Carrie was invited to a party. Her mother cautioned her not to begin eating her goodies until all around the table had been helped. Carrie was honored with the first helping to ice cream. In a few moments she said: "Excuse me for eating my ice cream before it melts. I enjoy it best while it is freezed."

The Black Diamond.

Although white diamonds come chiefly from the Transvaal, the black diamond is found in its greatest purity in Brazil and especially in the Province of Bahia. For its finest specimen so far discovered a price of $20,000 was paid—quite insignificant when compared with prices paid for white diamonds.

Is It a Real One?

Here is quite an easy way to tell whether a diamond is a genuine one or not. Make a small dot on a piece of paper with a lead pencil, and look at it through the diamond. If it shows only a single dot it is a genuine stone, but if it shows more than one dot you've been "had."

Marion Coming On.

Living on a farm, the children hear their fathers talk of the different crops. Our little neighbor was over to visit my 1-year-old daughter, who has never had much hair. Returning home, she said to her mother: "Marion is certainly getting a fine crop of hair now."—Chicago Tribune.

Couldn't Risk It.

A good story is told of General Glascock of Georgia. When the latter was, 70 years ago, elected a representative, a friend asked: "General, may I introduce you to Henry Clay?" "No, sir," was the prompt response; "I am his adversary, and choose not to subject myself to his fascination."

Neglected Anaemia

Often Leads to a Decline — Enrich the Blood by Taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

In their early teens it is quite common for girls to outgrow their strength, and mothers should carefully watch the health of their daughters at this time, for it is when strength is sapped by rapid growth that anaemia develops. The first signs may be noticed by peevishness, languor and headaches. The face grows pale, breathlessness and palpitation follow, with low spirits.

At the first symptom of anaemia mothers should act at once. Neglected anaemia often leads to decline, but you see that your daughter's blood is enriched there need be no cause for anxiety. The finest blood enricher ever discovered is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The pure, red blood created by these pills will quickly banish all signs of anaemia. They will build up your girl's health and ensure her a robust girlhood. Give your daughter a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now. Make her strong like thousands of girls who have been rescued from the clutches of anaemia by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Here is a fair proof. Miss Mary Venditti, Catamount, N.B., says:—"Three years ago while attending a convent, I studied very hard to graduate. The result was I became very nervous and got so thin and pale my teachers thought they would have to send me home. I took different kinds of medicine which my parents sent me, but my condition remained unchanged. At last one of my teachers gave me a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I had hardly finished it when I could feel an improvement in my condition. I continued the use of the pills for some time longer, and I can hardly tell all the good they did me. I gained in strength and weight, and the color returned to my cheeks, and at the end of the term I graduated. I never fail to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends and acquaintances when a tonic is needed."

You can get these pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Dietetic Habits.

Some people seem to think that a vegetarian is a curiosity. A rough calculation shows that the population of the world, now estimated approximately at 1,000,000,000, is said to be divided as to dietetic habits about as follows: Strict vegetarians, 250,000,000; practically vegetarians, but eating a little fish or flesh, 450,000,000; eating meat about once a week (on high days and holidays), 500,000,000; eating meat daily and sometimes more than once a day, 400,000,000.

Queer Epitaphs.

Queer epitaphs are frequently fakes; but the following really appears in a Salop churchyard: "Elizabeth, the wife of Richard Barklamb, passed to eternity on Saturday, 21st of May, 1707, in the seventy-first year of her age. Richard Barklamb, the Antespouse Uxorious, was interred here, 26th Jan., 1806, in his eighty-fourth year." What an antespouse uxorious may be is not explained.

Mr. Stainton gave a very interesting talk on India and illustrated it with lantern slides. The Town hall was filled to capacity. After the concert Mrs. Haggard entertained Rev. and Mrs. Stainton, of Adolphustown, and his assistant, Mr. Sharpe, Rev. and Mrs. McQuade, Miss Allison, and a few of the Odessa ladies for lunch. Mrs. (Dr.) Mabee presided over the coffee, and Mrs. S. J. Sproule the ices.

REIDVILLE

(For last week.)

The fine weather of the past week has been greatly appreciated. May it continue.—Miss E. A. Reid is spending some time with her brother, Mr. Archie Reid, Newburgh.—A number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Archie Reid, on Wednesday last at Newburgh. — The ladies of the Camden Vill. United Church held their annual teameeting on Wednesday evening, Nov. 17th.—Mrs. R. J. Wilson was agreeably surprised, on the occasion of her birthday, when her children and grandchildren met at her home and presented her with a beautiful wrist watch, also a letter and gift from Edmund, who is in Seattle, but who was unable to be present, which united him with the family group.—Miss Gilmour spent the week end at her home in Tamworth.—Miss Maggie Close is recovering from her recent illness. — The W. M. S. of Camden Vill. met in the church on Thursday last.

WATER OF PECULIAR VIRTUE

Trouble With Philadelphia Visitor Was That He Didn't Understand Just How to Use It.

Harry N. Taylor, president of the National Coal association, said in Washington:

"It takes an optimist to look at the situation hopefully—an optimist like Rittenhouse Walnut of Philadelphia.

"Rittenhouse Walnut, in the days before Philadelphia got a filter plant, laughed heartily one evening at a friend who complained that the Philadelphia water was too muddy to bathe in.

"'Why, my boy,' said Rittenhouse, 'our Philadelphia water is the best in the world for bathing purposes. Why, it beats Marienbad.'

"'But it's so muddy.'

"'That's the point,' said Rittenhouse. 'It's medicinal mud, full of phosphates and calories and things. Tonight you try a Philadelphia water bath, a good, long bath, and you'll feel like a new man. Let me caution you, though, to use no towel.'

"'No towel?' sneered the other. 'No towel, eh?'

"'No, sir; no towel,' said Rittenhouse. 'Just stand before the radiator and let the water dry on you. Then brush it off.'"

IRREPARABLE LOSS TO WORLD

Treasures of Louvain Library, Destroyed by the Huns, Can by No Possibility Be Replaced.

The completeness with which the famous library of Louvain was destroyed comes out in the report of the American committee which has been visiting the ruin with a view to building a new library of Louvain, which is to be the "free gift of the United States." Some of the walls, pillars and buttresses remain standing, and even retain their carvings and sculptures, but the idea of rebuilding the library has been abandoned. Of the contents of the Louvain library nothing at all is left; the few volumes that were found still retaining their shape crumbled when touched. Aside from the thousands of volumes that can be replaced the ruin contains the copies of at least a thousand manuscripts that were priceless, because it would be impossible to replace them. There were, one may admit, more widely important things in the world, for example, than the two autograph manuscripts of Dionysius Carthusiensis, but Louvain was proud to possess those specimens of his handwriting, and all the wealth of the United States cannot give them back.—Christian Science Monitor.

Don't Miss This

You're behind the times if you don't know, that Cod Liver Extract is one of the greatest flesh producers in the world.

Because it contains more vitalizing vitamines than any food you can get.

You'll be glad to know that McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets come in sugar coated form now, so if you don't care to put 10 or 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh on your bones and feel well and strong and have a complexion that people will admire—ask any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets.

They're 60 cents for 60 tablets and if you don't gain five pounds in 20 days your druggist will hand you back the money you paid for them.

It isn't anything unusual for a person to gain 10 pounds in 30 days, and for old people with feebleness overtaking them they work wonders.

BASKETBALL.

N.C.I. 19, Deseronto 6.

On Wednesday evening the Collegiate Gym. was crowded to the doors to see the N.C.I. Senior Girls trounce Deseronto H. S.'s best 19-6. In an exhibition game of Basketball. The locals were superior at all times than the Deseronto outfit and should have run up a bigger score. Hard luck in their shots was responsible for the low score, as N.C.I. had five shots to Deseronto's one. However, the Deseronto girls deserve great praise for their efforts. They have no place to practice except on an open air court, and consequently the forwards were off in their shooting. The defence was good, considering the tremendous amount of work there was to do. Jean Genereaux stuck to Kathryn Gleeson like a fly all night. However, the elusive Kay refused to be kept down, and some of her baskets were pretty, indeed. Her side-kick Marjorie Daly played equally as good and at times had Alma Gaufin "pop-eyed" following her. Both Kay and Marjorie had extremely hard luck in their shooting. Both scored some spectacular baskets, and on the whole outplayed the visitor's defence. Mildred Rikely and Aileen Harrison are a pair of the niftiest centres in this district. Each combines nicely with the other and seem clever. They both played the entire game on Wednesday, and had a big edge on their rivals, Lil Wagar and Jennie Perry. The latter two Deseronto girls, couldn't keep up the pace set by the local centres and only at times showed real basketball ability. They are good players all right, but don't match up to the playing standard of the locals. Deseronto's forwards, Thelma Foote and Aileen Normile, were completely smothered by the local defence. Neither of them had a chance against the fleet local defence and were held in check at all times. Grace Boyes and Marion Roblin, the N.C.I.'s stonewall defence, certainly gave the appearance of a stonewall on Wednesday. They checked their opponents to a standstill, and at all times had the better of the argument.

Miss McLaughlin handled the whistle and gave entire satisfaction.

The game was honoured by the return of several Old Boys to watch the present generation in action. Chief among these were Mr. Gerald Gleeson and Ray Dickson, of the Standard Bank, and Mr. Ralph Black and Thomas McGrory, of the Dominion Bank. These celebrities were much impressed in the appearance of the school.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Rawlinson, Sillsville, on Monday evening, November 15th, to present Miss Hattie Rawlinson with a few gifts in appreciation of her services. The following articles were received :—

OBITUARY

Thomas Alexander Galt.

The death occurred at his late residence, North Fredericksburgh, on Tuesday, Nov. 9th, 1926, of Thomas Alexander Galt.

The deceased was born in South Fredericksburgh, at Galt's Corners, sixty-eight years ago, being the fourth son of John B. and Jemima Galt, who came over from Carrickfergus, North Ireland, and settled there. He was one of the boys of that neighborhood who attended the old Napanee High School on Roblin's Hill, graduating as a school teacher, and teaching on the Palace Road, in the old Pringle neighborhood, and at Hayburn. During the years that he taught in the latter school he was converted in special meetings, and decided to enter the Methodist ministry. He took charge of services under the Rev. Wm. H. Young, now of St. Catharines, who was Pastor of the Adolphustown Circuit at that time. After fitting himself for the ministry, he was Pastor on Melrose circuit and at Cobourg. While on the last charge he contracted a heavy cold which affected his voice, and he was forced to take a rest. He went to Chicago to visit his sister, the late Mrs. S. Leonard, and accepted a position with the Ohio Telephone Company at first as bookkeeper, and afterwards as Superintendent of the Burglary Alarm Service of the Company, being in their employ for thirty-five years. Just a year ago, owing to failing health, he retired from active work, coming back to his dearly loved country and birthplace.

The late Mr. Galt was a man of keen mind and sterling character. He was a brilliant conversationalist and had a keen grasp of the political situation not only in Canada, but in the United States. He was a kind husband, a loving father, and a true friend, and many, both here and in Chicago will regret to hear of his death.

He is survived by his widow, Francis Leonard, an old Westbrooke girl, whom he married in Chicago, and one son, Robert T. Galt, 2234 Sacramento Ave., Chicago, who lived with him during the last two weeks of his illness; also one brother, Mr. Finley B. Galt, who resides on the old home. There are also a number of nephews and nieces, who mourn the passing of a beloved uncle.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Friday afternoon, Nov. 12th, and he was laid to rest in the family plot at the old Presbyterian Church, Sandhurst.

Allen McDonald.

The citizens of Napanee were greatly shocked to learn on Friday morning of last week of the death of Mr. Allen McDonald, the well known barber on John street, which occurred at his late residence in the early hours of Friday morning, Nov. 19th. The deceased although not feeling quite as well as usual during the past week, had been at his shop every day, and a few hours before his death had assisted in a program which was given in the school room of St. Mary Magdalene Church, he being a member of St. Andrew's Church Orchestra. Shortly after the close of the concert he complained, came down to his shop, and on returning home was suddenly stricken with acute indigestion. A doctor was at once summoned, but nothing could be done to stay life.

The late Mr. McDonald, "Mac" as he was known to everyone, with his wife and two children came to Napanee from Toronto about four years ago, he having purchased the tonsorial parlor from Mr. Arthur Young. In his brief residence in town he had built up a splendid business, he being a skilled worker and very popular with every one.

On the formation of St. Andrew's Orchestra three years ago he became a member and every Sunday, rain or shine, he was in his accustomed seat at the Sunday School assisting the orchestra in the musical part of the service.

The deceased was a member of St. Andrew's Church, a staunch Conservative and an active member of the Orangemen. In fraternal, musical and business circles he will be missed, and the sympathy of the community is extended to the grief stricken widow and two fatherless children over the sad and irreparable loss which they have sustained.

Steward Meeks.

The death occurred in Napanee, on Thursday, Nov. 18th, of Steward Meeks, a lifelong resident of Napanee. The deceased met with an accident about two months ago while unloading coal from a coal boat at Gleeson's wharf. He fell from the runway above, striking his head against the gunwale of the boat, and fracturing his skull. He was taken to the General Hospital, Kingston, but little hope was held out for his recovery. On Wednesday of last week he was brought home, and the end came on Thursday. Deceased was of a friendly disposition, was a carpenter by trade, and was well known in Napanee and district. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. The service was conducted at the house by Mr. Crossley, of the Brethren, and was largely attended by friends of the deceased. He leaves surviving his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Earl Lake, of Toronto.

SIR WILLIAM HEARST DEFENDS HIS OLD CABINET COLLEAGUE

To the Editor of The Globe : The Toronto Star, in its issue of Saturday, the 20th inst., under the heading "Blames G. H. Ferguson for Hearst's Defeat," quotes the Rev. J. W. Lowry, Prohibition candidate in St. George Riding, as making the following statement at a meeting in Sherbourne Street United Church :

"The man who assassinated Sir William Hearst, politically and every other way, was the honorable or dishonorable G. Howard Ferguson."

The Star must surely have blundered. Mr. Lowry an injustice. I know Mr. Lowry and nothing short of positive proof will convince me that he used language with reference to the Prime Minister of this great Christian Province so uncharitable and undignified and so absolutely without foundation in fact. The charge, however, is so unfair and so false that it is my duty to contradict it without delay. No Prime Minister ever had a more faithful colleague than I had in Mr. Ferguson. No man ever fought a harder or more unselfish fight for a leader than Mr. Ferguson fought for me in 1919. Not only his loyal support, politically, but his many personal acts of kindness during the trying campaign of 1919, will ever be remembered by me.

I have known Mr. Ferguson intimately for many years, and know him to be an honorable and upright gentleman, a patriotic citizen, a loyal colleague and a true friend.

May I add that the Ontario Temperance Act could never have been enacted, had it not been for the wholehearted support, able assistance and active co-operation of Mr. Ferguson. Prior to the session of 1916, while I was ill in bed and unable to attend to my public duties, he was busy drafting the act and laying plans to insure its enactment.

I know Mr. Ferguson as I know few other men, and am proud to call him my friend. He is honest with a high sense of public duty and a sincere and earnest desire to advance the moral welfare of the Province and help his fellow-man.

It would be base ingratitude on my part if I permitted to go unchallenged so unwarranted a charge with reference to the attitude toward me of one I ever found a loyal colleague, and a true friend. Particularly when such charge is reported to have been made in a church of which I have the honor to be a humble member.

W. H. HEARST.

Toronto, Nov. 20th, 1926.

A PLEA FOR TOLERATION

To the Editor of The Globe : I want to say two things about the present election campaign. First, I am impressed with Mr. Ferguson's sincerity. When he says, in substance, that his life is bound up in the moral welfare of this Province, I believe he means every word of it. However, his political life has made an insurmountable mind the impression of secrecy and the suspicion of duplicity. If he would take the public into his confidence, as well as his friends, and appear open and transparent, as Mr. Whitney did, he would more fully imitate that great man. I always approved the policy of Mr. Whitney before the war—the policy of attrition, of slow and firm progress in temperance legislation. But we have gone forward a long way since then, and now I think the evidence against Government control is overwhelming. I think we are now in a mind to say : "What we have we hold." I shall feel very sorry if the O. T. A. is defeated.

The other thing I want to say is that sorry as I would be to see the O.T.A. lost, I am more sorry to read the ill-bred, ignorant and cruel things which are said about some who favor Government control. I will not share the shame of those who say such things. Nearly every one wants to do what is best, and should be spoken kindly of. I spent a lifetime in the pulpit, and became convinced that a minister should think twice before advising his people how to vote. Temperance is a moral question on which all are agreed, but the method of temperance is not a moral question, and on the method all are not agreed. Men as wise and good as I am do not see all in all as I see. If I were a pastor now and said anything to my congregation, it would be for each to vote according to his conscientious judgment.

(REV.) THOS. MANNING.

Toronto, Nov. 15th.

The list of beneficiaries under the Mothers' Allowance Commission, was read and filed.

A notice to the County, re making a roadway over a ditch at Centreville, was read and referred to the County Road Superintendent.

James Burns, Erinsville, presented a claim for damages to car on County Road, north of Erinsville. Referred to Clerk and Road Superintendent.

A communication from the School Trustees, Ratepayers' Association, asking for information re payments to Continuation and High Schools, was filed.

CONFERENCE HELD ON LANDS REGULATIONS

Changes Made to Facilitate Public Business and Assist Those Developing Natural Resources

With the object of maintaining the administration of Dominion Lands at the highest state of efficiency the superintendents, inspectors and agents of Dominion lands in the West were called to Ottawa in June last by the Minister of the Interior, and conferred for ten days with the Commissioner of Dominion Lands and the heads of branches of the department, on all matters relating to lands — homesteading, mining, timber and grazing, seed grain, etc. The results of the conference were embodied in a series of recommendations which were presented to the Minister for his consideration and approval. Many of the recommendations dealt with the internal economy of the lands offices but all of them were drafted with the object of facilitating the transaction of public business and of assisting those citizens who are developing the resources in or connected with Canada's public lands. The recommendations are being dealt with by the Minister of the Interior as rapidly as possible, but as some can be brought into effect only by Order in Council and others only by an amendment to an Act of Parliament they cannot all be authorized at the same time.

All persons interested will receive information concerning the changes upon applying to any agent of Dominion Lands.

ERNESTTOWN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Prospects indeed look very bright for the newly-formed Ernesttown branch of the Women's Institute, which was systematically organized under the able management of Mrs. Jas. B. Miller, Napanee, District President, and Mrs. A. P. Young, Bath, district Secretary, at the home of Mrs. Frederick Hamm, on Friday afternoon, Nov. 19th.

Forty faces were to be seen "In friendship's circle bright". The afternoon opened by singing "O Canada", and the repeating of the Lord's Prayer in unison. Then Mrs. Miller gave an interesting and thorough address on the "Institute", under the following heads: Origin, Development, Motto, Work, and Programme. All were in favor of organizing a branch after hearing the above mentioned paper, and hence the election of officers followed. The Executive unanimously chosen consists of Mrs. Frederick Hamm, President; Mrs. Joel Kellar, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Edward Smith, 2nd Vice; Mrs. Herbert Laidley, Secretary Treasurer; Mrs. Walter Hagerman, Pianist; Mrs. Gordon L. Young, Press Reporter.

The Institute being duly organized, the officers took their respective chairs, and a short business meeting followed. After singing the "National Ode", membership fees were collected, twenty-seven ladies enthusiastically joining. It was voted to hold the regular meetings the first Tuesday of each month at 2 p.m., and Mrs. Hamm is again kindly opening her home for the first meeting on December 7th. Mrs. Miller then interested us all so much by giving a splendid paper on "An Institute Woman". The meeting closed in singing "The National Anthem".

We were also socially entertained by our hostess, who served a delicious lunch. The afternoon was brought to a happy ending by a vote of thanks being tendered to the district representatives for their good work, and to Mrs. Hamm, and the singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow", in Mrs. Hamm's honour.

ODESSA WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The November meeting of the Odessa Women's Institute was held in the Public Library. Good suggestions were given in answer to the roll call, "Ways to use Scraps of Cloth, Soap and Meat". There were seventeen members present and five visitors. Sewing was brought in, some given out, also yarn for knitting.

Mrs. J. H. Babcock gave a splendid paper and demonstration on what could be done with odds and ends of cloth, one worthy of mention being a pair of mittens made from an old sweater.

The next meeting will be held in the Library on December 1st, at 2.30 p.m. The roll call will be "A Beautiful Thought in Poetry or Prose".

Everyone is welcome. The meetings are very interesting and instructive. Don't forget the date. Come out to vote and stay for the meeting.

HYATT & ASSELSTINE. 47b

Bath in West Africa.

The Bantu of West Africa makes elaborate preparations for a real soak by digging a hole in the ground, in which he puts seven herbs, a quantity of peppers, earthnuts seeds and bushes, then he pours in a lot of boiling hot water. After he gets in a fight frame covered with clay is put over the hole to keep in the steam. After hours of steaming the lather emerges and is washed off with clean water, then kneaded by a professional for one hour, when he dons his sooty clothing and goes his way "shivering with cleanness."

Shellac.

Shellac is the joint product of insects and plants and comes from India. The lac insects are about 1/25 of an inch long, a bright red in color. They suck the juices of plants, digest them and exude them in the form of resin, which soon encases the whole insect. When the young insects have swarmed out, the resin is scraped from the branches, ground, washed, mixed with colophony and orpiment, cooled slowly and drawn out into the thin sheets we know as shellac.

Charles Darwin's Boyhood.

Doctor Butler, the headmaster at Shrewsbury school, had often to call Charles Darwin (the most eminent naturalist of the nineteenth century) to task for inattention and laziness during his studies. The only thing that seemed to interest him was the collecting of caterpillars, worms, and all sorts of creeping things, and the risking of his own and his brother's life by dangerous chemical experiments.

Hydrogen and Oxygen Gases.

Oxygen and hydrogen are very different gases; the former helps other substances to burn, but is not itself inflammable, while the latter is inflammable, but does not support the combustion of other materials. For this reason hydrogen gas will not set fire to the oil as oxygen would do, but as it is an inflammable gas it is very dangerous to handle and care should be exercised.

Anything Is Possible.

While one man says of a thing: "It is impossible!" and contents himself with saying so, another one passes him and does it. This has been the history of the world's progress ever since time began. We cannot say of anything that it is impossible in this marvelous world of invention and endeavor. We can only say: "It has never yet been done."

Growth of Postal System.

The first street letter boxes were erected in New York and Boston August 2, 1853. April 6, 1860, congress enacted that letters uncalled for should be returned to the address of the writer when printed on the envelope. Money order service began in the United States November 1, 1864. The international money order system was established three years later.

Music in Church.

For almost a thousand years Gregorian chant, without any instrumental or harmonic addition, was the only music used in connection with the liturgy of the church. The organ in its primitive and rude form was the first instrument to be introduced into church, and for a long time was the sole instrument to accompany the chant.

SCIATIC SUFFERING

Comes Because the Nerves Are Starved for Better Blood.

There are excellent reasons why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved beneficial in the most severe cases of sciatica, neuralgia and other complaints in that group known as disorders of the nerves. Each of these complaints exist because the blood is thin and watery, and the nerves are thus literally starving for the nourishment rich red blood supplies them. Any increase, therefore, in the richness of the blood speedily and beneficially acts upon the nerves and the torturing pains of sciatica and neuralgia disappear. It is because of their specific action on the blood, thus feeding the starved nerves that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been so successful in the treatment of these troubles. As proof of this we give the case of Mrs. P. N. Bezanson, South Alton, N.S., who says:—"Two years ago I was attacked with sciatica and neuralgia in my back and leg. The pain was so severe that I could not walk. Even to move caused me agony, and I had to go to bed. The doctor called in was not able to do more than deaden the pain, and I had been in bed for six weeks when my grandmother came to see me and strongly urged me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. She said she had had a similar attack and it was these pills that had restored her to health. I at once got a supply and had only used four boxes when I found great relief. Gladly I kept on taking the pills, and soon after found myself as well as ever I had been. Gratitude for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for me makes me urge others similarly afflicted to try them."

You can get these pills from your druggist, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Surprised Mother.

The missionary society was meeting at our house and the woman who was to lead the devotionals took the elastic band from her Bible, laid it on her lap and began to turn the pages to find the passage she was to read. During the solemn silence my young son marched over to her and, picking up the elastic, he announced: "Why, that's my mother's garter!"—Grit.

Not Strong on Ablution.

The Ainu feels that he washing his face and hands on great occasions he has paid a debt to civilization. The Tibetan considers that the oil of the body contributes needed warmth in his mountain life and refuses to wash it away, but does not object to washing his face and the tips of his fingers once in awhile.

Pots Used to Swell Sound.

The ancient Greeks, to secure resonance without the use of woodwork, placed under the seats of their theaters earthen pots, with the mouths turned toward the stage, the vibrating mass of air in these serving to reenforce the sound.

"How quickly we now get Long Distance connections"

"I AM surprised and delighted," said one of our largest users of Long Distance, "to find how quickly we are now able to get a Long Distance connection. This marked speeding up of the service enables us to call our dealers twice a month to check their stock and book their orders, and to make a score of contacts on the instant."

Changes in equipment and intensive training of our staff have made speedy Long Distance service an accomplished fact. There are only a few localities where the changes have not yet been completed.

Has your business been quick to profit by this almost revolutionary speeding up of Long Distance Service?

If you are able to give the Long Distance Operator the distant number, she will appreciate your co-operation, but whether you know the distant number or not the Long Distance Operator will do her utmost to get the party you want while you hold the line.

Liked the Name.

One of the government-owned dwellings near the Union station, Washington, is occupied by a stout colored woman who has converted it into a small hotel for folks of the darker race. Over the door is a signboard with the inscription, "The Annex." I asked the woman to what other hotel was her place an annex. "Oh," she replied, "dat's jes de name of my hotel. Dar ain't no other hotel 'nected with it. I jes thought de word 'Annex' 'cause it sounds high-toned like."—Washington Herald.

Animals as Weather Prophets.

Few beliefs are older or more widespread than that animals, and especially wild animals, have foreknowledge of what the weather is to be, and something that amounts to such foreknowledge many of them doubtless do possess, but there is no reason, and only poor excuses, for assuming that there is a source of information accurate enough and of application remote enough to give any appreciable extension to the weather bureau's prognostications.—Exchange.

Customs Worth Preserving.

In Bavaria, before the war at least, there were all sorts of kindly little celebrations and other things which made life friendlier and more pleasant. If an employee had remained in the same place for five, seven, ten years, etc., his employer frequently gave him a sort of little jubilee celebration. Nor did the employees forget the chief's birthday or "nameday." Nothing expensive—a glass or two of wine, a cake, a little friendly speech.

A Learned Capital.

Athens, capital of the Swiss canton of Argovia, possesses one of the hardest working libraries in the world. Though the library consists of only 50,000 volumes—which is not so large as public institutions go in the United States—the population of the capital itself is only 10,000. With eight volumes per inhabitant, the library of Aarau has just come to boast of itself as a miniature Athens.

Things Mend.

Every line of history inspires a confidence that we shall not die for wrong; that things mend. That is the moral of all we learn, that it warrants Hope the prolific mother of reforms. Our part is plainly not to throw ourselves across the track, to block improvement and sit till we are stone, but to watch the uprise of successive mornings and to conspire with the new works of new days.—Emerson.

The Tricolor.

This really owes its origin to Mary Queen of Scots. It was she who, according to tradition, gave the tricolor device to Paris—the white to represent the house of her royal husband, the dauphin, the blue for Scotland, and the red for the red-coated Scots of the royal bodyguard. The Revolution lists in 1789 adopted Mary's colors for their own.

Tree Furnished Timber for Church.

A unique church has recently been completed in Santa Rosa, Cal. Every piece of timber in it, except the floor, was cut from one tree—a giant redwood, 18 feet in diameter. The tree which produced 78,000 feet of timber, grew on a high mountain range near Greenville, 15 miles from the Pacific ocean, and when cut was found to be about eight hundred years old.

First Lifeboat Still in Existence.

The first lifeboat ever made is still in existence in Yorkshire. It was constructed in 1802, to be used "for saving life in storms or other dangers to ships." A poor shipwright invented and made it, and parliament considered his labor and skill so meritorious that it voted him the sum of $2,000 as a reward.

DECEMBER ROD AND GUN

With the arrival of the hunting season comes the December issue of Rod and Gun with a stock of hunting matter appropriate to the season. "The Old Gray Buck" by Theo. J. Stocks which appears in this issue, while not a story of big bags, is one that will appeal to men with the hunt in their thoughts. Bonnycastle Dale also hunts deer in Nova Scotia, but with a camera. Henry A. Braithwaite, well known eastern guide, tells of his experience with Moose, while Martin Hunter tells a typical story in "The Wolf Cub of the Labrador." James Frise has a timely full page cartoon in the December number.

A good yarn of a day's adventures on a B.C. river trip is told under the title of "A Chapter of Accidents." In Outdoor Talk, W. C. Motley has another interesting wood craft article, while the Guns and Ammunition Department edited by C. S. Landis has some good dope for the man interested in guns as Fishing Notes has also for the angler and Kennel Notes for the dog fancier.

Rod and Gun is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Selfishness Gains Nothing.

Men should see life as more than a means of personal advancement. Selfishness may achieve, but its inglorious name will soon be forgotten in the round of yesterdays. It's life that lives for the common good that lays tribute on humanity and carves an indelible name in the very foundations of history. Call it Utopian if you will. Facts show that men must die to really live. And men who give themselves to humau betterment live as they raise others from unremunerable drudgery to honorable toil and common comforts.

Prolific Mesquite Tree.

A historical mesquite tree still down in Honolulu, Hawaii, October 23, 1919, which served as a valuable source of seed, and had been a landmark attracting the interest of thousands of tourists traversing the Pacific ocean, had, during the ninety-two years of its existence, been the progenitor of thousands of trees which now cover throughout the Hawaiian island group approximately 90,000 acres of mostly barren land which formerly was worthless.

Standard English Pound.

The original English pound was derived from the weight of 7,680 grains of wheat taken from the middle of the ears and well dried. This remained the standard from the time of William the Conqueror to the time of Henry VIII, in whose reign the avoirdupois pound of 7,000 grains came into use. This was established as the standard pound during the reign of Queen Elizabeth and has been continued to the present day.

Cornish Tin Miners.

The men who work in the Cornish tin mines are a class by themselves, and all their differences are adjusted by the stannary courts, as they are called from the Latin word stannum. These curious courts have existed in their present form since the middle of the thirteenth century, and, in a simpler form, much earlier; and the miners claim to be free from all other jurisdiction, "except in matters affecting the land, life or limb."

Useful Kerosene.

Housewives, with but few exceptions, do not properly value kerosene. As a lubricant a drop or two will set things going which refused to go before. As a cleanser it can often be used with great advantage in place of soap and water. Floors can be more quickly and more thoroughly cleaned with a well-oiled mop than with soap and water, leaving a bright, shining surface.

Pacific Ocean Once South Sea.

The South sea is the name originally given and sometimes still applied to the Pacific ocean. In 1513 Balboa crossed the isthmus and arrived on September 29 at a mountain, from the summit of which, looking south, he beheld the expanse of the ocean stretching out before him, while the northern part was closed from view. He named it, therefore, the South sea.

Dignified Protest.

It is told of an old negro servant of roguish propensities, as many a darky is, that on one occasion he was unjustly reprimanded by his master for the disappearance of a certain article of value. His reply was: "Marse Andrew, I has enuff to answer for 'ceit the accusations what is jest, without having to be sponsible for dem what aint so."

Introduction of the Umbrella.

The umbrella was used in England only as luxurious sunshade early in the seventeenth century. Ben Jonson mentions it in a comedy produced in 1616. The eighteenth century had half elapsed before the umbrella had even begun to be used in England by both sexes as it is now.

Prairie Dogs.

The little ground squirrels, or prairie dogs of the western plains, have their homes 12 or 15 feet underground, with corridors and rooms. In some of these chambers the squirrel family lives, and in others food and various materials are stored.

True Happiness.

Happiness consists in the enjoyment of little pleasures, scattered along the common path of life, which, in the eager search for some great and exciting joy, we are apt to overlook.—Exchange.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY WALK

Mrs. Horn Tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Hamilton, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and would not be without it now. I had a female trouble so badly I could hardly walk and I was all run down and could hardly get around to do my housework. I would be in bed three or four days at a time. I was told by a friend to try your Vegetable Compound. I did, and by the time I took two bottles I was beginning to get around again. I took ten bottles in all, and now I am all right again and do my own work. I have six grown-ups to work for, so I have plenty to do. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and I think it is good. But I owe my health to the Vegetable Compound, and I think if more of it was used women would be better off. I would not be without it if it cost much more."—Mrs. NELLIE HORN, 28 St. Matthews Avenue, Hamilton, Ontario.

Do you feel broken down, nervous and weak sometimes? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently, will relieve this condition. C

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Wilson, Camden East.

One beautiful eve at end of day,
A voice was calling, seemed to say,
"Ye, who are weary come and rest,
Lay down thy head upon my breast.
Come follow me, and I will guide
Thy footsteps over Jordon's tide."
My parents with joy heard the sweet command,
And tenderly took their Saviour's hand.

OBITUARY

Mrs. James Brandon.

At her residence on Piety Hill, Napanee, on Monday, Nov. 22nd, Mrs. James Brandon, widow of the late James Brandon, passed away, after an illness of two months. She was a resident of Piety Hill for fifty-two years. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss, a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Beattie Wallace, a granddaughter, Miss Helen Brandon Wallace, two sisters, Mrs. Wannamaker, of Consecon; Miss Mitchelson, of Belleville, and a brother, William Mitchelson, of Brooksby, Saskatchewan.

Nancy Irish Ward.

There passed to rest, at the home of her daughter, on November 15th, 1926, Nancy Irish Ward, who was born October 6th, 1838.

Mrs. Ward had been a great sufferer for many years, but always kept her keen interest in all branches of church work and community welfare. She was a much loved member of the Colebrooke Ladies' Aid, which she helped to organize, and of which she was the first President. She was also a member of the Moscow W.M.S., and in earlier years a valued teacher in the Colebrooke Sunday School.

In 1863 she was married to Charles Ward, and together they celebrated their golden wedding, March 29th, 1913. Mr. Ward passed away January 5th, 1914, and since then she spent most of her time with her daughter at Moscow.

She was the last member of a large family, and leaves to mourn her loss, her only child, Mrs. C. A. Baker, Moscow, and two grandchildren, Ward and Kathryn Baker.

She was a most patient sufferer, and a very kind and cheerful friend to all she met. Her many friends always found a cheery smile and a real welcome each time they came to visit her, and it was one of her greatest pleasures that her friends came often to see her, especially during her last few years.

She was a member of the United Church at Colebrooke, and her perfect confidence in her Saviour was a help to all.

Always a lover of flowers, the many beautiful floral tributes seemed a well chosen way of expressing the esteem in which she was held.

The funeral services were conducted at the home of her son-in-law, C. A. Baker, Moscow, on Thursday, Nov. 18th, 1926, by her Pastor, Rev. Mr. McKenzie, and burial took place at Wilton cemetery.

WESLEY

Who said Wesley was dead? Why even the coons are heard yet. — The anniversary services, which were held on Sunday last, were well attended, and everybody reports a good time at the tea meeting held on Monday evening. — Sunday visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. L. Price and son, of Selby, at Mrs. R. B. Perry's; the Wilson family, of Switzerville, at Mr. Walter Paul's; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moore, Floyd and Clarence, at Mr. Robert Cook's; Mrs. Walroth, Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks and son at Mr. Percy Yeomans'; Miss L. Reid at Mr. Ed. Hannah's; Rev. and Mrs. Anderson at Mrs. Price's; Mr. and Mrs. George McKeown at Mr. Richard Cook's; Mr. Roy Bray took tea with Alfred Miller. — Miss Verla Brown spent the week-end with Miss Grace Moore.—Miss Annie Brooks spent the week-end with Miss Helen Yeomans; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Asselstine visited a few days with Mrs. William Miller.—We are glad that Josephine Wartman is improving, after her serious illness. — Mrs. Walter Clancy has returned, after a two weeks' visit at Kingston. — Mrs. Baker Allan and son are spending a few days at M.. Simon Cook's.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear Mother, Bertha Fox, who departed this life on Nov. 25th, 1924.

Two long years since you left us, mother,
But with patience, we walk this way of pain;
And we long to see your presence,
And to hear your sweet voice again.
But we know that you are happy,
In the Master's loving care;
And that no more pain or sorrow
Will ever be your share.
So we will be brave, dear mother,
And pray to God each day,
That with joy we may dwell together
In that land of endless day.

Sadly missed by Husband, Sons, and Daughter. 48ap

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear daughter, Phyllis Fox, who departed this life on Nov. 25th, 1924.

We loved her, yes, we loved her,
But Angles loved her best;
The call was short, the blow severe,
To part with one we loved so dear.

The golden gate was open,
A gentle voice said come,
And with farewells unspoken,
She calmly entered home.

Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Sisters and Brother. 48ap

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Mr. Thomas Martin, who died one year ago, Nov. 23rd, 1925.

Dearest loved one, thou hast left us,
And our loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet, dearest one, we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
When in Heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Sadly missed by Wife and Children. 48a

TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The sermon subject for next Sunday is "Righteousness, Temperance and Judgment to Come."

The Reidville teameeting was well attended and the menu for both mind and body left nothing much to be desired. Enterprise, Desmond and Tamworth helped generously with the program. S?o were taken in at the door.

The Enterprise Young People were the guests of the Tamworth Young People last Tuesday night. Enterprise furnishing the program, and Tamworth the games and refreshments.

Rev. A. S. Doggett's pulpit ministrations last Sunday were very much appreciated by all three congregations of the Tamworth charge. The minister, by special request, presented the temperance issue of the campaign to the three congregations of the Harrowsmith charge.

A good deal of interest in Marlbank and community is centering around the Ladies' Aid bazaar in the afternoon and the Young Peoples' play in the evening of Saturday next. Don't fail to hear and see "The Deacon Entangled."

BETHANY

A very pleasant social evening of the Ladies' Aid was spent at the home of the President, Mrs. Joseph Hicks, on Monday evening. — Mr. and Mrs. James R. Miller have returned home, after spending a week with relatives in Syracuse, N.Y. — A number from here serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Walter Joyce, Gretna, on their return from their honeymoon on Friday evening last. — Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dempsey spent Sunday at H. Martin's.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Conger attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Laird, Napanee, on Monday evening. — The fishermen are getting quite a good catch of herring now. — Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller are spending some time with their daughter, Mrs. Karl Whonhart, Syracuse. — Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howell and children at Geo. Burtch's on Sunday.

TO THE ELECTORS OF FRONTENAC-LENNOX

Ladies and Gentlemen :

As you are aware, I am a candidate for election to the Legislature on December 1st, and respectfully solicit your votes and influence.

Much to my regret I find it impossible to make a personal canvass of the whole riding, due to the short time at my disposal since the date of the election was fixed, and the condition of the roads, which are particularly bad at this season of the year. The Redistribution Bill, passed at the last session of the Legislature, on division, has deprived rural Ontario of ten members, a splendid success. — Rev. Mr. Doggett, of Harrowsmith, preached an eloquent sermon here on Sunday. Quite a number of the Enterprise people attended the service.—Messrs. Hannah and A. Fingland shipped two carloads of hogs to Toronto last week.—Miss M. Gilmour is preparing her pupils for a Xmas. concert.—We are pleased to note that Mrs. J. Reid and Miss M. Close are able to be around again, after their recent illness.—Mr. Geo. McLaren treated himself to a new car.—Quite a number attened the West Ever demonstration at Mrs. Fred Gale's. The evening was interesting and instructive.—Mrs. Geo. McLaren spent the week end in Toronto.

In my opinion the liquor sale proposals of the Ferguson Government, which my opponent has pledged himself to support, would mean a return of the old conditions of misery, want, destitution and poverty. Bootlegging, according to the reports of other provinces which have had the experience of Government sale, will flourish more than ever. Is the province to be overrun by bootleggers? Are our highways to be endangered by bootleggers' trucks and cars?

The issue is clear cut, it is the Ontario Temperance Act, or some undefined form of liquor sale.

I feel sure, on mature consideration that you will do your duty, not only to yourselves, but to the Province and the young people upon whom, in time, our province and country must depend.

Yours faithfully,

EDWARD MING,

48a Liberal and Prohibitionist Candidate.

REIDVILLE

Favoured with ideal weather, the annual teameeting and concert in connection with the United Church was a splendid success. — Rev. Mr. Doggett, of Harrowsmith, preached an eloquent sermon here on Sunday. Quite a number of the Enterprise people attended the service.—Messrs. Hannah and A. Fingland shipped two carloads of hogs to Toronto last week.—Miss M. Gilmour is preparing her pupils for a Xmas. concert.—We are pleased to note that Mrs. J. Reid and Miss M. Close are able to be around again, after their recent illness.—Mr. Geo. McLaren treated himself to a new car.—Quite a number attened the West Ever demonstration at Mrs. Fred Gale's. The evening was interesting and instructive.—Mrs. Geo. McLaren spent the week end in Toronto.

In the proportion of the total power demand met by water-power Canada occupies a unique position. The Census of Central Electric Power Stations shows that 99 per cent. of the total installation is in hydraulic plant and that this furnishes over 98 per cent of the total output.

BASKETBALL

On Friday evening, three Belleville H. S. Basketball teams tried to show local fans, students and players how basketball should be played. However, the Bellevilletes learned more about how to play the game than they had ever known before and only their Junior girls were able to come out on top. The Collegiate Senior Girls had it all over the Belleville girls and had an easy time winning by 26-16. The Collegiate boys quintet emerged victors by 31-26, after a hard tussle with the Belleville H. S. Seniors, but the Juniors went under by 20-15.

N.C.I. 26, B.H.S. 16.

The local Senior girls had a rather strenuous workout with the Belleville Seniors, and easily carried off a 26-6 victory. The shooting of the two forwards, Katherine Gleeson and Marjorie Daly, stood out. Both players could find the basket from any distance or angle, and some of their shots bordered on the sensational. At all times they exhibited smart basketball, and are two of as good forwards as there are around here.

As usual, Aileen Harrison and Mill Rikely, featured the game with their smart passing and combination efforts. If there are any better centres in this district than these two girls, we'd like to see them. Then comes the real reason why N.C.I. won so easily. That defence ! Grace Boyes and Marion Roblin are that well-near impregnable defence. While their forwards were scoring baskets, Grace and Marion were preventing Belleville from following suit. Both played real star games, their checking and passing being of a high order.

For Belleville, Jean Ramsay and Miss Mossman were best. All the others played nice games, but their work was overshadowed by that of the locals.

Miss McLaughlin refereed.

N.C.I. Boys 31, Belleville 26.

Belleville boys started off like whirlwinds by netting a basket in about 10 seconds after play started, but the locals came right back and won by 3 baskets. The play was fast and furious from whistle to whistle, with N.C.I. having a slight edge on their much bigger and heavier opponents. In Davidson, Belleville presented a player whose head nearly reached the gallery. All the others were much taller and heavier than the locals, but certainly were not as basketball players. The local regulars were much the better team. The forwards showed more accuracy in scoring than their rivals. The defence worked hard throughout. The locals combined nicely with each other and did some smart individual work. Belleville, however, showed real basketball as a team. They also combined nicely for baskets, and all showed themselves to be good players.

Claude Fraser, local forward, was the high-scorer of either team with 7 field goals, a total of 14 points. Faulkner, Belleville centre, was next with 6 field goals, and 1 free throw. Malcolm Corkill, local centre, was 3rd, with four field goals and 1 free throw.

Mr. J. S. Murray refereed and gave entire satisfaction.

The teams and points scored were: N.C.I.—Forwards, Conway, Fraser (14); centre, Corkill (9); defence, Deline (2), Cowle (1); subs, Way (4), Wright (2), Gibbard, Graham.

Belleville—Forwards, Gilbert (3), McNee (4); centre, Faulkner (13); defence, Cook (2), Byrnes (2); subs, Galway (1), Redferon (2), Davidson.

Belleville 20, N.C.I. 15.

The Junior game was a scrappy battle from start to finish. N.C.I. led 5-2 at half time. The second period started with the locals playing right away, and in no time Belleville led 19-9. Then, of a sudden, the locals rallied and started bombarding the Belleville basket. All the girls suddenly got in a hurry and the score began to climb. However, the whistle stopped the rush, and Belleville won 20-15.

The N.C.I. defence played hard throughout, both Marion Douglas and Marion Grass playing real basketball. However, there was too much work for them to do, and the fast Belleville team soon began dropping them through.

The two local centres, Edna Aylsworth and Dorothy Wilson, will improve with experience, and are not quite ripe for interscholastic basketball. The forwards, Agnes Cavanaugh and Ruth Dickson, didn't have the ball enough to score many baskets to win, but they made them count when they did get the ball.

Belleville forwards were very accurate shots and were constantly "fed the ball" by their fleet centres, the Misses Wilkins and Ellerbeck were best.

On the night's play N.C.I. really won. The local Collegians scored 72 points to Belleville's 62.

N.C.I. have had to pick a nearly new team this year. However, there is a large squad of aspirants out every night at the gym., and Mr. Murray is rounding them into shape. Eddie Way, sub centre, needs experience, otherwise he is a good player. Ernie Gibbard, playing his first game, was used as a sub on Friday, and got in some good work. With a few games behind him he will be a valuable performer. Carson Graham is suffering from an injured knee, the result of a rugby match. He is a fine defence player, and it is indeed unfortunate that his knee bothers him.

"Why don't you call me a donkey and have done with it? You've hinted at long enough," said the henpecked husband.

"It wouldn't be quite true," Mrs. Meek replied.

"I suppose not. I haven't ears long enough for that animal," he retorted, sarcastically.

"Oh, yes, you have," she returned, sweetly. "You don't need longer ears."

"What do I need then?"

"Two more legs and a better voice."

How to Relieve Children's Colds

Avoid Serious Results by Using Baby's Own Tablets

When a child shows the first symptoms of a cold, such as sneezing, redness of the eyes, clogged or running nose, prompt measures for relief may avert serious results. Mothers should always have on hand some simple, safe and effective remedy for immediate use.

Baby's Own Tablets act quickly, contain no opiates or narcotics, are tasteless and harmless. Mrs. Joseph Cadieux, Holyoke, Mass., says:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my children and find them a very satisfactory medicine. When my little boy had a cold I gave him the Tablets at night and he was well next day. I give them to the children for constipation and they always do good. I think Baby's Own Tablets are much easier to give a child than liquid medicine. I recommend the Tablets to all mothers who have small children and believe they should always be kept on hand."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Many mothers have reason to bless Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator because it has relieved the little ones of suffering and made them healthy.

"How old are you?"

Ebby—"Eleven."

"But you were only five last year."

"That's right. So this year and five last year. That makes eleven."

For Rheumatic Pains — The pains and aches of Sciatica and Rheumatism should be treated with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The soothing and healing properties of this famous remedy have been demonstrated for fifty years. Use it also for inflammatory pains, cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains, either in human beings or the lower animals.

Little Willie had been helping father with a new fowl pen when quite suddenly he came running into the house crying very loudly.

"Whatever is the matter, Willie?" said mother in a soothing tone.

"Papa's hit his finger with the hammer," came the sobbing reply.

"Well, you mustn't cry over that," said mother, "you should think it very funny and laugh."

"I did!" said Willie.

For Both House and Stable. — There is a deal of similarity physically speaking, between human beings and the lower animals. Both are subject to many ailments arising from inflammation and to all manner of cuts and bruises. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is an entirely reliable remedy for such ailments and mishaps in both human beings and the lower orders of animals.

Little George was caught in the act. He was up a pear tree with his pockets full of fruit, while below was a bull terrier, trying wildly and frantically to reach him.

And the farmer had just come up, the owner.

"What d'ye want, up my pear tree?" asked the farmer in gruff and angry tones.

"P-p-please, sir, I'm t-t-trying to teach your nice d-d-dog to stand on his h-hind legs."

NERO'S GOLDEN HOUSE.

Wrecked Roman Emperor Had a Colossal Palace.

The wicked Roman Emperor Nero, notable for his debaucheries, his extravagances, his cruel treatment of the early Christians, and, among other things, the murder of his mother, built the costliest palace that the world has ever known or probably ever will know. It was called the "Domus Aurea," or Golden House.

Remains of one end of this colossal dwelling have just been unearthed in the course of excavations being carried on under Governmental and scientific supervision. Many extraordinary discoveries have been made, and many more still more extraordinary ones are sure to follow. The digging so far has been done only on the Palatine Hill, and is a part of the investigations which followed the expulsion of the Germans from their diplomatic colony there at the beginning of the Great War. The site is being uncovered, and the form of the Golden House, with its lakes and gardens, is rapidly taking shape.

Modern civilization can boast of nothing to be compared with the palace of Nero's. It stretched from the Palatine across the low ground, whereon afterwards the Colosseum was built, to the Esquiline, thus linking and crowning two of Rome's seven hills. From Latin authorities such as Suetonius and Tacitus we know that its cost was fabulous. No one has ever been able to estimate that cost exactly.

No matter what accusations have been brought against Nero, none has ever denied his astonishing imagination. On the Golden House he let this imagination run riot. It is set down that it contained one hundred thousand rooms of all kinds. Scores of these had their walls overlaid with semi-gold, studded with "precious stones, and hung with masterpieces of art.

To defray its enormous cost not only were Italy and the Roman provinces ransacked and taxed to the utmost, but the Roman possessions in Greece and Asia were despoiled of their wealth. Just as another Roman Emperor wished the Roman people had but one head that he might cut it off at a blow, so Nero tried to concentrate in his Golden House the riches of his empire. He very nearly succeeded.

It was not only the Golden House itself, linking the two hills, that made it one of the wonders of the ancient world. The magnificent gardens, their lakes and meadows and woods that the Emperor caused to surround it, must have their share of glory.

They sprang into being a few months after the conflagration which Nero is credited with having started, and which, the popular legend has it, he watched while fiddling. The idea of the Golden House seems to have been born in his mind through the great fire, whether he played the violin during its progress or not.

It was not long after that the foundations of the palace were laid, and thousands of slaves and workmen began to transform the burned area into the earthly paradise of woods and lakes and gardens that it became. Whole groves of trees were as carefully and scientifically uprooted and replanted as they are to-day about some new millionaire's estate.

Crabs Like Coconuts.

Probably not one person in a hundred realizes that this large hairy nut at one of the commonest of tropical crabs. It can actually climb the trees in search of them and to nip them off with its great pincer claws.

Will Help League.

Leon Bourgeois, president of the French Senate, has tendered his resignation to that body in order that he might devote the remainder of his life to the promotion of the League of Nations. Evidently France is beginning to conclude that the League will prove no serious obstacle to the enlargement of French dominion Rhinewards. M. Bourgeois is as thoroughly French and safe as his name indicates. He was the first president of the League of Nations Assembly and was at one time mentioned as a likely candidate for president of the Republic.

It is considered that with his great and mature political abilities he will be able to serve France better at Geneva than in the Lycee Palace as titular head of the new France. An elder statesman, he is still vigorous in mind and body.

To Detect Flaws.

A piano is used in an English locomotive works as a detector of hidden flaws. As the component parts are brought together for assembly a man with a hammer goes all over each. If the metal rings true with a note on the piano then all is well, but if it is a trifle sharp or flat a flaw is indicated and can be remedied.

Flags Are Laundried.

A Pacific steamship that is noted for the fresh appearance of its flags gives out the information that it sends them to the laundry almost as often as it sends the table linen. On shipboard fog and smoke soon dim the bright colors of a flag.

A census of the Buffalo herds in the various national parks of Canada taken on December 31st, 1925, shows that in Buffalo Park, Wainwright, there were 8,373 buffalo; in Elk Island park, 446; and in Banff park, 23.

Moth Proof Bags for your furs, at Hooper's Drug Store.

Birds That Speak.

Ravens, crows and magpies are all better speakers than parrots. They are not so versatile and the sounds they utter are less varied, but their voices and articulation are far more human. A crow's talk in the next room may easily be mistaken for that of a person. Parrots are the best imitators, that is to say, they mimic whistling and other noises, particularly laughing, to admiration. It has been remarked that their voices in speaking are like that of a crazy person.

The Milkweed.

The milkweed, a plant that has a much longer name than that, but one which would not be nearly as attractive for us to use, is especially well-known in America. In the autumn when the pods have opened and there is a brisk breeze, the wind carries their seeds far and near. Then the downy seeds are seen flying like tiny airships almost everywhere, in search of a homelike growing place, where they may appear in the spring as tall, slender stalks.

To Open New Books.

Touch the children early how to timber up the bindings of their new books. Don't let them crack the binding open, to the ruin of the back. Rest the book back down on a table and, holding the body of the leaves firm, open first a page or two at the front, then a few at the back and so on till the volume lies easily open to the center. A book put into commission in this scientific fashion has a fair chance of long life.

Precious Wood Carefully Preserved.

The rarest of all precious woods is said to be the calamander, a tree which grows in Ceylon, where it is held in reverent awe. The wood is beautifully mottled in veining when polished, but its almost priceless value is due a good deal to its rarity. At one time the trees were quite plentiful in Ceylon, but only a comparatively few specimens remain, and all these are numbered and jealously guarded by the government.

Lead and Steel.

Lead is said to act like steel at ordinary temperatures in liquid air. It will serve as a bolted spring, for example. This behavior of soft non-elastic metals is interesting. It shows how very important temperature is. Just as iron is soft and inelastic at a high red color, so lead is dull and soft at ordinary temperatures, for it is well on its way to be melted.

Wedding Superstitions.

The popularity of June for weddings is due to the prevalence of the idea that June takes an especial interest in marriage and she protects and blesses all who are wedded in June. The girl who becomes a bride on Christmas day has nothing to fear. If a widow marries a second time in the same month in which she was married before, she will be a widow twice.

Tunis Agricultural State.

The regency of Tunis, having its northern or Mediterranean limit in the same latitudinal position as the state of North Carolina and, like North Carolina, supporting an estimated population of 2,000,000 on an area of about 50,000 square miles, is essentially an agricultural country, deriving its wealth from farms and mine.

The Sunflower in Russia.

Sunflower cultivation has become an industry in southern Russia, where the people have found the seeds a substitute for olives in making oil. The Russian eats the kernel. An acre of sunflowers yields about 60 bushels of seeds, and these in turn yield more than 50 gallons of oil.

Given the Leavings.

At the close of formal dinners in Japan the guests are presented with any meat they may have failed to eat. However great or small the quantity they may have left, it is carefully wrapped up, and they are expected to take it home.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Nutmeg Once a Perfume.

In olden times the ladies in England used nutmegs as a perfume. The nutmegs were set in silver and ornamented with pearl and precious stones, and hung from a lady's belt like a modern scent-bottle!

Insect Mother's Sacrifice.

The last act in the life of the female cochineal insect is to lay a large number of eggs, upon which her dead body rests, protecting them from the burning rays of the sun until the little ones emerge.

The Human Touch Lacking.

A way is said to have been found for washing linen by electricity. In future patrons will have to tear the buttonholes themselves.—Punch, London.

Never Fined for Speeding.

"Humbleness may drive unto a fine," says Shakespeare in "The Merchant of Venice." Must mean for obstructing the traffic.—Boston Transcript.

Growth.

Married people should try to learn how to grow towards each other. No other thing, marriage least of all, can be allowed to grow untended. It takes pains and thought, as well as unselfishness, to grow good marriages.—Woman's Magazine.

Census Data Grow.

The statistics of the first census of the United States were published in one small volume consisting of 56 pages. The statistics of the 1910 census required 12 volumes having more than 40,000 pages.

Vaccination's Power.

According to a recent report vaccination is rapidly dying out. Yet there is nothing like vaccination to bring a fellow up to the scratch.—Exchange.

Mending China.

Broken china after mending should be allowed to "set" in a box of sawdust. Place in any desired position and its own weight will hold the piece steady until the cement hardens.

The Victim's Pelt.

For our part, whenever we see a woman with $1,000 worth of fur on we wonder who her husband skinned. —Dallas News.

Inverse Ratio.

Jud Tunkins has noticed that as the contents of a package grow smaller the bragging on the label gets bigger.

A young clerk was spending an evening in a country inn full of company, and, feeling secure in the possession of most money, made the following offer:

"I will drop money into a hat with any man in the room. The man who holds out longest to have the lot and treat the company."

"I'll do it," said one of the farmers present.

The clerk dropped in a ten-shilling Treasury note. The farmer followed with a sixpence.

"GGo on," said the clerk.

"I can't," said the farmer; "so you take the lot and treat the company."

If You See It In

The Beaver

It's So

Feeding the Bedridden.

Administering liquid food or medicine to persons lying on their backs in bed is difficult, even for a trained nurse. A novel hospital drinking glass overcomes this difficulty, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The lower portion of the vessel is similar in shape to an ordinary tumbler. On top of this is a tapering bowl, which is provided with an eccentrically placed, slanting opening. If not more than half filled the device can be held in a nearly horizontal position without spilling the contents.

How Fish Eat.

When a codfish eats it takes an oyster in its mouth, cracks the shell, digests the meat, and ejects the shell. Crabs crack the shells of their smaller neighbors and suck out their meat. This accounts for the mounds of shells which are found beneath the waves. And, as further illustrating the constant destruction going on in the oceans' depth, it is said that if a ship sinks at sea it will be eaten by the fish with the exception of its metal portions.

Simple Explanation.

Why is it that fishes make no disturbance when swimming through the water, although there is a rushing noise when a stone is flung in? This is explained by the fact that, in the latter case, it is the filling of the cavity that is made, rather than the mere impact, which causes the noise, whereas the body of the fish is so shaped that when it moves through the water it leaves no such cavity behind it and therefore there is no disturbance.

That Busy Stork.

Elizabeth is a clever, observing little girl. A few months ago a baby brother came into the family, and it was duly explained to her that the stork brought it. On her birthday, when she was admitted to the room where her gifts were displayed, she spied a large doll sitting on a little chair. She regarded it attentively for a moment, then remarked as if to herself: "If that stork hasn't been here again!"

Pin and Candle Auction.

The many centuries old custom of letting "Poor Folk's Close" every fifth year has again been observed at Old Holdenhoke, where Henry IV. was born in 1366. The biddings cease when a pin inserted in a burning candle falls. The field, three acres, was let for £12 10s. For about twenty years it has not made more than £5.—London Daily Mail.

"Tempus Fugit."

The teacher gave Margaret some yarn and cardboard, and after showing her how to work a design, told her to finish it at home. When she came to school the next day with the half-finished work, the teacher asked her why she had not finished it; if she had run out of yarn. "Oh, no," answered Margaret; "I just run'd out of time."

Reasons for Using Stone.

The forest rangers on Mount Rainier have a house on top of the mountains built of stone, whereas under usual conditions it is the custom to construct these buildings of wood. The proximity of the stone and the scarcity of wood and the difficulty of obtaining it from the lower levels is responsible for this departure.

Superstition Concerning Diamond.

The losing of a diamond is considered, apart from its material value, an omen of mishap. To be officious as a talisman the diamond should be given freely, and "never sold, never lent, never coveted, and never taken by fraud or force."

A Failure In Life.

A sad story reaches us from Southwest London. It appears that a girl of twenty attempted suicide because she realized she was too old to write either a popular novel or a book of poems.—From Punch, London.

Redeemed Early Failure.

Thomas Chambers, the noted missionary and preacher, was the despair of his school teacher. Another famous preacher, Isaac Barrow, was so slow and quarrelsome that he was counted a disgrace to the school.

Baby's Dire Peril.

Mother and little Kathryn were upstairs when they heard little sister fall off the couch. Kathryn said: "O, mother, if that baby doesn't stop falling she's going to ruin herself."

Dogs Taxed According to Size.

In some of the cities of Europe a dog is taxed according to its size—a little tax for a little dog and a big tax for a big dog.

The "Game" of Life.

Life is like a game of whist. I don't enjoy the game much, but I like to play my cards well and see what will be the end of it.—George Eliot.

No Danger.

"Work never killed no one yet. No, and it ain't going to kill me!"—Drowsy Dan.

Dogs' Feet a Delicacy.

In the Island of Formosa dogs' feet are considered a great delicacy.

SORE THROAT?

DEAL promptly with the first sign of hoarseness, soreness or inflammation—it might be the forerunner of laryngitis, influenza or serious bronchial trouble.

The quickest, safest and most soothing remedy is Peps. As a Peps tablet dissolves in the mouth it gives off medicinal fumes that are breathed into the innermost recesses of throat and chest.

In their speedy direct way Peps thoroughly disinfect the throat and air-tubes, destroy mischievous germs, relieve any soreness, inflammation or irritation.

Take Peps whenever you suspect you need them. A Peps in the mouth filters the air you breathe, and fortifies against sudden colds and chills and the infection dangers encountered in trains, street cars and crowded assemblies.

Peps are equally good for obstinate coughs and colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma, and other chest weaknesses of old and young

INJECTION-KILLING TABLETS

The Name Taffy.

The name Taffy is a nickname for the whole Welsh people. The word is simply Davy (David), pronounced with an initial "t." Sawney (Alexander) the most common Scotch name; Pat (Patrick) the most common Irish name; and John Bull the most common English name. Each is used to designate the race or nationality to which it belongs. A similar case is Brother Jonathan, once commonly used to designate the people of the United States, but now largely superseded by Uncle Sam.

Memoranda in Glass.

A reader tells us that with the use of gum tragacanth, allowing a week for drying, two sheets of glass can be joined with a sheet of paper between them, without the slightest staining of the paper. It is suggested that this provides a new and useful means of making paper weights and other glass articles with calendars, etc., imbedded in them. The gum, while still wet, appears to have stained the paper; but every trace of this disappears as the drying out proceeds.—Scientific American.

Pasteurizing Milk.

The milk in the bottles may be placed in a boiler in which cold water comes up to the necks of the bottles. The boiler is then placed on the stove and heated until the water reaches a temperature of 145 degrees Fahrenheit as determined by the thermometer, where it is maintained for 20 minutes. The bottles are then removed, cooled in running water, and kept sealed until the milk is ready to serve. Pasteurization kills disease-causing germs.

Wonderful Natural Spectacle.

The Garden of the Gods is a tract of land about 500 acres in extent, near Colorado Springs, Colo. It abounds in weird and fantastic pinnacles of red and white sandstone, some of them more than 300 feet high. Among the chief features are the Cathedral Spires, the Balanced Rock, etc. The gateway of the garden consists of two enormous masses of red sandstone, 330 feet high, sufficiently far apart for the roadway to pass between them.

Water on the Brain.

To many people it will come as a surprise to learn that our brains contain from 80 to 90 per cent of water, the remaining 10 or 20 per cent being a mass of white and gray matter, to which scientists have given various impressive names. Incidentally it might be mentioned that the average weight of a man's brain is about 49 ounces, and a woman's 43 ounces.

Japanese Smoking Customs.

Smoking is very common in Japan. All the men and most of the ladies smoke, the latter usually when they are about ten years of age. The ladies have pipes with longer stems than the men, and if one of them wishes to show a gentleman a special mark of favor, she lights her pipe, takes a whiff, hands it to him, and lets him smoke.

Canada's mining industries showed continued progress in the first half of 1926 and production reports from almost every field pointed to the establishment of new records during the present year according to a statement issued from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Valued at $98,395,788 the output of metals and non-metallic minerals including coal, gas and oil, in the first six months of 1926 marked an advance of $8,048,090 or 8.9 per cent over the totals reported for the first half of 1925.

Another member of the wedding party is still living—Miss Jane Milligan, now Mrs. Geo. Lucas, Sr., who was bridesmaid. Mr. Davy, aged 84, and Mrs. Davy, aged 80, are enjoying the best of health and brightest of intellects. Their family consisted of six children, five of whom are living. They have seven grandchildren and one great grandchild. A family re-union is being planned for the celebration.

Memorial Service in St. Andrew's Church.
On Sunday, Nov. 21st, at 12 a.m., a very impressive service in memory of the late Mr. A. L. McDonald, was held in the school room of St. Andrew's Church. The Orchestra with their families, friends of the deceased and members of the Sabbath School, gathered to pay respect to their late secretary. The drums and chair so lately used by him were appropriately draped, while beneath a cross crowned with a beautiful wreath were these words, "In memory of his faithful service". The Superintendent, Mr. J. H. Moffat, conducted the service, and Rev. A. J. Wilson very feelingly paid tribute to his faithfulness in Christian service. Mrs. Arthur Kimmerly very sympathetically rendered the solo, "Face to Face". Mr. McDonald will be sadly missed in the church, as he was much loved for his genial manner and willingness to assist in church work.

N.C.I. TOPPLES DESERONTO AGAIN

On Tuesday afternoon, N.C.I. defeated Deseronto H. S. Rugby team 1-0, for the second time this year. Deseronto are champions of the Bay of Quinte League, and haven't lost a game in the league, but N.C.I. showed them who's who. The last half of the game was played in darkness with the locals hanging to a 1-0 lead. Deseronto secured the ball on N.C.I.'s 1 yard line, but three times failed to gain an inch and Deseronto lost the ball. Had the Deserontoians elected to kick they would have at least tied the score. Two N.C.I. bucks gained five yards and then the final whistle blew. The game was featured by runs by Cole of Deseronto, and smart tackling by Wright, Deline and others on the local squad.

ST. MARY'S AND GRACE WIN AGAIN

A fair crowd turned out on Tuesday for the Inter-Church doubleheader in the Armouries. Grace and St. Mary's won again, but each had to play ball to do it.

Grace 18, Trinity 11.

Grace started the proceedings by trimming Trinity 18-11, after a scrappy battle. Grace won on their merits, their hitting being hard and sure. That Grace Church battery, Mary Stinson and Hazel O'Neill, are getting better every time out. Mary is getting more speed in her delivery and Hazel is getting her throws to the bases more accurate. Both played smart ball on Tuesday. Grace Harrigan played a nice game at 1b, and Marion Douglas did nicely at s.s., her hitting being hard. The same goes for Margaret Douglas at 2b. Marion Thompson turned in a nice game at s.s., her baserunning being very good. Dorothy Lucas did some nice fielding at 3b, and her hitting added the speed a pitcher should have. However, she will improve as the season advances. Mae Hawley did the catching and turned in a nice game for a newcomer. With a few games behind her she will be a fine catcher. She hats well, and does good receiving and throwing to bases. Miss Jackson did some smart fielding at 1b and was equally as effective at bat. Alma McKnight's fielding at s.s. was one of the features of the game. She didn't make an error all evening, while Ruth Dickson at 2b played almost a perfect game both at bat and in the field. Helen Drake played nice ball at s.s., her fielding being especially good. Kathleen Dickson played a nice game at 3rd but was removed in favor of Mil Rikely, who played a nice game, in left field up to this time. Edna Aylsworth in centre played a nice game and made a pretty catch. Lenore Black played a nice game in right field, but it is a mystery why she doesn't connect more often. She has a good batting stance but fails to deliver the goods.

Umpires—Bentley and Fraser.

St. Mary's 20, St. Andrew's 7.

St. Andrew's surprised the fans by the stubborn fight they put up against the league-leaders. However their bad innings accounted for 9 Anglican runs and the game.

Marjorie Daly, St. Andrew's pitcher, pitched a real steller game. Her support was good except in the 5th, when the Anglicans put 6 counters across the plate. She helped the Presbyterian cause with a lusty batting and several other hard drives. Mildred Blackadder is fast rounding into a nice catcher, and Miss Oliver at 1b is one of the best first-stackers in the league. She certainly knows her business as a ball-player. Gladys Fogg made the best catch of the evening when she speared a liner and Enid Pingland turned in a nice game at 2b. Kathleen Henderson at "short", and Jean McGraw at 3b, both played nice ball, while Marion Roblin, and Fern Booth played fair ball in the outfield. That Presbyterian team is coming along fine. Before the season is over, they'll be heard from.

For St. Mary's, all played nice games. Of course they were expected to win, and they did, although they had to play to do it. St. Mary's have the hardest hitting infield in the league in Irene Emory, Marion Emmbury, Joe Clarke, Leonora Fraser and Dorothy Hagan. All are sure fielders, and that outfield of Frances Wright, Noreen Johnston and Hazel Sampson, all play nice ball. The battery of Marion Grass and Dorothy Johnston, is well known to the fans. Umpires—Bentley and Taylor.

The church hall was handsomely decorated, and the many tables of beautiful and useful articles were well disposed of. The lunch room was a great attraction, meals being served on the cafeteria plan, and an abundance of delicious eatables were enjoyed. A very fine entertainment in the Sunday School room followed, consisting of dialogues, recitations, vocal and instrumental selections. The Public School pupils who had been trained for the school concert by Mrs. A. E. Huggard and Miss Allison, gave several numbers well worthy of praise. Much credit is due the ladies of the Society for their untiring efforts to make the bazaar such a success. The handsome sum of $260.00 was realized.

TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The sermon subject for next Sunday is "The Gospel According to You."

The Marlhank Ladies' Aid had a busy day last Saturday, dinner, bazaar and luncheon, with the Young People's play at night. We have not heard the exact amount of the proceeds, but understand that it passed the $100.00 mark.

On Friday night last Rev. R. T. Richards, of Mark Street United Church, Peterboro', gave, in the Orange Hall, at Marlbank, a very forcible and instructive discussion of the temperance situation in Ontario.

We welcome to our village and church Mr. and Mrs. Krieger and family, who have recently moved from Croydon and opened a general store in the building formerly occupied by H. E. Thornton.

In your plans for next Saturday arrange to attend the bazaar and take dinner with the Ladies' Aid in the R. E. building in the afternoon, and see "The Beauty Entangled" in the Town Hall in the evening.

Now that the election is over we will try and settle ourselves to the new situation and apply ourselves more diligently to the ordinary duties of life. Part of the duties for the pastoral charge will be the raising of our allocation for the M. and E. Fund.

DORLAND

Despite the very disagreeable weather last Friday night a pleasant evening was enjoyed at the Y. P. S. Party. All the appointments on the circuit were represented and a lively programme was rendered. The address given by Rev. H. Bunt, of Enterprise, "The Challenge to the Young People of This Day", was earnest and educative. The chief topic of the evening was the great temperance fight.—The young people are holding a reception at the home of Mr. J. A. Humphrey on Friday evening.—Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson have moved to W. E. Buck's.—E. McCrow, of Kingston, has purchased a number of beef cattle in this vicinity.—This promises to be a very busy week, with both the pending fair election, but the important part is to roll up a good dry majority.

THE "SANTA CLAUS" FUND

THE COLD SNAP BRINGS VISIONS OF CHRISTMAS.

This is poultry day in Napanee. The streets are lined with cars, waggons and buggies, all laden with choice poultry. It looks as though there would be plenty of merry Christmas dinners this winter. Far and wide from the town will go these fowl to grace the table on Christmas.

And yet right here in Napanee there are some who will go without a real Xmas unless the people of the town who can well afford come to their assistance.

The Beaver for a number of years has endeavored to see that no child in the town should go without a real visit from Saint Nicholas. In the past it has been a source of happiness and comfort to a great many, and a careful survey is made of the town, and the money received is well and economically spent by a representative committee appointed by The Beaver. Full details are published of the number helped, and the amount spent.

Who will bring or send thy first subscription?

Make all cheques payable to "Beaver Santa Claus Fund".

Conservatives Sweep Province

Premier Ferguson's Majority in Last House Increased

All of the Retiring Ministers Re-Elected Except One—The Government Will Have Majority of Forty Over All Others—81 Supporters of Government Control—Dr. E. Ming Elected in Frontenac-Lennox.

One to Hear From (Manitoulin)	1

The remarkable record of the Conservative Government during the past three and a half years had its reward at the polls on Wednesday, when, at the end one of the most intensive campaigns which Ontario has ever witnessed, Hon. G. Howard Ferguson was returned as Prime Minister with a clear-cut majority which will enable him to carry on his progressive policies unhampered. At the same time, the people of Ontario declared by their votes that they had grown weary of prohibition, and that Hon. Mr. Ferguson should have a free hand to bring into effect his Government control proposals which aim at a truer form of temperance than has existed in this Province for some years. When the violent nature of the campaign waged against Hon. Mr. Ferguson and his Government is taken into consideration, the tribute paid to him on Wednesday by the electors is one of the most remarkable demonstrations of popularity which has ever been accorded to a Prime Minister in this Province or in any other.

At a late hour Wednesday night, when 111 out of the 112 seats were heard from, the returns showed 76 Conservatives elected, all of whom were pledged to support Government control. In addition, five anti-prohibition Liberals were elected, thus giving a total of 81 members of the Legislature pledged to support Hon. Mr. Ferguson's Government control measure when it is introduced in the House.

Some of the ridings which won particular attention owing to the heat of the campaign, were West Hastings, Prince Edward, Kingston, South Ontario and North Huron. In West Hastings, W. H. Ireland, Conservative Whip, stood up against a strong prohibition situation and won by nearly 2,500 votes. In Prince Edward, Hon. W. E. Raney, Progressive leader and former Attorney-General in the Drury Government, who made such a faliure of the enforcement of the Ontario Temperance Act and whose failure was largely responsible for the strong sentiment which grew up all over the Province in favor of Government control, won by a narrow majority. In view of the situation in Prince Edward, Hon. Mr. Raney's majority is as good as a defeat. In looking about for a safe seat, Hon. Mr. Raney nicked one which, during the 1924 plebiscite, gave a majority of 5,160 in favor of the O.T.A. In spite of that majority in his favor, the former Attorney-General was able to establish a lead of only 44 over Horace Colliver, the former Conservative member. Mr. Colliver put up a remarkable fight, and Hon. Mr. Raney has nothing upon which to pride himself. The fact that the leading advocate of prohibition was able to hold only a small percentage of the majority in the riding is one of the strongest commendations of Government control to be witnessed in the whole of the election.

A second protagonist of prohibition, Hon. W. F. Nickle, former Attorney-General in the Ferguson Government, who broke from the party and ran as a prohibitionist candidate in Kingston, met a striking rebuke from the citizens of his home city. Hon. Mr. Nickle was defeated by approximately 2,500 votes by a candidate who never before had experience in the Provincial field of politics. But that result was only a repetition of what went on from end to end of the Province.

DR. MING ELECTED

The results in Frontenac-Lennox gives Dr. Ming a majority of nearly 500. The doctor carried his own county (Lennox) by about 800, while his opponent, Mr. Rankin, who lives in Frontenac, secured a plurality of nearly 300 in his riding. Following are the returns as complete as they are available up to the time of going to press:

WEDDING BELLS

Humphrey-Rawlinson.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rawlinson, "Windermere," on Thursday evening, Nov. 25th, when their eldest daughter, Harriette Alice, was united in marriage to Rosa Melvon Humphrey, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Humphrey. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Stainton. The home was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Wm. McCrudden, the bride entered the room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, and took her place beneath an archway of evergreens and flowers. The bride looked charming in a gown of coral georgette over rose, with inserts of gold lace, blond shoes and hose to match, and carried a corsage bouquet of pale pink Ophelia roses and ferns. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Mansel Berry, who wore rose satin and carried carnations and ferns. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Roy Humphrey.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Stainton sang "I Love You, Dear," and while the young couple were receiving congratulations Mrs. McCrudden played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, after which a reception was held.

Later the bride and groom left on a trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N.Y. Th ebride received many beautiful and useful gifts, being a testimony of the popularity of the bride and groom.

Ever Catch a Mierepterus?

The black bass are of two species—the small-mouth black bass and the large-mouth black bass, writes Dr. B. W. Shufeldt in the American Forestry Magazine. Both belong to the genus Micropterus, and are readily distinguished through the fact that in the former the angle of the gape of the mouth is back of the imaginary vertical line from the center of the pupil of the eye upon either side. Scrappy are these fish that they are known as the "gamefish of the North," and anglers prefer to fish for them above all other kinds.

"Jephthah Vow."

This is a vow which is to be kept regardless of consequences, and is commonly supposed to be derived from the Bible story of Jephthah, the leader of a band of brigands. Before going to battle against the Ammonites, he vowed, if successful, he would offer as a sacrifice whatever was the first thing to cross the threshold of his own door when he returned triumphant. His daughter was the first one to appear in response to the vow, and she sacrificed her according to his vow.

Long Thumbs, Strong Wills.

If the top joint of your thumb is long, it shows that you have good will power. Well-developed, reasoning faculties are possessed by those people who have thumbs, the second joints of which are long. Thumbs that work easily are owned by careless, happy-go-lucky, spendthrift individuals. A stiff, firm-joined thumb, however, shows that the person is keen, mental, self-possessed, and cautious—the sort of man who would get on in the world.

Where We Get Pineapples.

Singapore was formerly the chief source of the world's supply of pineapples, but our fresh fruits now come mainly from the West Indies—principally from Cuba, Porto Rico and the Bahamas—and our supply of canned fruit from Hawaii. The first attempt to grow the pineapple in the United States was made at St. Augustine in 1830. Florida, however, can never hope to compete with her more favored rivals in this industry.

Almost Paradise on Earth.

In the fortunate Bermudas there are no reptiles to alarm; the indigenous small lizard is not even dazzling in appearance, and the green turtle is translatable into delicious soup. Of birds and fish the islands have a splendid store; Bermudians would not starve to death even should the importation of meat from this country cease.

Save Telegraph Poles.

Of 1,558 telegraph poles in the Montgomery-New Orleans line, which were pressure-treated with a light creosote oil, 1,040 poles were still sound after 16 years, says the American Forestry Magazine. In 91 per cent of the cases of decay, the fungi had entered the wood through checks and shakes.

There's a Reason

For the sure results you get from using THE BEAVER'S Classified Advertisements.

It's Just This:

Over 3,600 subscribers get THE BEAVER every week. Take it on an average that five people read each copy issued and THE BEAVER has over 18,000 readers. The paper is widely circulated over the County and adjoining Townships.

A Large Field to Draw From.

"Red Rag to a Bull."

It is possible that the expression "a red rag to a bull" signifying something that arouses wrath, has been imported from Spain, where red cloths are used in the bull rings, in order to infuriate the animals before the matador makes his appearance. But bulls are not the only animals affected by red. Many horses, especially stallions, are irritated by red; and turkey-cocks attack wearers of red most ferociously, as do gunners. Physiologically, red is a color which irritates and fatigues the optic nerves; and so it arouses temper and produces a quarrelsome frame of mind.

"Poor Whites" of Porto Rico.

Nor can white people confined to Africans. Spain long used Porto Rico as a penal colony, and when public works no longer required them, the convicts were turned loose to shift for themselves. Most of them took to the mountains, where the "poor white" population is numerous to this day. Yet their present generations are no more criminal than the Australians; if there is much petty thieving it is natural in a hungry, overcrowded community.

Hand Kissing Is Old Custom.

Amongst the Romans the custom of kissing hands was very common; people desiring a favor of anyone, even if he was an equal, would come near, and then salute him before making the request, though usually equals gave each other their hands or embraced. Soldiers in the army kissed the hands of their generals to show respect; the same honor was given to the consuls and praetors.

Beliefs About Parsley.

It was said that parsley seed went nine times to the devil before coming up. If parsley were sown on any day except Good Friday, it was thought that it would not come up early. In ancient Greece the graves were strewn with parsley. It was and is today deemed unlucky to transplant parsley. The children were told that the new baby had been found in the parsley bed.

Hard "Situation."

A dusky chauffeur who recently brought the frame of a big truck from Detroit to Youngstown rode part of the way sitting on the gas tank, but the seat was so hard he soon became tired of it. "Ah don't see how you could stan' it, Henry," a friend observed. "Stan' it," Henry replied: "Mah goodness, dat's jes what Ah couldn't do nothin' else but."

Proper Ambition.

It is very sad for a man to make himself servant to a thing, his manhood all taken out of him by the hydraulic pressure of excessive business. I should not like to be merely a great doctor, a great lawyer, a great minister, a great politician—I should like to be also something of a man.—Theodore Parker.

Sensible Mr. Dubwaite.

"Did you ever come in unexpectedly and find your office boy reclining in your easy chair, with his feet propped up on your desk?" "Oh, yes," replied Mr. Dubwaite. "And what did you do?" "I registered a mental vow that I would quit setting him a bad example."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

At 125 Degrees in Death Valley.

At Greenland ranch, in Death valley, California, the air temperature, as recorded by a tested maximum thermometer exposed in a standard instrument shelter, rose to 100 degrees or higher on 23 days during June, and on every day during July, 1926, the extreme was above 125 degrees, recorded on the last day of July. On July 10, 1913, the temperature there reached 134 degrees Fahrenheit, the highest officially recorded air temperature in the world.—From the Bulletin, American Meteorological Society.

United States' Bad Lands.

This is the translation of "Mauvaises Terres," the term used by the French-Canadian trappers to describe these regions of unconsolidated rocks that have been extensively eroded. Bad lands occur on arid plateaus formed by horizontal strata of loosely cemented sands and gravels. The best examples of such regions are found in the upper portion of the Missouri drainage basin, in the vicinity of the Black hills. Some are to be found also in Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

Drum With Harmonics.

Musicians find the drum an unsatisfactory instrument for lack of harmonic overtones. From India comes the description of a drum the parchment head of which is loaded with an adherent composition containing finely divided iron. Such composition lies in a central circle. Around the edge a second ring-shaped membrane is secured and the effect of the loading is to produce good harmonic overtones.

Millions Trying.

"Millions of people," we quote from the motion-picture advertising, "can write stories and playlets and don't know it." We have no wish to quarrel with the assertion. We merely suggest that those responsible for the motion pictures get hold of some of them our contention being that those now writing for the motion-picture almost cannot do it.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Bermuda Islands Very English.

Although a Spaniard's name distinguishes the group of islands, England speaks from most of the isles composing the Bermudas; the Main island, St. George, Paget, Smith, St. David, Cooper, Nonsuch, Warford, Ireland and Somerset. Such is typical. The population shows steady growth. Its people wear with pride the distinction of being the oldest self-governing colony in the empire.

Coral Islands.

A coral island has a shape of its own, and pleasant-sounding names are used to describe it. The island itself is called an atoll (pronounced at-oll with an equal stress on each syllable). An atoll is a ring-shaped island, with usually one or more breaks in the ring, called lead channels, and the water surrounded by the ring is called the lagoon.

Antique Cradle.

A cradle that rests from its labors though it is a fine cradle still, is one of the treasures carefully guarded in Plymouth, Mass. This was the cradle of Peregrine White, the first white child born in New England. Little Peregrine narrowly won this honor, for on the way over "Oyuanus" Hopkins was born on the Mayflower.

Beetles' Blood for Warts.

Dr. E. Escomel describes in Anales de la Facultad de Medicina (Lima, Peru) certain pseudo beetles the blood of which has from time immemorial been used by the natives for curing warts. Under it these growths turn white, as if cauterized by an acid.

The Earliest Machine.

The earliest known machine, which existed in Egypt centuries before the Christian era, was a contrivance to drill out stone vessels. It consisted of a vertical shaft with a crank at the top, forked at the base to receive a cutting edge sharp stone.

Taking Nothing Along.

The womanly woman's idea of traveling light, as we have learned from actual observation, is to crowd everything else into a steamer trunk and a hand bag. Under all her hats in separate boxes.—Grand Rapids Press.

Ain't It the Truth?

VALUABLE WORKER IS LEAVING MONTREAL

Regret is felt by many organizations as well as individual friends of Mrs. R. G. Gilbride, at her approaching departure from the city to make her home for the future in Ontario. Mrs. Gilbride has been very active in community work. In connection with the Financial Federation, she served as chairman of the Westmount Division for three years, during which time the donations have doubled. As campaign chairman of the Women's Hospital drive for funds, Mrs. Gilbride did outstanding work. She has served as President of the Women's Association of St. Andrew's Church, Westmount, for nine years, and as Vice-President of the Women's Missionary Society for several years. She resigns from the Board of Managers of the Montreal Council of Social Agencies, the budget committee of Financial Federation, the executive of the Westmount Women's Conservative Club, the board of the Westmount Women's Club, and other positions of service.

Her church friends at the next meeting of the St. Andrew's Women's Association, on Monday, November 29th, will make this an opportunity to bid Mrs. Gilbride farewell.

Mrs. R. L. Gilbride, who is soon leaving Montreal to reside in Napanee, Ont., was the guest of honor at a farewell tea in the Nurses' Home of the Women's Hospital, yesterday afternoon. An engraved silver salver was presented to Mrs. Gilbride, on behalf of the Board of Governors of the hospital, by Dr. H. L. Reddy, who thanked her for her valuable work as chairman of the organization committee for the recent campaign for the new hospital. Mrs. William Henry, for the ladies' committee, presented Mrs. Gilbride with a purse of gold. Tea was served. Mrs. Hugh Walkem presiding, assisted by Mrs. William Burnett and Mrs. H. L. Reddy. Among others present were: Col. Hugh Walkem, Dr. and Mrs. George Fish, Mrs. C. L. Henderson, Dr. William Hastie, Mrs. E. Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. M. Scherzer, Mrs. W. C. McLeod, Mrs. Peter Bercovitch, Mrs. Gilclan, Mrs. W. Talbot Payton, Mrs. Lyon Bercovitch, Mrs. DeRouen, Mrs. Rhys-Roberts, Miss Mary Vineberg, Miss L. Anderson, Miss Trench, Mrs. Crowe, Miss L. T. Smiley, and Dr. Bercovitch.—Montreal Star, Nov. 25th, 1926.

Mr. Gilbride is coming to Napanee to conduct the coal business formerly owned and conducted by Mrs. F. E. VanLaven.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor of The Beaver:

A statement was made from a platform in Odessa recently which slandered the soldiers who died in France. As the speaker had announced himself to be a temperance speaker it was thought that he had some connection with the Prohibition Party. The undersigned, acting for a group of veterans and others who wish to honor the memory of the soldiers who died in France, made a thorough investigation of the matter, and eventually traced the matter to its source.

The speaker held the meeting on his own responsibility absolutely, and no political party had any connection with him. He was employed by a certain fraternal benefit society, with head offices in Hamilton, and his organization, when they heard of his statements, immediately repudiated the statement and regretted the fact that they had employed a man who They announce that they are discharging the speaker, and that they will make him in writing refute his words before going.

I am very glad to know that the statement came from an obscure and irresponsible source, and had absolutely no connection with the present political campaign.

"A gentleman called me handsome yesterday," said a rather elderly lady to her minister. "Do you think it is sinful of me to feel a little proud of the compliment?"

"Not at all, ma'am," replied the minister. "It's the gentleman who is the sinner, not you."

New Fossil Beds Discovered.

What is pronounced by scientists as one of the most perfect fossil beds in the United States in respect to preservation, has been uncovered in the mountains near Kemmerer, Wyo. The fossils are those of fish bodies and represent more than a dozen distinct types, several of which, it is said, have been hitherto unknown to the scientific world. The entire bodies, in several cases, are intact, and the bones and tissues, usually obliterated, are clearly definable.

Our "Fortunes."

What we call our fortunes, good or ill, are but the wise dealings and distributions of a wisdom higher, and a kindness greater than our own. I suppose that their meaning is we should learn, by all the uncertainties of our life, even the smallest, how to be brave and steady and temperate and hopeful, whatever comes, because we believe that behind it all there lies a purpose of good, and over it all there watches a providence of blessing.—Henry van Dyke.

Mesopotamia's Old Glories.

Nebuchadnezzar's vast irrigation system, which once watered all Babylonia, can still be easily traced for miles about Bagdad. One giant canal, the Narawan, runs parallel with the Tigris for nearly 300 miles; it is 350 feet wide, and all about it the takeoff and laterals may still be identified. Herodotus said he found a "forest of verdure from end to end" when he visited Mesopotamia.—National Geographic Society Bulletin.

Proud of Armorial Bearings.

The early Dutch settlers of New York, who founded important families, were frequently aristocratic Hollanders who brought their coats-of-arms with them, as an integral part of their household goods. Such families as the Van Rensselaers, De Puysters, Beekmans, Schuylers and Stuyvesants had their arms beautifully engraved on the elaborate silver services which were among their proudest possessions.

"Cloth" From Bark.

In the tropical islands of the Pacific there are several tribes which make use of the bark of a tree as a substitute for fabrics. It is called "tapa" and is obtained by beating the bark and then treating it to a pasty preparation. After the boiling process, the fiber shows a regular overlapping arrangement of the strands like woven material.

Hope Springs Eternal.

"Cheer up," genially yelled his host to the stricken Murphy, who was beginning to regret keenly ever having come on the fishing trip. "Sensickness never killed anybody yet." "Is that so?" replied Murphy. "I'm sorry to hear ye say that. Sure, the hope av dyin' soon was the only thing that was keepin' me alive."—American Legion Weekly.

Not Greatly Interested.

Margaret had accompanied the family to the movies more often than to church. One morning her parents took her to church, and she found it rather dull. Toward the end of the service she looked up sleepily, and in a voice perfectly audible all over the church she called out: "Papa, is this the last reel?"

A Palpable Hit, Sir.

A correspondent criticises our recent remark that while a glass of buttermilk may be as nourishing as a half dozen oysters, you'll never find a pearl in a glass of buttermilk. "Humph!" he ejaculates, "I've found as many pearls in buttermilk as I ever have in oysters."—Boston Transcript.

Most Crowded City.

The most densely populated city in the world is not New York or London, Canton or Peking, but Bombay. In proportion to its population Bombay was thought that he had some connection with the Prohibition Party. covers very little ground. Within each square kilometer of its area live no fewer than 190,000 human beings.

British Woman's Distinction.

The first woman to set foot on the top of Fuji was Lady Parkes, wife of the first British minister to Japan, Sir Harry Parkes; and she accomplished the feat in 1867, when there was not a mile of railway in Japan.

Mrs. Parks Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health

Toronto, Ontario.—"My daughter is 16 now and has been an invalid ever since she was six months old and has been compelled to remain out of school the greater part of the time. We have tried different kinds of medicine, but none helped her much. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was run-down, and it had helped me so much that I thought it might help her at this time. She has gained ever since she began taking it. She attends school every day now and goes skating, and does other out-of-door sports. I recommend this medicine to any one who is run-down and nervous and weak."—Mrs. PARKS, 106 Bond Street, Toronto, Ontario.

Beliefs Concerning Teeth.

There are curious fancies about teeth. To dream about teeth was held to be a warning that sorrow was at hand, and it was still more unlucky to dream of one's teeth falling out. Many people still throw an extracted tooth into the fire for luck, and this is observed specially in the case of young children to ensure that the remainder of their teeth will come properly. Teeth wide apart is said to be a sign of future prosperity and happiness.

French Guiana.

French Guiana is the penal settlement of fame. Its surface rises gradually from the unhealthful coast to the mountain border on the south. Only a small part of the country is known. Fevers, particularly yellow fever, decimate the region and have proved so fatal to French convicts that white prisoners have been sent elsewhere. The Ile du Diable, off the coast, became famous through the imprisonment of Alfred Dreyfus.

Moving Done by Porters.

In Tunis there are no moving vans nor carts, many of the narrow streets being impassable. Household belongings are changed from place to place by porters, who most any day may be seen staggering under chests of drawers and other heavy pieces of furniture. On occasion the porters will even transport, in huge baskets, persons who may be sick, or otherwise incapacitated.

Wanted to Be "Parked."

Mother, aunty and little Etta were downtown shopping. Etta was quite tired, and they still had many places to go to before they had finished their purchasing. Presently they happened to pass through the restroom and the leather-covered chairs looked inviting to Etta. Turning to her mother, she remarked: "Couldn't you park me here while you and aunty do the rest of your shopping?"

Pronunciation of Z.

The pronunciation of the letter Z as zee is an Americanism. The English pronunciation is zed, from the Old French zede, which in turn is derived from the Latin zeta, the name of the sixth letter of the Greek alphabet, corresponding to the English zed. Shakespeare in King Lear, act II, scene 2, gives the English pronunciation, which is still in vogue: "Zed! thou unnecessary letter."

Thought Still a Rare Quality.

The tremendous rush of teaching men and women to think for themselves has been scarcely begun. All but our very cleverest people are the creatures of a school of thought, or belong to some intellectual herd. Fearless, independent, tolerant thought is still as rare an adventure as in the fifteenth century.—Herbert N. Casson.

When Cleaning Leather.

Don't use gasoline to clean leather unless you want to crack it. Plain water with a few drops of ammonia will remove the dirt, after which the upholstery should be rubbed briskly with a soft cloth. An excellent leather dressing is made by combining two parts of linseed oil to one of turpentine.

Russian Sunflower.

The Russian sunflower is used as a forage crop and for ensilage. It is sown in rows 30 inches apart, the plants standing from nine to twelve feet high and yields from 25 to 30 tons of forage per acre in Montana, which dairy and beef cattle like as well as corn, either green or as silage.

Worthy Beliefs.

I believe in working, not weeping; in boosting, not knocking, and in the pleasure of my job. I believe that a man gets what he goes after, that one deed done today is worth two deeds tomorrow, and that no man is down and out until he has lost faith in himself.—Elbert Hubbard.

Drives Asthma Like Magic. The immediate help from Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy seems like magic. Nevertheless it is only a natural remedy used in a natural way. The smoke or vapor, reaching the most remote passages of the affected tubes, brushes aside the trouble and opens a way for fresh air to enter. It is sold by dealers throughout the land.

A NEW STORE

FOR

One of the Best Towns and Counties in Ontario

The remodelling of our Store is now finished with the exception of the black mastar trim to the tile doorways, the cornice, and the awning, which have been delayed on account of weather conditions.

The building has been completely gone over from roof to cellar. The Store ceilings and upper floors are now supported by a series of steel trusses on the roof and large steel beams over the store window. A wide stairway at the front of the building has been taken down, which made it possible to widen the Clothing Department by six feet and still give as much width as formerly to the Tobacco Store, Telegraph and Ticket Department. The Work Shop for the Tailoring Denartment is at the rear of the building on the second storey, and is one of the brightest and largest workrooms between Toronto and Montreal.

The rear of the Store has been painted white throughout, the front sidewalls are in a very soft shade of buff and the metal ceilings in marble white. The office trim, when completed, will be in oak and oak graining.

The Zouri Copper front, Plate Glass, Prisms and Leaded Glass in the windows was furnished and installed by-the Consolidated Plate Glass Co., Toronto. Two entirely new features to the windows are, (1) Setting them back seven inches from the street line, enabling the public to view the contents in rainy weather without being in the rain; (2) The six-inch slant to the two side windows. There is not a more modern front in Ontario in a Store of this size.

The highest grade of Gravina Marble is used in the window bulkheads and was supplied by the Ontario Marble Works, Peterboro', Ont. The doorways are floored with six inch Grey Pombrey Tile of English manufacture, and trimmed with inch and a half Black Tile.

The Builders Moulding Co., of Toronto, made the Gumwood Panels for the sides of the windows, the doors extending all the way across the back of the windows, and supplied the Gumwood for the window and doorway ceilings. The Robt. Light Co., Napanee, furnished all the other woodwork.

Mr. LaSalle, of the Gibbard Furniture Shops, planned the finishing of the window woodwork, and men from the same shops very kindly worked after hours to do this work for us.

Milton Pressed Brick in shades of buff, brown, with a tinge of red, are in the piers and cornice, and were laid by Conger & Son, of Napanee.

The interior of the Store is now lighted by Denartmental Store Cased Glass Units, furnished by the Union Electrical Co., of Montreal, and installed by the Napanee Hydro Staff.

It took exactly two months to do this work, as many men as possible being employed, sometimes up to 25 men were working on the job at the same time. Local labor was employed throughout, with the exception of the Glass and Copper front. Geo. E. Vandewater was the contractor.

We Invite You to Inspect Our New Premises

Just one word about Our Store Policy. We will adhere to the old and, in the end, unbeaten method of "Sellner Reliable Merchandise at the Lowest Competitive Prices." Try us and prove it.

—Very interesting services were held in St. Mary Magdalene's Church on Sunday, the occasion being the completion of fifty years of use of the church building for Divine worship. The special preacher for the day was Rev. Dr. H. H. Bedford-Jones, a son of the late Archdeacon Bedford-Jones who was rector of the Parish from 1881 to 1890. Two excellent and appropriate sermons were listened to by large congregations. The choir was in good form and the anthem, "How Amiable Are Thy Dwellings," and suitable hymns were well rendered.

Don't forget the Concert and Dance on Dec. 14th. Excellent talent has been secured from Kingston, Belleville and Napanee. The proceeds go to swell The Beaver Santa Claus Fund.

AND THEY ALL "STOOD PAT"

While Mr. James Corbett, Who Had Manipulated the Deck, Sat Apart and Laughed.

In a club much frequented by men of the theatrical business, a poker game which began as a mere pastime grew, by degrees, to an undesirable intensity. The shape who usually "sat in" were all friends and fellow-laborers in a none-too-lucrative occupation. They agreed among themselves that there must be no more raising of the limit and no more feckless betting. The game must be one for innocent entity. On the night when this agreement was solemnly concluded, they sat down and sent for the cards. Jim Corbett brought them. "I'll just sit and look on for a while," he said. "May take a hand a little later."

One man took the cards out of the box and threw around for a deal. The dealer shuffled them and passed them for the cut. Then he dealt a hand while the banker was giving each man his checks. The first man after the deal bet the limit. Every man of the seven around the table came in, each "going" the pot for the limit.

"Say," said Corbett, "I thought you fellows were going to play light. That's a fine way to start out."

This evoked not even a response from the players. Each was sitting tight and severely eying his neighbors. The dealer asked the first man how many cards he wanted. He stood pat. Every player around the board looked startled. Then the next man stood pat. And after him the next and finally all seven. It was at that moment that some one observed Mr. Corbett apparently about to choke in his secluded corner. Corbett had combined 25 per cent of four separate decks, so that the 52 cards he had handed the players were all spades. Each man had a pat flush when the betting began.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

LESSON IN FRANKLIN'S LIFE

Great American Statesman and Patriot Rose to Immortal Fame From Humble Beginnings.

On the 17th of January, in 1706, Benjamin Franklin was born at Boston. His father was a soap and candle-maker, his mother, the daughter of a Quaker poet of Nantucket. When Benjamin was ten he was taken from school and set to work in his father's factory. He never again attended a regular school, yet he became a scholar. He was inept and unhappy at his first occupation, so the father apprenticed him to his brother to learn the trade of a printer. When he was twenty-one he went from Boston to Philadelphia. He pursued the career of printer and publisher until 1726, when he was made clerk of the Pennsylvania assembly. This was the beginning of his public career, and he soon stood in every household one of the most striking figures in America. In France, when he was sent there as ambassador after the Revolutionary war, he became as widely known and loved as in his own country.

He Got the Job.

The colonel of a negro regiment in France charged the adjutant with selecting a suitable soldier to serve as orderly at his billet. The adjutant combed the command for the proper man and finally found one who had been an elevator boy in a hotel—a smiling, gracious darkey, neat and respectful.

When the man reported the colonel impressed upon him the necessity for tact.

"Do you know just what I mean by tact?" he asked.

"Yas, suh. W'en it comes to tac' I'se right on de spot. Why, cunnel, jus' las' week I went into de bathhouse near mah billet, an' fount one of de undahlings selles there. I jest stepped back an' says, 'Pardon, monsieur?' Now of dat warn't tac' den I don't know what is."—The Home Sector.

Not at Home.

I was busy cleaning my gas stove when the door bell rang. I was just about to open the door when I saw it was our pastor. So I stood back behind the door and told my little son, Louis, to open the door and tell him I was at the store.

But he pushed the door so far back that my toes stuck out from under the door, and when Louis told him I was out, he laughed and said: "All right, sonny, but the next time your mamma goes out, tell her to take her feet with her."

I have a chain on the door now.—Exchange.

Coral's Varying Colors.

Genuine coral may be red, pink, white, blue, yellow, green or black, the last being the rarest and most highly prized. The most valuable is of the red coral, which is susceptible to a high polish and is most in use for jewelry, being the coral of commerce. Corals are roughly classed under two heads, the horny corals and the lime or stone corals. To the former belong the red and black corals and to the latter. Red coral is chiefly found in the Mediterranean. The corals found on the Atlantic coast of Florida are the lime, or stone corals, which are the reef-building forms.

Good Reason.

Coal Mine Gases.

The chief gases of coal mines are stated by Coal Age to be: Methane or marsh gas, sometimes called light carburetted hydrogen, carbon monoxide, the whitedamp of miners, and carbon dioxide, which, with nitrogen, forms the blackdamp. Hydrogen sulphide is sulphuretted hydrogen occurs in limited quantities, as do the heavy hydro-carbons—ethylene or olefiant gas, and ethane. Where I dangled while the town folks collected below. So I yells to 'em, 'Say you folks, go home to your papers; it'll be close to hair an hour before I drop.'"

Chief Seat of Iron Industry.

In the early days Massachusetts was the chief seat of the iron industry in the American colonies, the first successful blast furnace having been put in operation at Lynn in 1643. In 1750 Pennsylvania became the leading iron producing state, and maintained the supremacy for upward of a hundred years.

Fruit Color Is Sunlight.

The color of fruit is the result of chemical action, in which sunlight is transformed into red or yellow or orange or purple coloring matter. This chemical action takes place best when the alternations between the heat of day and the cold of night are most marked; in the fall, that is to say, with the spring closely following.

Horsepower.

The nominal horsepower of an engine is determined by an approximate formula of which that of the National automobile chamber of commerce is the most common. According to this the horsepower is equal to the square of the diameter of the cylinder times the number of cylinders divided by two and one-half.

Needless.

"Can your little baby brother talk yet?" a kindly neighbor inquired of a small lad. "No, he can't walk, and there ain't no reason why he should talk," was the disgusted reply. "What does he want to talk for when all he has to do is yell a while to get everything in the house that's worth having?"—New York Evening Post.

Rats Live in Tree Tops.

Rats are vegetarian by choice, but they can readily adapt themselves to any conditions. In Hawaii, for instance, where they were chased habitually by the mongoose, they have acquired the habit of living in the tree tops, where they are free from their tormentors.

Snakes' Power Over Birds.

The bureau of, biological survey states that snakes do not charm birds in the underrated sense of the word "charm." The instinctive fear that a bird or small animal, such as a rabbit, has for a snake paralyzes the muscles of the bird or animal and prevents its escaping from the snake.

To Clean Papered Window.

To remove stained paper from glass use lye. Dissolve in water and apply with an old sponge, being careful not to burn your hands. Leave on for a few minutes and scrape off with a knife. Another way is to wet the paper well with common ammonia or boiling hot vinegar.

Safe Baby Carriage.

The Mero mother is never troubled by the fear that her baby caleb is out of fashion, for she never has one. She throws her children on her shoulder, one on each side, perhaps, and the youngsters cling to her hair.

New Pen Wiper.

An Englishman has invented a pen wiper consisting of a glass cup filled with a sponge saturated with glycerin, which has a preservative effect on pens.

Perfumed Wines.

Greek and Roman wines were perfumed, generally, by steeping the leaves of violets or roses in the liquor until it had acquired the odor of the flowers.

Not a Bad Description.

Natural history was the subject, and the teacher asked: "Who can tell me what an oyster is?" A shrill voice called out, "An oyster is a fish built like a nut."

CHILDREN LIKE THEM

Baby's Own Tablets Are Effective and Easy to Give.

You do not have to coax and threaten to get the little ones to take Baby's Own Tablets. The ease with which they are given, as compared with liquid medicines, will appeal to every mother. None is spilled or wasted; you know just how big a dose has reached the little stomach. As a remedy for the ills of childhood arising from derangement of the stomach and bowels they are most satisfactory.

Mrs. Rose Veyer, Williamstic, Conn., says:—"I used Baby's Own Tablets in the Canadian Northwest and found them a wonderful medicine for children's troubles, especially indigestion and constipation. I have also given them to my children for simple fever and the restlessness accompanying teething and they always gave relief. I can recommend Baby's Own Tablets to all mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Clothes and Cleanliness.

It is true that clothes were more picturesque in past ages and that men as well as women gloried in gorgeous apparel. The nobleman was found as his "ladye love" of rich fabrics and ruffles, and the clasp that held his floating plume to his velvet hat flashed with real gems. But here is where civilization takes a hand. Compare the cleanliness of the men of the past with those of the present. In the Sixteenth century French gentlemen changed their linen once in two weeks, and even at that were deemed recklessly extravagant by the English for so doing.

Invention of Electric Light.

The credit for the basic discovery of the electric light is probably due to Sir Humphry Davy, who in 1810 observed the electric arc and produced incandescence of a fine platinum wire in connection with his experiments with a 2,000-cell battery. In 1802 an arc lamp was installed in the lighthouse at Dungeness, in 1879 the Edison incandescent lamp was exhibited, and in 1882 the Pearl street Edison station in New York was put in service.

Clung to Coats of Arms.

George Washington used, on his seal and bookplate, the English arms that had been in his family for generations. Even the Quakers among the early settlers, although they advocated simple, austere living, and abandoned plumes for their hats and lace for coat sleeves, would have considered it a renunciation of an inherited right, like relinquishing their family names, to give up the coats of arms granted to their ancestors.

In choosing one's friends we must choose those whose qualities are inborn. To lay the foundations of friendship on borrowed or added virtues is to build on an artificial soil; we run too many risks by it.

Handicaps Have No Effect on Sandy's Smile

Sandy is a cheerful sort of Scot with a ready joke and a winning smile although when you hear his story you will wonder what it is that keeps him gay. He was a soldier in the Great War, where he lost an arm. Then overwork knocked him out. His attempts to secure a pension have failed, last but not least, the only trade he knows is carriage-making, and who wants carriages now-a-days? For all that, Sandy is making good progress at the Muskoka Sanatorium for Consumptives, where everything is being done to make him well again. For with health Sandy says he can win the world with courage—and no wife.

THE TONIC THAT GIVES STRENGTH

After Acute Diseases the Blood Must Be Built Up Before Recovery is Complete

Fevers and other acute diseases like pneumonia and influenza, leave the patient weak, with thin blood and unstrung nerves. The period of convalescence is often long and trying, and years of health have frequently followed an illness as an attack of influenza or pneumonia.

Much of this sort of misery could be avoided by taking steps to build up the blood so that it can carry to the nerves and other tissues of the body the elements they need to restore their normal functional activities. To build up the blood and restore it to its rich, health-giving vigor, no other medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. From first to last it is their mission to improve the blood and thus restore good health and vigor.

The value of these pills in conditions described above is shown by the statement of Mrs. Rebecca O'Brien, Pembroke, Ont., who says:—"In November, 1923, I was stricken with pneumonia, and at the time but little hope was held out for my recovery. However, with the best of care I was able to walk about after some months. But I did not recover my strength. The doctor told me I was anaemic. My appetite was poor, I grew nervous and restless, I was deathly pale and practically gave up hope of ever being strong again. However, remembering that in my girlhood I had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit, I decided to try them again. By the time I had used two boxes there was no doubt the pills were helping me. Continuing their use I was soon able to attend to my household duties. I continued taking the pills, however, until I had used twelve boxes, by which time I was enjoying better health than at any time in the previous ten years. In gratitude for what the pills have done for me, I give this statement in the hope that it may point the way to health for some other weak, despondent woman."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cts. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BLACKHEART OF POTATOES.

(Experimental Farms Note.)

The potato tuber, which is in reality a short, thickened plant stem, is peculiarly subject to certain injurious influences arising from improper storage practices. Abnormalities are thus created within the tuber itself which impair its vitality, and disfigure its appearance, thereby rendering it unfit for seed purposes as well as undesirable for table use. Among the abnormalities resulting from faulty storage is that commonly known as blackheart, an undesirable condition which appears as dark-red or blackened irregularly-shaped areas in the internal tissues of the tuber, usually in the central region. While affected tubers may appear quite normal externally, an examination of the interior will immediately reveal characteristic dark areas. Blackheart is caused by exposure of tubers to two extreme, yet specific sets of conditions. When potatoes are stored for prolonged periods at extreme temperatures ranging from 95 degrees F to 110 degrees F., changes occur within the tuber resulting in the death of tissues in the central area, thereby producing what has been described as blackheart. Secondly, the subjection of tubers (at high or low temperatures) to conditions where the necessary amount of oxygen required for respiration is lacking, also produces typical blackheart. In the first case mentioned, conditions might easily arise through storage cellar or heated car (intended for the conveyance of potatoes) being equipped with an improperly controlled source of heat. This would tend to produce extreme temperatures throughout the main storage room or body of the car. The second cause is brought about by storing potatoes in improperly ventilated pits and heated cars, or piling in ordinary bins to depths unsuitable for adequate circulation of air.

Strict observance of the following recommendations by the Division of Botany, of the Dominion Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, will, in a large measure, prevent the occurrence of blackheart. (1) Avoid overheating a storage cellar or heated car, by using a properly controlled source of heat from which the proper amount of warmth can be distributed and maintained with greatest safety. In the case of the cellar, the question of heat should be attended preferably in an adjoining chamber to the main storage room. Provide adequate means of ventilation, particularly if potatoes are stored in large pits or bins at greater depths than five feet, by placing ventilators so arranged that no tubers will be more than five feet away from an abundant supply of air. (3) Avoid piling potatoes to greater depths than three feet when the storage temperature ranges from 50 degrees to 70 degrees F., especially if the storage period is longer than a month.

BETHEL

A number of our ladies and men folk are very busy dressing poultry this week in order to attend the Poultry Fair in Napanee on Thursday and Friday of this week. We hope they realize good prices.—The severe cold spell on Sunday made us think that winter had really set in, but the rain on Monday morning again changed our opinions; so we think still having the usual unsettled weather.—Mr. Robt. Galbraith returned home last Saturday, having spent the last three months with his son, Howard, in Parry Sound.—Miss Laura Alcombrack spent last week end with her cousin, Josie Alcombrack, at Camden East. — Our teacher, Miss Gange, is preparing her pupils for their school concert, which will be held previous to the closing of school for the Christmas holidays.—Little Kathleen Sagriff called on Mrs. Wm. Jackson, on Sunday afternoon last.—Mrs. Wm. McWilliams is not so well at time of writing, having had the usual grippe, but we hope she will soon be well again.—Miss Gange spent last week end at her home in Gananoque.—The Ladies' Aid of Colebrooke will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Benn.—Mr. and Mrs. Levi Salisbury and Mr. and Mrs. Frances Dunn spent Monday to dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Edgar, at Thompson's Mills.

DENBIGH

Albert Stein, of Brockville, after seven year's absence from his old home here, paid a visit to it this week, and to some of his local relatives, old acquaintances and friends. —Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams, of Peterboro', enjoyed a pleasant visit with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. Adams, here.—Albert Falk and E. Norris, of Ernestown, combined the pleasure of enjoying some successful hunting sport during the season with a pleasant visit to the former's mother, Mrs. M. Falk.—Mr. R. Goodrich, of Kingston, and Mr. A. Ready, of Toronto, also renewed old acquaintances with their Denbigh friends. — There seems to be a larger number of sportsmen from other places enjoying themselves this season in this vicinity than usual, and probably some of them had to return to their homes without their expected proper share of fresh venison.

STORAGE OF FIELD ROOTS

(Experimental Farms Note.)

The late fall months frequently find the grower with a supply of field roots on his hands, but no satisfactory place to store them. Under such conditions the surplus of roots can be taken care of to good advantage by the use of a properly constructed pit. A satisfactory root-pit may be constructed in the following manner. Select a well-drained location, preferably where the soil is light. The next step is to dig a shallow trench about six inches deep, not over four to five feet wide, and as long as necessary to accommodate the roots that require storage. In this trench the roots should be piled in pits in such a manner that the finished pile will narrow off to a few inches at the top, at a height of three to four feet. At intervals of approximately five feet, ventilators should be built into the pile of roots, extending to the bottom of the pile. These ventilators are easily constructed, by using two six-inch boards, to the side of which slats six or seven inches in length and of the same width can be nailed so that the openings on either side of the ventilators will be alternated. The resulting ventilator will be approximately six inches square, inside measurements.

The first covering to be placed on the roots is a foot of straw, and if the weather is mild at the time of pitting, no other covering need be put on for a few days. After that time the straw should be covered by about six inches of the surrounding soil. When this outer layer of soil has become frozen quite solidly but not entirely through, a second foot of straw should be put on, and over this a second six-inch layer of soil.

Spreading a little straw around the pit after putting on the first layer of soil will keep that section of earth free from frost and make shovelling easy when the weather has become cold enough to make it necessary to put on the second layer.

Such a pit properly constructed will keep field roots satisfactorily over winter at a very small cost.

Dominion Agrostologist.

The Wolf Cry.

Timber wolves when separated raise their noises into the air and send out wireless calls that curdle the blood of every human and lesser animal within hearing. But the other timber wolves respond at once and work toward each other until the pack is united.

Lives Up to the Symptoms.

"You can nearly always tell a man who is suffering from this malady," said Jud Tunkins, "by the way he manages to put in more time resting than anyone else in the neighborhood."

Mother.

"Love cannot stay at home; a woman cannot keep it to herself; and a mother is always spending it, giving it away to her children."—Macleod.

Excellent for Croupy Children.

When a child is suffering with croup it is a good plan to use Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It reduces the inflammation and loosens the phlegm giving speedy relief to the little sufferer. It is equally reliable for sore throat and chest, earache, rheumatic pains, cuts, bruises and sprains. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is regarded by many thousands as an indispensable of the family medicine chest.

Human Thermometer.

At the far top of the kiln (at the famous pottery works of King Techei, China), and in the chimney are holes a foot square, into which a man, who acts as a human thermometer, looks to determine the heat. His method is simple. He spits into the hole, and if the spit turns to steam, the temperature is not sufficient. When the heat is so great that the saliva is shot back at him with a little explosion, everything is all right.—Seth Knight Shryock in Asia.

In South America.

A visitor to South America, speaking of his observations there said: "The home life of the people is so full of music that even the 'newsies' sing their wares, and peanuts, and sweets, fresh fruit and cool water are advertised in recitative. Such itinerant artisans as scissors grinders announce their advent by means of a piccolo. The tired workmen still solace their evening hours with the guitar and the phonograph is to be found in the homes of all but the poorest classes."

Pet Had Various Names.

A neighbor, seeing the seven-year-old daughter of a geologist playing with a bedraggled but cherished kitten, asked what her pet was called. "Well," replied the precocious youngster, "that depends. Father calls her a segregation from an intrusive magma of doubtful genesis; mother refers to her as the basement complex; sister Helen insists that she is a typical example of secondary impoverishment; but I just call her my dear little kitty."

Manganese.

Manganese is found in Japan in three forms: Metallic, which is over 50 per cent pure manganese, being used principally in the making of certain kinds of iron and steel and as an amalgam; dioxide, or "black manganese," having as high as 90 per cent manganese and largely used in the making of chemicals, drugs, paints and electric batteries; and carbonate ore, which until recently has been a waste product in Japan.

Mother.

When Eve was brought unto Adam, he became filled with the Holy Spirit, and gave her the most sanctified, the most glorious of appellations. He called her Eve—that is to say, the Mother of All. He did not style her wife, but simply mother—mother of all living creatures. In this consists the glory and the most precious ornament of woman.—Martin Luther.

Food Supervision.

The importance of food supervision as a measure of preventive public health is obvious. The average citizen does not realize how deeply he is interested in the public health authorities on this point alone. Were it not for this supervision ptomaine poisoning would exact a fearful toll from our citizenship in the form of suffering and death.

"Salt River."

"Salt river," as commonly used, refers to an imaginary river up which defeated politicians and political parties are supposed to be sent to oblivion. The phrase "to row up Salt river" had its origin in a small stream of that name in Kentucky, the passage of which is so difficult and laborious by its tortuous course and abundance of shallows and bars.

Pork Pies Prohibited by Treaty.

By a clause in a special treaty concluded soon after the first Punjab war the maharajah of Kashmir has the right—which he exercises—of prohibiting the importation into his territories of pork pies.

Butterflies.

There are 70 different kinds of English butterflies, some very common and some very rare, some butterflies, like the "painted lady," fly over the channel from France to England every year.

Needed.

To stop street cars at railroad crossings or drawbridges, should a motorman ignore a signal, an inventor has designed a spring bumper to be raised level with their front sills.

Why Buffaloes Wallow.

The water buffalo of China has few sweat glands in its skin, and for this reason cannot endure hard work in the sun for a long period unless its body is wet with water. This accounts for the desire of the buffalo to wallow in mud or water. The animals are easily overcome by heat if worked hard in the sun, and sometimes they go crazy and become very dangerous.

OBITUARY

George F. Rendell.
The death occurred at his late residence, Bridge Street, on Wednesday, Nov. 17th, 1926, of Mr. Geo. F. Rendell, in his 76th year. The deceased was well known around town. With his family he moved to town several years ago, owing to ill health, he formerly being a prosperous farmer in the Township of Richmond.

The funeral was held at his late residence on Friday afternoon, the burial taking place in Sydenham cemetery.

Besides the sorrowing wife, he leaves to mourn four daughters and four sons, Mrs. Walter Wallace, Sterling, N.Y.; Mrs. Frank Purdy, Edmonton, Alta.; Mrs. Archie Kring, Toronto; Mrs. Robert Mountney, Deseronto; Mr. Arthur Rendell, Adam Centre, N.Y.; Mr. Ernest Rendell, Newburgh, Ont., and Mr. Fred Rendell, Napanee, Ont.

WILTON W. M. S.
The November meeting of the Wilton W. M. S. was held in the United Church on the evening of Nov. 18th. The Literary part of the programme was given by the following Napanee talent: Mrs. Stalker, Mrs. Frisken, Mrs. Hooper, and Rev. A. J. Wilson, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Napanee, and was exceptionally interesting. The three ladies spoke on the subject, "What We Owe Christ in Time, Talent and Money." Mrs. Stalker spoke on "Time". She said: "We always seem so busy and have no time for prayer and Bible study, but in order to grow like Christ we must spend time in His presence." Mrs. Frisken spoke on "Talent". "Talents are gifts from God, and God gives greater opportunities to those who use their talents. The Disciples were all ordinary men but they used what talents they had and their lives stand out as cones for us."

Mrs. Hooper spoke on "Money". "We owe everything to Christ, and the task of raising money for Missions would be easy if we all gave systematically. It is not a duty but a privilege to give."

Rev. A. J. Wilson's address was on the present issue before the people of Ontario. He gave facts which showed the conditions under Government Control in other provinces, and urged the people to stand firm by the O. T. A., which has done so much for Ontario, our province.

The musical part of the programme was given by Wilton talent, and added much to the pleasure and interest of the evening. At the close of the programme, the Pastor, the Rev. Mr. McQuade, who had acted as chairman, in a few well chosen words, thanked the Napanee ladies and Rev. Mr. Wilson for coming and giving us such helpful inspirations.

The Wilton ladies served a delicious lunch, and all spent a social half-hour together.

The W. M. S. Travelling Basket had been placed on a table in the hall, and at the close of the meeting, Mrs. F. F. Sharpe explained its use. The funds of this little basket are the July our Strangers' Secretaries to "cheer the sick and lonely in our midst. As all contributions to this little basket are voluntary, Mrs. Sharpe asked that all would remember it and give liberally, as Christmas Day was drawing near.

Rev. A. J. Wilson closed the meeting with prayer.

Card of Thanks.
Mrs. Jane Williams wishes to thank her many friends for their kindness during the illness and death of her aunt, the late Mrs. Annie Wilson, and especially the Women's Institute for the beautiful spray of flowers. 49a

Little Girls' Game Causes Heartache To Lonely Mother

Two little girls sit at a window playing a game. They make believe that every woman they see coming up the street is mamma coming home to them. They shut their eyes until she gets almost to the door and then open them hoping it is really the one they are looking for. They firmly believe that some day their wonderful dreams will come true. They don't know of the game and she is doing her best to make it come true right now, but just at present she is having so small struggle to stay on the earth at all.

She is taking the cure at the Muskoka Hospital, but had followed her heart to be near to Napanee.

Contributions may be sent to Rev. W. A. Charlton, President, 223 College Street, Toronto 5, Ontario.

SOFTBALL

On Tuesday, Dec. 8th, the Church League was again resumed, when a scuffle occurred between Trinity and St. Andrews, resulting in a score of 42 to 32, in favor of Trinity.

The game was snappy, and many laughs were accorded to the fans by the fumblings of St. Andrews.

For the first two innings St. Andrews pitched Miss Post, but she was inexperienced, and 18 runs were collected off her. Miss Oliver then took the box and pitched the remainder of the game. Miss Blackadder was St. Andrew's star, and her playing was excellent. Miss Andrews greatly rounding into shape, and at the end of the League will pull off some surprises for the fans. Miss Daly was sorely missed by St. Andrew's.

For Trinity, Miss McKnight was star. She caught everything (including a cold), and drove the ball to the extremity of the diamonds every time up. Chris. Taylor was a little off form, or else St. Andrew's are developing batters for she was knocked all over the place. Trinity's fielders pulled down everything and snapped many plays in the bud by their snappy returns.

Following is the line-up :—

St. Andrews—Misses Blackadder, Oliver, Post, Fingland, Henderson, McGraw, Robbin, Boerum, and Purdy.

Trinity—Misses Hawley, Taylor, Johnston, McKnight, Dixon, Drake, Dixon, Rikley, and Aylsworth.

Score by innings :—

Trinity ..... 6 12 4 4 2 6—42

St. Andrews ... 2 3 3 6 2 9—33

It would help the League greatly if more fans would turn out to cheer their churches to victory. Come out and yell.

By the feel of the atmosphere these days we know that winter is really upon us. The weather was so cold and disagreeable on Sunday that not one neighbor went to Sunday School or church service in the United Church. — Quite a number from here attended the Poultry Fair in Napanee last week, and got first and second prizes. — The regular meeting of the Mission Circle at the parsonage on Friday evening was not as well attended as usual, but plans were made for the meeting on Dec. 17th. We hope that each member of the Circle will do her part to help make it a success.— Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Asselstine and Marion visited with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kimmett on Saturday.—Miss Alice Herrington, of Napanee, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thos. Richmond. — Mrs. George Richardson, of Deseronto, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Alfred McCutcheon.

THE POULTRY FAIR

The Poultry Fair this year, with 1281 head of fowl, which sold for $79,350, was shightly larger than last year in volume, and considerably larger in cash paid. It may be readily seen that producers got a good price for their poultry when it is considered that at the 1923 poultry fair in Napanee, the tonnage was 170, and cash paid $85,000. Average prices this year were, turkeys 31c., chickens 31c., fowl 24½c., geese 18c., and 19c., ducks 22c. to 25c. Quality generally speaking was good, but when chickens sold all the way from 22c. to 35c. a pound, some people brought in stuff that they could not have been very proud of. If the poultry fair is to grow and give satisfaction to producer and buyer, quality should be the keynote. Good sized, well fleshed chickens with lots of quality bring the top price. They should be hatched early enough to get their growth and crate fattened for two or three weeks before marketed. Late, undersized chickens will not do well in fattening crates. One of the best fattening rations is finely ground oats 2 parts, finely ground buckwheat 2 parts, and finely ground corn 1 part, to which is added enough sour milk to make a batter. Equal parts of corn meal, middlings, and buckwheat meal also makes a good ration. A little grit should be given once a week. The birds should be fed very lightly when first put in the crates and the ration gradually increased. If the feed is not all cleaned up in ten or fifteen minutes, the troughs should be removed. Where chickens do not gain in fattening crates, there is something wrong with the method of feeding, or the birds are not thrifty. If they are infested with lice or troubled with internal parasites, they will not do well.

The Poultry Fair affords an excellent opportunity for the farmers of this district to meet the buyers and dispose of their chickens at good prices. It is time now to lay plans for next year by selecting good breeding stock, hatching at the proper time, feeding well, and properly finishing all fowl for market.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

On Monday evening, about sixty friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Post, Centre Lake, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The bride and groom of twenty-five years, dressed in their wedding apparel, created much merriment among the guests, and much amusement was caused on the old styles. An address was read by Mrs. Clement Mosher, and a purse of pin plate mounted in silver, was presented by Mrs. W. T. Winter.

Though taken by surprise, Mr. and Mrs. Penny made a short and suitable reply, and thanked the company for their thoughtfulness, after which they all sang "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

The company dispersed in the wee hours of the morning, all having enjoyed a pleasant evening, and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Penny many more years of wedded life.

The following is the address :—

Dear Friends,—We, your friends and neighbors, are gathered here tonight to extend to you our best wishes for your future happiness, on this the twenty-fifth anniversary of your wedding day. We wish to show our appreciation of your neighbourliness by presenting you with this silver pie casserole. Hoping you will have many more years of happiness and prosperity.

Signed by your friends and relatives.

Address and Presentation

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 23rd, the Switzerville friends and neighbors of Mr. R. J. Meirick gathered at the home of Mr. John Wilson, Switzerville, to spend a social evening and to say farewell to Mr. Brethen, an old resident of the neighborhood. Toward the close of the evening the following address was read by Mr. Mitchell Empey, and a club bag was presented to Mr. Brethen:

Dear Mr. Brethen,—Your many friends of the Switzerville community have gathered here this evening with one strong desire to spend a little social time with you on the eve of your departure from our historic neighborhood. Truly God moves in mysterious ways His will to perform, and at times we cannot understand why those so seemingly necessary to the successful continuance of a life time work of the community and the church are removed by changing circumstance elsewhere. Nevertheless, it is with many regrets that we come to these moments when the happy relationships of the past must be severed.

But before we say farewell we are requested to recall with grateful hearts the effective services you have rendered our church and community. Especially are we reminded of your unstinting services as teacher and superintendent of our Sunday School. We pray that as you enter upon your sojourn and labours amongst us, it may bring unbounded joy into your own heart as a reward for what you have done. Not only do we wish you much joy in your new home, but ask you to accept this gift as a tangible expression of the appreciation of all you have been and always will be. Hoping it will help you to realize that the friends you are leaving will remember you with kindest feelings and sincere hopes, that in your new associations you will experience every joy and happiness.

Signed on behalf of your friends.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 24th, 1926, about sixty friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Marlin, to pay them a farewell visit, before they left the district for their new home. Mr. Cleve Davison presented Mr. and Mrs. Marlin with an Aladdin table lamp, and Miss Kathleen Brown presented Miss Edna Marlin with a French ivory comb and brush set. The following address was read by Mrs. Wm. Jenkins :—

To Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Marlin and Miss Edna.

Dear Friends,—We, your friends and neighbours, have gathered here tonight to enjoy once again your genial hospitality, and have the pleasure of another period of social intercourse before you leave our neighbourhood.

We assure you, dear friends, that it was with deep regret, that we learned of your intention to sever your relationship with this neighbourhood. We are glad to know that you are not going so far away, but that we will be able to meet you frequently, and we all very much appreciate the friendly, social and neighbourly spirit you have always shown among us.

We will miss you in the church and Sunday School, but hope that you may enjoy God's richest blessings in your new home, and that a new sphere of usefulness may be opened up to you, and now as a token of our deepest regard in which you are held among those who knew you best, we ask you to accept these gifts as a slight remembrance of the friendly feelings which have existed between you and us.

Signed by your Ebenezer friends and neighbours.

On Friday, December 3rd, a surprise party was staged in the Arbuckle Hall, when Belleville Beavers dropped in on Napanee for a game.

A team was rounded up and the game commenced about 9 o'clock. Hazel O'Neill did backstop work until Marion Grass came. "Dot" Johnston did the twirling for the Leafs, but had hard luck first half. Of course, Mary Stinson had to pull off a good play when she caught a girl sleeping off third. The batting of all the team was excellent, and Dorothy Hagan, a newcomer, made a hit every time up.

The Belleville catcher, Miss Whalen, played a whale of a game and showed everything in sight. Miss B. Messman in the box, did some speedy twirling and got the majority of "fans". Smiler Melchior in the field, pulled off some good plays, while the first baseman, Miss L. Currie, made her spectacular play. The rest all helped in the game and their batting was very hard on "Dot" Johnston in the first half. "Dot" says don't forget the score, so I will tell you,—Belleville 6, Napanee 7.

The line-ups were :—

Belleville — Misses Whalen, B. Messman, L. Currie, H. Lee, O'Neil, B. Baker, T. Warham, M. Kellehre, S. Milchior.

Napanee—Misses M. Grass, Hazel O'Neill, "Dot" Johnston, M. Douglas, Grace Harrigan, Mary Stinson, M. Douglas, Maxine Embury, Dorothy Hagan.

WILTON INSTITUTE

The December meeting of the Wilton Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Snider, on the evening of Dec. 14th, at 7.30 o'Clock. Roll call to be answered by a Xmas recipe. Each lady is requested to bring a gentlemen—her husband or a friend. Everyone welcome.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 30th, Mr. Laughland, Agricultural Representative, of Napanee, came to Wilton at the request of the Institute, and gave several reels of moving pictures, in the Grange Hall. These pictures were very interesting as well as illustrative and educational. They dealt with "Our Brother," the Redman," India, the Serving of Hot School Lunches, Domestic Courses for girls at the Agricultural College in Guelph, and some very comic pictures. Mr. Laughland gave some explanations. The Wilton Orchestra gave selections between the reels, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

At the close Mrs. W. C. Snider moved a very hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Laughland and to the Orchestra, which was seconded by a generous clapping of hands.

I am sure we would be very much pleased to have Mr. Laughland with us again at any date.

Practice Kindness Now.

There are kindnesses, hospitalities, public and private duties, and fellowship in the civic and social life of one's calling and station which help to make our sojourn here satisfying and gratifying. These should not be postponed nor stinted. We expect to pass through life but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show or any good thing I can do to any fellow-being, let me do it now, and not defer or neglect it, as I shall not pass this way again.' This always timely text is usually attributed to William Penn.—Humphrey J. Desmond.

Fossils.

Though historical geology and the study of ancient life depend chiefly on fossils, the term has been very vaguely and loosely applied. As a precise definition, a writer in Science proposes: "A fossil is an object which indicates former existence of an organism which has been buried and preserved by geological causes, previous to historic time." The mandible preserved in the arctic ice is a fossil, a leaf buried in the gutter is not; and a truly petrified organism may not be a fossil.

Eat Arsenic With Impunity.

In some parts of Austria, and especially in the hilly country toward Hungary, there exists the extraordinary custom of eating arsenic, one of the most deadly poisons. There, however, the peasants are so accustomed to its use that they are able to take huge quantities without harm, and they assert that the remarkable beauty of their women folk is entirely due to constant drugging with arsenic.

Lightning Struck Twice.

Lightning strikes twice in the same place, in spite of the old saw, for at an inquest into the death at Chertsey, England, of a man killed while sheltering under a tree in a hayfield during a thunderstorm, it was stated that the tree, one of a group of five of the same height, had been struck by lightning before. In the recent instance the lightning followed the course of the old stroke.

Improved Household Bell.

Three different signal tones from an electric bell of ordinary appearance, calling the householder to the front, rear, or side door, are now at the possible by the ingenious device of an Ohio manufacturer. The two electromagnetic coils of the bell have separate armatures, and the latter carries the bell clapper, while the other constitutes a buzzer.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Postage Stamps.

The adhesive postage stamp had its origin in England in 1840 as a direct outcome of the postal reforms of Sir Rowland Hill. In 1847 the United States adopted this method of collecting postages, with two beautifully engraved portraits of Franklin and Washington.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. Check them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat trouble. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WHAT DID YOU GIVE LAST CHRISTMAS? Toys for the kiddies—most of them broken by now. "Something useful" for the grown-ups—now worn out or forgotten. Cash to your employees—appreciated but soon spent. Other presents—hurriedly bought and perhaps ill-chosen. Are they remembered now?

Suppose this year you give them each a Bank Book containing an initial deposit, and urge them to add to it regularly. Could anything be more suitable?

THE PITCHER'S BOX.

In Baseball's Early Days it Was Just a Line Twelve Feet Long.

Up to 1857, or for eighteen years after the first game of baseball was played there was no limit to the number of innings, the first side scoring twenty-one runs or "aces," as they were then called being the winner. In 1857, however, the game was divided into nine innings. The pitcher had a line twelve feet long, kept behind it and could not take a short run before his delivery, just the same as is permitted in cricket today.

In 1863 the old "line" for the pitcher to stand behind was done away with and the twirler limited to a "box" twelve feet long and four feet wide, but in this area he could roam at will and throw from whatever spot he pleased. A few years later the "box" was made six feet square, and in 1870 it was again reduced to four feet wide and six feet long. Ten years later it was made a foot longer and a foot wider and in 1887 cut down in length to five and one-half feet.

These "boxes" being always a source of much change and discussion, they were finally abolished altogether and a rubber slab 12 by 4 inches took their place, the pitcher being required to keep his back foot against the slab. This slab was enlarged to two feet by six inches in 1893 and has remained the same since.

GROW, BUT DON'T SWELL

Save Exertion of Boasting and Use It in Doing Your Tasks.

It is well for you to have confidence in your ability, but when it reaches the stage of "swell headedness" your value to yourself or to any one else begins to dwindle.

"Some men grow with responsibility; others merely swell." The man who swells has ceased to grow.

He has reached a place where he thinks he has all the knowledge he needs, and naturally all growth is retarded.

The best way—the most convincing way—to prove one's capability is by actions, not words.

The fellow who is continually bragging about what he can do is seldom of much account.

It is the man who does things in a quick, intelligent manner who wins.

Such a man will be found at the top because he deserves to be there.

All concerns want him, because he not only accomplishes much as the result of his concentrated endeavor, but his influence is good on the other employees.

Save the exertion it takes to tell what you can do and use it in performing your tasks. In this way you will get so much consideration eventually that you will not be tempted to brag.

The other fellow will do it for you.

Cheeky John Forster.

In "William Harrison Ainsworth and His Friends" the author, S. M. Ellis, tells a quaint story of Ainsworth and his friend John Forster. Ainsworth had discovered a new set of Hogarth's engravings which was held at £5, a sum which, he said, "I could not lay my hands on at least did not think I ought to spare. I took John Forster down to see the Hogarths, whereupon he actually said that he would and must have them himself and as he had not £5 of loose money at that moment I should lend that sum to him. I pointed out the absurdity of the position—that I wanted the engravings for myself and could not afford to lay out the money; how then, could I lend it—to him? It was of no use. He overruled me, and the £5 of me and bought the Hogarths I was longing for."

A Narrow Escape.

"I near had a scrap this morning," confided a slender young lawyer whom you wouldn't suspect of being belligerent.

"Who with?" we asked with no regard for grammar.

"Jimmie Squiggs. I guess I spoke hastily to him. Anyhow, he got the idea that I wanted to lick him."

"Well, what did he do?"

"He took it on the run. Honest, he did three blocks in about twelve seconds flat before I could utter a word."

"That's going some for a big man like Squiggs."

"Yeah? And it didn't do him a bit of good. I was half a block ahead of him every step of the way."

Strategy.

"Nora has just dropped another plate," said Mrs. Twobble.

"Well, my dear," replied Mr. Twobble, "suppose you go into the kitchen and drop a hint to the effect that she must not break any more china for me."

"Evidently you don't know how to manage Nora. If I lead her to believe that we rather enjoy having her break a plate occasionally I think she will be more careful."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Exempt.

"We've been playing school, mamma," said little Ethel.

"Indeed!" replied her mother. "I hope you behaved nicely."

"Oh, I didn't have to behave!" said Ethel. "I was the teacher."

A young man had been trying his wit on his fellow-passengers in the train, and they were getting rather tired of it. When an old man in the corner spoke up, they listened with interest.

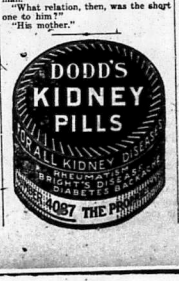
"Here, young man," said he, "two persons were walking down the street. One was tall, the other short. The tall one was the short one's son, but the short one was not the tall one's father."

"That's impossible," said the young fellow after puzzling for a while.

"No, it's a fact," said the older man.

"What relation, then, was the short one to him?"

"His mother."



Humble Poet.

A lasting contribution to English literature was made in the eighteenth century by a domestic servant. This was Robert Dodsley, who as a young man served as a footman, and brought out his first work, "The Muse in Livery, or the Footman's Miscellany," whilst still in service. With the proceeds of these works and of "The Toyshop," a farce, he set up as a bookseller in Pall Mall, and within a few years became the most prominent of London's publishers. He issued the works of Pope, Johnson and Goldsmith, and inaugurated the "Annual Register."

Sing Sing.

The prison at Ossining, N. Y., is called Sing Sing because the city of Ossining formerly was named Sing Sing. The name is of Indian origin. The town was first settled in 1700 and incorporated under the name of Sing Sing in 1804. Because of the universal association of Sing Sing prison with the village the name of the place was changed to Ossining in 1901. A new charter went into effect in 1906.

Where Chinese Women Rule.

The boatwomen of China have no need to agitate for women's rights, they possess them. The boatwoman, whether she be a single woman or a wife or a widow, is the head of the house, that is to say, of the boat. If she is married, the husband takes the useful but subordinate place of deckhand. She does the steering, makes bargains with the passengers, collects the money, buys supplies and in general lords it over everything.

Relic of Old Barbarism.

In ancient times, when the young man was unable to arrange with the parents for the purchase of the girl, he would run off with her and hide. Many times he employed the help of a trusted friend. From these incidents came the well-known custom of the wedding journey of hidden destination. The trusted friend of long ago is the best man of today, who still helps with the arrangements of the wedding.

Good Medicine!

The Journal of the American Medical Association recommends a laxative fruit cake made of equal parts of senna leaves, figs, dates, prunes, and raisins. It does not matter much whether the ingredients be weighed or measured, as exact proportioning is not essential. This done is one slice, large or small, according to the requirements of the individual.

Robins seem almost always to run along when they want to get anywhere. But now and then they take pretty strong hops that cover the ground much faster. When they do they lift their heads as though they were very proud indeed to go at such a pace.—Christian Science Monitor.

Honesty Prevalent in China.

Honesty is a prevailing virtue among most Chinamen. Some of them in their native towns and cities leave their places of business unguarded while they go off for an hour or more. Should customers arrive in the meantime they find the prices of goods plainly marked, select what they want and leave the money for them.

Age of the World.

The origin of earthquakes has been traced to two principal causes, the first of which is tectonic, and the second volcanic. The former refers to movements in the earth's crust, known as faults, possibly caused by the shrinking of the interior of the earth by reason of cooling.

PAINS ALL OVER BODY

Two More Cases of Feminine Illness Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Barrington, N. S.—"I had terrible feelings, headaches, back and side aches and pains all over my body. I would have to go to bed every month and nothing would do me good. My husband and my father did my work for me as I have two children and we have quite a big place. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then got a little book about it through the mail, and my husband sent to Eaton's and got me a bottle, and then we got more from the store. I am feeling fine now and do all my work and am able to go out around more. I tell my friends it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that makes me feel so well."—Mrs. VICTOR RICHARDSON, Barrington, Nova Scotia.

A Gift that Increases in Value

Presentation Covers are provided for Christmas Gift Books.

WHAT DID YOU GIVE LAST CHRISTMAS? Toys for the kiddies—most of them broken by now. "Something useful" for the grown-ups—now worn out or forgotten. Cash to your employees—appreciated but soon spent. Other presents—hurriedly bought and perhaps ill-chosen. Are they remembered now?

Suppose this year you give them each a Bank Book containing an initial deposit, and urge them to add to it regularly. Could anything be more suitable?

THE PITCHER'S BOX.

In Baseball's Early Days It Was Just a Line Twelve Feet Long.

Up to 1857, or for eighteen years after the first game of baseball was played there was no limit to the number of innings the first side scoring twenty-one runs, or "aces," as they were then called, being the winner. In 1857, however, the game was divided into nine innings. The pitcher had a line twelve feet long, kept behind it and could take a short run before he delivery, just the same as is permitted in cricket today.

In 1863 the old "line" for the pitcher to stand behind was done away with and the twirler limited to a "box" twelve feet long and four feet wide, but in this area he could roam at will and throw from whatever spot he pleased. A few years later the "box" was made six feet square, and in 1876 it was again reduced to four feet wide and six feet long. Ten years later it was made a foot longer and a foot wider and in 1887 cut down in length to five and one-half feet.

These "boxes" being always a source of much change and discussion, they were finally abolished altogether and a rubber slab 12 by 4 inches took their place, the pitcher being required to keep his back foot against the slab. This slab was enlarged to two feet by six inches in 1893 and has remained the same since.

GROW, BUT DON'T SWELL.

Save Exertion of Boasting and Use It in Doing Your Tasks.

It is well for you to have confidence in your ability, but when it reaches the stage of "swell headedness" your value to yourself or to any one else begins to dwindle.

"Some men grow with responsibility; others merely swell." The man who swells has ceased to grow.

He has reached a place where he thinks he has all the knowledge he needs, and naturally all growth is retarded, too.

The best way—the most convincing way—to prove one's capability is by actions, not words.

The fellow who is continually bragging about what he can do is seldom of much account.

It is the man who does things in a quick, intelligent manner who wins.

Such a man will be found at the top because he deserves to be there.

All concerns want him, because he not only contributes much as the result of his concentrated endeavor, but his influence is good on the other employees.

Save the exertion it takes to tell what you can do and use it in performing your tasks. In this way you will get so much consideration eventually that you will not be tempted to brag.

The other fellow will do it for you.

Cheeky John Forster.

In "William Harrison Ainsworth and His Friends" the author, S. M. Ellis, tells a quaint story of Ainsworth and his friend John Forster. Ainsworth had observed in the set of Hogarth's engravings which was held at £5, a sum which, he said, "I could not lay then quite at least did not think I ought to spare. I took John Forster down to see the Hogarths, whereupon he actually said that he would subscribe the £5 himself and as he had not £5 of loose money at that moment I should lend that sum to him. I pointed out the absurdity of the position—that I wanted the engravings for myself and could not afford to lay out the money; how, then, could I lend it to him? It was of no use. He overruled me, had the £5 of me and bought the Hogarths I was longing for."

A Narrow Escape.

"I near had a scrap this morning," confided a slender young lawyer whom you wouldn't suspect of being belligerent.

"Who with?" we asked with no regard for grammar.

"Jimmie Squiggs. I guess I spoke hastily to him. Anyhow, he got the idea that I wanted to lick him."

"Well, what did he do?"

"He took it on the run. Honest, he did three blocks in about twelve seconds before I could get a word in."

"That's going some for a big man like Squiggs."

"Ain't it? And it didn't do him a bit of good. I was half a block ahead of him every step of the way."

Strategy.

"Nora has just dropped another plate," said Mrs. Twobble.

"Well, my dear," replied Mr. Twobble, "suppose you go into the kitchen and drop a hint to the effect that she must not break any more china."

"Evidently you don't know how to manage Nora. If I lead her to believe that we rather enjoy having her break a plate occasionally I think she will be more careful."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Exempt.

"We've been playing school, mamma," said little Elbe.

"Indeed?" answered her mother. "I hope you behaved nicely."

"Oh, I didn't have to behave!" said Ethel. "I was the teacher."

It Was Coming.

Patient—Doctor, what I need is something to stir me up—something to put me in fighting trim. Did you put anything like that in this prescription? Doctor—No. You will find that in the bill.

A young man had been trying his wit on his fellow-passengers in the train, and they were getting rather tired of it. When an old man in the corner spoke up, they listened with interest.

"Here, young man," said he, "two persons were walking down the street. One was tall, the other short. The tall one was the short one's son, but the short one was not the tall one's father."

"That's impossible," said the young fellow, after puzzling for a while.

"No, it's a fact," said the older man.

"What relation, then, was the short one to him?"

"His mother."

Humble Poet.

A lasting contribution to English literature was made in the eighteenth century by a domestic servant. This was Robert Dodsley, who as a young man served as a footman, and brought out his first work, "The Muse in Livery, or the Footman's Miscellany," whilst still in service. With the proceeds of these works and of "The Toyshop," a farce, he set up as a bookseller in Pall Mall, and within a few years became the most prominent of London's publishers. He issued the works of Pope, Johnson and Goldsmith, and inaugurated the "Annual Register."

Sing Sing.

The prison at Ossining, N. Y., is called Sing Sing because the city of Ossining formerly was named Sing Sing. The name is of Indian origin. The town was first settled in 1700 and incorporated under the name of Sing Sing in 1804. Because of the universal association of Sing Sing prison with the village the name of the place was changed to Ossining in 1901. A new charter went into effect in 1906.

Where Chinese Women Rule.

The boatwomen of China have no need to agitate for woman's rights, they possess them. The boatwoman, whether she be a single woman or a wife or a widow, is the head of the house, that is to say, of the boat. If she is married, the husband takes the useful but subordinate place of deckhand. She does the steering, makes bargains with the passengers, collects the money, buys supplies and in general lords it over everything.

Relic of Old Barbarism.

In ancient times, when the young man was unable to arrange with the parents for the purchase of the girl, he would run off with her and hide. Many times he employed the help of a trusted friend. From these incidents came the well-known custom of the wedding journey of hidden destination. The trusted friend of long ago is the best man of today, who still helps with the arrangements of the wedding.

Good Medicine!

The Journal of the American Medical Association recommends a laxative fruit cake made of equal parts of senna leaves, figs, dates, prunes, and raisins. It does not matter much whether the ingredients be weighed or measured, as exact proportioning is not essential. The dose is one slice, large or small, according to the requirements of the individual.

Honesty Prevalent in China.

Honesty is a prevailing virtue among most Chinamen. Some of them in their native towns and cities leave their places of business unmanded while they go off for an hour or more. Should customers arrive in the meantime they find the prices of goods plainly marked, select what they want and leave the money for them.

Age of the World.

Reading and "Skimming."

It is said that Macaulay could read faster than most men could skim and skip faster than they could skip. No doubt, but then he could laugh heartily at a Greek comedy. The whole thing is largely a matter of habit and training; a man can accustom himself to read steadily. On the other hand, the habit of skimming is one of the most perilous to careful thinking; once formed, it is very difficult to shake off, and the man that has allowed himself to slip into the easy primrose path of skimming, finds that he has missed one good thing after another.

Considerate Hen.

A hen which deposits a fresh breakfast egg on her owner's bed, and then awakens him at the proper time to consume the fruits of her industry, is, states the Timber Trades Journal, the prized possession of a sawmill employee at Bend, Ore. Retiring at 3 a. m.—the end of his working day—the man leaves open the window at his bedside. Shortly before noon the hen flies in, nestles near her master's shoulder, lays her egg, and rising, pecks the sleeper gently on the forehead.

Troublesome Spiders.

A spider in Buenos Aires spun its web near a telephone cable. The wind caught the web and wrapped it around the wires. The web soon became damp and caused several short circuits. Other spiders in the neighborhood followed the adventurous one's example, and now it has become necessary for the telephone company to send a man out every few days to clear the wires of webs.—Popular Science Monthly.

Facts About the Bible.

The Lookout prints the following information about the Bible: "The Bible contains 3,566,480 letters, 810,697 words, 31,175 verses, 1,189 chapters, 66 books. The longest chapter is Psalm 119, and the shortest is Psalm 117. This is also the middle chapter. The middle verse, however, is Psalm 118:8. The longest name is in Isaiah chapter 8."

AN AGED PIONEER OF CAMDEN DEAD

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 1st, 1926, the Angel of Death called to his eternal reward one of Camden's fine old men, in the person of James Hinch. He was born in Ireland in 1844, coming to this country with his parents when only seven years of age. They settled in Camden Township, and he has lived in Camden all his life, moving to his late home in Camden East forty years ago. He was a prodigious worker. Life meant to him the conscientious fulfilment of personal obligations. By dint of downright application and perseverance he climbed the ladder of prosperity always maintaining a high ideal of character and achievement.

He was at one time a member of the Township Council, but old age gradually weakened him, and in spite of loving care he passed peacefully away on Wednesday night, and on Saturday his remains were conveyed to the Roman Catholic Church at Centreville, where he always worshipped, and where a solemn requiem mass was sung by the Rev. Fr. C. J. Mea, after which he was placed in the vault which he helped to build when only a young man.

His going out has left a void in the hearts of his loving family, besides his widow, two sons, Peter and Matthew, of Camden East, and two daughters, Mrs. John Gehan, Napanee, and Mrs. Chas. Ingoldsby, Centreville. Two sons, John and Leo, have already predeceased him.

His large funeral cortege, in spite of the inclemency of the weather, and the many spiritual offerings placed on the casket, testify to the high esteem in which he was held.

The bearers were Messrs. P. Evans, C. Dewey, P. Manion, W. Murphy, W. Campbell and M. Joyce.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Roseneath, Ont.,
Dec. 3rd, 1926.

To the Editor of the Napanee Beaver, Napanee.

Dear Sir,—In the issue of your paper for Nov. 26th, 1926, you spoke of a Rev. T. "W." Goodwill, who was to speak at a Conservative Convention in the Town Hall, Selby, on Nov. 29th, 1926, as minister of the United Church, Cobourg. There is no Rev. T. "W." Goodwill, but there is a Rev. T. A. Goodwell, and we are glad to say that the latter is not a minister in the United Church of Canada. If the two names apply to the same person, I desire you to advise the readers of your paper that the Rev. T. W. Goodwill should read Rev. T. A. Goodwell, and that he is not a minister of the United Church of Canada. Whether he posed as a minister of the United Church of Canada down there, or whether you made the mistake I do not know, but let us have the truth in the matter at any rate.

Faithfully,
REV. J. N. LOVELACE.

The Family Physician. — The good doctor is always worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in easing inflammatory pains and healing cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.

Nothing as Good for Asthma. — Asthma remedies come and go, but every year the sales of the original Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy grow greater and greater. No further evidence could be asked of its remarkable merit. It relieves. It is always of the same unvarying quality which the sufferer from asthma learns to know. The new maid had arrived, and the mistress did not like the look of her, so she started to inquire about references.

An American business man, on coming to London, asked a firm with which he had relations to lend him a man to show him round for a day—"a temperance man," he added, "but not bigoted."

Snakes.

Snakes are classed as oviparous, or those which lay eggs; and ovoviviparous, or those which bear living young from an egg which is hatched before or at the time it is laid. The egg-laying species of serpents generally belong to the constricting group, which kill their prey by squeezing it; while most all ovoviviparous serpents are species which take their prey with their mouths, and do not kill by constricting. For instance, the blacksnake belongs to the egg-laying group, while the copperhead snake produces living young instead of eggs.

Superstitions About Ears.

There are several superstitions about the tingling of one's ears. It was at once commonly believed that if it was the right ear it meant that a friend was speaking well of one. The tingling of the left implied the opposite. Sir Thomas Browne, the famous author of "Vulgar Errors," ascribes the idea to the belief in guardian angels, who touch the right ear or the left according as conversation is favorable or not to the person.

Stippling by Clock Work.

The stippled effect which many artists make use of in the working up of their pictures, especially those intended for reproduction, has been heretofore secured by laboriously going over the picture by hand, but the operation has been greatly simplified recently by the English invention of a stippling pen which is operated by a clock work motor. The work is done evenly and quickly.

HOW OPIUM IS SMUGGLED.

Some of the Methods Resorted To In India.

The latest Bureau of Excise Report shows that the ingenuity of smugglers in inventing novel methods of concealing opium is by no means exhausted. Contraband was found during the year concealed in double-bottomed boxes, tables, chairs, tea-boo, pillows, cheroots, honey pots, specially constructed kerosene tins, false-bottomed bookcases, bales of tobacco, loaves of bread and pots of the Burman fish paste known as ngapi.

Match boxes filled with opium were packed with genuine match boxes in complete packets. An earthen pot with a betelnut tree growing in it, a hollow stone image of Gautama, and similar figures of elephants were used as receptacles. Perhaps the newest and cleverest device discovered was that of a Chinese passenger on board of a Rhine mail steamer whose baggage was being searched by a Burman inspector, and who had two large bamboo fish nuts covered with two large sheets of what appeared to be tarpaulin.

On examination the sheets were found to be composed of thin book canvas smeared with dedicated opium weighing 220 tolas (2 lbs. 5oz.) The device was extremely ingenious and would have defied detection had the smuggler not lost his nerve and offered a bribe to the searching officer. The sheets were undeniable culpable. Only by taste could the opium be detected. On immersing a portion in water the opium readily separated from the canvas.

Weathervane 350 Years Old.

Wide interest attaches to the 350th birthday of the old copper dragon of the Church of St. Mary-le-Bow, Cheapside, London, not only because of the age and historic interest of this old relic of the past, but also its service, but because its present birthday marks a remembrance of the copper weathercock. The dragon, one of the weathercocks on larger buildings is perched for the most part to the growing top of the tower in architecture.

The copper dragon of St. Mary's was placed in use in 1572, during the reign of "Good Queen Bess." From its bills rises 221 feet above the sidewalk, it has looked down upon, and indeed participated in, many stirring episodes in London life. Besides rendering faithful service through the changing winds of centuries, it has served as a symbol of the city of London itself, for, 350 years ago, when it was put up, the crest of the city was represented by the cross of St. George emblazoned on the wing of a dragon, just as it is represented there to-day.

This quaint copper dragon saw the rise and fall of Oliver Cromwell, the coming and passing of the Revolution and the Great Fire of London. It survived unscathed the great fire of London in 1646, so realistically described in the diary of Samuel Pepys.

The dragon is made of sheet copper and is eight feet six inches long. It has been taken down from its perch on four different occasions, but the copper itself has withstood the elements unharmed.

Singing-Lamp to Warn Miners.

Fire-damp is practically being stranded by miners than any other menace of their calling. Its presence leads to explosions, breathing it is dangerous and its approach is so insidious that the damage may be done before it is discovered. Davis lamps have been in common use for many years to prevent accidental explosions, the tanious Davies lamp being the one best known. Now comes an improvement on the Davies lamp and also the invention of a Briton. This new lamp not only is a safety lamp from the explosive side of mining and a real illuminating lamp, but it is also a fire damp protector. Its peculiar frame resembles a bunch of tuning forks and they are made so sensitive that the presence of even so small an amount of fire damp in the air as two per cent. will cause the lamp to sing, or vibrate a musical note. As the fire damp increases in the air, the lamp sings more loudly and more shrilly, affording ample warning to the underground worker of the deadly menace.

Pinholes Drilled In Steel.

Making an adding machine required the drilling of ten holes in a plate a thirty-second of an inch thick, each hole to be accurate to a thousandth of an inch, yet no bigger than a pin in diameter, says the Washington Star. The result was a most ingenious machine that stands about 12 inches high. The drill which was built carries ten spindles, each holding a drill of number six Morse gauge, which is about the size of the pin of ordinary use.

Each little sliver of steel that does the work is driven by a belt operating through a cam head and therefore works at the same speed as that of its neighbors. The actual drilling requires ten seconds.

Nearing the End.

"I am not going to talk long this evening," said the speaker. "I've been cured of that. The other night I was making a speech when a man entered the hall and took a seat right in the front row. I had not been talking an hour when I noticed he was becoming fidgety. Finally he arose and asked:

"'Shay, how long you been lecturin'?'

"'About four years, my friend,' I replied.

"'Well,' re remarked, as he sat down, 'I'll stick around; you must be near through'."

Savage Mother Owl.

As she was hanging out clothes a farmer's wife, near Muncie, Ind., was savagely attacked by a big brown owl. Flying from a neighboring tree, the bird pecked the woman's head and eye and pulled out several shreds of hair. The injury to the eye necessitated an operation. It was found afterward that the owl had a nest of young birds close by.

"Another polar mystery," said old Mrs. Hicks, "is why the civilized world should go hunting for explorements when it is having so much trouble with the old ones."

Democratic National Convention Rule.

The two-thirds rule was established by the Democratic national convention in Baltimore in 1832 that nominated Andrew Jackson for a second term. His running mate was Martin Van Buren of New York. The rule has been famous and inflexible ever since, though efforts have been made to destroy it. Republicans operate under a majority rule. In the Baltimore convention Jackson was nominated on the ninth ballot. His running mate four years before had been John C. Calhoun of South Carolina.

Spines of Porcupine.

The spines of a porcupine, in the usual position, lie nearly flat, with their points directed backward, but when the animal is excited they are capable of being raised. The quills are loosely inserted in the skin and may, on being violently shaken, become detached, a circumstance which probably gave rise to the purely fabulous statement that the animal possesses the power of actually ejecting its quills like arrows or darts at an enemy.

Asbestos.

The earliest use of asbestos was for spinning and weaving, to make incombustible thread and yarn rope and cloth, and this has continued to be the most important use of asbestos ever since the days of the Greeks and Romans. Only the best grades can be used for this purpose, according to the United States geological survey, department of the interior. Thread can now be spun so fine that it will run about 322,000 feet to the pound.

It Has a Good Name.

In the yellow adders' tongue, which John Burroughs has poetically styled "fawn lily," there is a twofold appropriateness of name, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington, for the erect leaves have well been likened to the ears of a startled deer, while the mottled colors, with a distinct fawn color more or less in evidence on the outside of the miniature yellow lilies, easily suggest the name.

Many people, the most skeptical of skeptics right in this city and in the country hereabouts, bless the day when Wallace's Drug Store and other druggists offered Rheuma to the afflicted at a small price and guaranteed money refunded if not satisfied. If you have rheumatism get a bottle of Rheuma to-day.

GLASS THAT CAN BE BENT

New Invention Declared to Be Suitable for a Number of Useful Industrial Purposes.

A new substitute for glass or for lacquer has been invented. It can be cut with shears or with a knife and, when heated to more than 100 degrees Centigrade, it forms a kneadable mass which resumes its previous hard state on cooling. It is known as "cellon."

Under the patents of Dr. Eichegrun, a company making cellon in the form of a solid or liquid solution of acetyl cellulose in camphor, either white or colored, transparent or opaque. It appears in slabs, or tube form, as well as in the form of a plastic mass, as putty to be used for lagging purposes or as an anti-rust liquid.

The hard vitreous cellon is bendable and sprigay and insensitive to cold water, soap, fat, alcohol or petrol. When burnt in a flame it drops off like shellac, without, however, being as combustible as the latter. Cellon varnish, which can be allowed to harden or solidify into flexible layers, is suitable for many industrial purposes. Liquid cellon can be used for impregnating textiles or for making insulating tape. In this latter form it can be taken from the round box in which it is wound up, even in the moist condition, and allowed to harden in air.

USE FOR "TANKS" IN PEACE

French Have Put Frightful War Machines to a Variety of Highly Useful Occupations.

The French appear to be ahead of us in finding a use for tanks in peace times. A considerable number of French tanks which are comparatively small sized are now employed for transport purposes about the yards of large industrial works; others are used as farm tractors, while the larger tanks are replacing horses for traction along the wide paths of the great French canals.

The latest and perhaps the most remarkable employment which has been found for these machines is in connection with mountain climbing for tourists. For this purpose the armor, and of course all the fighting apparatus of the tank are removed and a carriage or superstructure capable of carrying from ten to twenty passengers added. The seating is either arranged longitudinally or crosswise. Very steep grades can be taken, while the machine can easily cross small streams and make their way through brushwood, tall grass and over the roughest roads.

Japan's "Year of the Monkey."

Every year, in a series of 12, it known in Japan by the name of an animal, as do the signs of the zodiac; and this is the year of the monkey. Consequently the many millions of New Year cards exchanged were for the most part decorated with simian representations of various kinds. The year of the monkey is not considered a propitious one for marriage, as the word saru (monkey) also is a verb which means "to leave," and it is not supposition that all who marry in the monkey year are likely to leave their partners, who might otherwise be partners for life. Consequently all the couples who intended entering the married state in 1926 had to rush the ceremony through in December of 1910. Needless to say registries and shrines very busy during that month. The post office had a gigantic task in delivering the hundreds of millions of New Year cards dispatched the day before the first of January.

Resourceful Traveler.

Ole the Bear (A. R. Westerberg), mail carrier between Revelstoke, British Columbia, and Downie Creek, 45 miles up the Big Bend, succeeded in accomplishing a feat that establishes a new record in this district. The great depth of snow up the Big Bend, together with the heavy crust caused by raining and freezing, made it practically impossible for a horse to travel the route, so he conceived the idea of making snowshoes for his horse, which he did out of birch, constructing them circular in shape and more than a foot across. For protection he covered the horse's legs with blankets, and thus he succeeded in making Revelstoke in three days without harm to himself or horse.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

The True University.

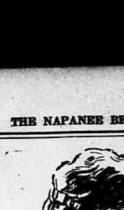
Every true university should make room in its scheme for life out-of-doors. There is much to be said for John Milton's plan of a school whose pupils should go together each year on long horseback journeys and sailing cruises in order to see the world. . . . John Burroughs has a college on a little farm beside the Hudson and John Muir has a university called the Yosemite. If such men cross a field or thicket they see more than the seven wonders of the world. That is culture. And without it all scholastic learning is arid, and all the academic degrees known to a man are but china oranges hung on a dry tree.—Henry Van Dyke.

Beat Him to It.

The company had been marching for two solid miles without a rest and Recruit Sullivan, holding the exalted rank of No. 3 in the rear rank, felt that about come to the limit of his endurance. Finally, just as he was about to give up the ghost and drop, the captain gave the command, "Company, halt."

"By the lord, captain," groaned Sullivan, as he eased off his pack, "you took the very words out of me mouth."

If you should take an Influenza Cold don't wait to see what happens, but begin at once to take Cold Crackers. You will get immediate results. Remember always that it is easier to kill a cold than to cure it. Get them at Knight's Drug Store.



SORE THROAT?

DEAL promptly with the first sign of hoarseness, soreness or inflammation—it might be the forerunner of laryngitis, influenza or serious bronchial trouble.

The quickest, safest and most soothing remedy is Peps. As a Peps tablet dissolves in the mouth it gives off medicinal fumes that are breathed into the innermost recesses of throat and chest.

In their speedy direct way Peps thoroughly disinfect the throat and air-tubes, destroy mischievous germs, relieve any soreness, inflammation or irritation.

Take Peps whenever you suspect you need them. A Peps in the mouth filters the air you breathe, and fortifies against sudden colds and chills and the infection dangers encountered in trains, street cars and crowded assemblies.

Peps are equally good for obstinate coughs and colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma, and other chest weaknesses of old and young.

INFECTION-KILLING TABLETS

Presentation and Address.

On Friday evening, Nov. 26th, a number of friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mrs. Jas. Boyd, Selby, to spend a social hour with her before her departure for Milwaukee, Wis. During the evening the following address was read, and Mrs. Boyd was presented with a lovely club bag and silk umbrella.

Selby, Ont.,
November 26th, 1926.

Dear Mrs. Boyd,—We, your neighbours and friends having learned of your intended departure from our midst, feel that we could not allow you to go without giving expression in some way of our kind regard for you.

This world is governed by its ideals and in your life among us, you have left the impression for good—worthy indeed of imitation. Your willing readiness to co-operate in anything that tended to the general welfare of the community, has edified all, and will serve as an incentive to emulate.

We trust that from time to time we shall be favored to receive our happy associations with you, and as a small token of esteem we ask you to accept this club bag and umbrella. Our earnest wish is that they may be of some use, and may be a pleasant souvenir of the many years spent among us.

Signed on behalf of the neighbours,
MRS. SHIRLEY LEWIS.
MRS. FRANK GRAY.

Although taken completely by surprise, Mrs. Boyd responded in a few well chosen words, thanking her friends for their very kind remembrance.

Health Found in Sun's Rays.

Sun-glare has its influence on health resorts in France, medical specialists have recommended the resorts of Brittany and Normandy for a long time instead of the hot and glaring sands of the southern coasts. This is the choice especially for children and for persons over fifty whose sight is growing dim. Less attention has been given the matter in England, but preference for places on the east and west coasts instead of in the south is growing for people with weak eyes.

Anger Poison.

"Advancing years have caused me to forego the luxury of temper," a middle-aged woman said. "The slow to wrath' might well be one's guide at every period of life, but it is absolutely essential in the middle years, when fits of anger set up a positive poison in the system. Twice in the last year I have been made seriously ill by giving way to my temper. Now, for my health's sake, I endeavor to restrain it."—Exchange.

Pest Works Its Will.

The Mediterranean fly (karatitit capitata) has for several years caused considerable damage in Greece to the fruit and vegetable crops. Oranges, apples, pears, peaches, apricots, plums and tomatoes have been especially affected. No remedy has yet been discovered, and there seems to have been little attempt to prevent the spread of this pest.

Many Changes for Grasshopper Falls.

Valley Falls was originally named Grasshopper Falls. The legislature of 1863 changed it to Sawtelle Falls. It was changed back to Grasshopper Falls the next year because Sol Miller dubbed it "Sowtail Falls." And it was Grasshopper Falls until 1873, when the name was changed to Valley Falls, and everybody lived happily ever after.—Corning (Kan.) Gazette.

Gasoline as an Insecticide.

It is stated upon the authority of no less learned a body than the bureau of biological survey that all users obtain their oxygen supplies through small holes in their bodies. When such an oily substance as gasoline comes into contact with the pests the sources of their oxygen supply are closed, and, lacking breath, they naturally die in a short time.

The Backward Bird.

The flamingo performs a number of its daily duties in a backward or upside down manner. When the flamingo dines, it rests its head in the mud on the bottom of a shallow stream, and while it strains the insects out of the water it takes both a backward and an upside-down view of the world about it.

First Use of Glorious Banner.

On June 14, 1777, the continental congress passed a resolution adopting our original flag. John Paul Jones claimed to have been the first to raise the flag over a naval vessel, and probably the first use of the Stars and Stripes on land was at Fort Stanwix, where a hastily improvised banner was raised on August 3, 1777.

Yet to Be Determined.

London Punch declares that an American newspaper has announced the grafting of a tomato shoot upon a potato plant so as to obtain a crop of fruit above ground with roots below. "But," says Punch, "the article doesn't state whether the plant should be known as the 'pomato' or the 'totato.'"

Remarkable Swimming Feats.

Capt. Matthew Webb, in 1875, succeeded in swimming from Dover to Calais in 21 hours and 45 minutes. On September 5 and 6, 1911, Thomas William Burgess, an Englishman residing in Paris, swam from South Foreland, England, to Le Chatelet, France. The time was 24 hours and 35 minutes.

Unrecognized Genius.

The first literary efforts of Maeterlinck were attended by failure. His first book of poems received no recognition, and he was compelled to print twenty-five copies of his first play, which were distributed gratuitously among his friends.

Sparks and Bathrobes.

In lighting a match when wearing a bathrobe, be more than ordinarily careful, as a spark will set the surface of the robe blazing with the rapidity of an explosion.

Opal More Colorful When Warm.

The opal shows its exquisite color best when warm, and dealers aware of this peculiarity will hold an opal in the hand before showing it, in order to enhance its changing luster.

What Next!

A New York man suggests the idea of training apes as bootblacks. That might go in New York, but Boston would never stand for such monkey shines.—Boston Transcript.

Like a Naughty Child.

When a Tartar invites an honored guest to eat and drink he will take him by the ear and lead him up to the table.

Our First Assurance Society.

The first assurance society in the United States in 1759 was designed for the relief of the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen.

Approaching the Millennium.

Jed Junkins says there can't be any universal prosperity until a man is willing to work as hard for a square meal as he is for a circus ticket.

The BONDAGE of DEBT . . .

SOME people are always short of money—always borrowing—always in debt.

Although the debtors' gaol has vanished, those in debt are not free. They control neither their time nor their careers. Others control them.

Random Remarks.

Every man is a missionary — a missionary for good or evil. — Lord Polwarth.

Keep a bright outlook on life and never walk about with a gloomy face. —Lord Methuen.

The greatest asset in business is to have a good name.—Field Marshal Sir William Robertson.

Some girls give more thought to the choice of a hat than to the choice of a husband.—Mr. Joseph Hocking.

One of the functions of a bishop is that of a mosquito—to keep people up to scratch.—Bishop of St. Albans.

The conduct of successful business consists merely in doing things in a very simple way, doing them regularly, and never neglecting them.—Lord Leverhulme.

Often the best brains develop slowly, and it has become almost proverbial that the dull boy at school turns out a man of exceptional mental capacity.—Sir Charles Macara.

Twenty Minutes' Record.

By controlling the speed of a revolving phonograph record, an English inventor gets twenty minutes of music on one side of a twelve-inch record, instead of the usual four minutes or thereabouts, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine. When the record disk revolves at a uniform angular speed, as at present, the outer groove of the record moves more swiftly than any other groove that is nearer to the center. Thus, although the outer groove is about four times as long as the inner one, it can contain no more music, making necessary a variation in the recording speed. In the new method, the recording speed is made constant, and by correspondingly contracting the speed of the record, the impression upon it of a very much greater number of sound vibrations is made possible.

The Horseshoe.

The earliest form of a horseshoe was a leather boot worn by heavy war horses. The ordinary war horses of the Greeks, Romans and Persians went unshod, though methods of hardening the hoofs were occasionally resorted to. The very earliest record of metal horseshoes is found in a manuscript of Pope Leo VI., who died in A. D. 911, but it is known that they were used at a much earlier date, as real metal shoes of that character have been found in tombs known to date back to the sixth century. The oldest oriental forms of horseshoes were circular in shape and fastened with flanges which clamped on the side of the hoofs.

Home Surroundings Count.

A house is depressing or cheerful with its woodwork, rugs, draperies, furniture, pictures, ornaments enter into the color scheme of the rooms and a discordant note among any of these will destroy the unity of the whole house or building. Colors must be balanced just as forms are.

Facts the First Requisite.

Facts are to the mind what food is to the body. On digestion of facts depends the strength of the one, just as on assimilation of food depends the vigor of the other. That man is wisest in council who has digested the largest number of facts.

Anti-Kissing Law.

In Bavaria, the state railways forbid kissing either on stations, where friends, relatives and families are united, or on trains, while France issued an order two years ago forbidding kissing on trains.

Egyptian Mummy Cloth.

The extraordinary durability of the ancient Egyptian mummy cloth is believed to be due to the fact that it was finished with a vegetable glue derived from the African locust-bean tree.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

To the Editor of Napanee Beaver.

Dear Sir,—Is it not a mistake in cleaning the snow from the sidewalks in town to scrape it down to the cement surface? Would it not be wiser to leave a layer of snow covering the cement surface, and thus afford the pedestrian safe footing? When the snow is entirely cleaned off and the cement surface left exposed, it gathers moisture from the atmosphere, and this freezing makes the walk a piece of glare ice most dangerous to walk on, and only fit for the "kids" to skate on.

I notice that the snow shovellers employed by the Town Council invariably put the walks in the objectionable and dangerous condition I have mentioned. This should be stopped, and the walks left in a safe condition for those who have to walk on them. In their present condition they should be sprinkled with sand.

Yours, etc.,
SAFETY FIRST.

Address and Presentation

At the regular meeting of the W. M. S. in St. Andrew's United Church, Napanee, after service of eleven years as President, Mrs. Corkill was presented with a handsome Bible, and the following address :—

Dear Mrs. Corkill,—It is with feelings of deep regret that we learn of your resignation from the very important position as President of the Women's Missionary Society, an office you have filled so faithfully and efficiently for many years. We have been untiring in your efforts to promote the interest and welfare of the Society, giving so cheerfully and unselfishly of your time, energy and means that it has been an inspiration for the members to endeavor (in their small way) to assist you in your high calling of helping to send to the heathen the message of Christ's undying love and to advance the great work of Missions. The influence for the extension of the Kingdom in spreading the gospel tidings of Salvation to many benighted souls which you and our former Presidents have exercised, will continue to be felt through the ages to come. "Our echoes roll from soul to soul, grow forever and forever".

You cannot say with the prophet of old "I have labored in vain", "I have spent my strength for nought", but we have done the work well that was given me to do". It is the best work the Master wants, so have you been giving the best years of your life to His needs, and if the fruit derived from helping others is the sweetest of pleasure then may your cup be filled to overflowing. We know that any impulse of missionary power on earth is from the heart of Christ, and if there are activity, voluntary giving and willing workers, it is because through all the organizations of the Church and His personal spirit works.

We still hope to have your presence and encouragement with us, and may your mantle, like Elijah's of old, descend upon your successor, to enable the work you have so loyally upheld.

We ask you to accept this Bible as a very slight token of our appreciation for the work you have done in our Society, and trust this may be a happy years in the Master's service will still be yours.

OBITUARY

William Garrett Schell.

One of the most progressive and well-known farmers of North Fredericksburgh, passed away on Thursday morning, Dec. 9th, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Schell was taken ill while on a deer hunting trip in the northern part of the county. Returning home, his condition rapidly became worse and despite the efforts of physicians and nurses, the disease could not be stayed. Deceased was a native of the Township of North Fredericksburgh, and had resided in the township all his life, with the exception of a number of years spent in fruit farming in British Columbia in company with his cousin, Mr. Wellington Schell. Returning to this county he purchased the farm on which he died, which is considered one of the best farms in the county, well stocked with pedigreed cattle and fully equipped with all the labor saving machinery. Besides his sorrowing widow, who is a daughter of the late Wm. Brandon, he leaves one young children. The funeral took place from his late residence on Saturday to Riverview cemetery. Napanee.

Raymond Husband.

Mr. Raymond Husband, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus P. Husband, Empey Hill, passed away on Saturday, December 11th, at the early age of 29 years, 1 month and 5 days. Deceased had been in poor health for quite a lengthy period, and early in the past summer underwent an operation at the Kingston General Hospital, but such was the nature of his affliction that little benefit resulted. He died, which is considered no word of complaint, but bore it all with patience and fortitude. He was confined to his bed for about four weeks prior to his death. In the neighborhood of Empey Hill he will be lived and was well known, he was much respected for his many good qualities, which was evidenced by the large number of people who gathered at the home on Monday last, the day of the funeral, to pay unto the departed their last respects. Deep sympathy is expressed for his bereaved widow who is left, and also for his father and mother and one brother and one sister. The funeral services were conducted at the home of his parents on Monday afternoon, by Rev. Mr. Batstone, after which the remains were deposited in Riverview vault at Napanee.

THE "SANTA CLAUS" FUND

The Social Service Council, made up of representatives from all the churches, has been hard at work for the last few weeks, sewing, mending, and preparing necessary clothing for the needy in the town. They have made a careful survey for the Santa Claus fund, and report a large number of children to be helped. They are planning expenditures beyond present income. But we feel justified in increasing the expenditure on account of the need. The Rotary Club gave a concert and dance for the same object last week, and from this source we will receive $200.00. But we still need a hundred dollars more to have done the work well that was given me to do". It is the best work the Master wants, so have you been giving the best years of your life to His needs, and if the fruit derived from helping others is the sweetest of pleasure then may your cup be filled to overflowing. ROTARIAN CONCERT AND DANCE

On Tuesday evening a concert and dance was given under the auspices of the Napanee Rotary Club, on behalf of The Beaver Santa Claus Fund. The entertainment, which was largely attended, was held in the new wing of the Gibbard Furniture Building, the use of which was kindly offered by Mr. Gibbard.

The large room was beautifully decorated with Xmas colors; the walls draped with red and white bunting, colored lights hung from every corner, and on one side of the room a decorated grove of Xmas trees added a lovely effect.

A splendid concert filled the early part of the evening, the performers most generously giving their services. Mrs. J. E. Madden and Mr. Ernest Madrand, of Kingston, played three duets with great brilliance, and were heartily encored. Mr. Jack Elder, Scotch comedian and baritone, of Kingston, entertained the audience with his marvellous imitations of Harry Lauder, and treated everyone to many a hearty laugh. Mr. James Baukley, of Belleville, a tenor of great ability, was received with enthusiasm. Mr. Madrand and Mrs. Madden were the accompanists for the evening.

At the conclusion of the programme, a vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Gibbard to the performers who so kindly gave their time and talents to the success of the entertainment.

The second half of the evening, was devoted to dancing. Many expressions of gratitude were accorded the Waiters' Orchestra for giving their services. The orchestra, consisting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walters, Mr. Harold McGreer, Mrs. Edward Durarin, Mr. Wm. Durarin, Mr. R. E. Smith, Mr. Russell Bell, Mr. A. E. Smith and Mr. Lockyer.

The Rotarians are happy to announce that they will probably realize over two hundred dollars. They also wish to thank Mr. Harry VanLuven for the use of the piano.

STRATHCONA

Concerts and Christmas preparations are keeping most of our citizens busy.—Last Friday evening the Mission Circle and Band gave our pastor, Rev. W. H. P. Anderson an opportunity to preside over by far the best concert given by those organizations. Rev. Mr. Anderson's address on "Missionary Needs in India", made a little more than ever what the Christmas Anniversary stood for. The Mission Circle rendered it in a most praiseworthy manner. Their choruses and duetts made us proud of our young people. They gave a dialogue, entitled "Miss Canada's At Home", in which Confederation and International problems were well represented. The Mission Band gave a full share of their ability in recitations, drills and dialogues. The little children certainly did their part with great zeal. Everybody and their uncle, or, Mrs. Bruce Finlay. Those who missed this concert missed a great treat. But while its life there still is hope.—Next Wednesday, Dec. 22nd, the Public School concert will be given. Practising to start at 8 p.m. Bring your quarters and come, for the benefit of the Methodist, are making great preparations for a literary feast.—We are glad to report that Geo. Finlay is rapidly recovering after his operation. On Wednesday of this week the W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hallman. The radio installed by Wm. Ballance is giving splendid satisfaction to the family as well as the proof of the saying, "a boy started is a joy multiplied". Sidney Rose from the R. A.—Mrs. Ed. Haines, has been quite poorly, but at present is improving nicely.—Mr. Sidney Rose is quite sick.—Don't forget the S. S. next Sunday at 2 p.m.

BETHEL

The recent snow storms have made good sleighing, and the nice mild weather which followed delighted everybody.—Mr. Fred Perry's men, Bill Withers and Mr. Earl Walmsley, are pressing hay for William Bros.—Mr. Jay Hamilton and daughter, Jessie, returned home last week from the North West, having spent three months out there, and report having had an enjoyable trip, as well as lots of work at the carpenter trade.—Mr. Anthony Bruce is quite sick.—Mrs. Hamilton followed up while out there. — A number of neighbours have colds, but not any seriously ill at present time. — An aged resident of this neighborhood passed away on Wednesday night of last week, in the person of Mr. Geo. Hill. His funeral was held on Friday morning, at the home of his niece, Mrs. Edmond McKnight, with whom he had resided for a long time.—Mrs. Wm. Jackson spent a few days in Napanee last week. — Mr. John Simmons, of Bickerel's Corners; Mr. Joe Adamsbrack and family, also Miss Agnes Alcombrack, of Newburgh, spent Sunday last with Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson.

TAMWORTH UNITED CHURCH

The sermon subject for next Sunday is "Excuses".

The wife of Mr. Thomas Robinson, of Marlbank, was called from the home on earth to the home in heaven on Tuesday, she had been sorely afflicted with paralysis for more than a year previous to her death.

The funeral service was held in the church on Friday morning. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

The wife of Mr. W. Hall, of Marlbank, who has been ailed for some time, was stricken with paralysis last Saturday and is in a very critical condition. Mr. Isaac Robinson's funeral was held on Tuesday, Dec. 9th, was a brother of Mrs. Hall. Having sold their home to Marlbank and purchased another in Tamworth, they were in the process of moving their household goods when Mrs. Hall was taken sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanclief are moving from Tamworth to Marlbank before Christmas and New Year, where Mr. Vanclief has been engaged to take charge of the cheese factory. We are sorry to have them leave Tamworth, but glad they will still be on the pastoral charge.

The net proceeds of the bazaar, dinner and concert given on Dec. 4th has increased from $225.00, as first reported, to over $260.00. Congratulations, ladies!

The annual Christmas Tree and program will be given by the Tamworth S. S. in the Town Hall next Monday evening, Dec. 20th.

CAMDEN EAST

Winter weather is still with us. Grip and colds are the order of the day.—The bazaar and concert given by the Ladies' Aid of Camden East was a decided success. $125.00 was realized.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee, of Detroit, Mich., spent over Sunday here with his brother, Korah Lee, and family.—Mr. Wm. Will Hawley has left to resume his duties at the Condensery, Napanee. After spending his holidays here.—Our storekeepers certainly deserve credit for the decorations put on for the Christmas holidays. — Mr. Percy Hiested arrived home from Buffalo on Wednesday morning to be with his wife and family for the Christmas season.—Miss Greta Saul is improving slowly, having sprained her ankle two weeks ago.—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McNeely, of Newburgh, spent Sunday evening with their daughter, Mrs. Korah Lee, and Mr. Lee.—Mr. M. E. Hartman and son, Harold, called on friends here on Wednesday last.

BURNS PROVE FATAL TO PLANT EMPLOYEE

Caught by Flames While Trying to Put Out Fire in Cabinet.

Gladwin Loucks, aged 18, of 917 Broadview Avenue, Toronto, died in the General Hospital on Saturday night, of burns sustained at the furniture manufacturing plant of George E. Bilton, 27 Sackville Place, Saturday morning. The body was removed to the Morgue, where an inquest will probably be ordered by Chief Coroner Crawford. Loucks was badly burned about the body and lower limbs.

Loucks was working with a paint spray gun in a cabinet, when, in some unaccountable manner, the woodwork caught fire.

Obtaining an extinguisher from another room, Loucks rushed back to the cabinet and attempted to put out the blaze. In doing this his clothing caught fire. George Henley, of Fairbank, seeing the lad's peril, wrapped a coat around him, in this way smothering the flames. In the meantime, the firemen had been called. They extinguished the blaze and gave first aid to the injured youth. Later he was removed to the hospital. Loucks came to Toronto from Enterprise, Ont., and had worked for the firm about two months.

Presentation and Address

On Thursday evening, Nov. 19th, 1926, a very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Rawlinson, Sillsville, when the Young People's Union of Conway and Sillsville gathered, to wish their daughter, Hattie, happiness and prosperity in her wedded life.

The following address was read by Mr. Leonard Mellow, and Miss Elma Whyte presented her with a silver cake tray.

Dear Hattie,—It is indeed a great pleasure to meet with you this evening to share with you the joys of this season, which you will no doubt cherish long in your memory.

We wish to express our appreciation of your good work among us during the past year, and we trust that it may ever continue. Just as you have laboured so the Lord's work has prospered in our community.

We wish you happiness and prosperity, both spiritual and temporal, in your new home, for indeed, the home is the most ancient and honourable institution of any nation.

As young people we congratulate you that soon you are to accept God's call to a life of service by sharing with another the joys, sorrows and responsibilities of life in the state of matrimony which is holy in God's sight. May you so dedicate your life in His service that your personality may be one of the great masterpieces to shine as the stars on the great day of Judgment.

And so we ask you to accept this token as an expression of our esteem, good-will and love.

Signed on behalf of Conway and Sillsville Union Young People's Society.

DOROTHY MERRITT, President.
LEONARD B. MELLOW, Secretary.
ELMA WHYTE.

ERNESTTOWN'S WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The first meeting of the recently organized Institute of Ernestown was held at the home of Mrs. Fred. Hamm, on Tuesday, Dec. 7th, with nineteen members present. The usual procedure was followed, viz.: opening exercises, roll call, reading and approval of minutes of last meeting, and correspondence.

Several business matters were discussed and final arrangements made. Mrs. H. Laidley asked to be relieved of the office of treasurer for the time being, and the vote resulted in the appointment of Mrs. L. Crowe for same.

Following this the Management and Sick Committees were elected, those called upon to do the work being Mrs. T. Creighton, Mrs. Clarence Thompson, and Mrs. G. L. Young as directors, and Mrs. M. Wiseman, Mrs. K. Priest, and Mrs. W. Thompson to visit the sick of the community.

The next proposition the President placed before the ladies was that of a meeting-place, whether to rent a hall or to meet in one another's home. All thought it wise to meet in a home, especially during the winter months, and several ladies were heard to say "I would love to have you at my home". Out of this question arose that of social tea. Everyone seemed to like the social part of the afternoon, but the refreshments are to be limited, and five of the members to act as hostess and assistant hostesses. One of the instructive and interesting features of each meeting is to be the rehearsal of current events, and this is being ably taken by Mrs. Priest. Mrs. Hanna surprised and delighted all her listeners by giving a very nice paper on "A Xmas Thought". Collection was taken, $1.53 to be added to our account. The meeting adjourned by singing, "God Save the King".

Mrs. Hamm served a tasty lunch, and all left remembering that we meet again, with a favorite recipe for roll call, at the home of Mrs. Leo Crowe, on Tuesday, January 4th, 1927.

THANKS! THANKS!

Once more we are reminded o f a babe, a stable, angels, shepherds, a star unique in brilliance, wise men on camels loaded with gifts.

What does it mean to us on this "Merry Christmas" that breathes in the frosty air and echoes through spoken and written messages?

It means that Heaven's own light once came to illume earth's darkness, the light that manifested itself in life. "The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us and we beheld His glory, the glory of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth".

The splendour of that first Christmas gift was the love that prompted it, love unfathomable, inexhaustible. "Love Divine all loves excelling" has come to pour itself through a human heart—the tender yearning of God over the loved and lost was to find expression in the glistening of a human eye the anguish of a human soul.

It was the brilliance of heaven that had come to shine with a mellowed lustre as human eyes could bear the light. It was The Lord, Jesus, The Christ, the Star of the Morning, the Light of the World.

"Full of glory, full of wonders,
Majesty Divine;
Mid Thine everlasting thunders
How Thy lightnings shine;
Shoreless ocean, who shall sound
Thee?
Thine own eternity is round Thee,
Majesty Divine."

Thanks, for such a Sovereign native born.

Thanks, for the "Child"—the "Son" given Who shall one day take upon His shoulders world government, and reign in righteousness and "whose Name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace."

Thanks, for "Immanuel—God With Us", whose glory through the rending of the veil of His flesh illumines the way to God, flings the sunshine of hope through the tear of despair, turns nights of weeping into mornings of joy.

Thanks, for the opening of Heaven begun on earth to all believers.

Thanks, for the secret of wireless communication with Heaven through the tuning of the transmitter with the receiver.

Thanks, for one "who taught with authority, for one "in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge", for "Him that filleth all in all", the Faithful and True, "whose countenance is as the sun shineth in its strength."

Thanks, for the homage of science to revelation in the words "We saw wise men of the East" and its offerings to its Creator of created things most precious.

Thanks, for the heavenly evangelists who preached the first glad gospel message to the poor.

"Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift."

Words spoken even by angels were hopelessly inadequate to convey to the world an expression of its greatest need, "A Saviour which is Christ the Lord". "Unspeakable" is God's gift to the world, incomprehensible, incomparable.

—B. Carr Harris.

MORVEN

We were very sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. John R. Purdy are about to move from our midst, and make their home in the States. A number of their neighbours gathered in their home last Friday evening, and read them an address and presented Mrs. Purdy with a beautiful chair, and Mr. Purdy with a smoker's set. The best wishes of the community go with them to their new home.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Bailey Hamm was very largely attended, considering the cold weather at the time. Miss Jean Kay, of Chicago, who arrived for the funeral, is visiting her foster-father until after Christmas.—A deep feeling of sorrow was felt, when it became known that Mr. W. G. Scheil, Hawley, one time a resident of this place, had passed away, after suffering intensely for a month. Rev. W. S. P. Boyce, Brighton, officiated at the funeral. Very sad, conducted the funeral service, which was held at the home on Friday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mills, Oshawa, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Mills.

Originally "Easterling."

Sterling, in such applications as sterling silver, has a curious history. The people, especially merchants, from Germany, were called Easterlings, because the country lay east of England. About the time of King Richard, money coined in Germany came into great demand in England. Men skilled in minting were imported into England, and the coins they produced were called easterlings, after the name of imported workmen. By the tendency of abridgment that seems inherent in all languages, the first part of the word was dropped, and the word became sterling.

Convinced.

Whenever Bobby's mother gave him money for candy, she advised him to buy a little of good quality rather than more of a cheaper kind. Childlike, he was loath to do this, but one day he came back home with a few pieces of excellent candy, and when he had finished it he remarked: "Mother, I see now that the cheaper it is, the gooder it ain't."—Boston Transcript.

Made His Name Immortal.

The endless screw is still called after Archimedes, for he invented it to pump the water from the holds of vessels, and has not been improved upon since. It is a long spiral, the lower extremity running down into the water, and as it is turned the water is lifted, flowing out at the top. It is really a development of this Archimedean screw, reversed in action, which is seen in the propellers of modern steamships.

Bad for the Dealer.

Try It on the Donkey.

When a grey gift wants to know how soon she will be married, she whispers into the ear of the first donkey she meets, "Shall I soon have a husband?" If the donkey moves his ear, she will. If he stands immovable, she won't. So if you have a little donkey in your home—

Still Time to Repent.

The only religion that does a date for the end of the world is that of the Hindoos. According to their faith, the world is in the last of four separate periods. This period is 432,000 mundane years, of which 5,029 have elapsed, so that they figure the world has 426,980 years still to exist.

Woman's Tolerance.

A neighbor woman's idea of tolerance is to say with a curious emphasis which leaves the impression that she is open to conviction on the subject: "Oh, well, I don't suppose the girl's actually bad."—Ohio State Journal.

Persevering.

Pepper Tea.

Pimienta, or pepper tea, deriving its name from the marked similarity between this fruit and the pepper bean, is the berry of a plant which grows wild in Honduras, Central America, the extract of which enjoys a wide usage as a substitute for tea and coffee, and is by many preferred to either, writes a correspondent from Puerto Cortez. The beverage is very soothing, and should, if introduced on the market, enjoy a marked degree of popularity.

Fish in a Power Plant.

Algae and other water growths persisted in growing in the cooling towers of a large power and light plant. Chemical solutions did not seem to affect them, and finally the company hit on the plan of placing carp in the towers. Immediately the water began to clear up, and soon all trace of algae had disappeared. The fish did not interfere with the purpose of the towers, so they still live there.—Popular Science Monthly.

Home of Famous People.

Famous folk were among the authors, inventors and composers who made Bardstown, Ky., their home. Take it from the Automobile Blue Book. The composer was Stephen Collins Foster, who composed "My Old Kentucky Home." The inventor was John Fitch, who built the first steamboat. The author, perhaps, better known than either of the two, was J. James, author of the phrase, "Hands Up!"

World's Deepest Gold Mine.

The gold mine of St. John del Rey, in Brazil, is the deepest metal mine in the world. It was opened more than 80 years ago, and had been sunk to 6,926 feet at the time of the latest report. The temperature in some parts reaches 116 degrees F., the rise in the heat of the rocks averaging one degree in every 126 feet of descent from the surface.

This Tiger a Flyer.

It is strange a creature as frail as the tiger swallowtail butterfly should be endowed with such wonderful powers of flight, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington, D. C. With a body but of little more than an inch in length and a very slender, and with a wing extent rarely exceeding four and one-half inches, this dauntless insect is as much at home in the air as any bird.

Depest Cave.

The deepest cave known in the world is one found near Fredericshall, Norway, it being 11,000 feet. Think of it, over two miles deep! But it is worth the long trip down into its depths, for many of the wonders of nature are to be seen there. However, when it comes to real beauty and interest there are no caves that excel our own.

Animals Cause Asthma.

Certain people are liable to attacks of asthma when brought into contact with cats, dogs, etc. This is due to an emanation from the skin or fur of the animal.

Pretty Nearly the Right Idea.

It was Anna's first visit to the big city, and when she saw all the innumerable electric tights in the evening she asked her aunty: "Is they tryin' to make the day longer?"

"Skin of His Teeth."

"Skin of his teeth," so far from being an "absurd" phrase, has a biblical origin. You will find it in Job, chapter 19, verse 20.

Hospital for Sick Children

67 College St., Toronto 2, Ont.

Dear Mr. Editor:

A spirit of warm friendliness towards the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto exists all over the province and it increases with the years. It has been enhanced to a considerable extent by the clinics which have been conducted in so many centres in Ontario by doctors from the Hospital who have picked out curable cases which up to the time of the clinic had been seemingly hopeless—eventually sending the little patients home from the Hospital healed and fitted to be valuable assets to their municipalities, instead of remaining useless and pathetic burdens.

Your readers, in common with the people in all other progressive communities, are interested in the Hospital and what it is doing. The keen interest in crippled children manifested by the Rotary, Kiwanis, Gyro, Lions and other service clubs, throughout the province, has been of grand assistance in bringing in unfortunate children, often from remote districts to the various centres where the members of the Hospital staff have attended and have been able to hold huge clinics with the result that there has been a steady stream of children admitted to the Hospital from all over Ontario, for a long time.

This is but one branch of the thorough service rendered by the Hospital. It is the best equipped institution of its kind on the continent for the treatment of all child ailments. No Ontario child requiring its services is refused admittance and all that modern medical and surgical skill combined with loving care can accomplish is bestowed upon the sufferer, without distinctions as to religion or nationality, or because those responsible for the child are in poor circumstances.

Heavy expense is involved in this merciful work, Mr. Editor, as you can realize. Ordinary sources of revenue, including grants, fail to cover the actual cost of maintenance of the little patients, notwithstanding thrifty management. Old friends and new ones are relied upon to help in paying the difference and they include the readers of your valuable paper. The Hospital for Sick Children does not share in the funds of the Toronto Federation for Community Service, because it takes patients from all over the province.

Please ask your readers to remember the Hospital for Sick Children when they are doing their Christmas giving.

Faithfully yours,

H. H. WILLIAMS,
Chairman of the Trustees.

SICK ABED EIGHT MONTHS

After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Could Do All Her Work and Gained in Weight

Melfort, Saskatchewan. — "I had inward troubles, headaches and severe pains in my back and sides. I was so sick generally that I could not sit up and I was in bed most of the time for eight months. An aunt came to stay with and help me as I was unable to attend to my baby and could not do my work. She told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking two bottles I could get up and dress myself. I also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. When I first took the medicine I only weighed seventy-eight pounds. Now I weigh twice as much. If I get out of sorts or weary and can't sleep I always take another bottle of the Vegetable Compound. I find it wonderfully good for female troubles, and have recommended it to my neighbors. I will be only too glad to answer any letters I receive asking about it."—Mrs. WILLIAM ERICSEN, Box 408, Melfort, Saskatchewan. C

BUSY BEES IN WINTER.

How They Generate Heat to Keep the Colony Warm.

The bee upholds his reputation for industry throughout the winter months as well as during the summer. Being susceptible to cold, the bee must turn to his colony for warmth. Communism, which in bees is so highly developed in the storing of food and caring for the young, is also the basis for the heating system.

It was found by experiment that only the shell of the cluster made by the bees in cold weather is compact. This is formed by one to several layers of bees all solidly arranged with their heads inward, their hairs interlacing. This arrangement is perfect for conservation of the heat within. Except for an occasional shifting of position the bees forming the shell are quiet. But within the shell strange things are going on.

It is here that the heat is generated. And the antics are not unlike our own when we are cold. The bees are packed loosely within the shell so that there is plenty of space for many bees to be exercising at a time. Rapid fanning of the wings, shaking the body from side to side, rapid breathing and other movements are all part of the scheme for raising the temperature. In one particular instance, when a bee had been rapidly fanning with his wings for seven and a half minutes, the thermometer nearest him rose half a degree F.—Pearson's Weekly.

Johnny Roche's Tower.

Standing on the banks of the river Awberg, between Mallow and Fermoy, County Cork, Ireland, is a remarkable edifice known as "Johnny Roche's Tower." The whole tower was built by the labor of one man, who subsequently resided in it. This individual, who received no education whatever, also erected a mill, constructing the water wheel after a special design of his own. Long before the introduction of the bicycle he went about the country in a wheeled vehicle of his own construction propelled by foot power. His last feat was to build his tomb in the middle of the river bed. John Roche died, but was not interred in the strange burying place which he selected for himself, his less original relatives deeming such a mode of sepulture unchristian.—London Strand Magazine.

The Horseshoe Legend.

Here is an explanation of the old horseshoe superstition: St. Dunstan was a skilled farrier. One day while at work in his forge the devil entered in disguise and requested Dunstan to shoe his "single hoof." The saint, although he recognized his malign customer, acceded, but caused him so much pain during the operation that Satan begged him to desist. This St. Dunstan did, but only after he had made the evil one promise that neither he nor any of his kind, evil spirits, his servants, would ever molest the inmates of a house where the horseshoe was displayed.

The Coffee Plant's Friend.

In Columbia there is a tree highly esteemed as a shade for the coffee plant. It is found also in tropical Brazil and possesses qualities that make it peculiarly fitted for this particular use. It will live on a stony, poor soil, and a tree only eighteen months old will shade a square yards of ground, while when full grown it may be fifty feet high and have a spread of fifty feet on every side.

Grandeur.

"Where did your ruler get his ideas for this magnificent palace?"

"It was modeled after an American drug store," explained the grand vizier. "Some fine effects, eh?"

The Sort.

"You looked very sympathetic when Mrs. Jaggers was talking to you. Was she telling you a moving story?"

"I should say so. She's been in six houses in as many months."

Heavy Reading.

"I've seen 'French at a Glance,' but some literature can't be handled that way."

"What, for instance?"

"A railroad time table at a glance."

No More Fairy Tales.

"Children are getting all mixed these days."

"What's on your mind?"

"My little nephew only knows Robin Hood as a character in a comic opera."

Cause For Gladness.

The pessimist was suffering from rheumatism.

"Every bone in my body aches," he complained.

"You ought to be glad you are not a herring," said the optimist.

Retort Courteous.

"I suppose there's nothing doing for a live wire like me in this stupid town of yours."

"Well, I don't know. There're several live wires like you doing time here."—Exchange.

Fewness.

"Why is it that as the Indian and the bison become extinct their pictures appear on our currency?"

"I don't know, unless they are considered symbolic of scarcity."—Washington Star.

The Revenge of Lycurgus.

"Which of us does not admire what Lycurgus the Spartan did? A young colt had put out his eye and been handed over to him by his people to be punished at his own discretion. Lycurgus abstained from all vengeance, but on the contrary instructed and made a good man of him. Producing him in public in the theater, he said to the astonished Spartians: "I received this young man at your hands full of violence and wanton insolence; I restore him to you in his right mind and fit to serve his country."—From "The Golden Sayings of Epictetus."

"Tweedledum and Tweedledee."

We understand that the expression "tweedledum and tweedledee" is used to designate two things between which there is the smallest possible difference, and is applicable to disputes over trifles. It is also applied to nonsensical discussions such as the old logicians indulged in, e. g., when a farmer takes a pig to market, is the pig going with the farmer or the farmer going with the pig?—The Wire Message.

Lake's Level Has Fallen.

The pre-historic Lake Tahoe was larger and deeper than the present lake. During the Neocene epoch and earlier part of the Pleistocene epoch its water stood much higher, but in its overflow it has cut through the lava dams that maintained it at the height. Beaches that mark the former higher level are about 100 feet above the present surface and doubtless the water once stood even higher.

Reading When Drowsy.

To read or study when tired or drowsy is to strain the eyes to a dangerous degree, writes W. M. Carhart in Public Health. Avoid evening study whenever possible. If you are using your eyes by artificial light be sure the light does not shine directly into the eyes, and try to have it come from behind and to the left side so as to avoid the harmful glare.

Weight of the Hope Diamond.

Jean Baptiste Tavernier came into possession of the Hope diamond in 1642, stolen from the sacred golden statue of Rama, in the Temple of Rama and Sita, Barmah, India. It weighed 112¼ carats and was sold by Tavernier to Louis XIV for half a million dollars and a barometer.

Discipline.

No one ever begins to climb at the top, but an observant business man remarks that the trouble with many of our young people is that they do not seem to be aware of that fact. They are so assured of their own ability, and high desert that they claim the wrong end of the ladder.

Disagreeable Duties.

The easiest time to do a disagreeable duty is when we first decide it is a duty. Evasion and delay double the unpleasantness, and hours of needless taste and distaste are added to discomfort the decisive action that must come at last. Dodging the disagreeable is a losing game.

No Important Climatic Changes.

There has been no well-authenticated changes of climate within the last 2,000 years. Changes due to man, such as deforestation, agriculture, the building of canals, railroads or telegraph have only a local effect.

Discouraging to Authors.

Lawdy! Lawdy! Now they're going to finger-print the newborn babies. What are our future novelists and scenario writers going to do when the mixed infant's pilot becomes no longer plausible?—Boston Transcript.

Wisdom From Carlyle.

The world is a thing that a man must learn to despise, and even to neglect, before he can learn to reverence it and work in it and for it.—Carlyle.

Let's Go to Durham.

In the county of Durham, England, it is an old custom to give fruit cake to the first person met on the way to the church by a christening party.

Oldest Inhabitants.

Fossil turtles ranging from 2,000,000 to 7,000,000 years in age, have been found in San Juan county, northern New Mexico.

Place of Rest.

An inn in a remote district of Cambridgeshire, England, bears this inscription: "Five Miles From Anywhere—No Hurry."

Corsets Used to Hide Defects.

It is a fact well authenticated that corsets were originally adopted, not for comfort or health, but to conceal physical defects.

Class That Has No Leisure.

Leisure will always be found by persons who know how to employ their time; those who want time are the people who do nothing.—Mme. Roland.

Breaking a Record.

Switzerland's Good Record.

It is a liniment that has the blessing of half a continent. It is on sale everywhere and can be found wherever enquired for.

HARDER THAN STEEL

Diamonds Can Drill Hardest Rock As Well as Decorate Pretty Woman.

Nature has given us several kinds of diamonds. The diamond of my lady's tiara is very different from the diamond of a glass-cutting implement; and there are other forms as well. All however, consist of carbon.

When an element, such as carbon, has many different forms; it is said to be allotropic, and, if asked to define what is meant by the word diamond, we should be right in saying the diamond is an allotropic form of carbon.

The diamond is the hardest known substance, and is practically the only material from which tools can be fashioned for cutting substances which are harder than steel.

In the manufacture of watches and other intricate mechanisms involving jewelled movements, or bearings, made from rubies, sapphires, or other precious stones, diamond implements are used in cutting and shaping the gems.

"Black diamond," a popular misnomer for a lump of coal (especially when it is dear!) is in fact the correct name of a certain class of diamonds which, by being porous and imperfectly crystallised, have a black appearance. Black diamonds are found only in Brazil, and, if left in their natural surroundings, become perfectly crystalline. They are used for the cutting points of rock drills.

Many quite soft substances, such as glass, rubber, vulcanite, paper, and bronze quickly wear out steel tools with which they may be ground.

The initial cost of a steel tool is only a few shillings, whereas that of a diamond tool may be several pounds; but the diamond will more than repay its first cost in a much shorter time than the steel tool, which may be ruined at the outset.

Diamond-pointed tools last many times as long as any others, and, moreover, materials cut by them rarely require polishing or burnishing afterwards, so perfect are the cutting properties of the crystal.

The average rough diamond has a very ordinary appearance, differing little from a common pebble of the beach. The lustre and colorless property of the treasured jewel are only found in a small proportion of the diamonds discovered in the mines. The rough diamond, known as "bort," is as hard as the precious jewel, and is the kind generally used for grinding implements.

Diamond cleaving is an art in itself.

The crystal presents a form of grain, or lines of cleavage, along which only can it be split. A knowledge of the lines of cleavage, is very essential for the designer of diamond cutting implements. Even the most experienced diamond-cleaver will study a crystal under his microscope for hours before cutting it.

This crystalline structure, or property of being cloven, is probably related closely to that peculiar property whereby one diamond will cut another. Although one piece of steel will not cut another piece of steel of equal hardness, a sharp diamond will make a clean cut in another diamond, and be worn away badly in the process.

Strangers In Language.

All men are strangers. There are so two men on earth who speak the same language. Each places his own individual meaning in his words. With the self-same words men talk of quite different things. And I cannot be certain how my words will be interpreted by him to whom they are addressed. That is the reason all aged people talk to themselves; it is the habit of a lifelong experience—Mabel Johnson Leland's Translation of Arne Garborg's "The Lost Father."

Numbering Spool Cotton.

The number of cotton thread is based on the size of the yarn from which the thread is twisted. The finished thread was originally all threefly and carried the yarn size—that is to say, three strands of size 50 yarn were twisted together and called No. 50 thread. When six-ply or six-cord came into use it was decided not to change the numbering of the thread, but to use six strands of yarn size 10 to make the No. 50 thread.

Education in Ireland.

The national system of education was introduced into Ireland in 1831 to take the place of the Society for the Education of the Poor. Prior to the establishment of the national system the schools had been conducted by the churches as non-pay schools, or were conducted by charitable societies, with the help of grants from the government.

Keep Extra Supply.

A reserve supply of little things necessary around the house will save many an annoying moment. With this fact in mind, don't buy just one paper of pins, a package of hairpins a hair net, five stamps, a small supply of letter paper. Lay in a regular stock of these things and of all such little articles, the lack of which causes so much lost time.

Cause of Vertigo in the Ears.

Vertigo, which is quite common, is caused by a derangement of a number of different organs including the heart, stomach, kidneys, eyes or brain, and it has been recently determined that many cases are owing to ear troubles.

What Dreams Mean.

To dream of cards denotes great wealth; hearts, riches and honor; diamonds, signifies you will quarrel with your lover; clubs, happiness and money; spades, you will meet with many hardships.—Chicago American.

King Had Faith in Women.

The famous Emperor Charles V, who was accounted one of the ablest rulers of his time, had such confidence in the ability of women to govern that he appointed three successively as regents of the Netherlands.

Spirit of Service Needed.

To no one man is it given to do it all. Each has his part, and, if he do it well, does all that can be expected of him. But he will never do it well if he be not possessed of and dominated by the spirit of service.

Otherwise All Right.

A prominent clubwoman says that woman's besetting sins are envy, laziness, gluttony, jealousy and revenge. Outside of that, she is, we presume, the angel we have always liked to picture her.—Boston Evening Transcript.

Advice.

If thou wouldst be justified, acknowledge thine injustice. He that confesses his sin begins his journey toward salvation. He that is sorry for it, mends his pace. He that forsakes it, is at his journey's end.—Quarles.

THRILLS ON ALPINE PEAKS.

The Pope on His Mountaineering Adventures.

The Pope, as most people are no doubt aware, is a mountaineer of distinction; but the true nature of the remarkable and adventurous climbs which he has carried out in the Alps has just been disclosed by the publication of a book, "Climbs on Alpine Peaks," by Fisher Unwin, in which his holiness relates some of his exploits.

On one occasion the Pope and his party had to spend two nights out on the mountains. The occasion was the ascent of Monte Rosa, in the Alps, from the Italian side.

On the journey up the mountain-side one of the party lost his axe. He was afterwards obliged to use his hands on the cold rocks and the snow, with the result that his gloves were soon torn to pieces and his hands were so frostbitten that it was many months before he was cured.

After reaching the summit the climbers were forced to spend the night on a projecting rock, and the Pope declares:

"The spot where we were was not, indeed, one of the most comfortable. On the other hand, it was perfectly safe for anyone who was reasonably sure of himself, though it was extremely small. Anyone sitting down found his feet dangling in space; we had, however, every facility for stamping them, provided we were careful not to lose our balance. The cold was intense; without being able to reckon the exact degree, I may mention that our coffee was frozen hard, and our wine and our eggs resembled it, in that they were neither respectively drinkable nor eatable."

Before the party succeeded in reaching safety they had to spend the following night also on the mountain-side. The Pope, in his connection, declares that whole nights have been passed with impunity on the very summit of the Matterhorn, and even on Mont Blanc.

It was in the course of this expedition that the Pope visited the gold-mines at Pestarena, which are worked by British capital.

"If is noteworthy," the author remarks, "how the English, with their practical ability and characteristic courage, contrive to employ profitably considerable capital in that outlying part of Italy. I say considerable capital, not only on account of the importance of the works and the number of men employed, but also (to the praise of the English, be it said) because of the liberality with which they ensure the safety of our workmen."

The Pope, by the way, when a small boy, first heard the English language spoken on the Alps, and the party consisted of a Church of England clergyman and his family. He was immediately fascinated with the sound of the strange language. He had just been reading Milton's "Paradise Lost" in an Italian version, and soon made up his mind to learn the English language in order to read the great masterpiece of literature in the original.

The author also describes his conquest of the Matterhorn and Mont Blanc, and adds that mountaineering is not a breakneck pursuit, but merely a question of prudence and of a little courage, of love of nature and her most secret beauties.

Perhaps the most frequent complaint which mountaineers experience is frost-bite, and the Pope gives the principal points of the treatment, which, he says, is alternate massage with snow and compresses of spirits of camphor, followed by bandaging with cotton-wool and india-rubber.

Another form of treatment which is often adopted by doctors in Alpine centers, and which is usually successful, was seen by the Pope to effect a complete cure in the case of a friend, though it was applied after two days' delay and though the patient's condition was very serious. This treatment consists of continual compresses of spirits of camphor, as well as vaseline and baths of cold salt water.

Knotty Legal Problem.

A British lawyer in Brazil is trying to unravel a most unusual family tangle. A Brazilian multi-millionaire died and bequeathed a million dollars to the first grandchild born in his family. The first to arrive were twins, a boy and a girl, and the question under debate is which was born first. The mother declares the girl was born first, but the father denies this. Two doctors, who were in attendance, disagree, one contending the mother is right, the other supporting the father. The final decision is to be left to the referee, who knows no one involved. If his decision is adhered to, the matter will be kept out of the Brazilian courts, but there are few who believe that it will stand if the loser does not dissatisfied in the future. The suggestions that the inheritance be divided equally between the twins is firmly refused by both parents.

Hospital for Animals.

The University of Philadelphia has a hospital fully equipped for the treatment of animals of all sorts and sizes. The operating table can handle horses and cattle. The patients are dieted and treated the same as human beings in their own hospitals, only on a bigger scale. It takes a quart of chloroform to get a horse into a sleep ready for an operation. Operations are not the only part of the hospital's work, for horses, cows, pigs, mules, and dogs are treated for influenza, faults in breathing, indigestion, nervous breakdown, skin affections, and even for being "run down." It is here that vivisection is made to be of use to the animals themselves, and it is said that through the knowledge thus acquired thousands of valuable animals have had their lives prolonged to their natural span instead of being destroyed after an accident.

Money in His Shoes.

A Pole named Pietr Talla, traveling from America to Danzig, was taken ill recently in the Y. M. C. A. hut, Waterloo road, London, and removed to the infirmary. He had only two shillings threepence in English money, but hidden in his clothing he had 22 $10 gold pieces and paper money to the value of $300. His shoes were found to be very heavy, and when they were photographed by the X-ray, 12 large coins, presumably $10 gold pieces, were found hidden between the leather and the soles of each boot.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Try It.

We may set it down as a great truth, I think, that the sense of monotony and drudgery in our work generally shows that we have come to put our emphasis in the wrong place—that we have become concerned more in getting our work done and off our hands than in the way we are doing it. Change the emphasis to the latter, and the situation will be mastered. The sense of drudgery will vanish, and the life and the work will have another aspect.—M. Q. Simons.

A Fool You Can't Bend.

I think I know now what I never knew before—the meaning of the common saying: "A fool you can neither bend nor break." Pray heaven I may never have a "wise fool" for my friend! There is nothing more intractable. "My resolve is fixed!" Why, so madmen say too; but the more firmly they believe in their delusion the more they stand in need of treatment.—From "The Golden Sayings of Epictetus."

Wife as Man's Discipline.

Wife and children are a kind of discipline of humanity, and single men, though they may be many times more charitable, because their means are less exhausted, yet on the other side, they are more cruel and hard-hearted, because their tenderness is not so often called upon.—From "The Essays of Francis Bacon."

Selfishness Well Defined.

How narrow the survey of selfishness! It is like looking at a landscape through the end of a tube, which shows it only as a spot. It is like being on a mountain top with so stiff a neck that you cannot turn your head to see any part of the vast round of vision except that which is just before your eyes.—A. M. O. A.

Latitude of Ukraine.

Ukraine lies between latitude 48 degrees and 52 degrees, north. It is watered by the Dnieper, which intersects it in a winding course from north to south. The surface is mainly level and it is one of the most fertile parts of Europe. The heat of summer and the cold of winter are intense.

Educational.

Dancing plays a very important part in the education of boys and girls in Japan. In the better class families the dancing teacher comes every other day, regular practice is an affair of routine, and private entertainments where the children perform are arranged by friendly families.—Omaha Bee.

Making Known an Engagement.

An unusual way to announce an engagement at a luncheon is to have envelopes at each guest's plate with the words, "A Fortune From a Tea Cup." Inside, the names of the engaged couple are found made up from tea leaves pasted to the card.

A "Good Sport."

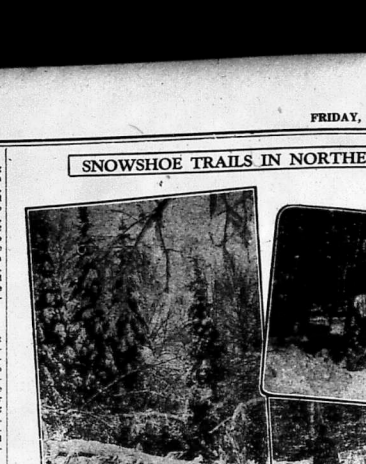
SNOWSHOE TRAILS IN NORTHERN WOODS



The forests in winter time present an attractive appearance. Photographs show: Upper left, typical winter scene after snowfall; lower, one of the intelligent husky dogs of the Northland; Upper right, lunch time in the bush; lower, dog team on the trail.

"Blane Bee Trails," a new out-of-doors feature which will take the visitor out into the forests of Northern Ontario and Quebec under the guidance of experienced woodsmen and trappers, will be operated this winter by several outfitters in the northern sections of these two provinces, it is announced by the Tourist Department of the Canadian National Railways. These have been arranged to meet the demand for facilities for spending a winter outing in the woods and the men who will operate them are outfitters who have had wide experience in caring for hunting and fishing parties. Travel will be over snap lines, on well-beaten trails, by dog team and snowshoes and the visitor will be able to make woods trips of from 50 to 200 miles, under conditions which will provide for the comfort and convenience of the inexperienced woodsman.

ODESSA

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wagar, Enterprise, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Mabee, last Tuesday and Wednesday.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Robertson, Violet, spent Sunday at W. E. Topliffe.—Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Davy and Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Bell, Oshawa, and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Fraser, recently visited Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Davy, the occasion being their sixtieth wedding anniversary.—Mrs. Davy's younger days were spent in this vicinity, and for many years have resided in the village. Odessa feels justly proud of them and offers congratulations. — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamm and children, Harold and Hope, spent Sunday with relatives in Plainfield.—Rev. G. E. McQuade and H. J. Smith spent Tuesday in Belleville.—William Jones has purchased a new car to be used in his undertaking business.—Irvine Burley is installing a radio in his garage. He also has one in his home.

DORLAND

The pleasant winter weather continues, and we are getting quite used to the sound of bells.—The W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid are planning an interesting evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loyst, on Tuesday of this week.—A good programme is being prepared for the Xmas entertainment to be given in the United Church on Christmas Eve.—Santa Claus will be kept busy for the next couple of weeks, attending all the Sunday and Public School Christmas trees.—Miss B. Crews was a week-end guest of Miss Geneva Roblin.—Mr. Borden Hart has arrived from Youngstown, Alberta, to spend the winter with his parents.

WILTON

The young people of Wilton have organized a League, which is held in the League room of the United Church, on Thursday evening of each week. The first social evening was held on Dec. 2nd. The programme consisted of four splendid readings, which were prepared by Miss Mildred Anerin, on "Canadian Poets". They were read by Miss Lillian Babcock, Miss Ida McPherson, Miss Eleanor Emberley, and Mr. Gordon Clark. A vocal solo was rendered by Miss Ethel Babcock, which was much enjoyed by all. The remainder of the evening was spent in contests and games. Lunch was served by the girls. Rev. Mr. McQuade closed with prayer.

ODESSA WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The December meeting of the Odessa Women's Institute was held in the Public Library. Our worthy President, Mrs. Nelson Smith, opened the meeting by the singing of the Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

It was decided to affiliate with Kingston Local Council of Women, and Mrs. J. E. Mabee was chosen as our representative.

The roll call was answered by "a beautiful thought in Poetry or Prose", and some beautiful thoughts indeed were given that each one could carry home to help along in the making of "Home and Country".

A quantity of sewing and knitting was brought in, and a committee of six ladies was appointed to look after the Christmas baskets and place the sewing where it is needed.

Mrs. Ashton recited a poem she had learned when a little girl, which was enjoyed by all. Mrs. S. Holmes, Mrs. E. Parrott and Mrs. Leo Crowe each gave suggestions on "Inexpensive Christmas Gifts," and displayed samples of the article they described. Mrs. Lewis Snider and Miss W. Clark also gave suggestions.

We are increasing in membership at every meeting, which is very encouraging for a new Institute.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Mabee, on January 5th, at 2.30 p.m., when we are to be favored with a talk by Mrs. Fred Hamm on "Her Impressions of Japan". The roll call will be "A New Years thought or resolution."

We are now showing French Ivory for Christmas. A beautiful Mirror, large size, with long handle, is wonderful value at $4.00. French Ivory Clocks are priced at $4.00 and $5.00. Brushes at considerably less than last year. No trouble to show you our complete stock. Wallace's, Napanee's Leading Drug Store.

"An elderly man said to a young man in a kindly voice :

"You wish to marry my daughter. Can you cook, sew, wash and iron, sweep, darn, nurse children, shop—?"

The young man gave a puzzled laugh.

"Why ask me if I can do those things?" he said.

"Because," said the elderly man, "my daughter can't."

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is recognized clinically and by two-fold action, it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

The Friend of All Sufferers.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a valuable remedy to all those who suffer pain. It holds out hope to everyone and realizes it by stilling suffering everywhere. It is a liniment that has the blessing of half a continent. It is on sale everywhere and can be found wherever enquired for.

"Isn't it rather difficult to officiate at a double wedding?" asked the friend of the clergyman.

"Not at all. After all, it's only just putting two and two together," he answered.

Fresh Supplies in Demand.—Wherever Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been introduced increased supplies have been ordered, showing that wherever it goes this excellent Oil impresses its power on the people. No matter in what latitude it may be found its potency is never impaired. It is put up in most portable shape in bottles and can be carried without fear of breakage.

The weary young man was always grumbling about his boring existence.

"Oh, dear! wish I knew what to do with my week-end," he yawned.

"Why don't you put a hat on it?" enquired his sister sweetly.

Miller's Worm Powders seldom fail. They immediately attack the worms and expel them from the system. They are complete in themselves, not only as a worm destroyer, but as a highly beneficial medicine for children, correcting weak digestion and restoring the debilitated system to healthfulness, without which the growth of the child will be retarded and its constitution weakened.

Left Nothing Worth Stealing.

When a motor car broke down at Westerly, R. I., the members of the party rolled it to one side and then stripped it, taking all the removable parts, including the wheels, to a garage. This insured the rest staying where it was until the garage man refitted the parts next day and towed the car to his repair shop.

Holes in Plaster.

Holes in painted or tinted walls can be filled with plaster of paris, but the contrast is often worse than the hole. The coloring used in washing walls can be used in mixing the plaster of paris until the wall color is reached, and there will be no strong contrast to call attention to the spot.—McCall's.

Strange Oyster Dredging.

Oysters are obtained in various ways. At Minorca, in the Mediterranean, the fisherman simply dives to a depth of 70 feet with a weight in one hand to carry him down. With the other hand he picks up as many oysters as he can carry and brings them to the surface.

Instinct of Sheep Dog.

The Australian sheep dogs are the smallest in use in the world, but are quick and lively. One dog can do the work of half a dozen men; in many instances a dog is superior to 50 human beings, where there are vast flocks of sheep to watch.

Bribery Always a Sin.

Bribery is a sin. It is condemned in the laws of Moses: "And thou shalt take no gift; for a gift blindeth the wise and perverteth the words of the righteous." These words are as true today as when they were written.—Rev. Bernard Paine.

To Restore Perfume of Flowers.

It is stated that the perfume of flowers disappears as soon as the starch in the petals is exhausted. It may, it is said, be restored by placing the flower in a solution of sugar, when the formation of starch and the emission of fragrance will be at once resumed.

Didn't Mean to Be Thirsty.

Signor Angelini Giustiniani, who traveled specially from Rome to Bayreuth in order to be present at the first performance of "Parsifal" on July 26, 1882, was surprised to see Wagner while also conveyed a large barrel of beer perched conspicuously on the box seat by the side of the driver. This was carried into the theatre, presumably with a view to slaking the thirst aroused in the gullets of Wagner and his friends by the performance of his masterpiece."

After Rain in the Desert.

After a rain in the deserts of the southern part of the United States there is a scent in the air which is very much like spices. This odor comes from the greasewood bush, which grows in great quantities all over the dry lands at certain altitudes. This shrub is dark green, and when its leaves are dampened by the rain, they send out into the air this very agreeable perfume, which makes rain in the desert even more pleasant.

Bower-Bird's Wooing.

A cynical method of enticing a hesitating partner into the bonds of matrimony is furnished by the bower-bird, which builds a structure of sticks formed into a kind of passage or avenue and beautifully ornamented with feathers and shells. On its completion the would-be bridegroom brings the bird of his choice to inspect his fine establishment and entices her to share it.

Queer Cradles for Babies.

An infant in Guiana is usually buried in sand up to its waist whenever the mother is busy, and this is the only cradle it ever knows. The little Lapp on the other hand, fares most luxuriously in its mother's shoe. These Lapp shoes are big affairs of skin stuffed with soft moss, and can be hung on a peg or tree branch safely out of the way.

The Zuyder Zee.

Large as is the Zuyder Zee, it is a comparatively modern feature in the scenery of Holland. It is said to have been formed toward the end of the thirteenth century, after a great storm when the sea swept inland through the isthmus, thus connecting Friesland with northern Holland, and converted the Fleco lake into a sheet of salt water.

Wasted Strength.

Samson is not the only man who has trifled with his strength until it was gone; not only the one who has wasted it in vain and useless ways, believing in his heart that he might trifle with it as he willed, and still not lose it. Many a mother from some prison house of weakness looks back at his own folly in wonder.

Helps Thread the Needle.

Those having defective eyesight will save time when threading a sewing needle if they use a pocket flashlight. Flash it behind the eye of the needle and immediately your needle will be threaded. Keep the flashlight in the machine drawer, where it will always be handy.

Explaining the Situation.

Frederick was not popular with the other boys, as he was of a quarrelsome disposition, and Tony shunned him whenever possible. When asked about it he replied, "Well, he's always looking for trouble, and if I'm not, I've just got to stay where he ain't, that's all."

First Sewing Machine.

The first really practical sewing machine was made by a poor tailor, Barthelmey Thimmonier of St. Etienne, France, in 1830. 15 years before Howe's machine was put on the market. The tailor did not make a success of his machine.

Oddities of the Sex.

"Funny thing about men," remarked a pretty lass at the beach; "they are delighted when we girls forget how to swim and annoyed when we forget how baseball is played."—Boston Transcript.

The Mennonites.

The Mennonites derive their name from Menno Simons, formerly a Catholic priest, who became a teacher and leader of the Anabaptists about 1537, and published his "True Christian Belief" in 1556.

Christmas Gift Book

A Gift that Increases in Value

Presentation Covers are provided for Christmas Gift Books.

WHAT DID YOU GIVE LAST CHRISTMAS?

Toys for the kiddies—most of them broken by now. "Something useful" for the grown-ups—now worn out or forgotten. Cash to your employees—appreciated but soon spent. Other presents—hurriedly bought and perhaps ill-chosen. Are they remembered now?

Suppose this year you give them each a Bank Book containing an initial deposit, and urge them to add to it regularly. Could anything be more suitable?

Add "Royal Bank Pass Books" to your list of Christmas Gifts.

ST. ANDREW'S CONCERT

On Friday last St. Andrew's Orchestra delighted a large audience with a very excellent programme of musical and literary numbers. The Orchestra has been giving entertainments for churches and other organizations throughout the county and district for a long time and with great success. But this was the first occasion in which they had given a complete evening's entertainment in their own church, and the appreciation of their efforts was shown by the large number present and by the frequent and prolonged applause. It would be difficult to single out any one for special mention, for all those taking part entertained the audience admirably.

The concert was held under the auspices of the East End Committee of the Ladies' Aid, who desire in this way to express their appreciation of all those who took part, and helped to make the evening a success, and especially to Mr. MacGregor, who arranged the musical part of the programme, and Mrs. MacGregor who was responsible for the literary part.

CONWAY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The December meeting of the Conway Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. William Chapman. A goodly number of members were present. It was decided to send Christmas baskets to the needy in the neighborhood. After all business had been discussed, a very interesting programme was enjoyed.

The subject of Rev. Mr. Stanton's address was "Milestones to Progress." It was listened to with much interest by a very appreciative audience.

Miss Eleanor Rem, A.T.C.M., A. Mus., also rendered a piano number entitled "Finlandia," by Sibelius.

The last number on the programme was an account of the annual convention in Ottawa, very kindly given by Mrs. R. Bolslin, of the Adolphustown Branch. The report was given in a very able manner, and was enjoyed by all.

The meeting closed with the anthem, and after a dainty lunch was served the members returned to their respective homes, feeling that they had spent a very pleasant and profitable afternoon.

CURLING

At a meeting of the Central Ontario Curling League held in Kingston on Friday last, the following officers were elected :—

Napanee and Belleville will be the Western section of the League.

Merry Christmas to All!

TO OUR READERS

The Beaver will reach its many readers this year on the day before Christmas. It is the children's great season, and few of us are too old to enter into their joys and simple pleasures. Somehow or other at this time of the year old animosities seem to fade out in the acts of doing good for others, and in remembering with gifts our friends, and too, for when we feel a sense of responsibility. It is the one season, as old Scrooge said, when "men of one common consent open their shut-up hearts". To its readers everywhere The Beaver extends greetings, and expresses the hope that in some measure this spirit might be carried on through the whole year.

THE "SANTA CLAUS" FUND

The Town Hall was a busy place this week, when about two dozen women were busy sewing, making stockings and packing boxes for the Beaver Santa Claus. Few of the general public realize just how much cheer and how much help they bring to the community through this channel. The money provided through The Beaver is spent economically and well. The women of the town spent days preparing the material secured, and then everything is arranged systematically in routes, and distributed by voluntary labor.

The appeal last week for a hundred dollars was responded to generously, and before Christmas the full amount necessary it is confidently expected will have been contributed.

To all who contributed, to the committee who worked, to those who helped in any way, and especially to Miss Leamy, who planned so much of the work, The Beaver extends its gratitude, which we know is reinforced by the joy and happiness of a hundred children in the town.

Very shortly The Beaver will publish an audited statement of receipts and disbursements, along with a list of articles bought, made and distributed.

THE GIBBARD CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT

On Friday last Gibbard Shops, Limited, held the second of what it is hoped will be an annual Christmas entertainment. The stock in trade has been cleared of all furniture, the floors sanded and polished, the posts and rafters decorated with boughs and bunting for the occasion.

At seven-thirty the programme began. Mr. LaSalle led for a while the community singing, which seemed to get the proper spirit for the whole evening.

The chairman, Mr. Geo. Gibbard, then welcomed the guests who were made up of all the members of the staff and their immediate families. The Clergy of the town were the only outsiders present. Mr. Gibbard explained the purpose of the gathering, which was simply to express in a tangible form the Xmas spirit. He then called on the various parties whose names were on the programme. Several numbers by the Gibbard Male Quartette, a solo by Miss Olive MacMillan, a solo by Mrs. Valkman, and a duet by Mrs. Valkman and Mr. LaSalle constituted this part of the entertainment.

Then Santa Claus appeared, and the two hundred children present were all excitement while he distributed from the tree a gift to each and every one present. The grown-ups as well were not forgotten, as each member of the staff and each employee received a cheque from the firm.

Supper was served, and then the floor was cleared, the younger children whose parents could induce them to do so went home, while the rest remained to dance till midnight to the strains of Walters' Orchestra.

Gifts for the Boy.

Skates, Hockey Sticks, Hand Sleighs, Jack Knives, Flashlights, Watches, Air-Guns, and Rifles.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RICHMOND

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Another year is nearly gone of which I have been your Reeve, and I take this opportunity of thanking you most sincerely for this honor. I also take pride and satisfaction in bringing before your minds the satisfactory condition we find our finances of our Township is in, after a year of service in which I had your interests at heart, and expending seventy-five hundred dollars on the various roads, and building a fine vault for the safe-keeping of all our documents of the Township, which was badly needed; and after financing all other obligations, we still have the magnificent sum of seven hundred dollars still on hand to do the work for another year without borrowing any money, and it would be quite an easy task to lower the taxes for next year, but I think it is a better policy to have money on hand instead of borrow and pay interest. When you consider we have a lower rate of taxation than any of our neighboring municipalities I think this a good record, and I have come to the conclusion that I would offer my services to you for another year, and I trust you may consider our financial reports as printed and come to the conclusion that I am the one you can trust and put confidence in, and an election day mark your ballot in my favor.

Wishing one and all the Compliments of the Season, and thanking you in advance, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
ALFRED MCCUTCHEON.

OBITUARY.

Moses Lessard.

In the passing of Moses Lessard, of Flinton, on December 7th, the Township of Kaladar has lost one of its oldest, most prominent and honored citizens, and one who had been for years the guiding spirit in the leadership of thought and influence for a large section of the community.

Born in the Township of Huntingdon in the year 1832, at an early age he removed to this Township with his parents, the late Moses Lessard, Sr., and Marie Desilets. Here he grew to manhood and developed his strong and virile character amid the stress and strain of pioneer conditions. He always took an active part in the advancement of educational facilities, having served some twenty-five years as secretary treasurer of the local Public School Board. In municipal affairs, he was looked upon as an authority, having acted in the capacity of Township Clerk for over forty-three years, only resigning from this position some two years ago.

He was a man of rare intelligence and the possessor of a most prodigious memory, and as one who had read widely and reflected deeply, his conversation, as well as his very facial expression, were revealing indications of an exceptional soul. He was one who realized that the human mind was not meant to be like a machine,—all ready made and automatic—but that it should more resemble a garden; holding, always, that it is the use one makes of it, that counts. Thus he proceeded to grow in the garden of his mind, such fine plants of character as courage, initiative, imagination, will power, kindness and knowledge.

Although exhibiting a very tolerant spirit, he was a man held strong convictions, but nevertheless maintained an open mind. As conviction is born of reason, and is the outcome of a thorough investigation into both sides of any issue, so he believed and lived, knowing full well that a closed mind bespeaks bigotry, which is always born of prejudice and blindly so.

Some three months prior to his departure, he prepared a unique statement or rather declaration of his faith, leaving one copy for the guidance of the members of his family, and the other for the officiating Clergyman, with the request that it be read publicly at his funeral. From this declaration as well as from his conversation, it was plainly evident that in prayer, he lifted the eyes of his soul above the materialistic things of earth, and trusted them unto God. He realized that true prayer involved the call of the heart, else it were a meaningless thing. Having considered life as a gift, to be used freely in the service of both God and man, he could say with the Apostle Paul, when the time came for his triumphal entry into eternity, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ".

In the year 1876 he was united in marriage to Miss Matilda Mercure, who together with eight sons and six daughters, remain to mourn the loss of a loving husband and a kind and indulgent father. The sons are Gilbert, Eugene, Charles and Moses, of Vancouver, B.C.; John B., of Regina, Sask.; Wilford, Colbert and Louis, of Flinton. The daughters, Mrs. John Echos, Mrs. E. W. LaChance, Mrs. Clifford O'Neil, of Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. Wm. Agnew, of Red Deer, Alberta; Mrs. Walter Woodcox, of Actinolite, and Miss Anna, at home.

A short service was held at the home, from whence the large concourse of friends repaired to the United Church, where the service was conducted by the Pastor, Rev. I. C. Wickware, interment taking place in the United Church cemetery. The floral tributes from members of the family and, from the municipality which he had served so faithfully, betokened the esteem in which he was held.

"Where Christ brings His Cross, He brings His presence, and where He is, none is desolate, and there is no room for despair."

George A. Thompson.

The whole community was shocked on Friday last by the passing of one of it's most esteemed citizens in the person of Mr. George A. Thompson.

Just a week ago he attended church on Sunday evening, went to his office on the Monday morning and was suddenly stricken at his home at noon and passed away on Friday.

Mr. Thompson had been connected with Napanee all his life and for 35 years had been the local representative of A. A. Ayer & Co., Montreal.

He was a Trustee and Steward for many years of Trinity Church and for fifteen years acted as Treasurer. He was also for some years a member of the Board of Education.

The service was held on Sunday afternoon at the residence on Bridge street, and was conducted by the Rev. W. R. Tanton. In the course of a brief address Mr. Tanton referred to the splendid character, high ideals and likable disposition of the deceased. One who commanded respect in the town, who was a devoted servant and leader of the church and ideal in the home.

Trinity Church was represented at the service by twenty-five members of the Official Board. Mr. T. A. Wilmott, of Montreal, represented A. A. Ayer & Co., of that city. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers from his church, the Masonic Order, I.O.O.F. No. 212, and other societies and friends.

The late Mr. Thompson was married to Sara Helena Mills in 1899, and leaves to mourn his loss, his wife and son, Beverley; Misses Emma and Alma Thompson, and Mrs. John Bush, sisters; Thomas Thompson, of Deseronto, and R. R. Thompson, of Napanee, brothers.

Maria M. Scouten.

Maria May York, beloved wife of Henry Scouten, passed peacefully away in the General Hospital, Kingston, on Thursday, December 16th, 1926. She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hannon York. She leaves to mourn her loss a devoted husband and six children, Bonnice, Marjory, Stanley, Henry, Howard, and a baby boy; besides two sisters and one brother. The sisters are Evelyn (Mrs. Rev.) Sturgeon, of Brockfield, N.Y., and Laura (Mrs. L. Leighton, of Vancouver, and Fredy York, Tamworth. The funeral services were conducted at Violet Church by Rev. W. R. Merrick, assisted by the Standard Minister, Rev. A. Henderson. Her smiling face will be much missed by her sorrowing relatives and friends and neighbours.

She was converted when young and belonged to the Holiness Movement Church at Roblin.

BAY CIRCUIT.

The spirit of Christmas is seen and felt everywhere these days.—We are enjoying ideal weather, and there is both excellent wheeling and sleighing. —Four of the five churches have had splendid Christmas entertainments. Sand Hill started with only a short time for practice, and held their entertainment on Friday evening, Dec. 17th. They had a full house and the programme was a great delight to all. Gretna Church came next on Monday, the 20th. Their entertainment was a Golden Jubilee celebration. The corner stone of the church having been laid in 1876. Rev. W. Wright and Messrs. Paul, Howell, Elias Mellow, William Hamilton, William Burnip, Richard Baker, William Mellow and John Hough, building committee. At this 50th anniversary only three were present. Every part of the programme was good, but the two Pantomimes were among the best we ever saw or heard. The gallary and body of the church were filled with an enthusiastic and happy audience. Bethany Church followed with their entertainment on the 21st, a short time for practice, and their entertainment on Friday evening, Dec. 17th. They had a full house and the programme was a great delight to all. Gretna Church came next on Monday, the 20th. Their entertainment was a Golden Jubilee celebration. Bethany Church followed with their entertainment on the 21st, a short time for practice, and they have taxed to the utmost capacity their powers in this programme and everything that could be desired. If there was one item that should be mentioned as outstanding among the many outstanding items, it was Santa Claus. Mr. Parker made the best Santa Claus we ever saw, delighting everyone, but especially the children. The highly delightful entertaining programs must be credited to our efficient Public School teachers, Miss Marshall, Miss Joyce, Miss Phillips, Miss Fricken and Mrs. W. Bell. Some families of the Circuit attended all four entertainments, and many families attended three of them. A small fee was charged at each to adults, and the receipts from the four entertainments amounted to over $160.00.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE

We're going to have a Christmas tree at our house this year, as per usual, for the Christmas tree is a very outstanding symbol of the season when the mythical, generous monarch with the reindeers, lords it over his millions of lowly vassals.

I don't know when folks first started setting Christmas trees up in their homes—I'm not much interested whether its origin was pagan or Christian—but I do know that we've had one at our place for the past thirty years; ever since a certain winsome young lady with more courage than prudence placed her charms and social reputation in my keeping for the term of her natural inclination.

Since those early days of our home happiness we have observed the Yuletide with all of the ancient rites, customs and ceremonies that belong to it. As the years passed and the children kept arriving with almost unceasing regularity—until it became a serious problem where we would store them—we have entered into keeping of the Bethlehem birthday with a richer and deeper understanding of its real meaning. Apart from its religious significance we have always celebrated it in such a joyous fashion that the children, when they were younger, used to divide the year into two seasons—the putting up of the Christmas tree and the opening of the summer cottage—which were to them the two outstanding events of the year. But Dad and Mum get just as much fun out of it as the youngsters (even if it does leave us stony broke at the time) and when we planned the new home three years ago we considered the best place for a tree and had a floor plug specially put in to provide for its proper illumination.

A week or so before Christmas we usually look over the dealer's stock of trees, and pick out the biggest one that will go into our living room. Right after dinner on Xmas Eve it is put into position, and the decorating begins. Dust-covered boxes of doodads are brought down from the attic where they were carefully stored away from the year previous. We're thrifty folk at our place and we save all the jim-crack ornaments we can from year to year. Some of them have weathered the years pretty well. All the family take a hand at fixing that tree. Dad bosses the job—(or thinks he does)—and gets scathingly criticized for his interference. The presents are brought from their hiding places and piled around the base of the tree, with threats, of not only the severest of penalties but danger of decapitation, should they be opened before the allotted time.

What a wonderful time the young folks have had getting those presents ready; for nobody in the house must be forgotten. For weeks they have been behaving like mid-century conspirators. Mysterious whisperings and subtle questions, to ascertain certain person's taste or preference. Of course, touching Dad up for a little extra coin).

The tree is finally "dolled up" and looks as gay as a plush horse in its array of tinsel and color. Then the holly wreaths are placed on the chimney breast of the fireplace and the mistletoe hung up. We must never neglect hanging up a sprig of mistletoe for we've three bonnie girls and it is the inherent right of their sex that once a year this osculatory emblem should be advantageously placed and properly utilized.

We have been generously blessed with seven healthy olive branches and when they and their friends fill the house with their frolic, they can make as much pandemonium as a gang of students celebrating a college victory. But it's the children's season and we want them to have all the fun possible at home. More than once I have said, especially at Christmas time, "God pity the home without children." But as I say it, I know that a price must be paid for our happiness as it must be paid for all things in this life. If their being has meant sacrifices of comfort and freedom, in return they have brought happiness and affection, and given us a broader and kindlier outlook on life.

This is the season of "charity and benevolence, of love and friendship" and the Christmas tree seems to be such a fitting symbol for it all.

ANOTHER ATHLETE LEFT TOWN

Consternation reigned in N. C. I. when Claude Fraser, a prominent leader in the sports of the school, announced his decision to quit school and go to work. Fraser played everything that the school enjoyed, and last year he was captain of the Rugby, Basketball and Hockey teams. "Tide" was a star at basketball and was well up in the leadership of softball, baseball, rugby and lacrosse. Many were the regrets expressed when he left, especially by the sporting faction of the school. We all hope that he will succeed in his chosen work as he did at the N.C.I.

"What's the matter with "Fraser"?
"He's alright."
"Whose alright?"
"Tide Fraser."
"Who says so?"
"We do."
"Who are we?"
Napanee Collegiate, Collegiate, Napanee.
We shout for you, blue, yellow, blue.
And the honour of Napanee.
Rippety, rappety,
Rippety, rappety, ree—
Napanee Collegiate, Collegiate Napanee.

Everyone is looking forward to the hockey season, and are expecting a good team. Jim Naphin and Fred Bentley are in town again, as are a lot of other well known athletes,—Scrimshaw, Babcock, "Twins" Johnston, Huffman, Skitch, and many others too numerous to name. Get together, form a league. Give 'em a chance.

WEDDING BELLS

Walker—Monaghan.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in S. John's Church, Moose Jaw, Sask., on Tuesday, December 7th, 1926, at eleven o'clock, when Myrtle May, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Monaghan, 1056 Fourth Ave., N. E., became the bride of Mr. Glenn Lynn Walker, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walker, Quill Lake, Sask.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in an imported dress of white georgette, elaborately trimmed with rhinestones and crystal beads. She wore the conventional veil, which was arranged in coronet style and held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her slippers were of silver brocade. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet of ophelia roses and maidenhair fern, and a white prayer book, the gift of her father and mother. She was attended by her sister, Miss Vera Monaghan, who wore a dainty dress of pink georgette, with large picture hat to match, and slippers of silver metallic. She carried a sheaf of Laddie carnations.

The groom was supported by Mr. Clifford Monaghan, youngest brother of the bride.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus", played by Mr. Harold Wilfenden, organist of S. John's Church.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Gerald Hall, (winner of the Justice Brown Award), sang "O Perfect Love", very impressively.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at which a dainty buffet luncheon was served. Cut flowers lent charm to the rooms, which were tastefully decorated for the occasion with silver tinsel, white streamers and wedding bells, with touches of holly and mistletoe. The table, which was covered with a pretty cluny lace cloth (the gift of the bride's parents), was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, beautifully decorated in pillar style.

The bride was the recipient of many useful gifts. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a satchel-style prayer and hymn book, and to the groomsman a signet ring.

During the evening several telegrams and long distance telephone calls of congratulation were received from relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

The happy couple left on the evening train, amid showers of confetti and good wishes for an extended tour through the Eastern States, after which they will return to Kansas City, Missouri, where they expect to reside.

Immediately after her departure, in response to the bride's wishes, her bouquet was placed at the foot of the Cross of Sacrifice in Crescent Park, to the memory of the fallen heroes, especially the unknown soldier.—Napanee Express and Kingston papers please copy.

A school teacher had been telling her class all about the myriads of microscopic creatures inhabiting ordinary tap water.

"Mother," said a little girl on reaching home, "I know what it is that makes the kettle sing when it begins to boil. It's all those little things squealing."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Levi Vanslyck.

Marticia Ann Bell, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Wm. E. Bell, Ernestown, and wife of the late Mr. Levi Vanslyck, Walhalla, N.D., passed to her eternal reward on Monday, Nov. 15th, 1926, at her home in Walhalla, aged 82 years. Mrs. Vanslyck was a woman of great ability in affairs of the home, neighborhood, and church. She possessed a rare wit, that made her a pleasing personality. A woman of wonderful health until about a year ago, when she suffered a paralytic stroke, which left her speechless. All that medical aid and the loving care and attention of her four sons and six daughters could not stay the second stroke that came on the evening of Nov. 14th, causing her death the following morning.

The funeral service was held at the church, in charge of her pastor, after which the members of the Eastern Star Lodge, of which society she was an active member, held their service, which was very impressive.

The passing away of Mrs. Vanslyck leaves a place which will be hard to fill, she having been actively connected with the church and its various organizations, such as the Woman's Missionary Society and the Ladies' Aid. She was an excellent nurse, and few are the homes in her locality that have not felt the soothing touch of her hand. A loving mother whose children rise up and call her blessed, has gone to be with the dear father who departed this life about five years ago. She leaves to mourn her loss, ten children and their families, one sister, Mrs. J. S. Fralick, Morven; three brothers, Bowen E. Bell, Toronto; George D. Bell, Belleville, and Wm. G. Bell, Detroit, Mich.; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. S. P. Bell, Napanee, and Mrs. J. Ayl. Bell, Kingston, and one brother-in-law, Mr. S. P. Hinch, Carman, Man.

Gladwin Loucks.

Sad indeed was the passing of Gladwin Allen Loucks, in his twenty-first year, at Toronto General Hospital, on Saturday, Dec. 11th, 1926, from burns received, caused when his clothing caught fire in the factory of Geo. E. Bilton.

Loucks was working in the spraying room, using a lacquer sprayer, with another workman named Farrell. Suddenly fire from unknown cause occurred, and the room was a mass of flames.

Loucks, police think, took hold of a fire extinguisher, and rushed into the burning room. He was badly burned about the body. An ambulance rushed him to the Hospital, where his death occurred at 6.45 p.m.

He was formerly employed by The Gibbard Furniture Co., Napanee, where he was until May, when he went to Durant Motor Co., Leaside, Toronto, where he spent five months and had been two months in the employ of Geo. E. Bilton.

He was a member of Argyle Lodge, No. 212, I.O.O.F., Napanee.

He leaves to mourn, besides his grief stricken parents, one brother and one sister at home.

The funeral was held on Wednesday from his home to the United Church, by his Pastor, Rev. H. A. Bunt, assisted by Rev. R. J. Merriam, of Napanee. Beautiful floral tributes showed the high esteem in which he was held.

WILTON INSTITUTE

The December meeting of Wilton Women's Institute was held at the home of the President, Mrs. W. C. Snider, on Tuesday evening, December 14th. It being an evening meeting, the gentlemen were invited, and the number of all was about forty. The ladies held their regular monthly meeting, it being opened by the singing of the "Ode", and the repetition of the Lord's Prayer in unison. The roll was called, and the minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Several motions were made, seconded and carried. The Sick Committee bill of $3.55, was paid. The Sick Committee tries to find out of any sickness, and to visit them and give flowers or fruit.

After all business was attended to, the meeting adjourned to meet at Mrs. Stuart Simmons', the second Tuesday in January, for the January meeting. This is also to be an evening meeting, with everyone welcome. The roll to be answered by a New Years resolution.

After this part of the evening was over, about two and half hours was spent in Progressive Euchre, Mrs. Maitland Boulton and Mr. Archie Simmons being the lucky prize-winners. Refreshments of pie, sandwiches and coffee brought this very pleasant evening to a close, and all went to their homes, remembering about the January meeting which is to be. Collection for December meeting was $3.17.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

The traffic policeman raised his hand. The driver did not understand. The evening papers with a blare Proclaimed it quite a grave affair.

Paring a corn is both risky and ineffective. It is much better to use Holloway's Corn Remover and eradicate them entirely.

"The language you use to that mule is perfectly shocking."

"Yes," replied the driver, "It seems to trouble everybody but the mule."

"Now we're married he doesn't give me any more presents."

"My dear, does a fisherman give bait to the fish that he has caught?"

Hobbs—"What do you do with your clothes when you wear them out?"

Blobbs—"Wear them home again, of course."

"How old did you say you were?"

"I never mentioned my age, but, as a matter of fact, I've just reached twenty-seven."

"Indeed, what detained you?"

He—"That handsome girl over there made a fool of me two years ago."

His Friend—"I felt sure that something happened in your past life that you could never quite get over."

Mothers Value This Oil. — Mothers who know how suddenly croup may seize their children and how necessary prompt action is in applying relief, always keep at hand a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, because experience has taught them that it is an excellent preparation for the treatment of this ailment. And they are right, for its various uses render it a valuable medicine.

The teacher put a question to the pupil which he couldn't answer. A boy beside the pupil whispered to him.

"The teacher is an ass."

The teacher, observing this, called out: "Don't tell him. He ought to know it himself."

It Testifies For Itself. — Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil needs no testimonial of its powers other than itself. Whoever tries it for coughs or colds, for cuts or contusions, for sprains or burns, for pains in the limbs or body, well know that the medicine proves itself and needs no guarantee. This shows why this Oil is in general use.

BOTH CLAIM HONOR

Dispute Over Location of First Press in Northwest.

Minnesota and South Dakota Each Firm in the Belief That They Are In Possession of Historic Old Relic.

The location of the first printing press in the Northwest is being disputed by two states, Minnesota and South Dakota, says a dispatch to the Minneapolis Journal.

The historic printing press, an old Washington hand-press, which, it is claimed, printed the first newspaper in the Northwest, is now in the hands of the Minnesota Historical society. The Minnesota contention as to the history of the press is substantially as follows:

"Its active career began back in 1836, when John King of Dubuque purchased it in Cincinnati. He arrived in Dubuque with the new press on May 1, 1836, after a tedious trip on a river steamboat. The first issue of this paper, the Dubuque Visitor, appeared on May 11. It is said that the Visitor was the only paper north of St. Louis and west of the Mississippi river at that time.

"The press, in 1843, for some reason or other, was sold to three representatives of a steer, convern, J. Allen Barber, Daniel Benfil and Nelson Derby, who latter was to become Wisconsin's first governor. These men took the press across the river to Lancaster, Wis., to print the Grant County Herald, of which L. O. Schrader was the first editor.

"The Herald passed finally into the hands of James M. Gossline, a lawyer by profession and a fighting editor of the old school. Gossline in the spring of 1849 shipped his press up the river to St. Paul, Minn., where he founded the Pioneer, which years afterward became the Pioneer Press.

"In 1855 the press passed into the hands of Jeremiah Russell, who took it to Sauk Rapids to use in printing another pioneer venture, the Frontiersman. After that it changed hands frequently. It printed among other publications the Sauk Valley Press conducted by Herman Muhlenberg, state adjutant general. The material of this publication was later sold to the Lindstrom Citizen, a Swedish newspaper. Shortly after this old press found its last home in the state museum in St. Paul.

"Gov. Samuel J. Albright, associate editor of the St. Paul paper, purchased the press in 1858, carried it 400 miles across the prairies to Sioux Falls, Dakota Territory, where, July 2, 1870, he established and printed the Dakota Democrat.

"During the Indian hostilities of 1862, Sioux Falls was abandoned and the Indians took possession of the place. They found the old press and broke it to pieces. The settlers found the fragments but could not piece it together again. Senator R. F. Pettigrew of Sioux Falls is understood to have secured the plate and made from it a doorstep.

"The South Dakota story has been verified satisfactorily so far as the South Dakota department is concerned, by Governor Albright, who wrote in regard to it that 'it was so stated, so understood and, I believe, so published upon its removal to Dakota.'

"But, on the other hand, in the Minnesota museum stands a press which is claimed to be the one in dispute. This one is simply constructed and from its appearance might have printed every pioneer newspaper in the Northwest. Whatever the true story of the identity of the press why be, it is well worth contention."

The Right Man.

One day as Dan Beard was going up the elevator in the high Flatiron building in New York city at the time of the car was a messenger boy with his arms filled with a score of bundles all of the same size.

Peering over the top of the ambuscade, he fixed his eyes steadily upon Mr. Beard. The national scout commissioner of the 400,000 and more Boy Scouts of America knew the signs well enough to realize that something was passing through the boy's mind. He asked the lad what he was thinking about.

The boy replied: "I was just thinkin' that you look like a friend o' mine."

"What's your friend's name?" asked the man who is the friend of all boys.

"Dan Beard," said the messenger.

"I am Dan Beard," replied the commissioner with a smile.

"Gosh!" was the only reply of the astonished boy, who dumped his bundles under the feet of the amused passengers and brought his right hand up to a stiff salute.

Aerial Police for Germany.

Germany has a network of aerial police patrols organized to prevent the emigration of capital from Germany, in addition to fighting against criminals generally. A landing place for police airplanes is already being laid out on the Swiss frontier. Similar establishments are planned for Hamburg, Breslau and other towns.

Supply and Demand.

"The great question now before us," began the ponderous constituent.

"We've got more questions on hand just now than we really need," interrupted Senator Sorghum, "and what with an answer once in a while."

Wealth in Central Kongo.

Copal is a resinous gum found in large quantities in the marshy forests of the Central Kongo. It is gathered from living trees (principally of the copaifera species) or in dug from the ground in a fossil state, often being found in sandy river bottoms. The natives it is said, show considerable ingenuity in finding copal, searching for it with iron-tipped sticks in localities where experience teaches them it is likely to occur.

Chaplain's Forgetfulness.

The chaplain of a jail was once invited to preach to a large and fashionable congregation in a neighboring church. Somehow he managed to bring with him a sermon that he had preached to the prisoners in the jail chapel, and astonished the fashionable folk by telling them: "But for the unmerited mercy of the crown many of you would long ago have expiated your crimes on the scaffold."

He Had to Laugh.

A private with the A. E. F. felt thirsty, and not having a franc in his pocket decided the only way he could get some wine was to faint. So he pretended to faint in front of the first inn. Two French girls ran out, picked him up and started toward the inn. Unfortunately one of the girls inadvertently tickled him and he laughed. The indignant girls left him sitting on the ground.

His Excuse.

Jack was the most mischievous little boy in the neighborhood. His mother had the habit of always trying to excuse his pranks. One day he got into trouble about tampering with a water faucet in the yard of the woman next door. "Why did you do it?" she asked.

"Oh, I'm too young to know any better," the little boy assured her.

In Grant's Cabinet.

President Grant had two secretaries of state: Elihu B. Washburn of Illinois was appointed March 5, 1869, but resigned six days later to accept the post of ambassador to France. Hamilton Fish succeeded Washburn. He was reappointed at the beginning of Grant's second term and remained to its end.

Hospital for Sick Children

67 College St., Toronto 2, Ont.

Dear Mr. Editor:

A spirit of warm friendliness towards the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto exists all over the province and it increases with the years. It has been enhanced to a considerable extent by the clinics which have been conducted in so many centres in Ontario by doctors from the Hospital who have picked out curable cases which up to the time of the clinic had been seemingly hopeless—eventually sending the little patients home from the Hospital healed and fitted to be valuable assets to their municipalities, instead of remaining useless and pathetic burdens.

Your readers, in common with the people in all other progressive communities, are interested in the Hospital and what it is doing. The keen interest in crippled children manifested by the Rotary, Kiwanis, Gyro, Lions and other service clubs, throughout the province, has been of grand assistance in bringing in unfortunate children, often from remote districts to the various centres where the members of the Hospital staff have attended and have been able to hold huge clinics with the result that there has been a steady stream of children admitted to the Hospital from all over Ontario, for a long time.

This is but one branch of the thorough service rendered by the Hospital. It is the best equipped institution of its kind on the continent for the treatment of all child ailments. No Ontario child requiring its services is refused admittance and all that modern medical and surgical skill combined with loving care can accomplish is bestowed upon the sufferer, without distinctions as to religion or nationality, or because those responsible for the child are in poor circumstances.

Heavy expense is involved in this merciful work. Mr. Editor, as you well realize. Ordinary sources of revenue, including grants, fail to cover the actual cost of maintenance of the little patients, notwithstanding thrifty management. Old friends and new ones are relied upon to help in paying the difference and they include the readers of your valuable paper. The Hospital for Sick Children does not share in the funds of the Toronto Federation for Community Service, because it takes patients from all over the province.

Please ask your readers to remember the Hospital for Sick Children when they are doing their Christmas giving.

Faithfully yours,

H. H. WILLIAMS,
Chairman of the Trustees.

RUN-DOWN AFTER BIRTH OF BABY

Ottawa Woman Made Strong by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottawa, Ontario.—"I was terribly run-down after the birth of my third baby. I had awful bearing-down pains and was afraid I had serious trouble. I was tired all the time and had no appetite. My sister-in-law is taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and cannot praise it too highly and asked me to try it. I have had splendid results and feel fine all the time now. Any one who needs a thorough pick-me-up soon learns from me what to take."—Mrs. RENE PAQUIN, 320 Cumberland Street, Ottawa, Ontario.

Terrible Backache

Hamilton, Ont.—"After my baby was born I had terrible backache and headaches. I could not do my work and felt tired from the first minute I got up. But worst of all were the pains in my sides when I moved about. I had to sit or lie down for a while afterwards. I could keep my house in order, but many things had to go undone at the time, because of my ailments. I was told by a neighbor to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she said it would build me up. I was relieved before I had taken the first we bought and have not had any trouble like it since."—Mrs. T. Christmas--Childhood's Fondest Dream

What memories it brings to us whom the years have passed by; whose hair, perhaps, is sprinkled with a bit o' gray, but whose hearts are ever youthful through the glorious Yuletide season. Let's all be little tots for just a happy moment and let us remember the Christmas way back when we just couldn't wait for the day to dawn. Remember how we counted the days, and even the hours, till the night before—how excited we were when the Xmas tree was brought from the woods and majestically installed in our home—how wonderful it looked when decorated with candles, glistening ornaments and pop-corn—how eagerly and excitedly we hung our stockings by the fireside, and then, in all too short a time, Mother hurried us off to bed, and, when tucking us under the covers, how she would admonish us to keep real quiet or Santa wouldn't leave anything.

Time has passed those joyous moments on to other generations. No Christmas may ever be so great again as were those of our Childhood days, none ever so replete with expectations and wonder. We who are older find that Christmas has a more significant meaning. We read of the first Christmas of all, the Christmas that dawned with a celestial glory over Bethlehem long, long ago. For this day gave to the empty, waiting world, the gift of love.

So at this Christmas season let us spread love and good cheer where'er we can and let us extend the Yule-tide spirit to all man-kind in the fulfilment of the first great Christmas message of "Peace on Earth, Good-Will toward Men."

Not from mere custom, but as one with you personally encountering much of the same difficulties and enjoying much of the same pleasures in life—this Store at this Yuletide season extends to its customers "Best Wishes for a Merry Christmas and a New Year packed with Prosperity."

SWITZERVILLE

On Tuesday evening, December 21st, the members of the Switzerville Public School, together with members of the Young People's League, under the able leadership and co-operation of Mrs. Driver, presented a very fine programme, consisting of readings, dialogues, recitations and singing.

The varied character of the programme made it especially interesting to the attentive and appreciative audience. The teacher and children are to be congratulated for the splendid manner in which all the items were given. Such success was the outcome of a splendid spirit of co-operation of all parties concerned. Nor was this all, for when the outlined programme was completed, Santa Claus paid his usual visit and behaved most generously again this year; not only did he take care of the children, but gave presents to some of the older folk in the audience. Among those to whom he was very generous was the Pastor and his wife to whom Santa on behalf of the Women's Adult Bible Class, gave abundant provision for a sumptuous Xmas dinner. Also from the Young People's League a generous sum of money with their good wishes. Through Santa the Pastor expressed, on behalf of Mrs. Merrick and himself, their united thanks for their generous and undeserved kindness to them, not only for the gifts sake alone, but also for the warm hearted appreciation and good will expressed thereby. May Santa and his friends have a real Merry Xmas and Happy New Year.

POETS OF MORE IMPORTANCE

What Ambassador Page Discussed With Sir Edward Grey During Most Serious Crisis.

Ambassador Page's letters sufficiently reveal his fondness for Sir Edward Grey and the splendid relations that existed between the two men. The sympathetic cords which they struck upon their first meeting only became stronger with time. A single episode of the war illustrates the kind of fellow-feeling that drew them together. It took place at a time when the tension over the blockade was especially threatening, according to "Life and Letters of Walter H. Page," in the World's Work. One afternoon Page asked for a formal interview; he had received another exceedingly disagreeable protest from Washington, with instructions to push the matter to a decision; the ambassador left his embassy with a grave expression upon his face and his associates were especially worried over the outcome. So critical did the situation seem that the most important secretaries gathered in the ambassador's room, awaiting his return, their nerves strung almost to the breaking point. An hour went by and nothing was heard from Page; another hour slowly passed and still the ambassador did not return. The faces of the assembled staff lengthened as the minutes went by; what was the ambassador doing at the foreign office? So protracted an interview could portend only evil; already, in the minds of these nervous young men, ultimatums were flying between the United States and Great Britain, and even war might be hanging in the balance. Another hour drew out its weary length; the room became dark, dinner time was approaching and still Page failed to make his appearance. At last, when his distracted subordinates were almost prepared to go in search of their chief, the ambassador walked jauntily in, smiling and apparently carefree. What had happened? What was to be done about the detained ships?

"What ships?" asked Page, and then suddenly he remembered. "Oh, yes—those." That was all right; Sir Edward had at once promised to release them; it had been settled in a few minutes.

"Then why were you so long?"

The truth came out; Sir Edward and Page had quickly turned from interrupted cargoes to the more congenial subject of Wordsworth, Tennyson and other favorite poets, and the rest of the afternoon had been consumed in discussing this really important business.

THE LONESOME WOMAN

"No Chance to Exercise My Tongue," Is Her Plaint.

Was This Farmer's Wife Correct?—Is There Any Respite From Monotony in the Life of Rural Women?—What Is the Panacea for Farm Loneliness?—Handling Cream for Butter.

Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.

I called at a farm home one day in search of water for an overheated motor. Rapping gently on the kitchen door, I was met by the good lady of the house.

"May I have a pail of water?" I asked.

"You may," she said, handing me a pail and pointing to the pump. I noticed that the corners of her thin chin seemed to work in unison when she indicated the direction of the pump.

"Shrewd old girl," I thought, as the water flowed into the pail, "I will try and draw her out. I wonder how she puts in the time. What is she thinking about anyway?"

A Farm Woman's View of the Quiet Life.

After filling the radiator with the clear, cold water, I returned to the door with the borrowed pail. No need of ripping this time. She met me with a kindly smile.

"You have a nice farm here," I said. "You must have a nice quiet life in the country with everything about you is just plain wholesome nature."

Quiet life!" she said with some emphasis. "Just plain nature?" "Yes just too much so, so much so that we want to get away from it all, and be natural."

Somewhat surprised at her expressions, especially the "be natural," I had always thought that if there was any place where a person could be natural it was on the farm.

The Monotony of Farm Living.

I asked, "Why do you want to get away?"

She replied, "We have no life here. My husband and I get up at five o'clock every morning. He at once goes to the barns to feed the stock, while I get the breakfast and attend the poultry. We hurry through breakfast, and then he rushes away to the barn or fields, returning at noon for one half hour in which to eat his dinner. After dinner he is away again until supper time, when he returns tired from work in the fields, pretty well worn by the long monotonous day of heavy labor. As for me, why, I attend the house work. Yes, I attend the house work in silence all day long, and that is what gets my goat. I do not hear the sound of another voice from one day's end to another. No woman to talk to, no neighbor handy by where I could call for a chat. No chance to exercise my tongue.

Farm Women Fed Up With Silence.

"We farm women get fed up with so much silence. It is somewhat different with the men, they are working with animals and do not feel the loneliness as we women do. Maybe a week is not often enough for women to get together, but being kept apart so long is it any wonder that our tongues wag at both ends when we occasionally do talk does come?

Is There a Panacea for Rural Loneliness?

After hearing that little sermonette, I unconsciously started for the car that I had left standing on the roadway. Coming to my senses after a time, I began to think, just what there was in what the lady of the farm home had to say, and repeated to myself her words, "No chance to exercise my tongue, so much silence.'"

Perhaps, after all, the farm is too lonely a place for the average woman of to-day, and with the trend of modern living it will be a more lonesome place in the future unless something happens to change ideas and ideals.

Can anyone suggest a solution of the problem?—L. Stevenson, O. A. C., Guelph.

Handle Cream for Butter Carefully.

Cream may be a little sour, but, if it is clean and free from foreign odors and tastes, it will make fancy butter in the hands of an expert buttermaker. Cream approaching rancidity and carrying with it particles of dirt, whiffs of undesirable odors, and a taste of the barnyard or cellar never makes fancy butter. The butter it enters into is that which drags on the market and sells at a low price. To argue that because certain neighbors are careless with their cream provides a reason why no one needs to be careful is illogical. Produce and handle your cream in a careful, cleanly manner, deliver it frequently, and then demand a price in keeping with the quality.

Flushing Sows.

Flushing ewes at breeding time to increase the number of twin is an ancient practice among flockowners, but not till recent years have swine raisers paid much attention to this practice. Prof. Edward, of the Iowa Experiment Station, has been investigating its practicability with pigs, and reports that the sows making the most rapid gain at the time of breeding, produced on the average 2.1 pigs more per litter than those making the slowest gain. Another practical conclusion reached as the result of this same set of observations is that if large litters are looked for, it is well not to breed the sow until the first period of heat after weaning, when two litters are raised in one year.

An extra gallon of gas carried in a can or bottle under the back seat of your car will save you a walk some day.

The Friend of All Sufferers.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a valuable remedy to all those who suffer pain. It holds out hope to everyone and realizes it by stilling suffering everywhere. It is a liniment that has the blessing of half a continent. It is for sale everywhere and can be found wherever enquired for.

A Useless Advertisement.

An old man, well past sixty, entered the publication offices of the Book and Life and asked to be directed to the lost and found counter. At the proper department he requested the insertion of the following "liner ad.:"

LOST—About forty years ago—an opportunity. It is probably worthless now, but I will reward the honest finder who brings it to me, as I am curious to know what it might have done for me had I not been careless with it.

The clerk redd the advertisement and then looked pityingly at the old man.

"We'll insert your ad.," he said, "but it is my duty to inform you that there is hardly any use in putting it in. We have no records of any lost opportunities ever having been found."

The old man thought for a few minutes, then he said:

"Well, insert it anyhow. People will read it and start to thinking."

Then he went away.

Cross Eyed Mentally.

Do you ever start to say something and find yourself using the word you hadn't the faintest idea of using? Just a little cross eyed mentally, aren't you? Did you ever mean to jam your foot on the accelerator and slam it down on the brake instead? Have you ever put salt twice on the same plateful of food when one of the applications should have been proper? Did you ever laugh at the wrong time at the theater, or sneeze unnecessarily at a funeral, or fail to sleep quietly in church, or solicitously inquire where So-and-so is nowadays when the poor chap has been dead six months? Sure you have. Everybody does it. We're all just a bit mentally cross eyed sometimes, and we don't know it. It seems that we are looking. What we really need to look out for is not doing queer things too often. If we do there's no telling what may happen to us. We may get into the papers!

Men Who Wear Feathers.

Among the strange tribes of men about whom little is known are the Chamacocos of the region about the upper Paraguay river.

Although the Chamacocos wear but little clothing, they excel in the art of making personal adornments from the feathers of birds. Their country abounds with birds of the most beautiful plumage, including parrots, toucans and trogons, whose feathers are dazzling in color; there are gray plumes, musk ducks of a glossy black color, egrets with feathers of pure white and spoonbills of a delicate pink. All the wealth of color and grace of plumage is combined by the Chamacocos in a most artistic manner. Some of them wear the bright forest glades in colors more brilliant, if less ample, than any woman's dressmaker could produce.

His Elaborate Efforts.

"One should beware of beginning his speech in too loud a voice," said Grout. "If you start off with a yell, when the time comes to rise to climaxes or shout hosannas you will have no wind left with which to be emphatic. I knew a young man whose wife prohibited more than 300 love letters in court, which he had written her during a brief courtship of eleven weeks. He often wrote her six or more in one day, and his shortest epistle contained four pages. And yet before they had been married two months he had slapped her jaws so far around that when she wanted to talk into the telephone she had to back up to it. His excuse was that he had exhausted his affection in the course of the correspondence."

Robbery!

He was old, gray, unkempt, unshaven and tottering. His toes protruded from his shoes. He crawled up to an old wealthy guy on an ancient homestead and clung there exhausted. Suddenly a man in furs dashed angrily forward.

"Hey, gimme them rings!" he shouted.

The old man removed three diamond rings from his fingers and gave them to the brute.

"All right. Now go on!" he ordered to a man turning a handle. "How'd you s'pose them rings would look on the screen, you poor idiot? You're supposed to be broke!"

Perils of Tropical Waters.

Raising a vessel submerged in tropical waters is dangerous business, according to an account in Shipping Illustrated of the salvage of a gunboat that had been sunk in the harbor of Progreso, Yucatan. The sailors were in constant danger owing to the attacks of "voracious fishes, some of which are more ferocious than sharks and far more determined in their methods of attacking human prey."

Valley of the Jordan.

The valley of the Jordan constitutes the deepest depression on the face of the earth, the sea of Galilee itself being over 700 feet below the level of the Mediterranean, while the Dead sea is over 1,200 feet below the level of all the oceans of the world.

The Distinction.

"Pa," asked Willie, "what's the difference between an invalid and a sick person?"

"An invalid, my son," answered pa, "has money."

Geranium Oil.

Geranium oil is largely used in perfumery and is known as rose geranium oil to the common practice of adding rose petals to the plants before distillation.

"Work Poor."

Charles M. Schwab at one of his Loretto dinner parties was talking about a man who was vainly seeking the banks for a loan. "He's a rich man, too," said Mr. Schwab; "but he's work poor."

"Work poor!" said a guest. "Yes, work poor." Mr. Schwab repeated. "You see, he's always got so many operations in hand that he's always short of money by Pinance time. Work poor, I call it." Then he smiled and added: "He's one of those fellows who dig so much that they're always in a hole."

Chinese Perfume.

In China, at dinners and at theatrical performances, it is customary to provide guests or spectators with small hot towels saturated with scented water for wiping their faces. Scented water is also much used in connection with bathing and the every-day washing of faces and hands. In some Latin-American countries there is a very great demand for perfumery. If a person needs a bath, a dash of perfume is supposed to serve as well and time and trouble are saved.

Mansions for the Soul.

Quite Likely.

American women bothers with an inclination to embonpoint, it is stated, have taken to painting dimples on their knees. The report that a fashionable New Yorker who does not care for the water has created the necessary illusion by having a lobster painted on her toe is probably premature.—From Punch, London.

Judge's Bright Idea.

Ossip was attempting to walk along the street on his hands. A policeman stopped him, not agreeing that the world had turned upside down. "How much did you drink?" asked the judge. "Just one glass of wine." "Well," remarked the judge, "it must have been a magnifying glass."

Near the Cuspidormitory.

The productivity of the banana is greater than that of any other food-bearing plant. One acre and a little labor will annually produce 17,000 pounds of bananas. One remarkable feature is its immunity from disease.

Canadian World's Grain Champion

Wm. Herman Trelle, of Wembley, Alberta, commenced homesteading in 1909, he confessed that he knew very little about farming. But when the awards were made at the International Live Stock Exposition and Grain and Hay Show at Chicago, Herman Trelle had broken a world's record; he had won the grand championships in both wheat and oats and was the first exhibitor to win both of these crowns.

The new wheat and oats champion is a native of Kendrick, Idaho, 31 years of age and came to Alberta with his parents in 1909. He was educated at Edmonton and graduated from the University of Alberta as a civil engineer. During the war, he served with the Canadian Air Force, and in 1919, while on a survey in the Peace River country, northwest of Edmonton, he located on his original homestead of 160 acres. He now farms 800 acres and in ten years has made him self independent, in this new agricultural area where visions of acres of good land still await settlement.

In the sixteen years of the International competitions at Chicago, this is the fourteenth time the award of the grand championship has come to a Canadian. Trelle's prize-winning wheat was of the Marquis variety, which was originated at the Canadian Government Experimental Farm at Ottawa, by Dr. Charles Saunders in 1904. It was a sample from a 58-acre field, which yielded about 4,000 bushels or approximately 70 bushels to the acre. His prize-winning oats were Victory strain which yielded about 150 bushels to the acre.—Canadian National Railways photograph.

ODESSA

The funeral of the late Benjamin Albert Booth, who passed away last Tuesday morning, after a comparatively short illness, was held from his residence, Thursday afternoon, under the Masonic Order. Rev. Mr. Swayne, Pastor of St. Alban's Church, officiated. The deceased had lived his life time here, being a son of the late Joshua Booth, and he succeeded his father in the woollen mills, where his life's work was spent. He was a very highly respected citizen and considered one of the most honorable of men. He was in his eighty-first year. The remaining members of the family, besides the widow, are two daughters, Mrs. Sheppard, Chicago, and Mrs. Gardiner, Kingston, and one son, Nelson Booth, of Brooklyn, N.Y.; also two sisters, Mrs. Rockwell and Mrs. Hendry, Toronto. The funeral was largely attended, and there were many beautiful flowers, which spoke of sympathy. The remains were placed in Cataraqui vault to be interred in the family plot later. — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown spent Tuesday with their daughter, Mrs. Charlie Wallace. — Mr. Alexander McConnell, of Harrowsmith, called on friends last Monday. —Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hartman spent Sunday with friends in Camden East. —Ronald Minaker, Picton, has recently been added to the Royal Bank staff. Mr. McAllister, formerly of the staff, has been promoted to Bath.—James McQueen has been appointed caretaker of the Town Hall. —Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Fraser have returned from spending the past two months with their daughter, Mrs. Allen, Newburgh. They were accompanied by Mrs. Allen, who contemplates spending the remainder of the winter months with them.

HAYBURN

"December drops no weak, relenting tear,
By our fond summer sympathies engrained,
Nor from the perfect circle of the year
Can even winter's crystal gems be spared."

So chants the poet, and after the storms of last week, and the accompanying cold weather, we feel inclined to believe him.—The young people of this vicinity have enjoyed the bright, moonlight nights and glaze ice and indulged in a couple of skating parties.—Misses Doris Rikley and Beryl Wilson spent Friday in Napanee, where two young ladies are very busily engaged training the children for the Christmas concert. — Miss Ruth Lapum Saturday at Mr. W. Brooks'.—Mr. W. Hart was renewing acquaintances in Napanee and Bath last week. Mr. Hart has installed a new radio in his home.—Mr. Borden Hart, of Toronto, Alta., is with his parents for the winter.—Mr. and Mrs. R. Jas. Dickson were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Ens VanDyck's, one day last week.—Mr. Harold Magee paid a flying visit to Newburgh recently.—Have you seen any of the concert that the Hayburn Young People are giving at Sillsville, on Dec. 31st? Two amusing plays, "Jumbo Jum", a side-splitting comedy, and "Do Your Worst", which as the name implies, is very very quintessence of nonsense. Then there's to be something new and different, a pantomime performance, besides music, readings and a watchnight service. If you want a real wood—Miss Edna Wilson you had better come.—Mr. Albert Magee was in Napanee on Monday. —Mr. Earl Judd, of Napinka, Man., is still in our midst. — Mrs. John Dickson and son, Kenneth, were in town on Saturday. Mr. Ray Dickson, of the Standard Bank, accompanied them home to spend the week end.

LENS

Who said Lens was dead? Everything is booming in this little burg.—We are having splendid winter weather with very good sleighing.—Everyone is busy getting up their supply of wood.—Miss Edna Wilson and Mr. George Hyland spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Lyman.—Our Christmas concert will be held on the 23rd, in the school house. Admission 20c. A splendid programme is being prepared including the "Hit and Miss" Orchestra, accompanied by dancing. What might have resulted in a serious fire occurred at the home of Warren Hawley. His baby awoke in the night, they found the room filled with smoke, but upon investigation, it was found to be a smouldering which had been left on a chair in front of the stove to be burned, perhaps from a spark.—Picking food is the order of the day.—Mr. George McLaren made a flying trip to Napanee on Thursday last. — Mrs. Alex. Oblenan and granddaughter, Miss Whalen, visited in Enterprise on Thursday.—A baby girl (Rosaleen Marie), has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hannah.—Mr. George Reid has treated himself to a new radio.—Miss Esther MacLaren and Mr. Clarence Hannah spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Freda Fingland.—Mr. Arthur Keech called at Mr. Alex. Oblenan's Wednesday evening.—Miss Ella McDonald, of Winchester, has been visiting in this neighborhood for a couple of weeks.—Mr. George Fingland was a recent caller at Mr. Levi Bonter's.—Mr. Stanley Jackson, of Enterprise, called at Mr. Nathan Wagar's, on Saturday evening.—Mr. John H. Wilson spent Friday evening at Croydon. —Mr. Hugh Fingland called at Mr. Will Jacks', Enterprise, on Saturday evening.—Quite a number from here attended the kitchen shower for Wellington Chandler, which was held in the Community Hall, Enterprise, and grand music was rendered by the "Hit and Miss" Orchestra. All enjoyed a good time.

We are now showing French Ivory for Christmas. A beautiful Mirror, large size, with long handle, is wonderful value at $4.50 and $5.00. Clocks are priced at $4.00 and $5.00. Brushes at considerably less than last year. No trouble to show you our complete stock. Wallace's, Napanee's Leading Drug Store.

Women and Compromise.
Women do not readily compromise; what they think and what they want, they think and want with crystalline sharpness. In the home they seem to compromise, but that is not so; they give in. And when they have given in they return to the charge, give in again if they must, and go again, and eventually get what they want from a man who has grown sick of the subject.—W. L. George, in Harper's Magazine.

Dazzling Flag.
The Grand Union flag, raised at Cambridge, in 1776, was the first used by the American army that had the 13 alternate red and white stripes, the number symbolic of the 13 colonies. Many flags were proposed during the Revolution and the early days of the republic. One of these designed by Thomas Paine, was composed of all the colors of the rainbow, symbolising peace.

His Grievance.
My small son was being dressed by his grandmother and after she had spoken to him several times about twisting around so much, she jerked him closer to her and said rather crossly: "If you want me to dress you, stand still." He said in a grieved tone: "Why, grandmother, you button me like you didn't know me."—Chicago Tribune.

Knowledge Not Enough.
Those who, in the confidence of superior capacities or attainments, neglect the common maxims of life, should be reminded that nothing will supply the want of prudence; but that negligence and irregularity, long continued, will make knowledge useless, wit ridiculous, and genius contemptible.—Johnson.

Charm.
Many people regard "charm" as a gift of the gods, given to some and denied to others, like all other natural gifts. But "charm" is a "gift" that walked along slowly. Junior was in a great hurry to get home, so, running some distance ahead, he turned around and yelled, "Come on, grandpa" put a little more pep in your legs."

Change of Nationality.
Little Virginia is five years old and likes to watch her mother cook. She ran in from play very hungry and see ing a Dutch apple pie being taken from the oven exclaimed: "Oh, mother, how good you are to make us a bald-headed pie!"

Genius.
Genius is supposed to be a power of producing excellences which are out of reach of the rules of art; a power which no precepts can teach and which no industry can acquire.—Sir Joshua Reynolds.

On the Wrong Scent.
Half the world is on the wrong scent in the pursuit of happiness. They think it consists in having and getting, and in being served by others. It consists in giving and in serving others.—Drummond.

Zeb in Hard Luck.
"Wealth don't bring happiness," said Uncle Eben. "Zeb Cotton saved up fo' dollars an' bought hisse'f a pa'r o' shoes. De shoes pinched his feet an' now he's too proud to go barfooted."

Universal Duty.
Each of us is bound to make the little circle in which he lives better and happier; each of us is bound to see that out of that small circle the widest good may flow.—Dean Stanley.

Waterproof Fan.
Among the many varieties of fans in use among the Japanese is one made of waterproof paper which can be dipped in water, and creates great coolness by evaporation.

Philosophy of Riches.
He that is proud of riches is a fool. For if he be exalted above his neighbors because he hath more gold, how much inferior is he to a gold mine!—Jeremy Taylor.

Diplomacy.
The time to buy a used car is just before you move, so people in the new neighborhood will think you were the one who used it.—Kansas City Star.

Good Advice.
After a man reaches forty he should forget how old he is, and up to the time he is forty he should forget how young he is.—Through the Meshes.

WHAT DID YOU GIVE LAST CHRISTMAS? Toys for the kiddies—most of them broken by now. "Something useful" for the grown-ups—now worn out or forgotten. Cash to your employees—appreciated but soon spent. Other presents—hurriedly bought and perhaps ill-chosen. Are they remembered now?

Suppose this year you give them each a Bank Book containing an initial deposit, and urge them to add to it regularly. Could anything be more suitable?

Big Meat Eaters.
Why does man become a cannibal? Mr. W. D. M. Bell, a contributor to Country Life, thinks that the cause is constant craving for meat in a land where mostly grain abounds. He tells some interesting things about the extraordinary diet of the natives of the Bahr Asak in Africa.

"When they inhabit a stockless area," he says, "they go for months without flesh, except of course for an occasional rat, mongoose, or bird. In those circumstances the craving for meat naturally becomes acute, and, in my opinion, is the cause of cannibalism.

"When the people suddenly have almost unlimited meat, as they do have when they kill an elephant or a hippopotamus, they simply gorge themselves. A man will eat from fifteen to twenty pounds in twenty-four hours. All sick lions are will eat and doze and eat again. As a result his skin turns a peculiar dull color, and his eyes become yellow. On the third day he has complete recovered his natural appearance, and is again full of energy. In a short time he wants his grain food again, and if he has the choice, will eat a large portion of grain to a small portion of meat.

"If, as with the elephant, there is much fat with the meat, the natives are likely to become extremely fit on that diet. For example, for sixty-three days of consecutive marching a kilangozi, or head porter, of mine who was of slight build carried his mat, his blanket, fifteen pounds of rations, and a tusk that weighed one hundred and forty-eight pounds. The shortest day was five hours, and some days were very long indeed. For rations throughout the march he had two pounds of native grain every day and as much meat and elephant fat as he cared for. His physical condition was magnificent throughout."

A Museum of Voices.
Languages and dialects, ranging from the talk of the Georgia plantation negro to the dialect spoken on the remotest island of the South Seas, and including the words of the world's most famous men, will soon be preserved in the museum of voices soon to be opened in Berlin, in connection with the phonetic department of the National Library. The collection, which is already started, is the work of Prof. Wilhelm Doegen, phonetic expert. The first phonographic records include all the known dialects of the English language, and others in different tongues are to be added. Gen. von Hindenburg and Sir Rabindranath Tagore have registered their voices. English dialects are reproduced through the quotation of the same verse in the Bible. The records are of copper, bearing an engraved likeness of the speaker, and his autograph. Prof. Doegen estimates that the records will last 10,000 years.

Sleep by Compass.
A European doctor, who recently died at the age of 109, attributes his longevity to his method of sleeping. He says: "When you go to bed always take a compass with you and with the aid of the compass place your bed in such a position that your head points directly north and your feet due south. Sleep soundly in a horizontal position and you will live long."

Your Christmas Gift is at Hooper's Drug Store.

ST. ANDREW'S XMAS TREE AND ENTERTAINMENT

On Monday evening St. Andrew's Sunday School held their annual Christmas Tree and entertainment. A supper was held in the school room for the children at 6 o'clock. Then at 7.30 the programme was given by the children for the entertainment of themselves and the elders who had gathered in goodly numbers. Songs, dialogues, choruses and recitations were given by the children. Then several little playlets, followed by the distribution of gifts from the Christmas tree. It was like all other affairs of this kind, the child was supreme. The whole evening centred around him and naturally it was eminently successful, as even the grown-ups were not too staid nor dignified to be one with the children in their entertainment and pleasure.

WEDDING BELLS

Spearing—Shetler

A pretty event occurred on the evening of December 18th, at seven o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Spearing, Bath, when their daughter, Ethel Alberta, and Donald Clifton Shetler, only son of Mr. Matthew Shetler, Bath, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. Mr. Swayne, Rector of St. John's, Bath, officiating. Only the immediate relatives were present.

The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Swayne, and was given in marriage beneath an arch of evergreen and Christmas decoration. She was beautiful in a bolero dress of gold chiffon velvet with guimpe of quimper blue cut velvet, blonde satin shoes and hose to match. Her only ornament was a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. Her sister, Miss Lauretta, was bridesmaid, and wore a dress of brown satin with sand trimmings, blonde satin shoes and hose to match, also the groom's gift, a silver bracelet. Mr. Clare Casement, of Belleville, was best man, and was given gold cuff links.

Dinner was served, after which the bridal couple left amid a shower of good wishes and confetti for Napanee, taking the one o'clock train for Ohio, where they will spend a month with friends. The bride travelled in a cinnabar crepe tailored dress, long coat trimmed with fur and large hat to match. They carry the wishes of many with them on their trip and their lifetime voyage.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Shetler will reside at Bath.

An immense supply of Delicious Laura Secord Candy will arrive three days before Christmas, in 1, 2, 4 and 5-lb. packages. 60c. a lb., at Wallace's, Napanee Agents.

PHYSICIAN IS CALLED TO REST

Dr. Ralph Waldron Huffman, well known physician and surgeon, who came here from Minnesota three years ago for the benefit of his health, passed into rest Dec. 10th, 1926, at his home on Skillman Lane. He had long been a sufferer and prior to coming West had undergone several serious operations at the great institution of the Drs. Mayo at Rochester, Minn. He improved somewhat after coming here and began the practice of his profession, but became worse and had to give it up, and since that time has lived quietly at his home, carefully nursed by his devoted wife and daughter.

Dr. Huffman, who by the way, has no other relatives here except his widow and daughter, Maxine, was a splendid gentleman and a skilled physician and surgeon, and he has made many warm friends since coming to this city. He was a native of Bath, Ontario, and was aged 53 years. Besides his widow and daughter, he is survived by his father, Mr. G. B. Huffman, and a brother, Mr. A. C. Huffman, of Bath, Ontario, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Creighton, Napanee, Ont., and Mrs. R. H. Hutchinson, Sudbury, Ont. He was a member of a prominent family, a man of education and culture, and was held in high regard by neighbors, friends and the members of the medical fraternity. His death in his new home is a sad one, and the widow and the daughter will be sustained by the genuine sympathy of their friends. He was a member of the A. F. & A. M. Order.

The funeral was held on Monday, the 13th inst., and Petaluma Post, No. 28, American Legion, paid a splendid tribute. Dr. Huffman, a world war veteran in the Canadian army, had never affiliated with the Legion owing to ill health, but the Post sent a guard of honor to escort the funeral to Cypress Hill Memorial Park, and at the grave the funeral ritual of the Legion was performed by Commander Dr. G. E. Hubbell, with Dr. L. J. Snow acting as Chaplain. Prof. A. Putz sounded "Taps", and the firing squad fired the usual salute over the newly made grave.—Petaluma (Cal.) Argus.

"A TALE OF TWO COAL BINS"

At a test made on the same furnace in the same home the result was as follows:

In this test two good standard furnaces of the same size and make were used in a residence in Toronto. Thermostatic control was installed in the house, which automatically regulated the draughts of each furnace the same. This control kept the house throughout the test at an even temperature of 70 degrees by merely opening or closing the draughts as was required. In this way both furnaces were working as nearly as possible under identical conditions.

The temperature of the actual fire of each furnace was taken about every hour throughout the day by means of an optical pyrometer, so that comparative temperatures might be obtained.

All coal going into each furnace was weighed and all ash removed was weighed.

The test was run for nine days, during which time one furnace was fired exclusively with Egg Coal and the other furnace alternately with Egg and Buckwheat in 50-50 proportions.

This test showed how practice and theory could work well together, for during the nine days only 66⅔ as much of the mixture was burned as straight Egg Coal. The temperature of the furnace burning Buckwheat and Egg Coal remained practically constant between firings, while the temperature of the furnace burning the Egg Coal only fluctuated at times 650 degrees throughout the day. This meant that at times say 400 degrees of heat was being wasted by going up the chimney, but with the Buckwheat and Egg mixture an even and efficient fire was kept up at all times.

It was also found that there was only about one-half the ash to be handled in the mixture as there was in the Egg Coal.

If we take a practical example of an average customer using say nine tons of coal per year it is seen that by burning the mixture he will use only 66⅔ of nine tons, or six tons of coal. Using Toronto retail prices at the time this test was made, a saving of 45% can be shown to the fortunate consumer whom we picked for an example. And when we say 45% we are being conservative at that to what our actual test figures showed.

To be still more conservative and to compensate for burning fuel under ordinary and not test conditions, we claim and advertise a saving of 25% if D., L. &W. Buckwheat and D., L. & W. Egg Coal are burned in equal proportions.

In summarizing the benefits shown by our test it is seen that when Buckwheat is burned with Egg Coal:

First. There is at the very minimum figure a 25% saving in the Consumer's fuel bill.

Second. There is an efficient and uniform fire in the furnace.

Third. There is only 50% of the ash to be handled.

We have further reports absolutely authentic if you care to see them, so why not save the 25%. This means over $4.00 saving to you. What's your answer?

Buy some Pea or Buckwheat. At any rate give us a call. Same old number, 'Phone 92.

VOTE FOR

W. J. JEWELL,

FOR COUNCILLOR

FOR 1927

SHOULD CENTRE STREET BE PAVED?

I think the electors of Napanee should know my attitude toward the paving of Centre Street.

This matter was before the Council last Fall, and I contended that this street should not be paved until an agreement was made with the County Council as to the proportion of the cost the County would pay towards the building of this connecting link in the County Roads system.

If we can make such an arrangement with the County, and I can see no reason why it should not be possible and equitable for both Town and County, then I say go ahead with the paving of Centre Street.

The electors of Centre Street should hold up both hands to this proposition, as they will get the advantage of this great improvement to their property at a considerable less cost than that paid by the residents of John and East Streets.

The people of Napanee have given me their liberal support in six Municipal elections, and I shall appreciate your vote and influence next Monday.

Yours sincerely,

F. S. BOYES,

Candidate for Reeve of Napanee. 53a

PUBLIC MEETING

The Town Hall was comfortably filled on Monday night, and unusual enthusiasm prevailed. The nominations closed at 8.30, and a public meeting was held to give those nominated an opportunity to address the electors. Mr. W. A. Grange, Town Clerk, acted as Chairman.

J. M. Simpson, Chairman of Finance, was the first speaker. He gave a resume of the financial standing of the town, and explained that the debenture debt of $327,600 would partly take care of itself through revenue from the Utilities Commission and other sources. Although this year's Council, he said, had spent considerable in the way of improvements to the town, its deficit was less than that of last year's Council. The Council of last year had a deficit of $1866.14, while that of this year was $506.89. He referred to the efficiency of the Fire Department by the addition of the new motor truck; also the reduced rate of insurance. He had been nominated for Reeve and Councillor, but would decide later what office he would be a candidate for.

Mayor Ming next addressed the meeting, intimating that this would be the last time he would stand on the platform for municipal honors. He had been before the electors for the past thirty years, and on two occasions only had he been beaten. He thanked the electors for the high honor they conferred upon him by choosing him as Mayor by acclamation for two years.

E. J. Roy, nominee for Mayor, was next called upon. Mr. Roy gave his reasons for the manner in which the contract was placed for paving John street. He had been opposed to any other method than an engineer's survey, and the work then let by tender. If elected Mayor his slogan was for a better lighted Main street and further improvements to Springside Park, making it a resort not only for tourists, but also for the people of our own town.

Reeve Boyes, in addressing the meeting, said he had only been in the reeveship four months, and he liked it so well he thought he would continue on the job if the people had confidence in his ability to hold it. Quite a lot of time was taken up in conducting the affairs of the town, but he thought the time was well spent.

Geo. J. Tustin, nominee for Reeve, returned thanks for his nomination. He had previous experience in the Council, had time to devote to the town's interests, and if the electors thought he had the ability, it would be his pleasure to again serve them.

H. J. Fitzpatrick, Chairman of Poor and Sanitary, said the poor of the town had been well looked after as far as he knew. He would again become a candidate for Councillor, and would oppose any proposition brought up that in his opinion, was not in the best interests of the people, if he was returned to the Council for 1927.

Coun. MacGregor, Chairman of Streets, was glad to see such a splendid slate, and he hoped everybody nominated would run and make it an interesting election. Mr. MacGregor gave a detailed account of the amount of work done on the streets this year—repairing, rebuilding, oiling, etc. This required quite an outlay of money, but if you want good streets and a nice town to live in, you have to spend money, he said. He had served in the Council for a number of years, for two years he occupied the Mayor's chair, thanked the people for their appreciation, and was willing further to serve them on the Council Board.

Messrs. Wm. Howitt, F. A. Perry, T. H. Huffman, W. H. Dunbar, C. H. Lapum, Arthur S. Kimmerly and W. G. Paul also addressed the meeting.

"IN THE PUBLIC EYE"
By Dr. John Lewis, P.O.

IF your child in school is not progressing properly with his studies the chances are that his eyes should be examined for possible eye defects that can be remedied by wearing glasses. If you no longer enjoy reading your daily paper and your distance sense is also slightly impaired, you should have our competent optometrist examine into the cause and prescribe the glasses that will restore your vision.

JANUARY ROD AND GUN

An announcement of importance and of interest to the sporting and general public is contained in the January, 1927, issue of Rod and Gun to the effect that the well known sporting magazine has been accepted as the official organ of the Canadian Silver Fox breeding industry. With the January issue, the magazine has become Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News and it is announced that each month, the magazine will carry in addition to its regular sporting and outdoor features, a full section of sixteen pages, devoted to the interests of the silver fox and fur breeding industry.

The change is made as a result of the rapid growth of the Canadian Silver Fox Breeders' Association and a desire of the 3,500 members to have an official organ to assist them.

The first Silver Fox section is a very promising one. The special editor, J. R. Birrs of Summerside, has presented a good selection of fox news and photographs and the account of the fox exhibits at the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, is particularly good.

The regular magazine has a very good table of contents for January with stories and articles on hunting, fishing, trapping and kennel and outdoor subjects.

Rod and Gun and Canadian Silver Fox News is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

HOW MANY MILES HAS THIS CAR RUN?

The problem is to find the sum total of the figures, which, when added together, represent the total number of miles the automobile has run. Every figure is complete and the dragnet is entirely free from tricks and illusions, but like a good many other things, it is not as easy as it looks. The figures range from two to nine, each standing alone, thus two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight and nine. There are no ones or ciphers in the chart. The tops of the axes are curved and open, while the bottom of the three in front is a trick which requires both patience and skill. This is one of the most attractive figure puzzles that has ever been produced, and if you will be worth while to solve it even though no prizes were offered. In the event that no one obtains the exact answer, the prizes will be awarded for the nearest correct solution. Accuracy and patience are the main factors for arriving at the correct or nearest correct option. Those who display the most of the picture except those which form the automobile and shadow underneath. No part of the background is made of figures. There is no trick in this puzzle. Every figure can be plainly seen.

We wish to have it clearly understood that there are no figures in any of the prizes in this puzzle. Every figure can be plainly seen.

Remember, each figure must be added separately. For example: 3587 is to be counted as 3 plus 5 plus 8 plus 7 plus 9 plus 2 plus 5, total 35, and it is NOT Three Hundred and Seventy-Nine Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty-Five. In other words, simply add them as you would if each figure stood one above the other in a single column.

A Guarantee of Fair and Impartial Treatment

To make sure that no one knew the exact or correct answer to the problem, or how many miles this car has run, Hon. Sir William Hearst, ex-Premier of Ontario, and Hon. E. C. Drury, ex-Premier of Ontario, kindly consented to erase one or more figures from the puzzle chart. This was done at different times, consequently, no one knows just what answers were taken out. Notes of these figures were made by Sir William Hearst and Hon. Mr. Drury, sealed and placed in a safety deposit box, where they will remain until after the close of the contest. Bear in mind that the Puzzle Contest Department knew the correct answer before the judges changed some of the figures. After the contest is over, the judges will inform the Contest Department just what figures they erased. These numbers will be subtracted from the original correct answer, thus giving the present correct answer.

In addition to Sir Wm. Hearst and Hon. E. C. Drury, there are three other judges who will examine all contest records and award the prizes. Their decision on the awarding of any prizes will be final. These judges are: E. S. Archibald, B.A., B.S.A., Director Dominion Experimental Farms, Ottawa; W. T. Macoun, Dominion Horticulturist, Ottawa, and J. C. Smith, Peterboro, Ont., public accountant.

RULES GOVERNING THE CONTEST

This contest is open to everyone interested in farming and the dairy industry, except

(a) Employees, their immediate families and anyone connected with Farm and Dairy and its companion papers, The Canadian Horticulturist, The Canadian Florist and The Beekeeper.

(b) Prize winners in our last contest who won more than $100 or who have won a main prize in any similar contest.

(c) Anyone living in towns where the population exceeds 5,000.

2. Additional puzzle charts, on a good grade of paper, and copies of Farm and Dairy may be obtained by writing to the Contest Department, Farm and Dairy. They will be mailed free of charge.

3. Every figure in this picture is complete, and the drawing is entirely free from tricks and illusions. If any contestant is in doubt, however, about a figure the Contest Department will be glad to give a ruling on it. Put a circle around the figure and send the marked chart with your letter.

4. When you have solved the puzzle, put your answer on the coupon and remittance blank. Fill it out carefully and send not less than $1.00 as an entrance fee to the contest, and also as a three-year subscription to Farm and Dairy. $1.50 entitles you to a five-year subscription. Renewal subscriptions count the same as new and will be extended from the day the present subscription expires. A subscription for more than $1.50 will not be accepted. Every dollar sent in must represent your own three dollar subscription or one collected from a neighbor's subscription or one collected on account of the subscription.

5. Be sure the full name and address of each person is sent direct to the Contest Department of Farm and Dairy. Contestants, because of the large prize lists, are not entitled to any premiums, nor can agents or postmasters deduct a commission.

6. The contest will close February 28, but send in your solution as soon as possible, as there are special prizes for early solution-seekers. For further details see "Special Prizes."

7. Everyone has an equal opportunity. You can win the First Prize and $60 in cash on a one dollar subscription, but note that the value of the first six prizes increases if you send in more money (see Prize List). Aim to win the most money value of the Grand Prize. Either new or renewal subscriptions collected from friends or neighbors are accepted and the amount will be applied to your answer. At the amazingly low cost of $1.50 for three years, you can easily persuade a friend or neighbor to subscribe to Farm and Dairy. New readers may enter the contest providing they comply with the rules.

8. You can submit as many answers as you like, providing each answer is accompanied by a $1.50 subscription, but if one of your answers is correct the money sent in with your others answers will not increase the value of prizes claimed in gentle rebuke.

9. Readers who give their subscription to some other contestant and later on decide to send in an answer themselves, may do so, providing they write on the coupon the name of the person they paid their subscription to, also the amount paid. No further payment is necessary.

10. Contestants should remit by postal note, bank, postal or express money order. These should be made payable to Farm and Dairy.

11. Only one person in any household can win a regular prize. No solution can be changed after it is once registered.

12. In case of a tie for any prize, a second puzzle will be presented, which will be as practicable and as solvable as the first. Only those tied for a prize will be permitted to solve puzzle No. 2. Should two or more persons be tied for a prize, that prize and as many prizes following it above are persons tied, will be reserved for them before any prizes will be awarded for less correct solutions.

13. The Contest Department of Farm and Dairy reserves the right to alter the rules and regulations for the protection of contestants or Farm and Dairy. Doubtful subscriptions and disputable any competitors whom they consider undesirable, and finally decide all questions which may arise. Competitors are assured of impartial treatment that has the same fair and impartial treatment that has marked Farm and Dairy's contests in the past.

HON. E. C. DRURY
Former Premier of Ontario, who erased one or more figures from the chart.

Ask Yourself These Questions

Why aren't my chances of winning a Chrysler Sedan, Chevrolet Touring, or a Ford Touring car as good as any person's? Can I add these figures as carefully as my neighbor? Will I win one of the $145.00 cash offers? Why not with the first five prizes? Can I make a start to-night? If so, why not?

Special Prizes in January

While the contest will not close until February 28th, we have decided to offer five special prizes to the contestants who send in the first five correct or nearest correct solutions during January. The prizes will be: 1st prize, $8.00; 2nd prize, $7.00; 3rd prize, $6.00; 4th prize, $3.00; 5th prize, $2.00.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Mary has a little frock,
It reaches to her knees,
The "lamb" has gone—but in its place
Two "calves" are left to freeze.

Recognized as a leading specific for the destruction of worms, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has proved a boon to sufferingchildren everywhere. It seldom fails.

Only the uninformed endure the agony of corns. The knowing ones apply Holloway's Corn Remover and get relief.

For Scalds or Burns.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a standard remedy for the prompt treatment of scalds and burns. Its healing power quickly soothes the pain and aids a speedy recovery from the injury. It is also an excellent remedy for all manner of cuts, bruises, and sprains, as well as for relieving the pains arising from inflammation of various kinds.

A bottle in the house and stable eases many a doctor's and veterinary's fee.

A shopkeeper was giving away toy balloons. One little fellow asked if he might have two.

"Sorry," said the shopkeeper, "but we give only one balloon to each boy. Have you got a brother at home?"

"No," he replied, "but my little sister has!"

It Bids Pain Begone.—When neuralgia racks the nerves or lumbago cripples the back is the time to test the virtues of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Well rubbed in it will still the pain and produce a sensation of ease and rest. A trial of it will establish faith in it.

The haughty Englishman was endeavouring to impress the importance of his family upon his guide in the Scottish Highlands.

"My ancestors," he exclaimed, with a theatrical gesture, "have had the right to bear arms for the last 300 years."

"Hoot, mon," cried the Scot, "my ancestors have had the right to bare legs for the last 2,000 years."

The Terror of Asthma comes like a thief in the night with its dreadful throttling, robbing its victim of breath. It seems beyond the power of human aid to relieve until one trial is made of that remarkable preparation, Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Then relief comes with a rush. Life becomes worth living, and, if the remedy be used persistently, the disease be put permanently to rout. Take no substitute.

Policeman—"What is your business?"

Prisoner—"I am a locksmith."

Policeman—"Well, what were you doing in that gambling house we just raided?"

Prisoner—"I was making a bolt for the door just as you came in!"

The old gentleman's wife was getting into a carriage and he was negligently assisting her.

"You are not so gallant, John, as when you were a boy!" she exclaimed in gentle rebuke.

"And you are not so buoyant as when you were a gal, my dear," was his ready response.

Miller's Worm Powders are a prompt relief from the attacks of worms in children. They are powerful in their action and, while leaving nothing to be desired as a worm expellant, have an invigorating effect upon the youthful system, remedying fever, billiousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, and other ailments that follow disorders caused by worms in the stomach and bowels.

"I don't know what I'm ever going to make of that son of mine," complained the self-made business man.

"Maybe your son hasn't found himself yet," said a friend. "Isn't he gifted in any way?"

"Gifted! I should say he is! He ain't got a thing that wasn't given to him."

The novelist's small boy had just been brought to judgment for telling a lie. His sobs having died away, he sat for a time in silent thought.

"Dad," said he, "how long will it be before I stop gettin' licked for tellin' lies, an' begin to get paid for 'em like you do?"

"You will never come to any good," roared the father. "I go on threshing at you, but it doesn't make any difference. I really don't know what you'll be when you grow up."

"An orphan, I hope," muttered the unfortunate boy.

Asthma Can Be Cured. Its suffering is as needless as it is terrible to endure. After its many years of research Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, Comfort of body and peace of mind return with its use and nights of sound sleep come back for good. Ask your druggist; he can supply you.

A gentleman whose house was under repair went out one day to see how the work progressed, and, observing a quantity of nails lying about, he said to the carpenter, "Why don't you take care of those nails? They'll certainly be lost." "No," replied the carpenter, "you'll find them all in the bill!"

The Friend of All Sufferers.—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a valuable remedy to all those who suffer pain. It holds out hope to everyone and realizes it by stilling suffering every time. It is a liniment that has the blessing of half a continent. It is on sale everywhere, and can be found wherever enquired for.

Benson—"I lost my silk umbrella yesterday at the club."

Townes—"Too bad! But you'll get it back, won't you? Aren't your initials on it?"

Benson—"Well, come to think of it, there are some initials on it, but they aren't mine."

"Brainy" Lizard Discovered.—Colorado has made an interesting "find." A mass of skeletonised bones was unearthed some time ago from a deep pit, and since then archaeologists and experts in natural history have been occupied in piecing the bones together. The result is a singular formation. It is 14 feet high at the shoulder with a giraffelike neck stretching 20 feet into the air and a total length from the front of the head to the tip of the tail of more than 50 feet. The lizard had a brain an inch in diameter.

Perfume From Orange Buds.—The fruit buds of the bitter orange also give an essential oil known as essence de petit grain; and from the white flowers is extracted a delightful perfume called essence de Neroli. That is prepared chiefly at Nice, Cannes and Grasse, in the south of France. All the flowers of a fine tree will yield only a single ounce of Neroli oil. The peel also yields an aromatic principle that the ancient Arab physicians esteemed highly as a tonic; it is still considered a useful stomachic.

Why He Stopped Singing.—George was improvising both words and music of the songs he was singing. His mother, being highly entertained by his efforts, kept urging him to sing more of his songs. At last he refused to sing another word. "Why won't you sing any more?" his mother asked. She was somewhat startled when he replied: "Can't, mother. Daddy and I's joined the union."

Had Picked Him Out.—Little daughter came home from school one day during her first term and announced with the utmost assurance that Lester was her beau. It was rather a shock to the family, but the mother said: "How do you know he is? Did he tell you so?" And much to her relief Louise replied: "No, he doesn't know it; I just chose him."

Earthquakes.—In some countries particular forms of cloud are alleged to forebode earthquakes, and there is a widespread belief that earthquake shocks produce mist, fog and rain. The idea that barometric fluctuations are connected with earthquakes rests upon a much more substantial foundation.

Not Exactly Tired, But—Robert came home taking a walk with his father and after walking out into the country for two miles the small lad was tired. When they were nearing home father asked Robert if he was tired. The boy answered: "No, daddy, but I'm glad we isn't just startin' out."

A Straight Tip.—"I have something I have to ask you—er—something —er—very—close to my heart, and—er—er—" "I think I can guess what it is!" "Ah, you have divined! You know—you —er—" "Yes, you want to ask me where I put your hat when you came in!"

Healthful Laughter.—Laughter is a most healthful exertion; it is one of the greatest helps to digestion with which I am acquainted; and the custom prevalent among our forefathers of exciting it at table by jesters and buffoons, was founded on true medical principles.—Hufeland.

Attorney Gained Point.—A St. Louis jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff, was dismissed and adjourned to a near-by cafe. The defendant's attorney went along. An hour later the jury was back in court wishing to give a new decision.

Knighthood in Flower.—Sir George Rose, the celebrated English punster, observing an acquaintance giving an imitation of his gait, remarked: "You have the stalk without the rose."—Boston Transcript.

But the Crop Is Better.—He who sows his wild oats will soon reap, for her fruits mature quickly. He who sows wisdom grain may be a long time getting to the harvest. Her fruits do not mature so rapidly.

Art of Giving and Taking.—In unity there is strength—but to co-operate successfully men must give and take. The art of getting along with others is to concede a point for the sake of harmony.

The Irish of It.—O'Brien (at phone)—What? Ye can't hear what Oi'm sayin'? Well, then, repeat what ye didn't hear an' Oi'll tell it t'ye again.—Boston Transcript.

Really Not Worth It.—There is one way to keep people from talking about you. It is to say nothing, do nothing and be nothing. But it certainly isn't worth while.

Philadelphia's Early Day.—Up to 1720 hunting partridges, doves and pigeons was common in the streets of Philadelphia. Then a law was passed against the practice.

Heard in a Restaurant.—"Here, waiter, ask the orchestra to play the Toreador song while I eat this steak; I like to feel like a bull-fighter."

Conjuring at Home.—From a novel—"She handed him an empty envelope, from which he extracted a letter."

Lots of Willies.—Where there's a will there is generally a lot of things to get out of the way.

No man or woman should hobble painfully about because of corns when so certain a relief is at hand as Holloway's Corn Remover.

A scientist says that four hours' sleep a day is enough for anybody. Certainly! One can take the rest at night.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our little Jean, only daughter and little twin of Mr. and Mrs. James Burgess, Enterprise, who died on January 1st, 1926.

No stain was on her little soul,
Sin had not entered there;
And innocence slept sweetly on
That pale white brow so fair.
She was too pure for this cold earth,
Too beautiful to stay;
So God's holy angels bore
Our darling Jean away.

Sadly missed by Father, Mother and little Brothers. 53a

IN MEMORIAM.

In ever loving memory of our darling Zellah, wife of R. L. McAfee, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Groome, who died Dec. 30th, 1912.

With the passing years
Fond memory clings.

FOR SALE

A farm of exceptional reputation, being the old homestead farm of the late Mr. Zina Hunt, and situate in the Township of South Fredericksburgh, known to be perhaps the choicest agricultural district in this or the surrounding countries. This farm is described in the deed as 155 acres, but a survey of measurement placed the acreage at 170. All work land of a very choice quality; exceptionally well drained, well watered and attractively laid out. Situate on this farm is a very fine brick residence with hardwood floors throughout, excellent cellar with perfect drainage and cement bottom, and a good furnace; also a good tenant house, good barns and stables, drive house, pig pen and hen house; also a windmill for watering stock and a new silo. Farm exceptionally clean and totally free of barrick or wild mustard. In addition to the consumptions of a large family, this farm will give a return for the present season of considerably over $4000.00. The farm is situate within ½ mile of the Hamburg Road, which is becoming almost equal in perfection to the Napanee and Kingston Highway, giving a splendid road to the lake, which is about 2 miles distant, and to the Lake Shore Road leading to Kingston, and Glenora, and also within seven miles of Napanee. This farm is extensively known throughout the district for its production of high grade seed grain, and the demand for that product has become about sufficient to consume the entire crop. This can be verified by a reference to the Agricultural Office at Napanee.

This farm is in excellent producing condition at present which can also be corroborated by a reference to the said Agricultural Office at Napanee, which office is exceptionally well in touch with this particular farm.

The farm is owned by the estate of the late W. G. Schell, whose recent death has caused it to be placed upon the market, and for the sake of quick sale will be sold on favourable terms.

For further particulars apply to T. B. GERMAN, Barrister, Napanee, Ont., or to the widow, MRS. W. G. SCHELL, on the premises. 53d

—The Christmas services in St. Mary Magdalene Church were most enjoyable to the large congregations present. The Church was tastefully decorated. The music was specially well rendered, and besides the old familiar hymns, included a fine anthem, in which the solo part was taken by Miss Hilda McGreer, and the beautiful selection from the "Messiah", "O Thou That Tellest", given by Miss Herrington. Much of the music was repeated on Sunday. The Vicar preached on Christmas and Rev. Principal McGreer on Sunday. The number of communicants was larger, and the offertory even more generous than last year.

—The services at St. Mark's, Desoronto, Christmas Day, passed off well. Two Celebrations of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and 10.30 a.m., when many made their Christmas communion. The decorations were in excellent taste, the music by the Organist and Choir good. The anthem, "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings", was well rendered by the Choir, and a tenor solo, "God So Loved the World" by Mr. C. J. Knight. Many present as well as absent, kindly remembered the Rector as in past years, and to them he tenders his warmest thanks. There is something irresistibly beautiful about Christmastide no matter what Bernard Shaw may say to the contrary. The only way to be really happy at such a time is to throw yourself heart and soul into the glorious spirit of it. Try it if you have not already done so. It never fails.

Asthma Can Be Cured. Its suffering is as needless as it is terrible to endure. After its many years of relief of the most stubborn cases no sufferer can doubt the perfect effectiveness of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Comfort of body and peace of mind return with its use and nights of sound sleep come back to good health. Ask your druggist; he can supply you.

"I don't know what I'm ever going to make of that son of mine," complained the self-made business man. "Maybe your son hasn't found himself yet," said a friend. "Isn't he gifted in any way?"

"Gifted? I should say he is! He ain't got a thing that wasn't given to him."

The pastor spoke very impressively from the text: "To Whom Shall We Go?" The hymns, the anthem, and solo sung by Miss McNeely, were all appreciated. —Much sympathy is expressed for the friends of Mrs. Benn, whose death occurred at Napanee on Monday, and especially to the aged mother, Mrs. Shorey, and sisters, Mrs. Scriver and the Misses Shorey.—Mr. J. W. Patterson spent Christmas in Napanee with his daughter, Mrs. Lapum.—Mr. North, of Deseronto, was with Mr. and Mrs. McKenester over the week-end.—Our sympathy goes out to Mr. H. WEDDING BELLS

Wootton—Shoemaker.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wootton, when their eldest daughter, Margaret Eleanor, was united in marriage to Clinton A. Shoemaker, B.S.A., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shoemaker, of Ottawa. The Rev. J. H. Coleman, M.A., performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker left for points East, and on their return will reside in Napanee.

Balcanquel—Fretts.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st, at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Balcanquel, Corbyville, the marriage was solemnized of their elder daughter, Cecilia Aileen, to Mr. Raymond C. Fretts, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fretts, Napanee.

The drawing room was daintily decorated with white crepe paper, tinsel and ferns, and the ceremony took place beneath an arch of white orchids and white tissue streamers, with three white wedding bells.

Immediately following the entrance of the officiating clergyman, Rev. E. Farnsworth, of Cannifton, and the groom, the bride entered with her father to the strains of wedding march played by Mrs. H. King, of Brockville. She wore a dainty dress of pale green crepe romaine, trimmed with cut velvet, pearl satin slippers and hose to match, while she wore the groom's gift, a string of pearls, and carried a beautiful bouquet of sunset roses and fern.

After congratulations and signing of the register, twenty-four guests sat down to dinner. The dining room was decorated in pink and white, while the bride's table was centred with the wedding cake, satin streamers and pretty candles.

Rev. Mr. Farnsworth proposed a toast to the bride and groom, and also to the bride and groom of thirty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fretts, who were married on December 21st, 1896.

Both grooms made fitting replies, and then followed other speeches. Worthy of mention was the fine address given by the bride's grandfather, Mr. James Balcanquel, 87 years of age.

After an evening's programme of instrumental music and dancing, the young married couple made their escape to the waiting car, and started motoring to Napanee, took the train for Montreal. The bride's travelling costume consisted of a dress of rose wool pierrot twill, silk hat and scarf to match, and fur coat.

On Christmas Eve about twenty invited guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fretts, to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fretts on their return from Montreal. The house was decorated with evergreens, bells, etc., and presented a very Christmassy appearance. Five tables of progressive euchre were played. Mr. Ross Allison being the highest scorer for the evening. A dainty supper was served and dancing followed. Mr. and Mrs. Fretts were the recipients of many beautiful gifts both at the wedding and reception. We wish them a bright and happy future.

The Hand of Fellowship

is extended to you. The business and professional interests of Napanee want you to grasp it. Feel the strength of its Sincerity and Eagerness to satisfy. Learn of its actions in moulding this—our town—into a greater and more enterprising community.

It's that hand of Fellowship, of Welcome, of Ambition and Determination which has done so much in contributing to the welfare of our community.

Just think of the civic development that has been ours—thanks to the loyalty and broadmindedness of our local commercial interests.

What motive prompted it? Certainly not conceit nor selfishness. Just one noble purpose was in back of it all—that of contributing to YOUR happiness, YOUR welfare!

Then—think of the Spirit that has built these many improvements. How unhesitatingly the business and professional men of this town have come forward with financial aid—often when they could least afford it. Yet, they did it with a generous heart and a cheerful smile. That's the spirit which has made Napanee so progressive.

All those interests ask in return is your CO-OPERATION in building an even BRIGHTER FUTURE for this community.
